PROCLAMATION

BY HIS EXCELLENCY LIEUTENANT GENERAL
SIR HENRY GEORGE WAKELYN SMITH.

Baronet, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honorable Military Order of the Bath, Colonel of the Second Battalion of the Rifle Brigade, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope in South Africa, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, and Ordinary and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c. &c. &c.

WHEREAS the Royal Charter for the better and more effectual Administration of Justice in this Colony, bearing date the 4th Day of May, 1832, ordains and directs, that it shall and may be lawful for the Governor for the time being of this Colony, by any Proclamation or Proclamations to be by him for that purpose issued, to apportion and divide the said Colony into two or more Districts, and to fix and ascertain the boundaries and limits of every such District, and such boundaries and limits, from time to time, to alter as occasion may require: Provided always, that such apportionment of the Colony into such Districts, as aforesaid, be made in such manner as to such Governor may appear to be best adapted for enabling the inhabitants of the Colony to resort with ease and convenience to the Circuit Courts to be therein established: And whereas by the said Charter, it is further granted, ordained, and appointed, that Courts, to be called "CIRCUIT COURTS" shall be holden twice at least in each year in each of the Districts into which the Colony may be so divided as aforesaid: and that each of the said Circuit Courts shall be holden by the Chief Justice, or by one of the Puisne Judges of the Supreme Court of this Colony, at such times, and at such one or more place or places within each of the said Districts, as the Governor shall, from time to time, direct and appoint:—In pursuance thereof, and by virtue of the Provisions in the said Charter contained I hereby order, direct, and appoint, that for the purpose of holding the next ensuing Circuit Courts, the Colony shall be divided into Ten Circuit Districts, namely:—

- 1st. The Division of Swellendam, including the Division of Caledon and District of Riversdale;
- 2d. The Division of George, including the District of Mossel Bay;
- 3d. The Divisions of Uitenhage and Port Elizabeth;
- 4th. The Divisions of Albany, including the District of Bathurst, of Victoria, including the District of Fort Peddie; of Fort Beaufort, including the District of Stockenstrom;
- 5th. The Division of Somerset;
- 6th. The Divisions of Cradock, and of Albert;
- 7th. The Division of Colesberg;
- 8th. The Division of Graaff-Reinet, including the District of Richmond;
- 9th. The Division of Beaufort;
- 10th. The Divisions of Worcester, including the District of Tulbagh, and of Clanwilliam.

And I further order, direct, and appoint, that a Circuit Court shall be holden on Monday, the 11th day of September next, at Swellendam, before one of the Judges of the Supreme and Circuit Courts of this Colony, for hearing and determining all Cases, Civil and Criminal, cognizable and triable by the said Circuit Courts, and for doing such other matters and things as, by Law, the said Judges are empowered to do, anything in my Proclamation of the 21st day of June 1848, to the contrary notwithstanding, and the said Judge shall from thence duly proceed to hold like Courts in the Chief Towns of the said other Districts hereinbefore mentioned, on such days as shall be hereafter publicly notified in that behalf.

And I strictly charge and command all Civil Commissioners, Clerks of the Peace, Deputy-Sheriffs, Field-Cornets, and other Officers, that they shall be aiding and assisting the said Courts as they shall answer the contrary at their peril.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

Given under the Public Seal of the Settlement at the Cape of Good Hope, this 2nd Day of August, 1848.

By His Excellency's Command,
(Signed) JOHN MONTAGU,
Secretary to Government.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.

Colonial Office, Cape of Good Hope
2d August 1848.

NOTICE is hereby given, in terms of the Proclamation of this date, that the Circuit Court will be holden at the following places and on the days hereinafter mentioned:—

At Swellendam, on Monday, the 11th of September next.
At George Town, on Monday, the 18th of September next.
At Uitenhage, on Wednesday, the 27th of September next.
At Graham's Town, on Thursday, the 5th of October next.
At Somerset, on Monday, the 16th of October next.
At Cradock, on Friday, the 20th of October next.
At Colesberg, on Friday, the 27th of October next.
At Graaff-Reinet, on Thursday, the 2d November next.
At Beaufort, on Thursday, the 9th November next.
At Worcester, on Friday, the 17th of November next.

And it is further notified, that in the event of the Judge being prevented, by any unforeseen cause of delay, from opening the Circuit Court at either of the Towns above mentioned, on the day fixed for that purpose, then, and in that case, such Circuit Court shall be opened on the day on which the Judge shall arrive in such Town.

By His Excellency's Command,
(Signed) JOHN MONTAGU,
Secretary to Government.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.

Colonial Office, Cape Town,
2d August, 1848.

WING to the period of the year at which the new Divisions recently created in, or annexed to, this Colony were formed, it has unavoidably happened that no Circuit Court can be holden in any of them during the ensuing Circuit.

The impediment arises out of the fact, that no Circuit Court can act without a lawful Jury, and that no lawful Jury can be impanelled in any of these new Divisions.

Under Ordinance No. 84, (the existing Jury law), the 1st of February in each year is the only day on which lists for Jury purposes can be legally affixed, prior to rectification by the Resident Magistrate; and, from want of time, no such lists have been affixed in any of the new Divisions, which leaves them without a Jury.

In announcing the cause which has led to the change in the Circuit Court arrangements, set forth in the Proclamation of this day's date, His Excellency the Governor directs it to be notified, that the necessary steps will be taken by the proper Officers to provide, in due time for the Circuit next after that which is shortly to commence, proper Jury lists for the several Divisions in which Circuit Courts are in future to be holden.

By Command of His Excellency the Governor,
(Signed) JOHN MONTAGU,
Secretary to Government.

PROCLAMATION

SIR HENRY GEORGE WAKELYN SMITH,

Baronet, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honorable Military Order of the Bath, Colonel of the Second Battalion of the Rifle Brigade, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope in South Africa, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, and Ordinary, and Vice Admiral of the same; and Her Majesty's High Commissioner for the settling and adjustment of the Affairs of the Territories in Southern Africa, adjacent and contiguous to the Eastern and North Eastern Frontier of the said Colony, &c. &c. &c.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the Solemnization of Marriages within British Kaffraria; Now, therefore, I do hereby proclaim, declare, and make known, that Marriages may be solemnized within British Kaffraria under and according to the Rules and Regulations following, that is to say:—

1st. Any Missionary, or other Minister of the Christian Religion, ordained, or otherwise set apart to the Ministry of the Christian Religion, shall be at liberty to apply to the Commandant of British Kaffraria for the purpose of being registered by him as a Marriage Minister, in and for the said Territory; and the Commandant shall deliver to every Minister so registered, a certificate, in writing, of such registry.

2nd. Every registered Marriage Minister shall, within British Kaffraria, be authorised and empowered to marry together persons not labouring under any just impediment, both of whom shall, for a period of not less than three months next before such marriage, have resided in British Kaffraria.

3rd. No Marriage Minister shall solemnize any marriage between persons related to, or connected with, each other in such a degree of consanguinity or affinity, as would, according to the laws of the colony of the Cape of Good Hope, be a lawful impediment to their marriage within the said colony; and every marriage which, if solemnized, or supposed so to be, within the said colony, would, by reason of consanguinity or affinity, be void,—shall be void if solemnized, or supposed so to be, within British Kaffraria.

4th. The banns of marriage between persons desirous of being joined together in matrimony, in British Kaffraria, may be published therein by any Marriage Minister, and such publication shall be made in an audible manner some time during public service on a Sunday, in the face of the congregation of such Minister, and shall contain the respective names and places of abode of each of the said parties.

5th. If either of the parties to be married shall belong to a congregation other than that of the Marriage Minister whom they desire to solemnize the said marriage, the banns shall be published in such other congregation or congregations.

6th. Banns of marriage must, in every case, be published for three Sundays preceding the solemnization of the marriage. Provided always, that no Marriage Minister shall solemnize marriage between persons, one or both of whom shall be under the age of twenty-one years (unless in case of a widower or widow) after such marriage shall be forbidden by any person, who would, if in the colony of the Cape of Good Hope, have lawful authority to forbid the same.

7th. Every Marriage Minister shall keep a Marriage Register Book, and shall enter therein every marriage by him solemnized; and every entry of any such marriage shall be signed by the Marriage Minister, and by the parties married, and shall be attested by two or more credible witnesses; and every such entry shall be in the form or to the effect of the following specimen:—

8th. After the solemnization of any marriage under and by virtue of this Proclamation, it shall not be necessary in support of such marriage, (should the same come in question,) to give any proof of the actual dwelling of the parties married, or of either of them, before the marriage, or that the banns were published, nor shall any evidence be received to prove the contrary.

9th. Nothing in his Proclamation contained shall have the effect of constraining any Minister (though registered as a Marriage Minister) to marry any person whomsoever, whom he shall see fit to decline to marry.

PROCLAMATION

SIR HENRY GEORGE WAKELYN SMITH, BARONET,

WHEREAS I have this day received information that certain Subjects of Her Majesty, resident to the North of the Great Orange River, in the Territories over which, by my Proclamation bearing date the 3rd of February 1848, I did proclaim and declare Her Majesty's Sovereignty,—are in open Rebellion against Her Royal Authority; And whereas such Rebellion has been, most wantonly and wickedly, fostered and excited by one ANDREAS WILHELMUS JACOBUS PRETORIUS, late of the District of Natal, who has thus committed the crime of High Treason; and whereas, pending the issue of the other measures already in progress for the swift suppression of the said Rebellion,—it is expedient that the said ANDREAS WILHELMUS JACOBUS PRETORIUS should, if possible, be secured and brought to punishment:—Now therefore, I do hereby PROCLAIM AND OFFER A REWARD OF One Thousand Pounds to any person or persons who shall apprehend the said ANDREAS WILHELMUS JACOBUS PRETORIUS, and lodge him in any of Her Majesty's Prisons, or with any Officer in command of any of Her Majesty's Forces;—and further, a REWARD OF One Thousand Pounds to any Person or Persons who shall give such information as shall lead to the apprehension of the said ANDREAS WILHELMUS JACOBUS PRETORIUS

WHEREAS, in reference to the Rebellion of certain Subjects of Her Majesty, resident to the North of the Great Orange River, announced in my Proclamation of the 22d instant, it has been made to appear to me that one WILLEM JACOBS, of the District of Wenburg, in the Territories aforesaid, has taken a prominent part in misleading the ignorant, and terrifying the timid, in order to induce them to join in the present most wanton and wicked Insurrection: And whereas the said WILLEM JACOBS has thus subjected himself to a charge of High Treason, and it is expedient that he should, if possible, be brought to punishment:—Now, therefore, I do hereby PROCLAIM AND OFFER A REWARD OF Five Hundred Pounds to any person or persons who shall apprehend the said WILLEM JACOBS, and lodge him in any of Her Majesty's Prisons, or with any Officer in command of any of Her Majesty's Forces;—and further, a REWARD OF Five Hundred Pounds to any Person or Persons who shall give such information as shall lead to the apprehension of the said WILLEM JACOBS.

THE Cape Town Mirror.

ON the 5th of September next, will be published the first number of a new weekly periodical, which is intended to combine the attractions of a Newspaper and of a Literary Miscellany.

Each number of the Cape Town Mirror will contain a summary of the News of the preceding week, both local and foreign. The remainder of the space will be devoted to Descriptive and Narrative Sketches, Reviews, Tales, and other Articles, original and selected, in all of which particular regard will be paid to the choice of topics likely to be interesting to readers in this colony.

Each number will consist of eight small quarto pages of three columns each, printed in a small but clear type. The whole will form, at the end of the year, a volume of 416 pages, of a convenient size, and containing, it may be hoped, sufficient matter of permanent interest to make it worthy of preservation.

The terms of subscription will be, in town, 8s. per annum, 4s. the half year, or 2s. the quarter; if sent by post, 13s. per annum, and 6s. 6d. per half-year;—subscriptions, in all cases, to be paid in advance. Advertisements will be inserted on moderate terms.

The Cape Town Mirror will be published every Tuesday morning, at No. 22, Longmarket-street. For the convenience of subscribers in the country, an early edition will be printed, to be sent by the mail of the previous afternoon.

WHAT IS IN A NAME?

THE philosophic axiom, that there is no absolute or necessary connection between a name and the thing nominated, has been singularly comprehended, and most cunningly acted upon, by an Empirical Peste and Mortal Philosopher of this City.—In as far as he has surreptitiously imparted to a vile compound of his own production, the name of my unrivalled perfume for the Handkerchief and Boudoir, and deceitfully imitated my labels for the same, so closely as to mislead incautious buyers. Let the Public, therefore, beware of such disgracefully avaricious chicane, (whether in vending physic or perfumery) and remember that I am the sole proprietor, compounder, and vender, of the unrivalled perfume, Real Omar Essence; and that the label on every bottle of the genuine article must bear my signature.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.

Colonial Office, Cape Town,
2d August, 1848.

OWING to the period of the year at which the new Divisions recently created in, or annexed to, this Colony were formed, it has unavoidably happened that no Circuit Court can be holden in any of them during the ensuing Circuit.

The impediment arises out of the fact, that no Circuit Court can act without a lawful Jury, and that no lawful Jury can be impanelled in any of these new Divisions.

Under Ordinance No. 84, (the existing Jury law), the 1st of February in each year is the only day on which lists for Jury purposes can be legally affixed, prior to rectification by the Resident Magistrate; and, from want of time, no such lists have been affixed in any of the new Divisions, which leaves them without a Jury.

In announcing the cause which has led to the change in the Circuit Court arrangements, set forth in the Proclamation of this day's date, His Excellency the Governor directs it to be notified, that the necessary steps will be taken by the proper Officers to provide, in due time for the Circuit next after that which is shortly to commence, proper Jury lists for the several Divisions in which Circuit Courts are in future to be holden.

By Command of His Excellency the Governor,

(Signed) JOHN MONTAGU.

Secretary to Government.

Colonial Office, Cape Town.

12th July, 1848.

IN consequence of the Honorable the Legislative Council having declined to vote from the Public Revenue of 1849, the sum which His Excellency the Governor had proposed to that body, for conveying the Inland Mails throughout the Colony, from the 1st of January 1849, at the rate and in the manner set forth in the two Government Notices dated the 16th of May last, calling for Tenders "for the conveyance of Inland Mails between Cape Town and Graham's Town," and "for the conveyance of Inland Mails," it has become necessary to reduce the expense for these services to the sum appropriated by the Council.

Notice is hereby given, that the Government Notices above referred to are withdrawn and cancelled, and the Advertisement from the Postmaster General, inserted at the foot of this Government Notice, is published in lieu thereof.

By Command of His Excellency the Governor,

(Signed) JOHN MONTAGU.

Secretary to Government.

SWELLENDAM FARM

AND

STOCK.

THE Undersigned has received instructions to sell by Public Auction, on the spot,

ON TUESDAY,

The 10th October next,

The one-half part or share in that well-known valuable Farm called

Oude Bosch,

measuring 1995½ Morgen or about 4000 Acres, situated in the district of Swellendam, near the Village of Riversdale.

To any one about to commence the pursuits of Farming, this Property can be confidently recommended as combining every requisite for the breeding of HORSES, CATTLE, and MERINO SHEEP. The capabilities of the Property are not confined (as in many other farms,) to the breeding of Stock alone, as great quantities of Grain have been, and much more might be, annually produced, there being scarcely any part of the Farm in which the plough could not with advantage be put.

An Extensive Garden,

in the immediate vicinity of the Dwelling House, well stocked with Fruit Trees of various descriptions, affords an abundance of Vegetables, &c., and being well enclosed, Gardening to almost any extent may be carried on, for which the numerous streams of never-failing water, and the excellent quality of the ground, render this Farm so peculiarly adapted.

There is a SUBSTANTIAL DWELLING HOUSE, as also STABLES, OUTBUILDINGS, KRAALS, &c., and near the House a large piece of Ground has been partially enclosed, which with trifling expense might be converted into an extensive "Camp" or Paddock for young horses.

The locality of this Property is equally advantageous, being in the immediate vicinity of the Platte Kloof Pass, 5 hours' ride from PORT BEAUFORT and two from the Village of RIVERSDALE, where an excellent market is always found for every description of produce, and which Village has recently increased in importance from the Establishment of a Magistracy.

To these and many other advantages, too numerous for the limits of an advertisement, suffice it to add, that as a place where the general pursuits of agriculture may be carried on both with pleasure and with profit, this Farm challenges competition with any one in the District.

At the same time will be sold the whole of the STOCK, FARMING IMPLEMENTS, &c., consisting of:—

1000 thorough-bred MERINO EWES,
50 superior well-bred HORSES, including some two years old and yearling Colts by those celebrated Stallions "JACK PALMER," "SIR SOLOMON," "TURNPIKE," &c.

An excellent OX WAGON, nearly new,

A span of fine OXEN,
PLOUGHS, HARROWS, and other AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS.

The usual assortment of HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE, &c. &c. &c.

The whole will be sold positively without the least Reserve.

Swellendam, 22nd August 1848.

JOSEPH BARRY,
Auctioneer.

Refreshments will be provided.

GOUVERNEMENTS KENNISGEVING.

Koloniale Secretary, 2 Augustus 1848.

VAN wege den tyd des jaars waarop de nieuwe Afdeelingen onlangs opgericht in, of gehecht aan de Kolonie, zyn geformeerd, is het onvermydelyk gebeurd dat geen Rondgaand Gerechtshof in eenige derzelver kan worden gehouden by het aankomend Circuit.

De verhindering ontstaat uit de daadzaak dat geen Rondgaand Gerechtshof kan worden gehouden zonder eene behoorlyke Jury, en dat geen behoorlyke Jury in eene dezer nieuwe Afdeelingen kan worden byeengebragt.

Onder de Ordonnantie No. 31 (de bestaande Jury Wet,) is de eerste February van het laatste jaar de eenige dag waarop Jury Lysten wettiglyk kunnen worden aangeplakt, bevorens de rectificatie door den Resident Magistraat—en uit gebrek van tyd hebben geen zoodanige Lysten in eenige der gez. Distrikten kunnen worden aangeplakt, het welk dezelven zonder eene Jury laat.

In het aankondigen van de oorzaken welke hebben geleid tot de verandering in de schikkingen van het Rondgaand Gerechtshof, bepaald in de Proclamatie van Heden, gelast Zyne Excellentie kennis te geven dat de noodige stappen zullen worden genomen door de geschikte beambten, om in behoorlyken tyd voor het Circuit, na dat het welk nu in kort zal beginnen, [geschikte Jury Lysten te voorzien, voor de onderscheiden Afdeelingen, waarin in het vervolg Circuit Hoven zullen worden gehouden.

Ter Ordonnantie van Zyne Excellentie den Gouverneur
(Get.) JOHN MONTAGU,
Gouvernements Secretaris.

Colonial Office, 30th August, 1848.

HIS Excellency the Governor has directed the following notification of his proceeding, and the movements of the troops in the country beyond the Orange River, to be published for general information.

On the 22nd instant, nearly all the troops required for the military operations having then reached Colesberg. His Excellency commenced the passage of that river: and had on the 23rd conveyed the greater portion across to the right bank.

His Excellency's passage of the river has been followed by the happiest effects. The loyal portion of the population beyond the Orange River have been inspired with confidence, and have expressed their readiness to join the Queen's troops, and act against the rebels. Two of the field-commandants—Snyman and Erasmus—were with his Excellency, and had offered him the assistance and support of their parties, should they be required.

The chief Adam Kok was also in His Excellency's camp; and both he and the chiefs Waterboer and Mosheh had displayed the most exemplary fidelity to their engagements of alliance with Her Majesty, notwithstanding the attempts of the rebels to undermine their loyalty.

On the other hand, His Excellency's proceedings have filled the rebels with consternation and dismay. They have fallen back to Winberg, leaving the passage of the river uncontested. They commenced their backward movement the moment the infantry advanced, their outposts flying from the banks of the river, leaving the meat half-cooked upon the fires: and, although they still boast of their intentions, it appears at present probable that they will not venture to make a stand at all.

His Excellency regrets that the present movement has been attended with serious loss and destruction of property to many of Her Majesty's loyal subjects beyond the Orange river. In the Caledon district, 500 families have been forced from their homes, and the excesses committed by the Rebel PRÆTORIUS upon isolated farms and houses have caused His Excellency severe mortification. His Excellency, however, rejoices that there is now a certain prospect of destroying, once and for ever, the influence of these designing men among Her Majesty's faithful emigrant subjects, and has directed the publication of the following "Warning."

By His Excellency's Command,
(Signed) JOHN MONTAGU,
Secretary to Government.

Warning to the Rebel Boers.

KNOW ALL YE assembled in arms under one PRÆTORIUS whom I have proscribed, that ye are British subjects, and that the act of your thus assembling in this reckless manner is illegal, and in opposition to Her Majesty's sovereign Will. You are guilty of rebellion.

Remember, before you force me to fire upon you, that I have already given you fair warning in my Manifesto on the 29th March last. I now again warn you to pause, ere you compel me to use the force now assembled at my disposal, and close at hand.

What is it that you seek? To be slaves to black men, and to hold your lands from them, and not from Her Majesty? I went among you last January with a heart full of affectionate feelings towards the Boer. I have done for you all that you asked me to do. Each Boer now holds his land in perpetuity, not on an expiring lease of 40 years, and you have the privilege of almost entirely governing yourselves. I have rendered the districts of Bloem Fontein and Caledon happy—most happy and grateful to me. Ask every man of any property in either of them if this is not the case. Now, all possess their lands in security. I have legalized all marriages. I have two ministers coming from Holland, and schoolmasters on the road. Your rebellious conduct has driven many from their homes, with their wives and their children; plunging them into misery in this inclement weather, and destroying their flocks and herds. Is this the good that you seek for your countrymen?

Beyond Winberg there are many violent men who are opposed to rule and government in any shape; but many whom I met in that neighbourhood, although they told me in public, when overawed by the turbulent, that they would rather remain as they were, in private sought me and assured me that they were miserable, and prayed me to send them a magistrate. I was met at Winberg by a large body of loyal men who presented an address to me—the Chiefs Mosheh, Malitsanie, Sikonyella, and others, were present. All agreed to what I proposed, for the general benefit and welfare of Bloem Fontein, Caledon, and Winberg, not for mine or the government of the Colony. I then prosecuted my journey to Natal, where I met hundreds of families "trekking" in misery in the rainy season, excited to discontent by this PRÆTORIUS, (who is an inhabitant of the district of Natal, who is now dwelling beyond the limits of our sovereignty, over the Orange River, and has no right to interfere here,) who has then and since imposed both upon me and you. I hastened to the seat of government: you all well know that I did every thing man could do for the benefit of these unfortunate and misguided people trekking from Natal. Many, very many, I rejoice to say, have appreciated my desire to serve them, and have returned to their homes. Thirty-five families with HERMANUS LOMBARD, besides several smaller parties, have lately done so. To those who have no farms I have given, and will continue to give, 3,000 morgen of land on the Klip and Tugela rivers; and I appointed PRÆTORIUS to a land commission,—as a member of which he might have rendered the greatest benefit to his countrymen. I gave him my proclamation of the 3d February last, to take among you, especially requesting him to explain to JACOBS that I had issued it before the meeting proposed, because he (PRÆTORIUS) recommended me to do so,

GOVERNEMENTS KENNISGEVING.

Koloniale Secretary, 30 Augustus 1848.

ZYNE Excellentie de Gouverneur heeft gelast de volgende Kennisgeving: van zyne verrigtingen en van de bewegingen der Troepen in het land over de Oranje Rivier, tot algemeen narijt te publiceren.

Op den 22 dezer waren byna al de troepen voor de militaire verrigtingen vereischt, te Colesberg aangekomen. Zyne Excellentie begon toen den overtocht van de rivier en had op den 23sten het grootste deel op den rechter oever overgebracht.

Zyne Excellentie's overtocht over de Rivier heeft de gemakkelijste gevolgen gehad. Het getrouw gebleven deel van de bevolking over de Rivier is vervuld met vertrouwen, en heeft dezelfs bereidvaardigheid verklaard om zich te verenigen met de Troepen van de Koningin, en te ageren tegen de Rebellen. Twee van de Veldkommants, SNYMAN en ERASMUS, waren by Zyne Excellentie en hadden de hulp en medewerking van hunne partyen aangeboden, indien noodig waren.

Het Opperhoofd ADAM KOK was mede in het kamp by Zyne Excellentie, en beiden, hy en de Opperhoofden WATERBOER en MOSHESH hadden voorbeeldige trouw aan hunne verbindtenissen van alliantie aan Hare Majesteit aan den dag gelegd, niet tegenstaande de pogingen van den Rebel om hunne trouw te doen wankelen.

Aan de andere zyde hebben de verrigtingen van Zyne Excellentie de Rebellen met schrik vervuld. Zy zyn terug getrokken op Winburg, latende de overtocht van de rivier vry. Zy hebben deze achterwaardache begonnen op het oogeblik dat de infanterie voortrukke, vluggende hunne piketten van de oevers der rivier, en latende hun vleeach half gaar op het vuur achter, en afschoon zy nog zwetsten op hunne voornemen, schynst het voor het tegenwoordige niet waarschijnlijk dat zy stand zullen houden.

Het doel Zyners Excellentie leidt dat de tegenwoordige beweging is vergezeld geweest van ernstig verlies en vernieling van eigendom, voor velen van Hare Majesteits getrouwe Onderdanen over de Oranje Rivier. In het Caledon District zyn 500 families van hunne haardsteden verdreven, en de buitensporigheden door den Rebel PRÆTORIUS gepleegd aan eenzame plaatsen, hebben Zyne Excellentie innig leedwezen doen gevoelen. Zyne Excellentie verheugt zich echter, dat er nu een zeker vooruitzicht is om met eens en voor altyd den invloed te vernielen van deze kwaadwillige lieden, onder Hare Majesteits getrouwe uitgewekene Onderdanen, en heeft de publicatie gelast van de volgende "waarschuwing."

Ter Ordonnantie van Zyne Excellentie den Gouverneur,
(Get) JOHN MONTAGU,
Gouvernements Secretaris.

Waarschuwing aan de Rebel Boeren.

ZY HET KENNELYK aan u-lieden alle die onder wapens verzameld zyt onder een PRÆTORIUS, dien ik vogelvry verklaard heb, dat gy-lieden Britsche Onderdanen zyt, en dat de daad van uwe verzameling aldus, op deze roekeloze wyze onwettig is, en tegenstrydig met de Souvereine wil van Hare Majesteit. Gy zyt schuldig aan Rebelle.

Gedenkt, voor dat gy my aandringt op u-lieden te vuren, dat ik u-lieden reeds billyke waarschuwing gegeven heb in myn Manifest van den 29ste Maart lautsleden. Ik waarschuw u-lieden nogmaals te verpoezen, voor dat gy-lieden my er toe dwingt, om van de magt die ik nu verzameld en tot myn wil en by der hand heb, gebruik te maken.

Wat is het dat gy-lieden zoekt? Om slaven van zwarte mannen te zyn, en om uw gronden te houden van hen en niet van Hare Majesteit? Ik ging lautsleden January onder u-lieden met een hart vol van toegeneene gevoelens jegens den Boer. Ik heb voor u-lieden gedaan al dat gy-lieden my gevraagd hebt te doen;—ieder Boer houdt nu zyn grond in eeuwigdurendheit en niet op een verlopende Huurbrief van 40 jaren en gy-lieden hebt het voorregt van u-zelfen byna geheel en al te bestieren. Ik heb de Distrikten van Bloemfontein en Caledon gelukkig gemaakt, zeer gelukkig en dankbaar aan my. Vraagt jaan een ieder man van eenige bezitting in idere dezer distrikten, of zulks niet het geval is. Nu bezitten zy allen hunne gronden in veiligheid. Ik heb alle Huwelyken gewettigd. Ik heb twee Godsdienst Leeraren aan het komen, uit Holland. En Schoolmeesters op weg. Uw wederspanning gedrag heeft velen van hunne woningen verdreven met hunne vrouwen en hunne kinderen, hen in ellende dompelende in den onstuimige weer, en vernielende hun vee en kudden. Is dit het welzyn gy-lieden zoekt voor uw landgenooten?

Aan de andere zyde van Winburg zyn er vele geweldige mannen die op allerlei soorten van Regering en Bestuur tegen zyn, maar ook velen die ik in dien ontrek ontmoet heb, alhoewel zy my in het publiek, toen zy voor de rustelozen bevreesd waren, zeiden, dat zy liever wilde blijven zoo als zy waren; in het privaat hebben zy na my gezocht en my verzekerd dat zy ellendig waren, en smeekten my om hen een Magistraat te zenden. Te Winburg kwam een groot aantal getrouwe mannen my te gemoet, aan my een adres presenterende. De Opperhoofden MOSHESH, MOLETSANI, SEKONYELLA en anderen waren tegenwoordig. Alle stemden toe hetgeen ik voorstelde, voor algemeene voordeel en de welvaart van Bloemfontein, Caledon en Winburg; niet voor de myne nóg voor het Gouvernement van de Kolonie.

Toen nam ik myne reis verder aan naar Natal, wanneer ik honderden van huisgezinnen ontmoette, "trekkenden" ellendiglyk in een regenachtig jaargey, opgewekt tot ontevredenheid door dezen PRÆTORIUS (die in inwooner van het Distrikt Natal is, doch nu woonachtig buiten de grenzen van de Souvereiniteit over de Oranje Rivier, en geen regt heeft om zich hier te bemoeien) die toen en na dien tyd beide my en u-lieden bedrogen heeft.

Ik haaste my naar den zetel van het Gouvernement. Gy-lieden zyt alen wel bewust dat ik gedaan heb aldat door de mensch doenlyk was tot voordeel van deze ongelukkige en misleide menschen, trekkende van Natal. Een menigte, een groote menigte, ben ik verblyd te zeggen, hebben myne begeerte om tot hunne voordeel te handelen, gewaardeerd, en zyn naar hunne woningen teruggekeerd. Vyfendertig Huisgezinnen met HERMANUS LONBAARD, buiten nog verscheidene kleinere klompen, hebben zulks onlangs gedaan.

Aan die genen die geen plaatsen hebben, heb ik gegeven, en zal aanhouden om te geven 3,000 morgen gronds aan de Klip en Tugela Rivieren. En ik stelde PRÆTORIUS aan op eene Land Commissie, a een Lid waarvan hy in staat gesteld was om zyne landgenooten allergrootst te bevoordeelen. Ik gaf hem myne Proclamatie van den 3den February lautsleden, om het onder u-lieden te nemen, byzonderlyk hem verzoekende om het aan JACOBS verstaanbaar te maken, dat ik het uitgegeven had voor de bestelde byeenkomsten, om dat hy (PRÆTORIUS) my geraden heeft zulks te doen, zeggende, dat hy aan u allen zoude uitleggen hoe dat derzelver inhoud tot uw voordeel bestemd was, —saying that he would point out to all of you how its contents were calculated for your good. In place of doing this, he perverted its meaning,—misled you, and deceived me.

He requested me not to extend the sovereignty beyond the Vaal river, and to leave the Mooi river for those who might disapprove of the order of things proposed. I did so. I have always said that unless the majority of the burghers were in favor of the government which I had in friendship framed for them, I would not press it. To show that such was not the case, PRETORIUS and JACOBS got 470 signatures to an address by every imaginable fraud, deceit, and lie. Subsequently, SNEYMAN wrote to PRETORIUS, to say that he would have nothing to do with him,—that he had deceived him and his people, who had added their names to this list, and who all withdrew them. I receive addresses, numerously signed, from every part of the country except beyond Winberg. ERASMUS, the field-commandant, has left PRETORIUS; and POTGIETER declares for quiet. But PRETORIUS, who loves to excite and render others miserable, aiming at his own ambitious ends, gets together a body of from 700 to 1000 men, not heads of families, but persons for the most part ruined in circumstances,—frightens from their homes all families throughout the land, and talks of war, and blood being shed. If blood be shed, be it on his own ambitious rebel's head! He boasts of his moderation to Major WARDEN;—if he had shed a drop of blood at that post, he would have added the crime of murder to that of rebellion.

Trusting, in confidence, to the general good feeling, I weakened the detachment of troops at Bloem Fontein, because I desired that you yourselves should govern yourselves, and was anxious not to interfere with you by means of soldiers. Taking advantage of this, PRETORIUS, with his lawless followers, dares to remove officers placed at Bloem Fontein and the Caledon River,—styling himself commandant-general, and bringing these followers to prove to me that the majority are in favor of no rule. I tell him that his present adherents are either brought from beyond the sovereignty, or are forced by intimidation to join him;—and I tell him, that I know that four-fifths of the people of property are in favor of the liberal government I have established for the benefit of all,—for CHRIST's church, and for peace.

He talks of bringing down black men and more followers among the boers. Does he think to impose upon me in this way?

If the men beyond Winberg desired to have their own government, why did they molest those of Caledon River and Bloem Fontein? This insult shall be avenged by force of arms. Then may you trust to me, who have shown myself a true friend to you, to establish the best order of things. But no armed party shall presume to seek what I cannot listen to. Blood shall not cease to flow until peace and tranquility be established, and Rebels driven out of the land;—and when women weep, you, Rebels, will be the murderers of their husbands, sons, and brothers.

Choose, therefore, War or Peace. The one I will vigorously prosecute; the other I will secure for the benefit of good men and God's church;—and I will establish such military posts as shall not be subject to insult in future.

PRETORIUS is an outlaw—a proscribed man—and I will never communicate with him; the proclamation offering £2000 for his apprehension remains in full force.

Some of you Rebels, I know, have large sums of money in the Colony,—beware, if you fire a shot, lest I seize them to assist in defraying the expenses of this outbreak, which you have so treacherously and traitorously brought about, and in re-imbursing, where possible, the good men for the losses they have suffered by your invasion, your threats, and your robberies.

The Native Chiefs are under the sovereignty of Her Majesty, and can make no treaty that is binding till ratified by Her Majesty's Representative. Any treaties, therefore, that they may have been forced into by the Rebels are null and void.

As I advance, whatever armed party awaits me I shall regard as having fired the first shot,—and the blood be on their heads; thus murder and rebellion become united.

So soon as I reach Winberg I will hear what Mynheer POTGIETER and all peaceable men and loyal subjects have to represent to me for the general benefit.

THE General Board of Commissioners of Public Prisons, hereby notify that His Excellency the Governor has been pleased to approve of the appointments of the Revds. J. TAYLOR and G. GREEN, as Members of the Local Board of Prison Commissioners, for Cradock.

By Order of the Board,
L. ADAMSON, Clerk to the Board.

In plaats van zulks te doen, heeft hy de zin er van verdraaid u-lieden misleid —en my bedrogen. Hy heeft my verzocht om de Souvereiniteit niet verder dan tot naar Vaal Rivier te laten strekken, en om de Mooi Rivier niet te laten voor de geenen die de voorgestelde maatregelen mochten afkeuren:—ik heb zulks gedaan. Ik heb altoos gezegd, dat, tenzy de meerderheid der Burgers ten gunsten waren van het bestuur die ik voor hen in vriendschap beraamd had, ik het niet zoude aandringen. Om aantetonen dat zulks niet het geval was, hebben PRETORIUS en JACOBS door alle denkelyke bedrog bedriegery en leugentat 470 handtekeningen tot een adres verkregen. Daarna heeft SNEYMAN aan PRETORIUS geschreven, zeggende, dat hy met hem niets wilde te doen hebben, dat hy hem en zyne menschen bedrogen had, die allen hunne namen terug trokken. Ik ontvang adressen talryk geteekend van alle deelen der landstreek, behalve het ander zyde van Winburg. ERASMUS, de Veld Commandant, heeft PRETORIUS verlaten, en POTGIETER verklaard zich voor Rustigheid,—maar PRETORIUS die gaarne opwekt en anderen elendig maakt, tot zyn oogmerk hebbende zyne eigene eezuchtige eindens—verzamelt een aantal, bestaande, uit van 700 tot 1000 mannen, niet hoofden van huisgezinnen, maar menschen waarvan de grootste gedeelte geuineerd is,—verschrikt van hunne woningen, alle huisgezinnen door het gansche land—en spreekt van Oorlog en het vergieten van bloed. Indien er bloed vergoten wordt, zy het op zyn eigen eezuchtig weder-spannige loofd!

Hy roemt op zyne matiging jegens Majoor WARDEN; indien hy op die post een druppel bloeds vergoten had, zoude hy de misdand van Moord by die van Oproermaking gevoegd hebben;—vertrouwende in vertrouwendheid op de algemeene goede gevoelens, verzwakte ik het gedeelte der Troepen te Bloemfontein, omdat ik begeerde dat gy-lieden u-zelfen zoudet regeren, en was verlanzend om niet met u-lieden te laten bemoeijen door middel van soldaten. Hierop voertnemende, durst PRETORIUS met zyne wetteloze volgelingen, officieren verzetten de op Bloemfontein en Caledon Rivier geplaatst waren,—zichzelve noemde Commandant-Generaal; en deze volgelingen brengende om my te overtuigen dat de meerderheid ten gunste zyn van geene regering. Ik zeg hem dat zyne tegenwoordige aanhangers van buiten de Souvereiniteit gebragt zyn, of zyn gedwongen door bangmaking om zich by hem te voegen. En ik zeg hem, dat ik er van bewust ben dat vier-vyfde deelen der menschen van bezittingen ten gunste zyn van de mildadige regering die ik bepaald heb tot voordeel van allen, tot de Kerk van Christus—en tot vrede.

Hy spreekt van zwarte mannen en meer volgelingen onder de Boeren aan te brengen.—Denkt hy om my op die wyze te bedriegen?

Indien de mannen aan de andere zyde van Winburg hun eigen bestuur verlangden, waarom hebben zy die van Caledon Rivier en Bloemfontein gemokseerd? Deze belediging zal met magt van wapens gewroken worden. Dan kunt gy-lieden op my vertrouwen, die myzelf als een ware vriend aan ulieden vertoon heb, om de beste maatregelen te bepalen. Maar geen g wapende magt zal zich vermeten om te zoeken naar hetgeen daar ik niet naar luisteren kan. Bloed zal niet ophouden om te vloeijen tot tyd en wyl dat vrede en rustigheid hersteld zullen zyn,—en Rebellen uit het land verdreven;—en wanneer vrouwen weenen, zullen gy, Rebellen, de moordenaren zyn van hunne mannen, zoons en broeders.

Kiest dus oorlog of vrede,—de een zal ik met wakkerheid opvolgen, de andere verzekeren tot voordeel van goede mannen en Gods Kerk—en ik zal zoodanige militaire posten oprigten als niet in den toekomstenden tyd aan belediging zullen blootgesteld wezen.

PRETORIUS is een banneling, een man die vogelvry verklaard is,—en ik zal nooit met hem eenige communicatie houden.

De Proclamatie, twee duizend Ponden Sterling presenterende voor hem in hechtenis te nemen, blyft in zyne volle kracht.

Het is my bekend dat sommige van u Rebellen groote sommen gelds in de Kolonie hebben.—Wees voorzigtig, indien gy een schoot vuut, dat ik zulks niet in beslag neme om te assisteren in het afdoen van de kosten dezer indruk die gy-lieden zoo verradelyks en op zoo een verraderlyke wyze aangevoerd hebben, en tot het terug betaling, waar zulks mogelijk is, aan de goede mannen, voor de schaden die zy geleden hebben, door uwen inval, uwe dreigementen en uw roveryen.

De opperhoofden der Inboorling stammen zyn onder de Souvereiniteit van Hare Majesteit, en kunnen geen traktaat maken dat verbindend is, tot dat hetzelfde door de vertegenwoordiger van Hare Majesteit bekrachtigd is.—Dus zyn zoodanige Traktaten als zy door Rebellen ingedwongen mogen zyn, nul en krachteloos.

Zoo als ik voortga zal iedere gewapende party die my afwacht, door my beschouwd worden als de eerste schoot gevaard te hebben, en hun bloed zy op hunne hoofden, dus worden moord en rebellie vereenigd.

Zoodra ik op Winburg zal aangekomen zyn, zal ik gehoor geven aan hetgeen de Heer POTGIETER en alle vreedzame mannen en getrouwe onderdanen aan my voor te dragen hebben, tot het algemeen welzyn.

WHAT IS IN A NAME?

THE philosophic axiom, that there is no absolute or necessary connection between a name and the thing nominated, has been singularly comprehended, and most cunningly acted upon, by an Empirical Pestle and Mortar Philosopher of this City.—In as far as he has surreptitiously imparted to a vile compound of his own production, the name of my unrivalled perfume for the Handkerchief and Boudoir, and deceitfully imitated my labels for the same, so closely as to mislead incautious buyers. Let the Public, therefore, beware of such disgracefully avaricious chicane, (whether in vending physic or perfumery) and remember that I am the sole proprietor, compounder, and vender, of the unrivalled perfume, Real Omar Essence; and that the label on every bottle of the genuine article must bear my signature.

Cape Town, 25th August 1848.

Paradise Regained.

HOW indescribably fragrant must the hortulan odours have been that greeted, on her natal morn, the discriminating sense of all beauteous Eve; as she rapturously reclined in the primal Garden of the Universe, a spot unhappily lost, and now unknown to her children. Yet, somewhat of its entrancing fragrance—a taste of the Elysian sweets of departed Eden, is now regattable in a 2s. 6d. Bottle of that unrivalled Perfume for the Handkerchief and Boudoir, Real Omar Essence. But, buyers, remember that the Proprietor's signature is adhibited to the Label on every Bottle sold by him, of the above, and that it is not to be had genuine at any other place in the Colony, but his own Shop, No. 20, Long-market-street, Cape as certain parties are now attempting to sell a vile compound under the same name.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.

Colonial Office, 30th August, 1848.

HIS Excellency the Governor has directed the following notification of his proceeding, and the movements of the troops in the country beyond the Orange River, to be published for general information.

On the 22nd instant, nearly all the troops required for the military operations having then reached Colesberg, His Excellency commenced the passage of that river: and had on the 23rd conveyed the greater portion across to the right bank.

His Excellency's passage of the river has been followed by the happiest effects. The loyal portion of the population beyond the Orange River have been inspired with confidence, and have expressed their readiness to join the Queen's troops, and act against the rebels. Two of the field-commandants—Snyman and Erasmus—were with his Excellency, and had offered him the assistance and support of their parties, should they be required.

The chief Adam Kok was also in His Excellency's camp; and both he and the chiefs Waterboer and Moshesh had displayed the most exemplary fidelity to their engagements of alliance with Her Majesty, notwithstanding the attempts of the rebels to undermine their loyalty.

On the other hand, His Excellency's proceedings have filled the rebels with consternation and dismay. They have fallen back to Winberg, leaving the passage of the river uncontested. They commenced their backward movement the moment the infantry advanced, their outposts flying from the banks of the river, leaving the meat half-cooked upon the fires: and, although they still boast of their intentions, it appears at present probable that they will not venture to make a stand at all.

His Excellency regrets that the present movement has been attended with serious loss and destruction of property to many of Her Majesty's loyal subjects beyond the Orange river. In the Caledon district, 500 families have been forced from their homes, and the excesses committed by the Rebel PRETORIUS upon isolated farms and houses have caused His Excellency severe mortification. His Excellency, however, rejoices that there is now a certain prospect of destroying, once and for ever, the influence of these designing men among Her Majesty's faithful emigrant subjects, and has directed the publication of the following "Warning."

By His Excellency's Command,
(Signed) JOHN MONTAGU,
Secretary to Government.

Warning to the Rebel Boers.

KNOW ALL YE assembled in arms under one PRETORIUS, whom I have proscribed, that ye are British subjects, and that the act of your thus assembling in this reckless manner is illegal, and in opposition to Her Majesty's sovereign Will. You are guilty of rebellion.

Remember, before you force me to fire upon you, that I have already given you fair warning in my Manifesto on the 29th March last. I now again warn you to pause, ere you compel me to use the force now assembled at my disposal, and close at hand.

What is it that you seek? To be slaves to black men, and to hold your lands from them, and not from Her Majesty? I went among you last January with a heart full of affectionate feelings towards the Boer. I have done for you all that you asked me to do. Each Boer now holds his land in perpetuity, not on an expiring lease of 40 years, and you have the privilege of almost entirely governing yourselves. I have rendered the districts of Bloem Fontein and Caledon happy—most happy and grateful to me. Ask every man of any property in either of them if this is not the case. Now, all possess their lands in security. I have legalized all marriages. I have two ministers coming from Holland, and schoolmasters on the road. Your rebellious conduct has driven many from their homes, with their wives and their children; plunging them into misery in this inclement weather, and destroying their flocks and herds. Is this the good that you seek for your countrymen?

Beyond Winberg there are many violent men who are opposed to rule and government in any shape; but many whom I met in that neighbourhood, although they told me in public, when overawed by the turbulent, that they would rather remain as they were, in private

GOUVERNEMENTS KENNISGEVING.

Koloniale Secretary, 30 Augustus 1848.

ZYNE Excellentie de Gouverneur heeft gelast de volgende Kennisgeving, van zyne verrigtingen en van de bewegingen der Troepen in het land over de Oranje Rivier, tot algemeen narigt te publiceren.

Op den 22 dezer waren by na al de troepen voor de militaire verrigtingen vereischt, te Colesberg aangekomen. Zyne Excellentie begon toen den overtocht van de rivier en had op den 23sten het grootste deel op den rechter oever overgebracht.

Zyne Excellenties overtocht over de Rivier heeft de gemakkelijkste gevolgen gehad. Het getrouw geblevene deel van de bevolking over de Rivier is vervuld met vertrouwen, en heeft deszelfs bereidvaardigheid verklaard om zich te verenigen met de Troepen van de Koningin, en te ageren tegen de Rebellen. Twee van de Veldkommants, SNYMAN en ERASMUS, waren by Zyne Excellentie en hadden de hulp en medewerking van hunne partyen aangeboden, indien noodig waren.

Het Opperhoofd ADAM KOK was mede in het kamp by Zyne Excellentie, en beiden, hy en de Opperhoofden WATERBOER en MOSHESH hadden voorbeeldige trouw aan hunne verbindtenissen van alliantie aan Hare Majesteit aan den dag gelegd, niet tegenstaande de pogingen van den Rebel om hunne trouw te doen wankelen.

Aan de andere zyde hebben de verrigtingen van Zyne Excellentie de Rebellen met schrik vervuld. Zy zyn terug getrokken op Winburg, latende de overtocht van de rivier vry. Zy hebben deze achterwaardsche begonnen op het oogenblik dat de infanterie voortrukte, vlugtende hunne piketten van de oevers der rivier, en latende hun vleesch half gaar op het vuur achter, en ofschoon zy nog zwetsen op hunne voornemen, schynt het voor het tegenwoordige niet waarschijnlijk dat zy stand zullen houden.

Het doel Zyner Excellentie leidt dat de tegenwoordige beweging is vergezeld geweest van ernstig verlies en vernieling van eigendom, voor velen van Hare Majesteits getrouwe Onderdanen over de Oranje Rivier. In het Caledon District zyn 500 families van hunne haardsteden verdreven, en de buitensporigheden door den Rebel PRETORIUS gepleegd, aan eenzame plaatsen, hebben Zyne Excellentie innig leedwezen doen gevoelen. Zyne Excellentie verheugt zich echter, dat er nu een zeker vooruitzicht is om met eens en voor altyd den invloed te vernielen van deze kwaadwillige lieden, onder Hare Majesteits getrouwe uitgeweene Onderdanen, en heeft de publicatie gelast van de volgende "waarschuwing."

Ter Ordonnantie van Zyne Excellentie den Gouverneur,
(Get.) JOHN MONTAGU,
Gouvernements Secretaris.

Waarschuwing aan de Rebel Boeren.

ZY HET KENNELYK aan ulieden alle die onder wapens verzameld zyt onder een PRETORIUS, dien ik vogelvry verklaard heb, dat gy-lieden Britsche Onderdanen zyt, en dat de daad van uwe verzameling aldus, op deze roekelooze wyze onwettig is, en tegenstrydig met de Souvereine wil van Hare Majesteit. Gy zyt schuldig aan Rebelle.

Gedenkt, voor dat gy my aandringt op u-lieden te vuren, dat ik u-lieden reeds billyke waarschuwing gegeven heb in myn Manifest van den 29ste Maart laatstleden. Ik waarschuw u-lieden nogmaals te verpozen, voor dat gy-lieden my er toe dwingt, om van de magt die ik nu verzameld en tot myn wil en by der hand heb, gebruik te maken.

Wat is het dat gy-lieden zoekt? Om slaven van zwarte mannen te zyn, en om uw gronden te houden van hen en niet van Hare Majesteit? Ik ging laatstleden January onder u-lieden met een hart vol van toegenegene gevoelens jegens den Boer. Ik heb voor u-lieden gedaan al dat gy-lieden my gevraagd hebt te doen;—ieder Boer houdt nu zyn grond in eeuwigdurendheid en niet op een verloopende Huurbrief van 40 jaren, en gy-lieden hebt het voorregt van u-zelfen byna geheel en al te bestieren. Ik heb de Distrikten van Bloemfontein en Caledon gelukkig gemaakt, zeer gelukkig en dankbaar aan my. Vraagt aan een ieder man van eenige bezitting in iedere dezer distrikten, of zulks niet het geval is. Nu bezitten zy allen hunne gronden in veiligheid. Ik heb alle Huwelyken gewettigd. Ik heb twee Godsdienst Leeraren aan het komen, uit Holland. En Schoolmeesters op weg. Uw wederspanning gedrag heeft velen van hunne woningen verdreven met hunne vrouwen en hunne kinderen, hen in ellende dompelende in den onstuimige weer, en vernielende hun vee en kudden. Is dit het welzyn gy-lieden zoekt voor uw landgenooten?

Aan de andere zyde van Winburg zyn er vele geweldige mannen die op allerlei soorten van Regering en Bestuur tegen zyn, maar ook velen die ik in dien omtrek ontmoet heb, alhoewel zy my in het publiek, toen zy voor de rusteloozen bevreesd waren, zeiden, dat zy liever wilde blyven zoo als zy waren; in het privaat hebben zy na my gezocht en my verzekerd dat zy elendig waren, en smeekten my om hen een Magistraat te zenden. Te Winburg kwam een groot aantal getrouwe mannen my te gemoet, aan my een adres presenterende De Opperhoofden MOSHESH, MOLETSANI, SEKONYELLA en anderen waren tegen

sought me and assured me that they were miserable, and prayed me to send them a magistrate. I was met at Winberg by a large body of loyal men who presented an address to me—the Chiefs Moshesh, Malitsanie, Sikonyella, and others, were present. All agreed to what I proposed, for the general benefit and welfare of Bloem Fontein, Caledon, and Winberg, not for mine or the government of the Colony. I then prosecuted my journey to Natal, where I met hundreds of families “trekking” in misery in the rainy season, excited to discontent by this PRÆTORIUS, (who is an inhabitant of the district of Natal, who is now dwelling beyond the limits of our sovereignty, over the Orange River, and has no right to interfere here,) who has then and since imposed both upon me and you. I hastened to the seat of government: you all well know that I did every thing man could do for the benefit of these unfortunate and misguided people trekking from Natal. Many, very many, I rejoice to say, have appreciated my desire to serve them, and have returned to their homes. Thirty-five families with HERMANUS LOMBARD, besides several smaller parties, have lately done so. To those who have no farms I have given, and will continue to give, 3,000 morgen of land on the Klip and Tugela rivers; and I appointed PRÆTORIUS to a land commission,—as a member of which he might have rendered the greatest benefit to his countrymen. I gave him my proclamation of the 3d February last, to take among you, especially requesting him to explain to JACOBS that I had issued it before the meeting proposed, because he (PRÆTORIUS) recommended me to do so,—saying that he would point out to all of you how its contents were calculated for your good. In place of doing this, he perverted its meaning,—misled you, and deceived me.

He requested me not to extend the sovereignty beyond the Vaal river, and to leave the Mooi river for those who might disapprove of the order of things proposed. I did so. I have always said that unless the majority of the burghers were in favor of the government which I had in friendship framed for them, I would not press it. To show that such was not the case, PRÆTORIUS and JACOBS got 470 signatures to an address by every imaginable fraud, deceit, and lie. Subsequently, SNEYMAN wrote to PRÆTORIUS, to say that he would have nothing to do with him,—that he had deceived him and his people, who had added their names to this list, and who all withdrew them. I receive addresses, numerously signed, from every part of the country except beyond Winberg. ERASMUS, the field-commandant, has left PRÆTORIUS; and POTGIETER declares for quiet. But PRÆTORIUS, who loves to excite and render others miserable, aiming at his own ambitious ends, gets together a body of from 700 to 1000 men, not heads of families, but persons for the most part ruined in circumstances,—frightens from their homes all families throughout the land, and talks of war, and blood being shed. If blood be shed, be it on his own ambitious rebel's head! He boasts of his moderation to Major WARDEN;—if he had shed a drop of blood at that post, he would have added the crime of murder to that of rebellion.

Trusting, in confidence, to the general good feeling, I weakened the detachment of troops at Bloem Fontein, because I desired that you yourselves should govern yourselves, and was anxious not to interfere with you by means of soldiers. Taking advantage of this, PRÆTORIUS, with his lawless followers, dares to remove officers placed at Bloem Fontein and the Caledon River,—styling himself commandant-general, and bringing these followers to prove to me that the majority are in favor of no rule. I tell him that his present adherents are either brought from beyond the sovereignty, or are forced by intimidation to join him;—and I tell him, that I know that four-fifths of the people of property are in favor of the liberal government I have established for the benefit of all,—for CHRIST's church, and for peace.

He talks of bringing down black men and more followers among the boers. Does he think to impose upon me in this way?

If the men beyond Winberg desired to have their own government, why did they molest those of Caledon River and Bloem Fontein? This insult shall be avenged by force of arms. Then may you trust to me, who have shown myself a true friend to you, to establish the best order of things. But no armed party shall presume to seek what I cannot listen to. Blood shall not cease to flow until peace and tranquility be established, and Rebels driven out of the land;—and when women weep, you, Rebels, will be the murderers of their husbands, sons, and brothers.

Choose, therefore, War or Peace. The one I will vigorously prosecute; the other I will secure for the benefit of good men and God's church;—and I will establish such military posts as shall not be subject to insult in future.

PRÆTORIUS is an outlaw—a proscribed man—and I will never communicate with him; the proclamation offering £2000 for his apprehension remains in full force.

Some of you Rebels, I know, have large sums of money in the Colony,—beware, if you fire a shot, lest I seize them to assist in defraying the expenses of this outbreak, which you have so treacherously and traitorously brought about, and in re-imbursing, where possible, the good men for the losses they have suffered by your invasion, your threats, and your robberies.

The Native Chiefs are under the sovereignty of Her Majesty, and can make no treaty that is binding till ratified by Her Majesty's Representative. Any treaties, therefore, that they may have been forced into by the Rebels are null and void.

As I advance, whatever armed party awaits me I shall regard as having fired the first shot,—and the blood be on their heads; thus murder and rebellion become united.

So soon as I reach Winberg I will hear what Mynheer POTGIETER and all peaceable men and loyal subjects have to represent to me for the general benefit.

Colesberg, dated 17th August, 1848.

H. G. SMITH, Governor.

RICHARD SOUTHEY, Secretary.

woordig. Alle at:mden toe hetgeen ik voorstelde, voor algemeene voordeel en de welvaart van Bloemfontein, Caledon en Winburg; niet voor de myne nog voor het Gouvernement van de Kolonie.

Toen nam ik myne reis verder aan naar Natal, wanneer ik honderden van huisgezinnen ontmoette, “trekkenden” ellendiglyk in een regenachtig jaargely, opgewekt tot ontevredenheid door dezen PRÆTORIUS (die in inwooner van het Distrikt Natal is, doch nu woonachtig buiten de grenzen van de Souvereiniteit over de Oranje Rivier, en geen regt heeft om zich hier te bemoeien) die toen en na dien tyd beide my en u-lieden bedrogen heeft.

Ik haaste my naar den zetel van het Gouvernement. Gy-lieden zyt allen wel bewust dat ik gedaan heb aldat door de mensch doenlyk was tot voordeel van deze ongelukkige en misleide menschen, trekkende van Natal. Een menigte, een groote menigte, ben ik verblyd te zeggen, hebben myne begeerte om tot hunne voordeel te handelen, gewaardeerd, en zyn naar hunne wooningen terug gekeerd. Vyfendertig Huisgezinnen met HERMANUS LOMBARD, buiten nog verscheidene kleinere klompen, hebben zulks onlangs gedaan.

Aan die genen die geen plaatsen hebben, heb ik gegeven, en zal aanhouden om te geven 3,000 morgen gronds aan de Klip en Tugela Rivieren. En ik stelde PRÆTORIUS aan op eene Land Commissie, a's een Lid waarvan hy in staat gesteld was om zyne landgenooten allergrootlykst te bevoordeelen. Ik gaf hem myne Proclamatie van den 3den February lautsleden, om het onder u-lieden te nemen, byzonderlyk hem verzoekende om het aan JACOBS verstaanbaar te maken, dat ik het uitgegeven had voor de bestelde byeenkomsten, om dat hy (PRÆTORIUS) my geraden heeft zulks te doen, zeggende, dat hy aan u allen zoude uitleggen hoe dat derzelver inhoud tot uw voordeel bestemd was; In plaats van zulks te doen, heeft hy de zin er van verdraaid—u-lieden misleid—en my bedrogen. Hy heeft my verzocht om de Souvereiniteit niet verder dan tot naar Vaal Rivier te laten strekken, en om de Mooi Rivier uit te laten voor de geenen die de voorgestelde maatregelen mogten afkeuren;—ik heb zulks gedaan. Ik heb altoos gezegd, dat, tenzy de meerderheid der Burgers ten gunsten waren van het bestuur die ik voor hen in vriendschap beraamd had, ik het niet zoude aandringen. Om aantetonen dat zulks niet het geval was, hebben PRÆTORIUS en JACOBS door alle denkelyke bedrog bedriegerij en leugentaal 470 handtekingen tot een adres verkregen. Daarna heeft SNEYMAN aan PRÆTORIUS gescreven, zeggende, dat hy met hem niets wilde te doen hebben, dat hy hem en zyne menschen bedrogen had, die allen hunne namen terug trokken. Ik ontvang adressen talryk geteekend van alle deelen der landstreek, behalve het ander zyde van Winburg. ERASMUS, de Veld Commandant, heeft PRÆTORIUS verlaten, en POTGIETER verklaard zich voor Rustigheid,—maar PRÆTORIUS die gaarne opwekt en anderen elendig maakt, tot zyn oogmerk hebbende zyne eigene eierzuchtige eindens—verzamelt een aantal, bestaande, uit van 700 tot 1000 mannen, niet hoofden van huisgezinnen, maar menschen waarvan de grootste gedeelte geruineerd is,—verschrikt van hunne wooningen, alle huisgezinnen door het gansche land—en spreekt van Oorlog en het vergieten van bloed. Indien er bloed vergoten wordt, zy het op zyn eigen eierzuchtig wederspannige hoofd!

Hy roemt op zyne matiging jegens Majoor WARDEN; indien hy op die post een druppel bloeds vergoten had, zoude hy de misdaad van Moord by die van Oproermaking gevoegd hebben;—vertrouwende in vertrouwendheid op de algemeene goede gevoelens, verzwakte ik het gedeelte der Troepen te Bloemfontein, omdat ik begeerde dat gy-lieden u-zelfen zouden regeeren, en was verlangend om niet met u-lieden te laten bemoeijen door middel van soldaten. Hierop voornemende, durft PRÆTORIUS met zyne wettelooze volgelingen, officieren verzetten die op Bloemfontein en Caledon Rivier geplaatst waren,—zichzelve noemende Commandant-Generaal; en deze volgelingen brengende om my te overtuigen dat de meerderheid ten gunste zyn van geene regering. Ik zeg hem dat zyne tegenwoordige aanhangers van buiten de Souvereiniteit gebragt zyn, of zyn gedwongen door bangmaking om zich by hem te voegen. En ik zeg hem, dat ik er van bewust ben dat vier-vyfde deelen der menschen van bezitting, en ten gunste zyn van de mildadige regering die ik bepaald heb tot voordeel van allen, tot de Kerk van Christus—en tot vrede.

Hy spreekt van zwarte mannen en meer volgelingen onder de Boeren aan te brengen.—Denkt hy om my op die wyze te bedriegen?

Indien de mannen aan de andere zyde van Winburg hun eigen bestuur verlangden, waarom hebben zy die van Caledon Rivier en Bloemfontein gemolesteerd? Deze beleediging zal met magt van wapens gewroken worden. Dan kunt gy-lieden op my vertrouwen, die myzelf als een ware vriend aan u-lieden verkond heb, om de beste maatregelen te bepalen. Maar geen gewapende magt zal zich vermeten om te zoeken naar hetgeen daar ik niet naar luisteren kan. Bloed zal niet ophouden om te vloeijen tot tyd en wyl dat vrede en rustigheid hersteld zullen zyn,—en Rebellen uit het land verdreven;—en wanneer vrouwen weenen, zullen gy, Rebellen, de moordenaren zyn van hunne mannen, zoons en broeders.

Kiest dus oorlog of vrede,—de een zal ik met wakkerheid opvolgen, de andere verzekeren tot voordeel van goede mannen en Gods Kerk—en ik zal zoodanige militaire posten oprigten als niet in den toekomenden tyd aan beleediging zullen bloedgesteld wezen.

PRÆTORIUS is een banneling, een man die vogelvry verklaard is,—en ik zal nooit met hem eenige communicatie houden.

De Proclamatie, twee duizend Ponden Sterling presenterende voor hem in hechtenis te nemen, blyft in zyne volle kracht.

Het is my bekend dat sommige van u Rebellen groote sommen gelds in de Kolonie hebben.—Wees voorzigtig, indien gy een schoot vuurt, dat ik zulks niet in beslag neme om te assisteren in het afdoen van de kosten dezer inbreuk die gy-lieden zoo verradelyks en op zoo een verraderlyke wyze aangevoerd hebben, en tot het terug betaling, waar zulks mogelyk is, aan de goede mannen, voor de schaden die zy geleden hebben, door uwen inval, uwe dreigementen en uw roveryen.

De opperhoofden der Inbooring stammen zyn onder de Souvereiniteit van Hare Majesteit, en kunnen geen traktaat maken dat verbindend is, tot dat hetzelfde door de vertegenwoordiger van Hare Majesteit bekrachtigd is.—Dus zyn zoodanige Traktaten als zy door Rebellen ingedwongen mogen zyn, nul en krachteloos.

Zoo als ik voortga zal iedere gewapende party die my afwacht, door my beschouwd worden als de eerste schoot gevuurd te hebben, en hun bloed zy op hunne hoofden, dus worden moord en rebellie vereenigd.

Zoodra ik op Winburg zal aangekomen zyn, zal ik gehoor geven aan hetgeen de Heer POTGIETER en alle vreedzame mannen en getrouwe onderdanen aan my voor te dragen hebben, tot het algemeen welzyn.

SWELLENDAM FARM

AND

STOCK.

THE Undersigned has received instructions to sell by Public Auction, on the spot,

ON TUESDAY,

The 10th October next,

The one-half part or share in that well-known valuable Farm called

measuring 1995½ Morgen or about 4000 Acres, situated in the district of Swellendam, near the Village of Riversdale.

To any one about to commence the pursuits of Farming, this Property can be confidently recommended as combining every requisite for the breeding of HORSES, CATTLE, and MERINO SHEEP. The capabilities of the Property are not confined (as in many other farms,) to the breeding of Stock alone, as great quantities of Grain have been, and much more might be, annually produced, there being scarcely any part of the Farm in which the plough could not with advantage be put.

An Extensive Garden,

in the immediate vicinity of the Dwelling House, well stocked with Fruit Trees of various descriptions, affords an abundance of Vegetables, &c., and being well enclosed, Gardening to almost any extent may be carried on, for which the numerous streams of never-failing water, and the excellent quality of the ground, render this Farm so peculiarly adapted.

There is a SUBSTANTIAL DWELLING HOUSE, as also STABLES, outhouses, KRAALS, &c., and near the House a large piece of Ground has been partially enclosed, which with trifling expense might be converted into an extensive "Camp" or Paddock for young horses.

The locality of this Property is equally advantageous, being in the immediate vicinity of the Platte Kloof Pass, 5 hours' ride from PORT BEAUFORT and two from the Village of RIVERSDALE, where an excellent market is always found for every description of produce, and which Village has recently increased in importance from the Establishment of a Magistracy.

To these and many other advantages, too numerous for the limits of an advertisement, suffice it to add, that as a place where the general pursuits of agriculture may be carried on both with pleasure and with profit, this Farm challenges competition with any one in the District.

At the same time will be sold the whole of the STOCK, FARMING IMPLEMENTS, &c., consisting of:—

1000 thorough-bred MERINO EWES,
50 superior well-bred HORSES, including some two years old and yearling Colts by those celebrated Stallions "JACK PALMER," "SIR SOLOMON," "TURN-PIKE," &c.

An excellent OX WAGON, nearly new, A span of fine OXEN.

PLOUGH, HARROWS, and other AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS.

The usual assortment of HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE, &c. &c. &c.

The whole will be sold positively without the least Reserve.

Swellendam, 22nd August 1848.

Paradise Regained.

HOW indescribably fragrant must the hortulan odours have been that greeted, on her natal morn, the discriminating sense of all beauteous Eve; as she rapturously reclined in the primal Garden of the Universe, a spot unhappily lost, and now unknown to her children. Yet, somewhat of its entrancing fragrance—a taste of the Elysian sweets of departed Eden, is now regainable in a 2s. 6d. Bottle of that unrivalled Perfume for the Handkerchief and Boudoir, Real Omar Essence. But, buyers, remember that the Proprietor's signature, A. G. MATHIESON, is adhibited to the Label on every Bottle sold by him, of the above, and that it is not to be had genuine at any other place in the Colony, but his own Shop, No. 20, Long-market-street, Cape Town as certain parties are now attempting to sell a vile compound under the same name.

NOTICE.

THE Undersigned informs his numerous Friends, and the Public in general, that he will, as before, again carry on his trade as a Butcher in Shamble No. 2, where daily may be obtained Beef, Mutton, Lamb and Veal of the best quality and at moderate prices. He also takes the liberty (in order to prevent misunderstanding, which may arise from a certain Advertisement in the Government Gazette of 31st August, signed R. A. Zeederberg Jr., by which it is notified, that the business, which had been carried on by Messrs. C. L. Herman, D. A. de Villiers, R. A. Zeederberg Jr., and himself, for the supply of Cattle and Sheep, has ceased from the 9th August 1848,) to lay before the Public the conditions, upon which we have dissolved.

J. GEORGE MULLER.

On this the Ninth day of the month of August, 1848, J. G. Muller, D. A. de Villiers, R. A. Zeederberg and C. L. Herman agreed to dissolve the business by mutual consent, should Morkel & De Villiers consent; then

1. R. A. Zeederberg Jr. and D. A. de Villiers agree and bind themselves and all their property, to pay as their own debts, all bills passed and the debts hitherto made for cattle purchased for, and delivered to, the business, without recourse to J. G. Muller, or C. L. Herman, whether for Bills passed by the firm, or for Bills passed by others in favour of the firm, and power is hereby granted to R. A. Zeederberg Jr., and D. A. de Villiers, to collect all outstanding accounts till this day, and all outstanding debts of the Shamble No. 2, till ultimo June 1848, and to sell all wagons, horses, and cattle, now at hand, and everything belonging to the business, or purchased on the road, or still to be purchased, until this agreement can be communicated to the purchasers, in such manner, as they shall deem most expedient, to meet the payments, which, as aforesaid, they have agreed to pay, provided that all losses sustained upon such cattle or such debts collected, cannot afterwards be charged against J. G. Muller or C. L. Herman, and casual profits since 1st July being therefore also assigned to them.

J. G. Muller and C. L. Herman bind themselves to afford the necessary assistance in the delivery of all these goods and effects, and also in the total winding up of the same; Zeederberg and De Villiers binding themselves to give for the use of J. G. Muller, from the droves of Sheep now on the road, or to be brought up by Van Blerk, Alterman, and Joh. de Beer, 1200 Sheep, that is to say, not above six hundred Sheep from each drove, for which J. G. Muller agrees to pass bills for the value of the Sheep at prime cost, loss and costs, but without any commission, payable at four months, drawn by J. G. Muller upon A. M. Muller in favor of D. G. Muller, and properly signed by them. In consideration of the dissolution of this contract, and because J. G. Muller and C. L. Herman desist from everything, every item which J. G. Muller, according to the books, appears to be indebted to the business on his own account until ultimo June is remitted to him, also the amount of the debts, under said date, of the hereundermentioned persons, according to the books closed under said date, namely:—

G. VAN REENEN MULLER,
D. G. MULLER,
F. MULLER, G. Son, and
Widow J. G. MULLER.

R. A. Zeederberg and D. A. de Villiers also binding themselves to take over as own debt of the business, the bill passed by A. Muller, entered in the books under No. 151, as bills receivable, and entered on the credit side of the books in the name of J. G. Muller, for which J. G. Muller, as a set off of C. L. Herman, allows him the Sum of three hundred Pounds Sterling, to be paid with bills of fifty Pounds Sterling to be passed by J. G. Muller, in favor of C. L. Herman, the first payable this day four months, and the others in succession four months later, one after the other, and immediately to cede to Zeederberg and De Villiers the contract and bond of Morkel and De Villiers.

Zeederberg and De Villiers bind themselves to take over the above sum of three hundred Pounds Sterling, in part payment of the debt of C. L. Herman.

The parties declare to have entered into the above amicably and to have understood it, and to bind for the fulfilment thereof, each for his part, their persons and goods according to law.

(Get.) JOHN MONTAGU,

GOUVERNEMENTS KENNISGEVING.

Koloniale Secretary, 2 Augustus 1848.

VAN wege den tyd des jaars waarop de nieuwe Afdeelingen omlangs opgericht in, of gehecht aan de Kolonie, zijn geformeerd, is het onvermydelijk gebeurd dat geen Rondgaand Gerechtshof in eenige derzelve kan worden gehouden by het aankomend Circuit.

De verhindering ontstaat uit de daadzaak dat geen Rondgaand Gerechtshof kan worden gehouden zonder een behoorlyke Jury, en dat geen behoorlyke Jury in een dezer nieuwe Afdeelingen kan worden byeengebracht.

Onder de Ordonnantie No. 34 (de bestaande Jury Wet,) is de eerste Februaary van het laatste jaar de eenige dag waarop Jury Lysten wettiglyk kunnen worden aangeplakt, bevorens de rectificatie door den Resident Magistraat—en uit gebrek van tyd hebben geen zoodanige Lysten in eenige der gez. Distrikten kunnen worden aangeplakt, het welk dezelve zonder een Jury laat.

In het aankondigen van de oorzaken welke hebben geleid tot de verandering in de schikkingen van het Rondgaand Gerechtshof, bepaald in de Proclamatie van Heden, gelast Zyne Excellentie kennis te geven dat de noodige stappen zullen worden genomen door de geschikte beambten, om in behoorlyken tyd voor het Circuit, na dat het welk nu in kort zal beginnen, geschikte Jury Lysten te voorzien, voor de onderscheiden Afdeelingen, waarin in het vervolg Circuit Hoven zullen worden gehouden.

Ter Ordonnantie van Zyne Excellentie den Gouverneur
(Get.) JOHN MONTAGU,
Gouvernements Secretaris.

Dit Eigendom kan gerustelyk worden aanbevolen aan een ieder die zich tot den Landbouw begeven wil, als vereenigende aller vereischten voor den aanloop van Paarden, Vee en Merino Schapen. De geschiktheiden van het Eigendom zijn niet bepaald (zoo als in vele andere plaatsen) tot den aanloop van Vee alleen, maar groote hoeveelheden Graan daar alreeds zijn gewonnen, en nog meer gewonnen kan worden, zynde er byna geen deel van de plaats dat niet met voordeel kan beploegd worden.

Eene uitgebreide Tuin.

in de nabijheid van het Woonhuis, wel voorzien van alle soorten van Vruchtboomen, levert overvloed van Groenten enz., en wel omheind zynde, kan de Tuinbouw daar tot byna iedere uitgestrektheid gedreven worden, waartoe de nooit missende stroomen en grond van de plaats dezelve zeer geschikt maken.

Er is een hecht en sterk Woonhuis, Stalling, Buitengebouwen, Kralen, enz., en naby het Huis is een groot stuk Grond, gedeeltelyk omheind, dat met geringe kosten kan worden voltooid voor een Park of Kamp voor jonge Paarden.

De ligging van de Plaats is zeer gunstig, zynde in de onmiddelyke nabijheid van de Plattekloofs Pas, vyf uren te paard van Port Beaufort, en twee van het Dorp Riversdale, waar altyd een uitmuntende markt wordt gevonden voor alle soorten van Producten, en welk dorps onlangs grootelyk in aanbelaag is toegenomen door het daarstellen van eene Magistrature.

By deze en vele andere voordeelen, te veel voor de grenzen van eene Advertentie, kan worden bygevoegd dat als eene plaats waarin de algemeene bedryf van Landbouw met genoegen en voordeel kunnen worden gedreven, deze plaats alle mededinging uitdrukt.

TERZELFDER TYD ZAL WORDEN VERKOCHT,

Al het Vee en Landbouwgereedschap, enz., bestaand, in:—

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 1848.

Government Notice.

Colonial Office; Cape Town,
9th September, 1848.

HIS Excellency the Governor, has directed the publication of the following account of an Action which took place on the 29th ultimo, at Bloem Plaatz, between the Troops under his command and the Rebel Boers beyond the Orange River: and which ended in the total rout, and subsequent flight of the Rebels.

The Notice published on the 30th ult. gave information of the passage of the Orange River by nearly all the troops, on the 23rd of that month, whereupon PRETORIUS, the Rebel Chief, together with those under his command, in number exceeding 1,000 men, had fallen back towards Winburg, with a degree of precipitation which rendered the prospect of an action improbable. All the Troops had arrived on the 25th, when His Excellency crossed the River and by incredible exertions the passage was completed by them on the 26th ultimo. His Excellency then moved the Troops with the greatest rapidity, in the direction of Bloem Fontein, in pursuit of the Rebels, whom on the 29th ultimo, he found posted in a very strong position at "Bloem Plaatz," on the Krom Elim Bok River, where is a succession of ridges of low hills, backed by a higher range, through a pass in which the road runs.

On a reconnoitering party, accompanied by His Excellency, approaching the first ridge, the Rebels suddenly sprung up, and opened a heavy fire upon them. The left of their position was, however, quickly carried by the Rifle Brigade, 45th, and 91st Regts., the Artillery (six pounders) opening at the same time a very effective fire. The Rebels' right having been considerably thrown forward, was gallantly attacked by the Cape Mounted Rifles, under the orders of Lieut. Col. Buller; and driven back towards the Pass, in the direction of which, the enemy were now at every point hurrying, pursued from ridge to ridge of the low hills, by Her Majesty's Troops, and suffering great loss as they retired, from the Guns which opened upon them wherever they could be brought to bear. It was afterwards found that 12 men had been killed by one well-directed round shot. On reaching the summit of the Pass,—the Enemy made a bold, though fruitless effort to maintain their position, but by a combined attack of the Cape Mounted Rifles, with a body of the Griqua Auxiliaries, they were at length driven from this, their last position; on abandoning which they fled in the utmost disorder, in all directions over the plain beyond, leaving behind them many horses, arms, and various articles of dress, &c. His Excellency continued the pursuit for several miles, and until dark; but it being evident that the Rebels were completely broken, halted for the night at "Calver Fontein." In the hope of overtaking, and capturing the train of wagons, he marched next morning, the 30th ult. at 2 o'clock, for "Bethany," which he reached early in the day, and then ascertained that the Enemy's Camp no longer existed; they having fled in parties of two and three with their wagons in all directions. On the march, evidence was everywhere afforded of the precipitate retreat of the Rebels, numbers of horses &c. having been left on the road. Forty-nine of the enemy were counted dead upon the field; their wounded may be considered upwards of one hundred and fifty. Owing to the nature of the ground, which afforded great advantage to the Rebels, the loss on the side of Her Majesty's Troops is unfortunately rather heavy, as will be seen by the following Return.

By His Excellency's Command,

(Signed) JOHN MONTAGU,
Secretary to Government.

Colonial Office, 30th August, 1848.

HIS Excellency the Governor has directed the following notification of his proceeding, and the movements of the troops in the country beyond the Orange River, to be published for general information.

On the 22nd instant, nearly all the troops required for the military operations having then reached Colesberg, His Excellency commenced the passage of that river: and had on the 23rd conveyed the greater portion across to the right bank.

His Excellency's passage of the river has been followed by the happiest effects. The loyal portion of the population beyond the Orange River have been inspired with confidence, and have expressed their readiness to join the Queen's troops, and act against the rebels. Two of the field-commandants—Snyman and Erasmus—were with his Excellency, and had offered him the assistance and support of their parties, should they be required.

The chief Adam Kok was also in His Excellency's camp; and both he and the chiefs Waterboer and Moshesh had displayed the most exemplary fidelity to their engagements of alliance with Her Majesty, notwithstanding the attempts of the rebels to undermine their loyalty.

On the other hand, His Excellency's proceedings have filled the rebels with consternation and dismay. They have fallen back to Winberg, leaving the passage of the river uncontested. They commenced their backward movement the moment the infantry advanced, their outposts flying from the banks of the river, leaving the meat half-cooked upon the fires: and, although they still boast of their intentions, it appears at present probable that they will not venture to make a stand at all.

His Excellency regrets that the present movement has been attended with serious loss and destruction of property to many of Her Majesty's loyal subjects beyond the Orange river. In the Caledon district, 500 families have been forced from their homes, and the excesses committed by the Rebel Pretorius upon isolated farms and houses have caused His Excellency severe mortification. His Excellency, however, rejoices that there is now a certain prospect of destroying, once and for ever, the influence of these designing men among Her Majesty's faithful emigrant subjects, and has directed the publication of the following "Warning."

By His Excellency's Command,
(Signed) JOHN MONTAGU,
Secretary to Government.

Warning to the Rebel Boers.

KNOW ALL YE assembled in arms under one PRETORIUS, whom I have proscribed, that ye are British subjects, and that the act of your thus assembling in this reckless manner is illegal, and in opposition to Her Majesty's sovereign Will. You are guilty of rebellion.

Remember, before you force me to fire upon you, that I have already given you fair warning in my Manifesto on the 29th March last. I now again warn you to pause, ere you compel me to use the force now assembled at my disposal, and close at hand.

What is it that you seek? To be slaves to black men, and to hold your lands from them, and not from Her Majesty? I went among you last January with a heart full of affectionate feelings towards the Boer. I have done for you all that you asked me to do. Each Boer now holds his land in perpetuity; not on an expiring lease of 40 years, and you have the privilege of almost entirely governing yourselves. I have rendered the districts of Bloem Fontein and Caledon happy—most happy and grateful to me. Ask every man of any property in either of them if this is not the case. Now, all possess their lands in security. I have legalized all marriages. I have two ministers coming from Holland, and schoolmasters on the road. Your rebellious conduct has driven many from their homes, with their wives and their children; plunging them into misery in this inclement weather, and destroying their flocks and herds. Is this the good that you seek for your countrymen?

Beyond Winberg there are many violent men who are opposed to rule and government in any shape; but many whom I met in that neighbourhood, although they told me in public, when overawed by the turbulent, that they would rather remain as they were, in private

GOUVERNEMENTS KENNISGEVING.

Koloniale Secretary, 30 Augustus 1848.

ZYNE Excellentie de Gouverneur heeft gelast de volgende Kennisgeving, van zyne verrigtingen en van de bewegingen der Troepen in het land over de Oranje Rivier, tot algemeen narigt te publiceren.

Op den 22 dezer waren byna al de troepen voor de militaire verrigtingen vereischt, te Colesberg aangekomen. Zyne Excellentie begon toen den overtocht van de rivieren had op den 23sten het grootste deel op den register oever overgebracht.

Zyne Excellenties overtocht over de Rivier heeft de gemakkelijkste gevolgen gehad. Het getrouw geblevene deel van de bevolking over de Rivier is vervuld met vertrouwen, en heeft deszelfs bereidvaardigheid verklaard om zich te vereenigen met de Troepen van de Koningin, en te ageren tegen de Rebellen. Twee van de Veldkominants, SNYMAN en ERASMUS, waren by Zyne Excellentie en hadden de hulp en medewerking van hunne partyen aangeboden, indien noodig waren.

Het Opperhoofd ADAM KOK was mede in het kamp by Zyne Excellentie, en beiden, hy en de Opperhoofden WATERBOER en MOSHESH hadden voorbeeldige trouw aan hunne verbindtenissen van alliantie aan Hare Majesteit aan den dag gelegd, niet tegenstaande de pogingen van den Rebel om hunne trouw te doen wankelen.

Aan de andere zyde hebben de verrigtingen van Zyne Excellentie de Rebellen met schrik vervuld. Zy zyn terug getrokken op Winburg, latende de overtocht van de rivier vry. Zy hebben deze achterwaardsche begonnen op het oogeblik dat de infanterie voortrukke, vlugtende hunne piketten van de oevers der rivier, en latende hun vleesch halt gaar op het vuur achter, en ofschoon zy nog zwetsen op hunne voornemen, schynt het voor het tegenwoordige niet waarschijnlijk dat zy stand zullen houden.

Het doel Zyner Excellentie leidt dat de tegenwoordige beweging is vergezeld geweest van ernstig verlies en vernieling van eigendom, voor velen van Hare Majesteits getrouwe Onderdanen over de Oranje Rivier. In het Caledon District zyn 500 families van hunne haardsteden verdreven, en de buitensporigheden door den Rebel PRETORIUS gepleegd aan eenzame plaatsen, hebben Zyne Excellentie innig leedwezen doen gevoelen. Zyne Excellentie verheugt zich echter, dat er nu een zeker vooruitzicht is om met eens en voor altyd den invloed te vernielen van deze kwadwillige lieden, onder Hare Majesteits getrouwe uitgewekene Onderdanen, en heeft de publicatie gelast van de volgende "waarschuwing."

Ter Ordonnantie van Zyne Excellentie den Gouverneur,
(Get.) JOHN MONTAGU,
Gouvernements Secretaris.

Waarschuwing aan de Rebel Boeren.

ZY HET KENNELYK aan u-lieden alle die onder wapens verzameld zyt onder een PRETORIUS, dien ik vogelvry verklaard heb, dat gy-lieden Britsche Onderdanen zyt, en dat de daad van uwe verzameling aldus, op deze roekeloze wyze onwettig is, en tegenstrydig met de Souvereine wil van Hare Majesteit. Gy zyt schuldig aan Rebelle.

Gedenkt, voor dat gy my aandringt op u-lieden te vuren, dat ik u-lieden reeds billyke waarschuwing gegeven heb in myn Manifest van den 29ste Maart laatstleden. Ik waarschuw u-lieden nogmaals te verpoezen, voor dat gy-lieden my er toe dwingt, om van de magt die ik nu verzameld en tot myn wil en by der hand heb, gebruik te maken.

Wat is het dat gy-lieden zoekt? Om slaven van zwarte mannen te zyn, en om uw gronden te houden van hen en niet van Hare Majesteit? Ik ging laatstleden January onder u-lieden met een hart vol van toegenegene gevoelens jegens den Boer. Ik heb voor u-lieden gedaan al dat gy-lieden my gevraagd hebt te doen;—ieder Boer houdt nu zyn grond in eeuwigdurendheid en niet op een verlopende Huurbrief van 40 jaren, en gy-lieden hebt het voorrecht van u-zelfen byna geheel en al te bestieren. Ik heb de Distrikten van Bloemfontein en Caledon gelukkig gemaakt, zeer gelukkig en dankbaar aan my. Vraagt aan een ieder man van eenige bezitting in iedere dezer distrikten, of zulks niet het geval is. Nu bezitten zy allen hunne gronden in veiligheid. Ik heb alle Huwelyken gewettigd. Ik heb twee Godsdienst Leeraren aan het komen, uit Holland. En Schoolmeesters op weg. Uw wederspanning gedrag heeft velen van hunne woningen verdreven met hunne vrouwen en hunne kinderen, hen in elende dompelende in den onstuimige weer, en vernielende hun vee en kudden. Is dit het welzyn gy-lieden zoekt voor uw landgenooten?

Aan de andere zyde van Winburg zyn er vele geweldige mannen die op allerlei soorten van Regering en Bestuur tegen zyn, maar ook velen die ik in dien omtrek ontmoet heb, alhoewel zy my in het publiek, toen zy voor de rusteloozen bevreesd waren, zeiden, dat zy liever wilde blyven zoo als zy waren; in het privaat hebben zy na my gezocht en my verzekerd dat zy elendig waren, en smeekten my om hen een Magistraat te zenden. Te Winburg kwam een groot aantal getrouwe mannen my te gemoet, aan my een adres presenterende. De Opperhoofden MOSHESH, MCLETSANI, SEKONYELLA en anderen waren tegen

sought me and assured me that they were miserable, and prayed me to send them a magistrate. I was met at Winberg by a large body of loyal men who presented an address to me—the Chiefs Moshesh, Malitsanie, Sikonyella, and others, were present. All agreed to what I proposed, for the general benefit and welfare of Bloem Fontein, Caledon, and Winberg, not for mine or the government of the Colony. I then prosecuted my journey to Natal, where I met hundreds of families “trekking” in misery in the rainy season, excited to discontent by this PRETORIUS, (who is an inhabitant of the district of Natal, who is now dwelling beyond the limits of our sovereignty, over the Orange River, and has no right to interfere here,) who has then and since imposed both upon me and you. I hastened to the seat of government: you all well know that I did every thing man could do for the benefit of these unfortunate and misguided people trekking from Natal. Many, very many, I rejoice to say, have appreciated my desire to serve them, and have returned to their homes. Thirty-five families with HERMANUS LOMBARD, besides several smaller parties, have lately done so. To those who have no farms I have given, and will continue to give, 3,000 morgen of land on the Klip and Tugela rivers; and I appointed PRETORIUS to a land commission,—as a member of which he might have rendered the greatest benefit to his countrymen. I gave him my proclamation of the 3d February last, to take among you, especially requesting him to explain to JACOBS that I had issued it before the meeting proposed, because he (PRETORIUS) recommended me to do so,—saying that he would point out to all of you how its contents were calculated for your good. In place of doing this, he perverted its meaning,—misled you, and deceived me.

He requested me not to extend the sovereignty beyond the Vaal river, and to leave the Mooi river for those who might disapprove of the order of things proposed. I did so. I have always said that unless the majority of the burghers were in favor of the government which I had in friendship framed for them, I would not press it. To show that such was not the case, PRETORIUS and JACOBS got 470 signatures to an address by every imaginable fraud, deceit, and lie. Subsequently, SNEYMAN wrote to PRETORIUS, to say that he would have nothing to do with him,—that he had deceived him and his people, who had added their names to this list, and who all withdrew them. I receive addresses, numerously signed, from every part of the country except beyond Winberg. ERASMUS, the field-commandant, has left PRETORIUS; and POTGIETER declares for quiet. But PRETORIUS, who loves to excite and render others miserable, aiming at his own ambitious ends, gets together a body of from 700 to 1000 men, not heads of families, but persons for the most part ruined in circumstances,—frightens from their homes all families throughout the land, and talks of war, and blood being shed. If blood be shed, be it on his own ambitious rebel's head! He boasts of his moderation to Major WARDEN;—if he had shed a drop of blood at that post, he would have added the crime of murder to that of rebellion.

Trusting, in confidence, to the general good feeling, I weakened the detachment of troops at Bloem Fontein, because I desired that you yourselves should govern yourselves, and was anxious not to interfere with you by means of soldiers. Taking advantage of this, PRETORIUS, with his lawless followers, dares to remove officers placed at Bloem Fontein and the Caledon River,—styling himself commandant-general, and bringing these followers to prove to me that the majority are in favor of no rule. I tell him that his present adherents are either brought from beyond the sovereignty, or are forced by intimidation to join him;—and I tell him, that I know that four-fifths of the people of property are in favor of the liberal government I have established for the benefit of all,—for Christ's church, and for peace.

He talks of bringing down black men and more followers among the boers. Does he think to impose upon me in this way?

If the men beyond Winberg desired to have their own government, why did they molest those of Caledon River and Bloem Fontein? This insult shall be avenged by force of arms. Then may you trust to me, who have shown myself a true friend to you, to establish the best order of things. But no armed party shall presume to seek what I cannot listen to. Blood shall not cease to flow until peace and tranquility be established, and Rebels driven out of the land:—and when women weep, you, Rebels, will be the murderers of their husbands, sons, and brothers.

Choose, therefore, War or Peace. The one I will vigorously prosecute; the other I will secure for the benefit of good men and God's church;—and I will establish such military posts as shall not be subject to insult in future.

PRETORIUS is an outlaw—a proscribed man—and I will never communicate with him; the proclamation offering £2000 for his apprehension remains in full force.

Some of you Rebels, I know, have large sums of money in the Colony,—beware, if you fire a shot, lest I seize them to assist in defraying the expenses of this outbreak, which you have so treacherously and traitorously brought about, and in re-imbursing, where possible, the good men for the losses they have suffered by your invasion, your threats, and your robberies.

The Native Chiefs are under the sovereignty of Her Majesty, and can make no treaty that is binding till ratified by Her Majesty's Representative. Any treaties, therefore, that they may have been forced into by the Rebels are null and void.

As I advance, whatever armed party awaits me I shall regard as having fired the first shot,—and the blood be on their heads; thus murder and rebellion become united.

So soon as I reach Winberg I will hear what Myheer POTGIETER and all peaceable men and loyal subjects have to represent to me for the general benefit.

Colesberg, dated 17th August, 1848.

H. G. SMITH, Governor.

By Order of His Excellency Her Majesty's High Commissioner,

RICHARD SOUTHEY, Secretary.

woordig. Alle stemden toe hetgeen ik voorstelde, voor algemeene voordeel en de welvaart van Bloemfontein, Caledon en Winburg; niet voor de myne nog voor het Gouvernement van de Kolonie.

Toen nam ik myne reis verder aan naar Nata', wanneer ik honderden van huisgezinnen ontmoette, “trekkenden” ellendiglyk in een regenachtig jaargety, opgewekt tot ontevredenheid door dezen PRETORIUS (die in inwooner van het Distrikt Natal is, doch nu woonachtig buiten de grenzen van de Souvereiniteit over de Oranje Rivier, en geen regt heeft om zich hier te bemoeien) die toen en na dien tyd beide my en u-lieden bedrogen heeft.

Ik haaste my naar den zetel van het Gouvernement. Gy-lieden zyt allen wel bewust dat ik gedaan heb aldat door de mensch doenlyk was tot voordeel van deze ongelukkige en misleide menschen, trekkende van Natal. Een menigte, een groote menigte, ben ik verblyd te zeggen, hebben myne begeerte om tot hunne voordeel te handelen, gewaardeerd, en zyn naar hunne woningen terug gekeerd. Vyfendertig Huisgezinnen met HERMANUS LOMBAARD, buiten nog verscheidene kleinere klompen, hebben zulks onlangs gedaan.

Aan die genen die geen plaatsen hebben, heb ik gegeven, en zal aanhouden om te geven 3,000 morgen gronds aan de Klip en Tugela Rivieren. En ik stelde PRETORIUS aan op eene Land Commissie, a's een Lid waarvan hy in staat gesteld was om zyne landgenooten allergrootlykst te bevoordeelen. Ik gaf hem myne Proclamatie van den 3den February laatsleden, om het onder u-lieden te nemen, byzonderlyk hem verzoekende om het aan JACOBS verstaanbaar te maken, dat ik het uitgegeven had voor de bestelde byeenkomsten, om dat hy (PRETORIUS) my geraden heeft zulks te doen, zeggende, dat hy aan u allen zoude uitleggen hoe dat derzelver inhoud tot uw voordeel bestemd was; In plaats van zulks te doen, heeft hy de zin er van verdraaid — u-lieden misleid — en my bedrogen. Hy heeft my verzocht om de Souvereiniteit niet verder dan tot naar Vaal Rivier te laten strekken, en om de Mooi Rivier uit te laten voor de geenen die de voorgestelde maatregelen mogten afkeuren; — ik heb zulks gedaan. Ik heb altoos gezegd, dat, tenzy de meerderheid der Burgers ten gunsten waren van het bestuur die ik voor hen in vriendschap beraamd had, ik het niet zoude aandrigen. Om aantetonen dat zulks niet het geval was, hebben PRETORIUS en JACOBS door alle denkelyke bedrog bedriegerij en leugentaa 470 handteekeningen tot een adres verkregen. Daarna heeft SNEYMAN aan PRETORIUS geschreven, zeggende, dat hy met hem niets wilde te doen hebben, dat hy hem en zyne menschen bedrogen had, die allen hunne namen terug trokken. Ik ontvang adressen talryk geteekend van alle deelen der landstreek, behalve het ander zyde van Winburg. ERASMUS, de Veld Commandant, heeft PRETORIUS verlaten, en POTGIETER verklaard zich voor Rustigheid, — maar PRETORIUS die gaarne opwekt en anderen elendig maakt, tot zyn oogmerk hebbende zyne eigene eierzuchtige eindens — verzamelt een aantal, bestaande, uit van 700 tot 1000 mannen, niet hoofden van huisgezinnen, maar menschen waarvan de grootste gedeelte gerveineerd is, — verschrikt van hunne woningen, alle huisgezinnen door het gansche land — en spreekt van Oorlog en het vergieten van bloed. Indien er bloed vergoten wordt, zy het op zyn eigen eierzuchtig wederspannige hoofd!

Hy roept op zyne matiging jegens Majoor WARDEN; indien hy op die post een druppel bloeds vergoten had, zoude hy de misdaad van Moord by die van Oproermaking gevoegd hebben; — vertrouwende in vertrouwendheid op de algemeene goede gevoelens, verzwakte ik het gedeelte der Troepen te Bloemfontein, omdat ik begeerde dat gy-lieden u-zelfen zouden regeren, en was verlangend om niet met u-lieden te later bemoeien door middel van soldaten. Hierop voornemende, durft PRETORIUS met zyne wetteloze volgelingen, officieren verzetten die op Bloemfontein en Caledon Rivier geplaatst waren, — zichzelf noemende Commandant-Generaal; en deze volgelingen brengen te om my te overtuigen dat de meerderheid ten gunste zyn van geene regering. Ik zeg hem dat zyne tegenwoordige aanhangers van buiten de Souvereiniteit gebragt zyn, of zyn gedwongen door bangmaking om zich hy hem te voegen. En ik zeg hem, dat ik er van bewust ben dat vier-vylde deelen der menschen van bezittingen ten gunste zyn van de mildadige regering die ik bepaald heb tot voordeel van allen, tot de Kerk van Christus — en tot vrede.

Indien de mannen aan de andere zyde van Winburg hun eigen bestuur verlangden, waarom hebben zy die van Caledon Rivier en Bloemfontein gemolesteerd? Deze beleediging zal met magt van wapens gewroken worden. Dankt gy-lieden op my vertrouwen, die myzelf als een ware vriend aan u-lieden vertoond heb, om de beste maatregelen te bepalen. Maar geen gewapende magt zal zich vermeten om te zoeken naar hetgeen daar ik niet naar luisteren kan. Bloed zal niet ophouden om te vloeijen tot tyd en wyl dat vrede en rustigheid hersteld zullen zyn, — en Rebellen uit het land verdreven; — en wanneer vrouwen weenen, zullen gy, Rebellen, de moordenaren zyn van hunne mannen, zoons en broeders.

Kiest dus oorlog of vrede, — de een zal ik met wakkerheid opvolgen, de andere verzekeren tot voordeel van goede mannen en Gods Kerk — en ik zal zoodanige militaire posten oprigten als niet in den toekomenden tyd aan beleediging zullen bloedgegeld wezen.

PRETORIUS is een banneling, — een man die vogelvry verklaard is, — en ik zal nooit met hem eenige communicatie houden.

De Proclamatie, twee duizend Ponden Sterling presenterende voor hem in hechtenis te nemen, blyft in zyne volle kracht.

Het is my bekend dat sommige van u Rebellen groote sommen gelds in de Kolonie hebben. — Wees voorzigtig, indien gy een schoot vuurt, dat ik zulks niet in beslag neme om te assisteren in het afdoen van de kosten dezer indruk die gy-lieden zoo verradelyk en op zoo een verraderlyke wyze aangevoerd hebben, en tot het terug betaling, waar zulks mogelyk is, aan de goede mannen, voor de schaden die zy geleden hebben, door uwen inval, uwe dreigementen en uw rovetyen.

De opperhoofden der Inboorling stammen zyn onder de Souvereiniteit van Hare Majesteit, en kunnen geen traktaat maken dat verbindend is, tot dat hetzelfde door de vertegenwoordiger van Hare Majesteit bekrachtigd is. — Dus zyn zoodanige Traktaten als zy door Rebellen ingedwongen mogen zyn, nul en krachteloos.

Zoo als ik voortga zal iedere gewapende party die my afwacht, door my beschouwd worden als de eerste schoot gevurd te hebben, en hun bloed zy op hunne hoofden, dus worden moord en rebellie verenigd.

Zoodra ik op Winburg zal aangekomen zyn, zal ik gehoor geven aan hetgeen de Heer POTGIETER en alle vreedzame mannen en getrouwe onderdanen aan my voor te dragen hebben, tot het algemeen welzyn.

Colesberg, den 17den Augustus 1848.

H. G. SMITH, Gouverneur,

Ter Order van Zyne Excellentie Hare Majesteits Hooge Commissaris, RICHARD SOUTHEY, Secretaris.

Government Notice.

Colonial Office, Cape Town,
9th September, 1848.

HIS Excellency the Governor, has directed the publication of the following account of an Action which took place on the 29th ultimo, at Bloem Plaatz, between the Troops under his command and the Rebel Boers beyond the Orange River: and which ended in the total rout, and subsequent flight of the Rebels.

The Notice published on the 30th ult. gave information of the passage of the Orange River by nearly all the troops, on the 23rd of that month, whereupon PRETORIUS, the Rebel Chief, together with those under his command, in number exceeding 1,000 men, had fallen back towards Winburg, with a degree of precipitation which rendered the prospect of an action improbable. All the Troops had arrived on the 25th, when His Excellency crossed the River and by incredible exertions the passage was completed by them on the 26th ultimo. His Excellency then moved the Troops with the greatest rapidity, in the direction of Bloem Fontein, in pursuit of the Rebels, whom on the 29th ultimo, he found posted in a very strong position at "Bloem Plaatz," on the Krom Elin Bok River, where is a succession of ridges of low hills, backed by a higher range, through a pass in which the road runs.

On a reconnoitering party, accompanied by His Excellency, approaching the first ridge, the Rebels suddenly sprung up, and opened a heavy fire upon them. The left of their position was, however, quickly carried by the Rifle Brigade, 45th, and 91st Regts., the Artillery (six pounders) opening at the same time a very effective fire. The Rebels' right having been considerably thrown forward, was gallantly attacked by the Cape Mounted Rifles, under the orders of Lieut. Col. Buller; and driven back towards the Pass, in the direction of which, the enemy were now at every point hurrying, pursued from ridge to ridge of the low hills, by Her Majesty's Troops, and suffering great loss as they retired, from the Guns which opened upon them wherever they could be brought to bear. It was afterwards found that 12 men had been killed by one well-directed round shot. On reaching the summit of the Pass,—the Enemy made a bold, though fruitless effort to maintain their position, but by a combined attack of the Cape Mounted Rifles, with a body of the Griqua Auxiliaries, they were at length driven from this, their last position; on abandoning which they fled in the utmost disorder, in all directions over the plain beyond, leaving behind them many horses, arms, and various articles of dress, &c. His Excellency continued the pursuit for several miles, and until dark; but it being evident that the Rebels were completely broken, halted for the night at "Calver Fontein." In the hope of overtaking, and capturing the train of wagons, he marched next morning, the 30th ult. at 2 o'clock, for "Bethany," which he reached early in the day, and then ascertained that the Enemy's Camp no longer existed; they having fled in parties of two and three with their wagons in all directions. On the march, evidence was everywhere afforded of the precipitate retreat of the Rebels, numbers of horses &c. having been left on the road. Forty-nine of the enemy were counted dead upon the field; their wounded may be considered upwards of one hundred and fifty. Owing to the nature of the ground, which afforded great advantage to the Rebels, the loss on the side of Her Majesty's Troops is unfortunately rather heavy, as will be seen by the following Return.

By His Excellency's Command,

Secretary to Government.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.

Colonial Office, Cape Town,
2d August, 1848.

WING to the period of the year at which the new Divisions recently created in, or annexed to, this Colony were formed, it has unavoidably happened that no Circuit Court can be holden in any of them during the ensuing Circuit.

The impediment arises out of the fact, that no Circuit Court can act without a lawful Jury, and that no lawful Jury can be impanelled in any of these new Divisions.

Under Ordinance No. 84, (the existing Jury law), the 1st of February in each year is the only day on which lists for Jury purposes can be legally affixed, prior to rectification by the Resident Magistrate; and, from want of time, no such lists have been affixed in any of the new Divisions, which leaves them without a Jury.

In announcing the cause which has led to the change in the Circuit Court arrangements, set forth in the Proclamation of this day's date, His Excellency the Governor directs it to be notified, that the necessary steps will be taken by the proper Officers to provide, in due time for the Circuit next after that which is shortly to commence, proper Jury lists for the several Divisions in which Circuit Courts are in future to be holden.

By Command of His Excellency the Governor,
(Signed) JOHN MONTAGU,
Secretary to Government.

PROCLAMATION

BY HIS EXCELLENCY LIEUTENANT GENERAL SIR HENRY GEORGE WAKELYN SMITH, Baronet, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honorable Military Order of the Bath, Colonel of the Second Battalion of the Rifle Brigade, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope in South Africa, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, and Ordinary, and Vice Admiral of the same; and Her Majesty's High Commissioner for the settling and adjustment of the Affairs of the Territories in Southern Africa, adjacent and contiguous to the Eastern and North Eastern Frontier of the said Colony, &c. &c. &c.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the Solemnization of Marriages within British Kafraria; Now, therefore, I do hereby proclaim, declare, and make known, that Marriages may be solemnized within British Kafraria under and according to the Rules and Regulations following, that is to say:—

1st. Any Missionary, or other Minister of the Christian Religion, ordained, or otherwise set apart to the Ministry of the Christian Religion, shall be at liberty to apply to the Commandant of British Kafraria for the purpose of being registered by him as a Marriage Minister, in and for the said Territory; and the Commandant shall deliver to every Minister so registered, a certificate, in writing, of such registry.

2nd. Every registered Marriage Minister shall, within British Kafraria, be authorised and empowered to marry together persons not labouring under any just impediment, both of whom shall, for a period of not less than three months next before such marriage, have resided in British Kafraria.

3rd. No Marriage Minister shall solemnize any marriage between persons related to, or connected with, each other in such a degree of consanguinity or affinity, as would, according to the laws of the colony of the Cape of Good Hope, be a lawful impediment to their marriage within the said colony; and every marriage which, if solemnized, or supposed so to be, within the said colony, would, by reason of consanguinity or affinity, be void,—shall be void if solemnized, or supposed so to be, within British Kafraria.

4th. The banns of marriage between persons desirous of being joined together in matrimony, in British Kafraria, may be published therein by any Marriage Minister, and such publication shall be made in an audible manner some time during public service on a Sunday, in the face of the congregation of such Minister, and shall contain the respective names and places of abode of each of the said parties.

5th. If either of the parties to be married shall belong to a congregation other than that of the Marriage Minister whom they desire to solemnize the said marriage, the banns shall be published in such other congregation or congregations.

6th. Banns of marriage must, in every case, be published for three Sundays preceding the solemnization of the marriage. Provided always, that no Marriage Minister shall solemnize marriage between persons, one or both of whom shall be under the age of twenty-one years (unless in case of a widower or widow) after such marriage shall be forbidden by any person, who would, if in the colony of the Cape of Good Hope, have lawful authority to forbid the same.

7th. Every Marriage Minister shall keep a Marriage Register Book, and shall enter therein every marriage by him solemnized; and every entry of any such marriage shall be signed by the Marriage Minister, and by the parties married, and shall be attested by two or more credible witnesses; and every such entry shall be in the form or to the effect of the following specimen:—

No.	When Married.	Names and Surnames.	Age.	Condition.	Rank and Profession.	By whom Banns published.	Consent, by whom.

1848. Marriage solemnized at King Williams Town, in British Kafraria.

Married after Banns by me, A.B., Wesleyan Minister.

This Marriage was solemnized between

{ Jane Joyce } { E.F. }
In the presence of us

And of every such entry, at the same time, before the parties depart from the chapel, house, or places in which the marriage shall have been celebrated, shall then and there be made in or on a separate piece of paper, parchment, or vellum, a duplicate original register, in which the same matter shall, in the same manner, be entered, and be signed and attested by the same parties; and such duplicate original register shall, by the Marriage Minister by whom the marriage was solemnized, be transmitted to the Commandant of British Kaffraria, or such other Functionary as Her Majesty's High Commissioner shall hereafter appoint, and shall be filed and safely preserved by him in some safe place; and every such original register made in such Marriage Register Book as aforesaid, and also every copy thereof, certified under the hand of the Marriage Minister who made such original register, to be a true copy; and every such duplicate original register, and also every copy thereof, certified under the hand of the Commandant aforesaid, or such other functionary as aforesaid, to be a true copy, shall, respectively, be good evidence of the facts therein recorded, in pursuance of the Proclamation, before all Courts, and in all proceedings whatsoever, in which it shall be necessary to give evidence of the marriage to which the same shall relate.

8th. PUBLIC SALE
SWELLENDAM FARM
AND STOCK.

THE Undersigned has received instructions to sell by Public Auction, on the spot,
ON TUESDAY,

The 10th October next,

The one-half part or share in that well-known valuable Farm called

Oude Bosch,

measuring 1995½ Morgen or about 4000 Acres, situated in the district of Swellendam, near the Village of Riversdale.

To any one about to commence the pursuits of Farming, this Property can be confidently recommended as combining every requisite for the breeding of HORSES, CATTLE, and MERINO SHEEP. The capabilities of the Property are not confined (as in many other farms,) to the breeding of Stock alone, as great quantities of Grain have been, and much more might be, annually produced, there being scarcely any part of the Farm in which the plough could not with advantage be put.

An Extensive Garden,

in the immediate vicinity of the Dwelling House, well stocked with Fruit Trees of various descriptions, affords an abundance of Vegetables, &c., and being well enclosed, Gardening to almost any extent may be carried on, for which the numerous streams of never-failing water, and the excellent quality of the ground, render this Farm so peculiarly adapted.

There is a SUBSTANTIAL DWELLING HOUSE, as also STABLES, outhouses, kraals, &c., and near the House a large piece of Ground has been partially enclosed, which with trifling expense might be converted into an extensive "Camp" or Paddock for young horses.

The locality of this Property is equally advantageous, being in the immediate vicinity of the Platte Kloof Pass, 5 hours' ride from PORT BEAUFORT and two from the Village of RIVERSDALE, where an excellent market is always found for every description of produce, and which Village has recently increased in importance from the Establishment of a Magistracy.

To these and many other advantages, too numerous for the limits of an advertisement, suffice it to add, that as a place where the general pursuits of agriculture may be carried on both with pleasure and with profit, this Farm challenges competition with any one in the District.

At the same time will be sold the whole of the STOCK, FARMING IMPLEMENTS, &c., consisting of:—

1000 thorough-bred MERINO EWES,
50 superior well-bred HORSES, including some two years old and yearling Colts by those celebrated Stallions "JACK PALMER," "SIR SOLOMON," "TURNPIKE," &c.

An excellent OX WAGON, nearly new,
A span of fine OXEN,

PLOUGHS, HARROWS, and other AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS.

The usual assortment of HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE, &c. &c. &c.

The whole will be sold positively without the least Reserve.

Swellendam, 22nd August 1848.

JOSEPH BARRY,

Auctioneer.

Refreshments will be provided.

WHAT IS IN A NAME?

THE philosophic axiom, that there is no absolute or necessary connection between a name and the thing nominated, has been singularly comprehended, and most cunningly acted upon, by an Empirical Pestle and Mortar Philosopher of this City.—In as far as he has surreptitiously imparted to a vile compound of his own production, the name of my unrivalled perfume for the Handkerchief and Boudoir, and deceitfully imitated my labels for the same, so closely as to mislead incautious buyers. Let the Public, therefore, beware of such disgracefully avaricious chicane, (whether in vending physic or perfumery) and remember that I am the sole proprietor, compounder, and vender, of the unrivalled perfume, Real Omar Essence; and that the label on every bottle of the genuine article must bear my signature.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.

Colonial Office, Cape Town,
13th September 1848.

THE Proclamation of His Excellency the Governor, of the 3rd of February 1843, announcing that Her Majesty's Sovereignty extended over certain Territories beyond the Orange River, was re-proclaimed at Bloem Fontein on the 2d instant, under a Royal Salute of 21 guns, after which was read the following Proclamation.

By Command of His Excellency the Governor,
(Signed) JOHN MONTAGU,
Secretary to Government.

PROCLAMATION

SIR HENRY GEORGE WAKELYN SMITH, Bt.
Knight Grand Cross of the most Honorable Order of the Bath, Colonel of the Second Battalion of the Rifle Brigade, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope in South Africa, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, and Ordinary, and Vice-Admiral of the same; and Her Majesty's High Commissioner for the settling and adjustment of the Affairs of the Territories in Southern Africa, adjacent and contiguous to the Eastern and North-Eastern Frontier of the said Colony, &c. &c.

WHEREAS a wicked Rebellion was created and fomented by one ANDRIES WILHELMUS JACOBUS PRETORIUS, now proscribed as a Rebel, and for whose apprehension a Reward of One Thousand Pounds has been offered, and the sum of Five Hundred Pounds for that of one WILLEM JACOBS,—the aforesaid PRETORIUS proclaiming to the country at large that now was the time to be what he terms "free," viz.—the permitted oppressors of their fellow-countrymen, as well as of the Natives; and that he would deliver this Sovereignty of that British Rule which the good men had sought, and for which they had petitioned Government,—and then proceed to do the same at Natal:—through which Rebellion the British Resident was compelled by an armed force to abandon his position at Bloem Fontein, where he was posted to carry out the Commands and obey the Orders of Her Majesty, or of Her Representative: And whereas, when I was marching a body of Her Majesty's Troops to avenge this insult, and to quell this wicked Rebellion, which had rendered this land, previously flourishing and happy, a scene of devastation and abandonment,—driving well-disposed men, their wives, children, and herds, into mountain fastnesses, &c., to seek protection and safety,—I was opposed by nearly One Thousand Rebels under the command of this Arch-Traitor PRETORIUS, endeavouring by an ambuscade to interrupt my passage, but of which I was in good time aware; by which opposition several of Her Majesty's Officers and Soldiers were killed and wounded, forty-nine of the Rebels having been, however, counted dead upon the Field, twelve killed in one place by a round shot; and their loss in wounded, in arms, and horses &c., being also considerable;—it now remains, the insult to Her Majesty's Authority having been thus fully avenged by force of arms, for the full vigour of the Law to have its effect;—and having this day arrived at Bloem Fontein, with a body of Her Majesty's Troops for this purpose, I hereby, in virtue of the authority in me vested, do make known to all Her Majesty's Subjects who shall be proved to be guilty of Rebellion by having joined the Rebels in arms under this PRETORIUS, that their property is confiscated; and I further make known to all those Her Majesty's Subjects who have aided or abetted these Rebels by furnishing them with Horses, Provisions, or Transport, that they are and shall be subject to such FINE as shall be imposed upon them, after the investigation of a Commission which shall be appointed, for the purpose of obtaining information, and awarding such fine.

And I hereby PROCLAIM to every REBEL, and Aider in Rebellion, that I have directed the seizure of all monies and properties which he may possess, within the Colony, pending a legal process, or the receipt of Her Majesty's commands.

And I hereby PROCLAIM AND MAKE KNOWN the satisfaction which I derive, and which I will truly and faithfully represent to Her Majesty the Queen of England, from the conduct of the majority of the Householders of the Dutch Christian Inhabitants, whose welfare I have so much at heart—as well as of all the Native Tribes within the Sovereignty aforesaid, viz., MOSHESH, MOROKO MOLITSANE, SIKONYELA, LEPUIS,—and the Griqua Chiefs WATERBOER, KAPTYN ADAM KOK, CORNELIUS KOK, JAN BLOEM, &c.,—who, although tampered with by the Arch Rebel PRETORIUS, who, by means of falsehood and fraud, endeavoured to convince them that their cause was abandoned by Her Majesty, nevertheless remained unshaken in their faith, and firm reliance on the resolve of Her Majesty's Representative, to march immediately to their protection.

And I hereby PROCLAIM AND MAKE KNOWN the abhorrence with which I regard the acts of these Rebels; who have driven by intimidation from their homes the honest and industrious householders, burned their doors and windows, and seized their horses, cattle, meal, and other property.

And I hereby make known, that so soon as sums shall have been raised to defray the expenses incurred by Government in putting down this wicked Rebellion, I will endeavour so to manage the Funds of the Sovereignty in question, that those who have been great losers by the acts of the Rebels, and have remained faithful in their allegiance to Her Majesty, shall at some future time receive all the indemnification such Funds can afford.

And I do now PROCLAIM and OFFER a REWARD of ONE THOUSAND POUNDS—in addition to the One Thousand Pounds already offered—for the apprehension of the Rebel ANDRIES WILHELMUS JACOBUS PRETORIUS, and the One Thousand Pounds for any information which may lead to his apprehension.—And I hereby confiscate any Property he may have title to within the rule of Her Majesty.—And, as it appears that one ANDRIES SPIES, and one JAN KRYMAAN, (the latter of whom did within the last few weeks petition me to absolve him from a previous Outlawry) are the persons among the Rebels, who, on the 29th August, at "Boem Plaats," ordered them first to fire, and were thereby the immediate cause of shedding the blood of Her Majesty's Troops,—who had my positive orders not to fire until fired upon, which order they strictly obeyed;—I do hereby offer a REWARD of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS Sterling for the apprehension and delivering into the hands of any of Her Majesty's Officers, Civil or Military, of each of these Offenders,—and a like sum of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, for that of LOUW PRETORIUS, of the Caledon River, the great disturber of the quiet of that District.

And I hereby PROCLAIM AND MAKE KNOWN, that the crime of REBELLION, and bearing Arms against Her Majesty's Authority, having been fully proved to me against the undermentioned persons, I hereby confiscate their Property, viz.:—JAN KRYMAAN,—LOUW PRETORIUS,—FREDERICK OTTO,—JAN JACOBS,—PHILIP VAN COLLAR,—JAN VILJOEN,—ADRIAAN STANDERS,—and their Farms shall be offered for Sale.

And whereas, it has been fully proved to me that the undermentioned Individuals have AIDED, ABETTED, and ASSISTED the Rebel Cause, I HEREBY AWARD the following FINES to be levied on them (or their persons apprehended) to aid in defraying the expenses of this wicked Rebellion, and the indemnification of Individual Sufferers thereby:—

OKKERJACOBUS VAN SCHALKWYK, £200 (Two Hundred).
PIET LOUW, £150 (One Hundred and Fifty).
ROELOF GROBBELAAR, £50 (Fifty).

CHRISTOFFEL SNYMAN, £100 (One Hundred).

JAN BOTER, £150 (One Hundred and Fifty).

And I hereby desire ALL FAMILIES to return to their houses, and all Fathers, whose Sons (or Relatives) being Minors were in the Field with the Rebels, to bring up their arms; or the said Parents shall be held responsible. Many have already brought them.

These are the first arrangements for the Districts of Bloem Fontein and Caledon.—I shall proceed without delay to Winburg, to carry out the declarations contained in my Manifesto of the 29th day of March last.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

Given under my Hand and Seal, at Bloem Fontein, this 2nd Day of September 1848.

(Signed) H. G. SMITH,

By Order of His Excellency Her Majesty's High Commissioner,

(Signed) RICHARD SOUTHEY,
Secretary.

GOVERNEMENTS KENNISGEVING.

Koloniale Sekretaris, 13 Sept. 1848.

DE Proclamatie van Zyne Excellentie de Gouverneur van 3 February 1848, berigtende dat de Souvereiniteit van Hare Majesteit was uitgebreid over zeker Grondgebied aan de andere zyde van de Orange Rivier, is op den 2den dezer weder gepubliceerd aan Bloem Fontein, onder een Koninklyk Salu van 21 schoten, waarna de volgende Proclamatie werd gelezen:—

Ter Ordonnantie van Z. E. des Gouverneur,
(Get.) JOHN MONTAGU,
Gouvernements Secretaris.

PROCLAMATIE

SIR HENRY GEORGE WAKELYN SMITH,
Baronet, Ridder Groot Kruis van de Hoog-Edelen Orde van het Bad, Kolonel van het 2de Bataillon Scherpschutters, Gouverneur en Opperbefehlshaber van de Kolonie de Kaap de Goede Hoop, en den Resorte van dien, en Ordinaris, en Vice-Admiraal van dezelve; en Harer Majesteits Hooch Commissaris voor het afdoen en verfeenen van de Zaken van het Grondgebied in Zuid Afrika, belendend aan en annex de Oostelyke en Noordelyke Grenzen van de gez. Kolonie, enz. enz. enz.

NADEMAAL eene booze Rebelle is daargesteld en aangestookt geworden door zekeren ANDRIES WILHELMUS JACOBUS PRETORIUS, nu buiten de wet gesteld als een Rebel, en voor wiens apprehensie eene belooning van Een Duizend Ponden Sterling (£1000) is uitgelooft, en de Som van Vyf Honderd Ponden (£500) voor de apprehensie van WILLEM JACOBS,—proclameerende de gezegde PRETORIUS aan het geheele land, dat nu de tyd was om te zyn wat hy "vry" noemt, te weten, de veroorloofde onderdrukkers van hunne landgenooten, zoo wel als van de Naturellen, en dat hy deze Souvereiniteit zou verlossen van de Britsche regeering, welke de goede lieden hadden gezocht, en waarom zy by petitie hadden aanzoek gedaan by het Gouvernement; en toen getracht hetzelfde te doen te Natal—door welke rebelle de Britsche Resident door eene gewapende magt is gedwongen geworden zyne positie te Bloem Fontein te verlaten, waar hy geposteed was tot het ten uitvoer brengen van de bevelen, en het gehoorzamen van de orders van Hare Majesteit of van hoogster zelve Vertegenwoordiger,—en nademaal, toen ik met een detachement van Harer Majesteits troepen marscheerde om wraak te nemen over deze beleediging en om deze booze Rebelle te onderdrukken, welke dit land, voormaals bloeyend en gelukkig, een toneel had gemaakt van verwoesting en verlaten, dryvende de welgezinde lieden, hunne vrouwen, kinderen en vee, naar de schuilplaatsen van het gebergte, enz., om daar bescherming en veiligheid te zoeken—ik ben tegengestaan door omtrent 1000 Rebellen, onder het bevel van dezen aarts- verrader PRETORIUS, trachtende door een hinder- laag myne voortgang te stuiten, maar waarvan ik ten goede tyde onderrigt was; door welke tegen- stand verscheiden van Harer Majesteits Officieren en Soldaten zyn gedood of gewond, zynde daar- boven negen en veertig van de Rebellen dood op het slagveld gevonden. Twaalf gedood op eene plaats door eenen kogel, en hun verlies in gewon- den, in wapenen en in paarden, enz. mede zeer aanzienlyk zynde, het nu overblyft,—zynde de bele- diging van Harer Majesteits gezag ten volle gewrok- ken door geweld van wapenen,—dat de volle kracht der wetten hare werking zal hebben,—en heden zynde gearriveerd met een corps van Harer Majes- teits Troepen, tot dat einde;—maak ik by deze, uit kracht van het gezag in my gevestigd, bekend, aan al Harer Majesteits Onderdanen, die bevonden zul- len worden schuldig te zyn aan Rebelle, door zich te hebben gevoegd by de Rebellen, in de wa- penen onder PRETORIUS, dat hun eigendom is geconfiskeerd, en ik maak verder bekend aan alle diegenen van Harer Majesteits Onderdanen, die deze Rebellen hebben geholpen of ondersteund, met paarden, provisien, of transport, dat zy zyn en zullen zyn onderhevig aan zoodanige boeten als hen zal worden opgelegd, na het onderzoek van eene Commissie welke zal worden aangesteld, tot het inwinnen van narigt en het opleggen van zood- anige boete.

En ik proclameer by deze aan iederen Rebel of helper van de Rebellen, dat ik last heb gegeven tot het in beslag nemen van alle gelden en eigendom- men welke zy binnen de kolonie zullen mogen bezitten, gedurende een geregelyk proces of tot Hare Majesteits bevelen zullen ontvangen zyn.

En ik proclameer verder en maak bekend, de goedkeuring welke ik gevoel, en welke ik naar waarheid en getrouwelyk zal voorstellen aan Hare Majesteit, de Koningin van Engeland, over het gedrag van de meerderheid van de Huishouders van de Hollandsche Christen Ingezetenen, wier welvaren ik zoo zeer ter harte neem; zoowel als van al de Inlandsche Stammen, binnen de Souve- reiniteit voormeld, te weten MOSHESH, MOROKKO, MOLITSANE, SIKONYELA, LEPUIS, en de Griksche Opperhoofden WATERBOER, Kaptein ADAM KOK, KORNELIS KOK, JAN BLOEM, enz., die, ofschoon aangezoekt door den aartsrebel, PRETORIUS, die, door middel van leugen en bedrog heeft getracht hen te overreden, dat hunne zaak was opgegeven door Hare Majesteit, desniettegenstaande onge- chokt zyn gebleven in hunne trouw, en hun vast vertrouwen op het besluit van Harer Majesteits Vertegenwoordiger, om dadelyk tot hunne bescher- ming aan te rukken.

En ik proclameer en maak by deze bekend, de afschuw waarmede ik de daden dezer Rebellen beschouw, die door bangmaking de eerlyke en nyvere huishouders uit hunne huizen hebben ver- jaagd, hunne deuren en vensters verbrand, en hunne paarden, vee, meel en ander eigendom heb- ben geroofd.

En ik maak by deze verder bekend, dat zoodr^a als de sommen zullen zyn byeengebragt tot het bestryken van de kosten door het Gouvernement gemaakt, in het onderdrukken van deze booze Re- belle, ik zal trachten de fondsen van de bedoelde Souvereiniteit zoo te besturen, dat zy die groote ver- liezers zyn geweest door de daden der Rebellen, en niet gewankeld hebben in hunne trouw aan Hare Majesteit, op eenigen toekomstigen tyd, al de scha- deloosstelling zullen genieten, welke zoodanige fondsen verschaffen kunnen.

En ik proclameer nu en bied eene belooning aan van EEN DUIZEND PONDEN, boven en be- halve de belooning van een Duizend Ponden alreeds aangeboden, voor de apprehensie van den Rebel ANDRIES WILHELMUS JACOBUS PRETORIUS, en de Een Duizend Pond voor alle narigt dat kan leiden tot zyne apprehensie, en ik confiskeer by deze alle eigendom waartoe hy zal mogen geregtigd zyn.

binnen het gebied van Hare Majesteit, en daar het blykt dat zekere ANDRIES SPIES, en zekere JAN KRYMAAN, (welke laatste voor weinig weken geleden my by petitie heeft verzocht hem te absolveren van eene vroegere buiten de wet stelling) de personen zyn die onder de Rebellen op den 29ste Augustus aan Bloemplants, hen het eerst hebben geordon- neerd te schieten, en daardoor de onmiddelyke oor- zaak zyn geweest van het verspillen van het bloed van Harer Majesteits Troepen, die stelligelast hadden niet te vuren voor op hen geschoten was, welk be- vel zy stiptelyk hebben volbragt, zoo bied ik by deze eene belooning aan van £500 sterling voor de apprehensie en het leveren in handen van Harer Ma- jesteits Officieren, Civil of Militair, van ieder van deze overtreders, en eene gelyke som van £500 voor die van LOUW PRETORIUS, van Caledons Rivier, de groote verstoorder van de rust van dat District.

En ik proclameer by deze en maak bekend, dat de misdaad van Rebelle, en het voeren van wape- nen tegen Harer Majesteits gezag ten volle bewee- zen zynde tegen de volgende personen, ik by deze hun eigendom confiskeer, t. w.: JAN KRYMANN, LOUW PRETORIUS, FREDERICK OTTO, JAN JA- COBS, PHILIPS VAN COLLAR, JAN VIJJOEN, ADRI- AAN STANDERS, en hunne plaatsen zullen te kood worden aangeboden.

En nademaal het my ten vollen bewezen is, dat de ondergemelde personen de zaak der Rebellen hebben geholpen, aangestookt en geassisteerd, zoo bepaal ik by deze dat de volgende boeten van hen zullen worden geheven, (of hunne personen gear- prehendeerd) om te helpen tot het goedmaken van de kosten dezer booze Rebelle, en de schadeloos- stelling van de individuele lyders daardoor:

OKKER JACOBUS VAN SCHALKWYK, Twee Hon- derd Pond (£200).

PIET LOUW, Honderd Vyftig Pond (£50).

ROELOF GROBBELAAR, Vyftig Pond (£50).

CHRISTOFFEL SNYMAN, Honderd Pond (£100).

JAN BOTER, Honderd Vyftig Pond (£150).

En ik verlang alle huisgezinnen naar hunne huizen terug te keeren, en alle vaders, wier zoonen (of nabestaanden) minderjarig zynde, in het veld waren met de Rebellen, derzelver wapenen in te brengen. zullende anders de gezegde ouders verant- woordelyk worden gehouden. Velen hebben dezel- ven alreeds ingebragt.

Dit zyn de eerste schikkingen voor de Districten Bloem Fontein en Caledon. Ik zal onverwyld voortgaan naar Winburg, tot het ten uitvoer bren- gen van de verklaringen vervat in myn Manifest van den 29 Maart ll.

GOD BEWARE DE KONINGIN!

Gegeven onder myne Hand en Zegel, te Bloemfontein, op den 2den dag van September 1848

It is superfluous to expatiate on the safety and certain handsome returns on the amount of £200 invested. It is in fact a double Investment, inasmuch as any Capitalist depositing the Bond of one of his debtors to the above amount, draws the Interest of that Bond just and exactly in like manner as if the said Bond were still in his own Iron Safe, and shares at the same time in the HANDSOME profits of the Establishment.

NOTICE.

THE Undersigned informs his numerous Friends, and the Public in general, that he will, as before, again carry on his trade as a Butcher in Shamble No. 2 where daily may be obtained Beef, Mutton, Lamb and Veal of the best quality and at moderate prices. He also takes the liberty (in order to prevent misunderstanding, which may arise from a certain Advertisement in the Government Gazette of 31st August, signed R. A. Zeederberg Jr., by which it is notified, that the business, which had been carried on by Messrs. C. L. Herman, D. A. de Villiers, R. A. Zeederberg Jr., and himself, for the supply of Cattle and Sheep, has ceased from the 9th August 1848,) to lay before the Public the conditions, upon which we have dissolved.

J. GEORGE MULLER.

On this the Ninth day of the month of August, 1848, J. G. Muller, D. A. de Villiers, R. A. Zeederberg and C. L. Herman agreed to dissolve the business by mutual consent, should Morkel & De Villiers consent; then

1. R. A. Zeederberg Jr. and D. A. de Villiers agree and bind themselves and all their property, to pay as their own debts, all bills passed and the debts hitherto made for cattle purchased for, and delivered to, the business, without recourse to J. G. Muller, or C. L. Herman, whether for Bills passed by the firm, or for Bills passed by others in favour of the firm, and power is hereby granted to R. A. Zeederberg Jr., and D. A. de Villiers, to collect all outstanding accounts till this day, and all outstanding debts of the Shamble No. 2, till ultimo June 1848, and to sell all wagons, horses, and cattle, now at hand, and everything belonging to the business, or purchased on the road, or still to be purchased, until this agreement can be communicated to the purchasers, in such manner, as they shall deem most expedient, to meet the payments, which, as aforesaid, they have agreed to pay, provided that all losses sustained upon such cattle or such debts collected, cannot afterwards be charged against J. G. Muller or C. L. Herman, and casual profits since 1st July being therefore also assigned to them.

J. G. Muller and C. L. Herman bind themselves to afford the necessary assistance in the delivery of all these goods and effects, and also in the total winding up of the same; Zeederberg and De Villiers binding themselves to give for the use of J. G. Muller, from the droves of Sheep now on the road, or to be brought up by Van Blerk, Altermann, and Joh. de Beer, 1200 Sheep, that is to say, six above six hundred Sheep from each drove, for which J. G. Muller agrees to pass bills for the value of the Sheep at prime cost, loss and costs, but without any commission, payable at four months, drawn by J. G. Muller upon A. M. Muller in favor of D. G. Muller, and properly signed by them. In consideration of the dissolution of this contract, and because J. G. Muller and C. L. Herman desist from everything, every item which J. G. Muller, according to the books, appears to be indebted to the business on his own account until ultimo June is remitted to him, also the amount of the debts, under said date, of the hereundermentioned persons, according to the books closed under said date, namely:—

G. VAN REENEN MULLER,
D. G. MULLER,
F. MULLER, G. Son, and
Widow J. G. MULLER.

R. A. Zeederberg and D. A. de Villiers also binding themselves to take over as own debt of the business, the bill passed by A. Muller, entered in the books under No. 151, as bills receivable, and entered on the credit side of the books in the name of J. G. Muller, for which J. G. Muller, as a set off of C. L. Herman, allows him the Sum of three hundred Pounds Sterling, to be paid with bills of fifty Pounds Sterling to be passed by J. G. Muller, in favor of C. L. Herman, the first payable this day four months, and the others in succession four months later, one after the other, and immediately to cede to Zeederberg and De Villiers the contract and bond of Morkel and De Villiers.

Zeederberg and De Villiers bind themselves to take over the above sum of three hundred Pounds Sterling, in part payment of the debt of C. L. Herman.

The parties declare to have entered into the above amicably and to have understood it, and to bind for the fulfilment thereof, each for his part, their persons and goods according to law.

KAAPSTAD DEN 14DEN SEPTEMBER 1848.

GOUVERNEMENTS KENNISGEVING.

Koloniale Secretary,
9 September 1848.

ZYNE Excellentie de Gouverneur heeft de publicatie gelast van het volgende Verslag van de Actie, welke plaats gevonden op den 29 Augustus aan Bloemplaats, tusschen de troepen onder zyn bevel en de Rebelle Boeren, over de Orangerivier; en welke geëindigd is in de volkomene nederlaag en gevolgelyke vlugt van de Rebellen.

De Kennisgeving, gepubliceerd op den 30 ultimo, bevat het bericht van den overtocht van de Orangerivier, door byna al de troepen, op den 23sten dier maand, waarop PRETORIUS, het Rebelle Opperhoofd, met het volk onder zyn bevel, beloopende meer dan 1000 man, waren geretireerd naar Winburg, met eene overhaasting, welke het vooruitzicht van eene algemeene actie onwaarschynlyk maakte. Al de troepen waren op den 25sten gearriveerd, toen Zyne Excellentie in persoon, aan hun hoofd, de rivier overtrok, en door ongelooflyke inspanning, werd de overtocht op den 26sten ultimo door hen voltooid. Zyne Excellentie bewoog toen de troepen, met de grootste spoed, in de rigting van Bloemfontein, op het spoor der Rebellen, dien hy op den 29sten in eene zeer sterke positie geposteerd vondt aan Bloemplaats, aan de Krom Elim Bok Rivier. Er is hier eene opvolging van ruggens van lage heuvels, met eene hoogere reeks van achter, door eene kloof van welke de weg loopt.

Toen eene verkenningsparty, vergezeld door Zyne Excellentie, de eerste rug naderde, sprongen de Rebellen onverwachts op, en openden een hevig vuur op dezelve. De linker zyde van hunne positie werd echter spoedig bemagtigd door de Rifle Brigade, 45ste en 91ste Regimenten, de Artillerie (6 ponders) te gelyker tyd een welgerigt vuur openende. De regter vleugel der Rebellen aanzienlyk vooruit zynde, werd kloekmoedig aangetast door de Kaapsche Jagers te paard onder Luit. Kol. Buller, en naar de kloof terug gedreven, in welke rigtig de vyand zich nu van alle zyden haastte, van rug tot rug van de lage heuvels vervolgd door Hare Majesteits troepen, en lydende groot verlies in het terug trekken, door het geschut, dat op hen geopend werd waar men hen treffen kon. Naderhand werd bevonden dat 12 man waren gedood door een onzer welgerigte kogels. Toen de vyand de top van de kloof had bereikt deed hy eene stoute maar vruchteloze inspanning om zyne positie te behouden, maar door eenen vereenigden aanval van de Kaapsche Jagers, met eene troep Griqua hulpbenden, werden zy eindelyk van deze hunne laatste positie verdreven, by het opgeven van welke zy in de grootste wanorde en in alle rigtingen over de vlakke achter hen vlugten, latende vele paarden, wapenen, kledingstukken enz. achter. Zyne Excellentie bleef hen verscheiden mylen, en tot den avond vervolgen, maar daar het blykbaar was dat de Rebellen volkomen verstrooid waren, maakte hy halte voor den nacht aan Kalver Fontein. Hopende de trein wagens te achterhalen en te bemagtigen, marscheerde hy den volgende morgen, den 30sten ten 2 ure op "Bethany" dat hy vroeg in den dag bereikte, en vernam daar dat het kamp van den vyand niet meer bestond, zynde zy met hunne wagens in alle rigtingen gevlugt. Gedurende de marsch vond men overal bewys van de overhaaste vlugt der Rebellen, zynde vele paarden enz. op den weg achtergelaten. Negen-en-veertig van den vyand zyn dood op het veld geteld; en hunne gewonden kan men berekenen op omtrent honderd en vyftig. Van wege den aard van den grond, welke groote voordeelen aan de Rebellen aanbod, is het verlies van de zyde van Harer Majesteits troepen ongelukkig zwaar geweest, zoo als men uit het volgende verslag zien zal.

GOUVERNEMENTS KENNISGEVING.

Koloniale Secretary, 2 Augustus 1848.

VAN wege den tyd des jaars waarop de nieuwe Afdeelingen onlangs opgericht in, of gehecht aan de Kolonie, zyn geformeerd, is het onvermydelyk gebeurd dat geen Rondgaand Gerechtshof in eenige derzelve kan worden gehouden by het aankomend Circuit.

De verandering ontstaat uit de daadzaak dat geen Rondgaand Gerechtshof kan worden gehouden zonder eene behoorlyke Jury, en dat geen behoorlyke Jury in eene dezer nieuwe Afdeelingen kan worden byeengebragt.

Onder de Ordonnantie No. 31 (de bestaande Jury Wet,) is de eerste February van het laatste jaar de eenige dag waarop Jury Lysten wettiglyk kunnen worden aangeplakt, bevorens de rectificatie door den Resident Magistraat—en uit gebrek van tyd hebben geen zoodanige Lysten in eenige der gez. Distrikten kunnen worden aangeplakt, het welk dezelve zonder eene Jury laat.

In het aankondigen van de oorzaken welke hebben geleid tot de verandering in de schikkingen van het Rondgaand Gerechtshof, bepaald in de Proclamatie van Heden, gelast Zyne Excellentie kennis te geven dat de noodige stappen zullen worden genomen door de geschikte beampten, om in behoorlyken tyd voor het Circuit, na dat het welk nu in kort zal beginnen, geschikte Jury Lysten te voorzien, voor de onderscheiden Afdeelingen, waarin in het vervolg Circuit Hoven zullen worden gehouden.

Ter Ordonnantie van Zyne Excellentie den Gouverneur
(Get.) JOHN MONTAGU,
Gouvernements Secretaris.

JAMES SIMPSON.

Rondeboschje, 1 Sept. 1848.

Wat is in een Naam?

DE wysgerig stelling dat er geen wezenlyk verband is tusschen eenen naam en de beteekende zaak, is zonderling ver- klaard en uitgelegd door eenen Empyrischen Stamper en Vyzel Wysger van deze stad. In zoo verre hy een gemeen namaaksel van zyn eigen voortbrengsel heeft in de plaats gesteld voor myn onnavolgbaar parfum voor Zakdoek en Boudoir, en de briefjes wel heeft nage- maakt om de onbedachtzamen te misleiden. Lant het publiek daarom op deszelfs hoede zyn, en bedenken dat ik de eenige maker en eigenaar ben van het onovertreffelyk mengsel OPREGTE OMAR ESSENCE, en dat het briefje op ieder fleschje van het oorspronkelyke door my moet geteekend zyn.

A. G. MATHIESON.

Verkocht alleen aan het Engelsch en Schotsch Magazyn, Langemarkstraat No. 20, Kaapstad.

Paradys Herwonnen.

HOE onbeschryfelyk welriekend moeten de geuren niet zyn geweest die op den geboortemorgen de renk streelden van de volschoone Eva, toen zy in de oorspron- kelyke tuin van het Heelal rustte, eene plaats ongelukkig voor hare kinderen verloren. Echter is iets van deszelfs overtreffende geur, eene smaak van het Elizesche zoet van het verloren Eden nu te bekomen tegen 2s. 6d. per bottel van dat onovertreffelyk renkwerk voor de Boudoir en de Zakdoek, de opregte OMAR ESSENCE. Maar koopers moeten opletten dat de naam van A. G. MATHIESON, aan het opschrift is gehecht van iedere bottel door hem verkocht, en dat dezelve nergens echt in de Kolonie te bekomen is anders dan aan zyne Winkel in de Langemarkstraat No. 20, Kaapstad, daar zekere partyen nu trachten een gemeen namaaksel onder zynen naam te verkoopen.

CAPE TOWN: Printed and Published for the Contractor by SAUL SOLOMON, Gazette Office, St. George's-street.

THE CAPE OF GOOD HOPE Government Gazette.

Published by Authority.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 1848.

PROCLAMATION

SIR HENRY GEORGE WAKELYN SMITH,
Baronet, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honorable Military Order of the Bath, Colonel of the Second Battalion of the Rifle Brigade, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope in South Africa, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, and Ordinary, and Vice Admiral of the same; and Her Majesty's High Commissioner for the settling and adjustment of the Affairs of the Territories in Southern Africa, adjacent and contiguous to the Eastern and North Eastern Frontier of the said Colony, &c. &c. &c.

WHEREAS the wicked Rebellion, excited and fomented by one Andries Wilhelmus Jacobus Pretorius, has been effectually put down by force of Her Majesty's Arms at "Bloom Plaats," where the Rebels dared to dispute the passage of Her Majesty's Troops, thereby causing a Conflict in which 49 Burghers were left dead upon the Field—upwards of 150 wounded—and the remainder, many of them leaving behind their horses, arms, and clothing, dispersed and put to flight in every direction; and the insult offered to Her Majesty's Authority having been thus avenged, as was declared in my Manifesto of the 29th of March last such act should be;—and whereas the extreme Penalty of the Law—DEATH—was carried into execution at Bloem Fontein, on the morning of the 4th September, upon the bodies of certain Rebels, viz:—
THOMAS DREYER, Burgher, and MICHAEL QUIGLING, a Deserter from Her Majesty's Service;—and whereas I have this day arrived at Winburg with a body of Troops, to enforce Rule and Obedience to the Commands of Her Majesty the Queen of England;—and whereas on the 3d February last, I did proclaim the Sovereignty of Her Majesty over the Territory from the Orange River north to the Vaal River, which a band of Rebels has ventured to oppose;—I now re-proclaim that Sovereignty, under a Royal Salute of 21 Guns, having by force of Arms dispersed these Rebels.

And for the better and more efficient Government of the Territory to the East and North of the Great Orange River, over which Her Majesty's Authority has been extended, I do hereby proclaim and declare that Tract of Country situated between the Sand River and the Vaal River, and bounded towards the South by the Draakberg Mountains, to be constituted a Fourth District of the Sovereignty aforesaid.

Thus there will be—

1. The District of Bloem Fontein, under the British Resident, Major WARDEN.
2. The District of Caledon, to which I have appointed THOMAS VOWE, Esq., Civil Commissioner and Magistrate.
3. The District of Winburg, comprising the Territory extending from the Bloem Fontein District to the Sand River, and up to the Draakberg Mountains, to which I appoint, pending my further decision, FREDERICK REX, Esq., Civil Commissioner
and Magistrate.
4. The District of Vaal River, to which I appoint as Landdrost that peace-loving and well-disposed Burgher, HENDRIK POTGIETER, who will select and nominate his Field-Commandants and Field-Cornets, and will be held responsible to me duly to observe obedience and good faith towards Her Majesty, and the authority in me vested. And the Salary of the Landdrost, and the Amount of Quit Rents, which will be trifling, shall be hereafter determined, when I see Mynheer POTGIETER and other influential men.

And whereas these Rebels did commit various wanton acts, and did also wickedly pillage many houses, the property of well-disposed persons at Winburg, I hereby proclaim, that I shall appoint a Commissioner, to levy such Fines upon those who took part in the Rebellion, as shall not only aid in defraying the expenses entailed upon Government by this wicked war, but indemnify the Good Men for their losses, who suffered by the acts of the Evil;

and I will banish from the District of Winburg all REBELS and disturbers of the Peace, and will confiscate their property,—with the exception of Mynheer PAUL BESTER of the Winburg District, and Mynheer GERT KRBIGER of the District of Vaal River, to whom I extend Her Majesty's Gracious Pardon. These men, although they wickedly turned out, did endeavour to restrain the acts of violence and bloodshed of that arch-Rebel PRETO-RIUS.

And I hereby make known, that all Marriages heretofore contracted in the District of Winburg, and not recorded as set forth in my Proclamation, are illegal; and the offspring thereof can inherit no property within the Colony.

And I hereby prohibit all Public Meetings;—and I hold any one guilty of felony who shall endeavour to convene any;—and if they attempt to do so, I have posted at Bloem Fontein a large force of Guns, Cavalry, and Infantry, to suppress the same by force of Arms;—and I will construct such a Fortification at Bloem Fontein, well defended by cannon, as shall ensure its safety during the absence of the Troops in the field.

And whereas it appears that the Post, established for public convenience and utility, between Winburg and Natal, has been interfered with, and letters opened, I do hereby make known, that any Person who shall interrupt the same shall be guilty of Felony.

And I do likewise make known, that any Person who shall disseminate any Papers or Documents of a treasonable nature, or shall connive at their dissemination, or shall hold any intercourse with Pretorius, Jacobs, and others proscribed, shall be guilty of Felony.

And having, in my Proclamation of the 2d Sept., offered the sum of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS for the apprehension of one WILLEM JACOBS, I now double that Sum; and I hereby offer the like Sum for the apprehension of one ANDRIES SPIES,
—a notorious Rebel; and FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS for FREDERICK BEZUIDENHOUT.

And I do hereby offer a Reward of FIVE HUN-DRED POUNDS for ADRIAN STANDERS; and do now make known his conduct to the world, affording as it does an ample example of the state of society beyond the Orange River. This man was living in intimacy with, and close to, Mr. ERWE, — a most respectable Farmer;—he was even very lately at the funeral of one of Mr. ERWE's sons. Scarcely had the outbreak commenced, when he seized his Neighbour's property as his own; another Rebel, of the name of JACOBUS MEYER, at the same time taking possession of Bloem Fontein, and actually ploughing Major WARDEN's Field. Such instances of a total ignorance of the rights of man must be blazoned forth. The desire of Plunder, not a feeling of Patriotism, actuates the Rebel, by whom private property is neither respected nor regarded.

And I hereby proclaim, that the information which led me to impute to Mynheer KRYNAUW the heinous crime of having been one of the first to order the Rebels to fire, proving to be false, —he having left the Rebel Camp,—I do absolve him of the same.

And I hereby proclaim my marked approbation of the conduct of Mynheer GERT HENDRIK MEYER, WESSELS, and their party at Winburg, who manfully and gallantly formed themselves into a camp near Winburg, and did resist and repel any attempt made by the Rebels upon them;—and also of that of Field-Commandant SNEYMAN, of the Caledon River, who, with upwards of 500 families, did the same, as likewise of that of Mr. ERWE, Field-Commandant ERASMUS, and Field-Cornet CLOETE, and Field-Cornet M. OVERALSTER and their people, all of whom have, by thus uniting themselves, preserved the greater part of their flocks and herds from robbers; and I will not omit to make such meritorious conduct towards Rebels against Her Majesty's authority, and oppressors of their fellow subjects, known to the Queen. I also highly applaud the conduct of Mynheer POTGIETER, in consideration of which, I have appointed him Landdrost.

My Manifesto is now verified, and I hereby desire all the Inhabitants of the Natal District to return to their homes. If they neglect this warning, and do not do so, they had better look after their herds and cattle, lest I sweep them off.

These are the outlines of my proceedings pending further information; and I annex hereunder my Proclamation of the 2d September at Bloem Fon-tein; that all may know, that, however desirous I am and have always proved myself to be, for the welfare of the Dutch Community, insult to Her Majesty's authority is, and ever shall be, avenged.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

Given under my Hand and Seal at Winburg, this 7th day of September 1848.

By Order of His Excellency Her Majesty's High Commissioner,

(Signed) RICHARD SOUTHEY,
Secretary.

PROCLAMATION

SIR HENRY GEORGE WAKELYN SMITH, Br-
Knight Grand Cross of the most Honorable Order of the Bath, Colonel of the Second Battalion of the Rifle Brigade, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope in South Africa, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, and Ordinary, and Vice-Admiral of the same; and Her Majesty's High Commissioner for the settling and adjustment of the Affairs of the Territories in Southern Africa, adjacent and contiguous to the Eastern and North-Eastern Frontier of the said Colony, &c. &c.

WHEREAS a wicked Rebellion was created and fomented by one ANDRIES WILHEL-MUS JACOBUS PRETORIUS, now proscribed as a Rebel, and for whose apprehension a Reward of One Thousand Pounds has been offered, and the sum of Five Hundred Pounds for that of one WILLEM JACOBS,—the aforesaid PRETORIUS proclaiming to the country at large that now was the time to be what he terms "free," viz.—the permitted oppressors of their fellow-countrymen, as well as of the Natives; and that he would deliver this Sovereignty of that British Rule which the good men had sought, and for which they had petitioned Government,—and then proceed to do the same at Natal:—through which Rebellion the British Resident was compelled by an armed force to abandon his position at Bloem Fontein, where he was posted to carry out the Commands and obey the Orders of Her Majesty, or of Her Representative: And whereas, when I was marching a body of Her Majesty's Troops to avenge this insult, and to quell this wicked Rebellion, which had rendered this land, previously flourishing and happy, a scene of devastation and abandonment,—driving well-disposed men, their wives, children, and herds, into mountain fastnesses, &c., to seek protection and safety,—I was opposed by nearly One Thousand Rebels under the command of this Arch-Traitor PRETORIUS, endeavouring by an ambuscade to interrupt my passage, but of which I was in good time aware; by which opposition several of Her Majesty's Officers and Soldiers were killed and wounded, forty-nine of the Rebels having been, however, counted dead upon the Field, twelve killed in one place by a round shot; and their loss in wounded, in arms, and horses &c., being also considerable;—it now remains, the insult to Her Majesty's Authority having been thus fully avenged by force of arms, for the full vigour of the Law to have its effect;—and having this day arrived at Bloem Fontein, with a body of Her Majesty's Troops for this purpose, I hereby, in virtue of the authority in me vested, do make known to all Her Majesty's Subjects who shall be proved to be guilty of Rebellion by having joined the Rebels in arms under this PRETORIUS, that their property is confiscated; and I further make known to all those Her Majesty's Subjects who have aided or abetted these Rebels by furnishing them with Horses, Provisions, or Transport, that they are and shall be subject to such FINE as shall be imposed upon them, after the investigation of a Commission which shall be appointed, for the purpose of obtaining information, and awarding such fine.

And I hereby PROCLAIM to every REBEL, and Aider in Rebellion, that I have directed the seizure of all monies and properties which he may possess, within the Colony, pending a legal process, or the receipt of Her Majesty's commands.

And I hereby PROCLAIM AND MAKE KNOWN the satisfaction which I derive, and which I will truly and faithfully represent to Her Majesty the Queen of England, from the conduct of the majority of the Householders of the Dutch Christian Inhabitants, whose welfare I have so much at heart,—as well as of all the Native Tribes within the Sovereignty aforesaid, viz., MOSHESH, MOROKO, MOLITSANI, SIKONYELA, LEPUIS,—and the Griqua Chiefs WATERBOER, KAPYIN ADAM KOK, CORNELIUS KOK, JAN BLOEM, &c.,—who, although tampered with by the Arch Rebel PRETORIUS, who, by means of falsehood and fraud, endeavoured to convince them that their cause was abandoned by Her Majesty, nevertheless remained unshaken in their faith, and firm reliance on the resolve of Her Majesty's Representative, to march immediately to their protection.

And I hereby PROCLAIM AND MAKE KNOWN the abhorrence with which I regard the acts of these Rebels; who have driven by intimidation from their homes the honest and industrious householders, burned their doors and windows, and seized their horses, cattle, meal, and other property.

And I hereby make known, that so soon as sums shall have been raised to defray the expenses incurred by Government in putting down this wicked Rebellion, I will endeavour so to manage the Funds of the Sovereignty in question, that those who have been great losers by the acts of the Rebels, and have remained faithful in their allegiance to Her Majesty, shall at some future time receive all the indemnification such Funds can afford.

And I do now PROCLAIM and OFFER a REWARD of ONE THOUSAND POUNDS—in addition to the One Thousand Pounds already offered—for the apprehension of the Rebel ANDRIES WILHELMUS JACOBUS PRETORIUS, and the One Thousand Pounds for any information which may lead to his apprehension.—And I hereby confiscate any Property he may have title to within the rule of Her Majesty.—And, as it appears that one ANDRIES SPIES, and one JAN KRYMAAN, (the latter of whom did within the last few weeks petition me to absolve him from a previous Outlawry) are the persons among the Rebels, who, on the 29th August, at "Boem Plaats," ordered them first to fire, and were thereby the immediate cause of shedding the blood of Her Majesty's Troops,—who had my positive orders not to fire until fired upon, which order they strictly obeyed;—I do hereby offer a REWARD of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS Sterling for the apprehension and delivering into the hands of any of Her Majesty's Officers, Civil or Military, of each of these Offenders,—and a like sum of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, for that of LOUW PRETORIUS, of the Caledon River, the great disturber of the quiet of that District.

And I hereby PROCLAIM AND MAKE KNOWN, that the crime of REBELLION, and bearing Arms against Her Majesty's Authority, having been fully proved to me against the undermentioned persons, I hereby confiscate their Property, viz.:—JAN KRYMAAN,—LOUW PRETORIUS, —FREDERICK OTTO, —JAN JACOB, —PHILIP VAN COLLAR, —JAN VILJOEN, —ADRIAAN STANDERS,—and their Farms shall be offered for Sale.

And whereas, it has been fully proved to me that the undermentioned Individuals have AIDED, ABETTED, and ASSISTED the Rebel Cause, I HEREBY AWARD the following FINES to be levied on them (or their persons apprehended) to aid in defraying the expenses of this wicked Rebellion, and the indemnification of Individual Sufferers thereby:—

OKKERJACOBUS VAN SCHALKWYK, £200 (Two Hundred).

PIET LOUW, £150 (One Hundred and Fifty).

ROELOF GROBBELAAR, £50 (Fifty).

CHRISTOFFEL SNYMAN, £100 (One Hundred).

JAN BOTER, £150 (One Hundred and Fifty).

And I hereby desire ALL FAMILIES to return to their houses, and all Fathers, whose Sons (or Relatives) being Minors were in the Field with the Rebels, to bring me their arms; or the said Parents shall be held responsible. Many have already brought them.

These are the first arrangements for the Districts of Bloem Fontein and Caledon.—I shall proceed without delay to Winburg, to carry out the declarations contained in my Manifesto of the 29th day of March last.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

Given under my Hand and Seal, at Bloem Fontein, this 2nd Day of September 1848.

Camp, Winburg, 8th September, 1848.

RICHARD SOUTHEY, Esquire, Secretary to Her Majesty's High Commissioner, will remain in the Sovereignty North of the Orange River, on private and confidential duty, connected with the Commissioners, of which he will be President-in-Chief, herein appointed for the purpose of selling Confiscated Property, and levying Fines, to be imposed on those who fired upon Her Majesty's Soldiers on the 29th ultimo, at "Boem Plaats," or who were embodied with the Rebels, for the purpose of defraying the expenses of this wicked War; and, ultimately, if the Funds prove equal to it, of indemnifying for their losses the sufferers who have been driven from their homes.

The sums awarded are to be forthwith levied, or the person secured, and the Fire-arms delivered up.

The most accurate and detailed accounts, with receipts and vouchers, are to be transmitted to His Excellency the High Commissioner; and all monies are to be lodged in the hands of the Chief Commissariat Officer at Head Quarters, the Commander-in-Chief issuing a warrant for the same.

Mr. SOUTHEY will also see the basis of every system, directed by the High Commissioner to be carried out for the future rule of the Sovereignty, well laid down and understood.

(Signed) H. G. SMITH, Governor and High Commissioner.

Winburg, 9th Sept., 1848.

MINUTES of the PROCEEDINGS of a MEETING convened by His Excellency the Governor of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope and High Commissioner, at which were present the GOVERNOR, the Chiefs MOSHESH, MOROKKO, MOLITSANI, and CAROLUS BATJU; also the leading and influential Burghers, or their Representatives, of the Caledon and Bloem Fontein Districts, and the Burghers of the District of Winburg, viz., that Tract of Territory extending from the Bloem Fontein District to the Westward, North to the Vaal River, Eastward to the high ground between the Sand and Vaalch Rivers, and to the Draakberg Mountains to the South. Present of the Burghers of the Winburg District, upwards of 150; and Mr. PAUL BESTER was deputed to answer for some hundreds of the Vaal River,—the distance preventing them from attending.

The Meeting was opened by the Governor.

His EXCELLENCY said: Gentlemen—In January last you invited me among you, and proposed that I should establish a government for you, as you regarded yourselves as British Subjects. It was impossible for me to do so, this territory not being annexed as part of the Colony, without proclaiming it to be under the Sovereignty of Her Majesty. I consulted your leading men, with the Chiefs Mosheh, Morokko, Molitsani, Sinkonyella, Jan Bloem, Adam Kok, Carolus Batju, and several others; all prayed me to do what you know I have done, as set forth in my Proclamations of the 3d February and 8th March last,—after which, wicked agitators attempted to interrupt the progressing harmony; and I issued my Manifesto of the 29th March last: notwithstanding which a wicked Rebellion was excited, and which has been put down by force of arms, as you well know, and as is set forth in my Proclamations of the 2nd of September, issued at Bloem Fontein, and of the 7th September, issued at Winburg, under a Royal Salute of 21 guns at each place.

The wicked agitator of this Rebellion, daring to conceive that he could wage war against all-powerful England, tampered with the great Chiefs now present to induce them to join him,—against whom? Yourselves! To rob you of your flocks and herds,—take away the doors and windows from your houses, as he has done, and drive your wives and families into the fields. They condemned the acts of this villain Pretorius, and firmly adhered to their alliance with Her Majesty, and obedience to the Sovereignty proclaimed. These Chiefs are in full amity and friendship with the remote Chief Panda, but if they were not so, they defy his power.—Is it not so, Mosheh, Morokko, Molitsani, and you other Chiefs?

[Mosheh here replied that Panda and he were as brothers,—that everything they had was at each other's service.]

Now, gentlemen, this insult to Her Majesty's Authority has been most fully avenged by me and Her Majesty's Soldiers, of whom you see I have plenty, and can bring them in a few days here, as set forth in my Manifesto,—and by the ignominious death of two Rebels at Bloem Fontein, on the very spot where the Rebel Pretorius insulted Her Majesty's Authority.—I only regret that he himself was not one of them; on whose head is all the blood and misery he has caused?

The Districts of Bloem Fontein and Caledon were flourishing and most happy, repeatedly assuring me I could do no more than I had done for their welfare. They themselves could propose nothing to improve my measures.

In Winburg disunion existed; and the District being in my opinion too large, I have now formed a portion of it into a fourth division, or the Vaal River District,—under a Landdrost, a highly respected man among yourselves.

As you called me in January to form a Government for you, which I did, and which was insulted,—which insult I have avenged,—I call you together to declare your sentiments, and whether you are prepared to protect your Magistrate from insult if I leave him at your desire with you,—always bearing in mind that a strong Post is now established at Bloem Fontein, of Cannon, Cavalry, and Infantry, ready to move to your support.

Let me have your well-considered opinion, take your time,—and let those who wish for the Magistrate hold up their hands.

[The whole meeting here held up their hands.]

No power but Her Majesty shall induce me to make any alteration in the Bloem Fontein and Caledon Districts, because the arrangements there are what 9 persons in 10 desire. I have been even told that 19 in 20 wish for them.

You wish, then, for a Magistrate, and will protect him. I will, therefore, leave you one. Mr. BIDDULPH having been wounded, Mr. REX shall perform his duties until he is well.

Gentlemen of Winburg,—always bearing in mind that you have promised to protect your Magistrate, you will understand that there is not to be a Post left at Winburg,—but that there will be a strong one at Bloem Fontein,—strong enough to resist even French Soldiers,—to support you; and, in case of need, if a man is sent off for assistance, the Troops will be with you in three days.

I now wish to know how many men there are, to be depended on, in each District.

[In the Bloem Fontein District, Field-Commandant Erasmus answered for 400 men; Field-Cornet Cloete for 300; Field-Cornet Overalster for 250; and Mr. Erwee answered, in the name of Field-Commandant Sneyman, for 450 in the Caledon District; Total, 1400 men, all armed and able-bodied.]

Thus there are 1400 men, well disposed to Government, in these two Districts alone,—and Pretorius dared to come with 800 or 1000 men, many of them boys, or brought from a great distance having nothing to do with this part of the country and to tell me that the whole land was against Government.

These 1400 men are ready to support the people of Windburg, aided by the Post at Bloem Fontein. It must look to them for their assistance; and they must look to it when they want help.

Are you satisfied with your land being measured out to you as at present laid down in my Proclamation of the 8th March? I desire no strict measurement; all I wish is, that each man should know his own, get a Land Certificate, and be thus enabled to bequeath his property to his children.

[The whole meeting here expressed their satisfaction.]

Remember that no man is to take any Land from any Native Chief without permission from the said Chief, as well as from the Governor.

Do you desire to have Churches and Schools? or do you desire to be Renegade Christians, and that your children should be as ignorant as the untutored wild man?

[All expressed their anxiety for Churches, &c.]

Are you satisfied with my Marriage Act,—which relieves your children and grand children from Bastardy, and enables them to inherit any property you may have within the Colony.

[All expressed their satisfaction.]

Have you anything to say on the subject of Quit-Rents? I have before spoken of them as intended to vary from £1 to £8;—but I have already often said, that it does not follow that you are all to pay £8. That is the sum which is not to be exceeded—and many of you will have probably to pay very little,—but this will depend on yourselves.

[The Meeting replied that they had nothing to remark on this subject.]

These are the leading points for consideration. I am now ready to hear what you may propose in every way; but remember, I leave you to your own resources, supported by the Law, and by the Post at Bloem Fontein. In the Colony the half of you served under me when Kaffirs invaded the Land; and here you must defend yourself from the Robbers from whom I have recently rescued you. What is the difference between a White Robber and a Black one? Both equally deserve the sentence and the power of the Law, and must abide by it.

Look how manfully have WESSELS, MEYER, and their Loyal party defended themselves against PRETORIUS before I smashed his Band!

How many of these misguided men's bones are bleaching on the field of blood and war! How many of them are groaning under the pain of severe wounds! How many, now seeing their error, have brought me their arms, and voluntarily, heart and soul, taken the Oath of Allegiance to Her Majesty,—stating their willingness to contribute towards the expense of the war, as I desire!—the brightest example of whom is Field Commandant BESTER. He has this day paid 300 Rix Dollars to aid in the expenses of the war;—he has erred, but is repentant;—we have all shaken hands with him, and he shall ever find a faithful friend in me. KREIGER and KRYNAUW are other instances;—and I will bestow watchful care upon them.

What object have I to form a Government for you, but your own Peace and Happiness among yourselves and among the Natives, who have, I say, behaved to you most kindly?

I shall march in two or three days; but I leave behind me my Secretary, Mr. SOUTHEY, with a body of Cavalry, to collect the War Tribute; and I now read to you my Instructions thereon.

[The Instructions were here read.]

Now, select a Field Commandant and three or four Field-cornets, that I may confirm their appointments, and issue their commissions, and that they may take the oath of allegiance.

[Mr. Martinus Wessels was here chosen as Field Commandant, and Mr. Jury Wessels, L. Badenhorst, Jan Schutte, William Venter, and R. Van Rooyen, as Field-cornets.]

As regards the Vaal River District, under the Landdrost POTGIETER, I daily expect him, when I shall have much upon which to confer with him, as I have had with you. In the mean time, until his arrival, I appoint a commission to act for him, as Landdrost for the Vaal River District, consisting of PIER VENTER, PAUL BESTER.

[At the suggestion of Mr. Venter and Mr. Bester, Mr. Louw Botha was here named as Field Commandant for the Vaal River District, and John Dreyer and Hendrik van Vuuren as Field-cornets.]

If PAUL BESTER will tell me anything that the people at the Vaal river require I will do it.

I will spare no exertion to do good, and to establish Peace, which the troops, you see, will ever effect. And I have this day written to countermand a movement of Her Majesty's Soldiers at Natal (whom I had reinforced for the purpose from Cape Town,) to be made through the Brankberg Mountains. And I again desire the inhabitants of the Natal District to return to their homes within three months, or all their Farms shall be forfeited.

Now we part, with, I hope, a clear understanding that Her Majesty's Sovereignty is re-established; and that you are in possession of the Government you seek.

The Chief MOSHESH here spoke,—and pointed out Mr. PIET VENTER,—saying: This is one of the first Boers that came to my country, and I point him out as a good man. At that time I and the Korannas were at war, and one of my brothers was wounded. I asked assistance of VENTER, and the people with him, but he referred me to the Colonial Government; and it is to the words he then said, I owe my first knowledge of that Government. I point him out to His Excellency as the man to whom I owe my acquaintance with a Government with which I now stand in such friendly relations. It is owing to VENTER that I have now (pointing to His Excellency) a Great Chief to look up to. I am not here to-day to speak of blood, but of gratitude to the British Government, and to VENTER. And I will only add my deep gratitude to His Excellency for all he has done for this Land, and to congratulate him on the result of the late disturbance.

His EXCELLENCY said,—Great Chief!—I thank you for telling me of good done by a Countryman.—The creed of all good men is, that there is one God over all, White and Black. I speak in praise of all you Chiefs.—MOSHESH, MOROCCO, MOLITSANI, CAROLUS BALJU, and others. You asked me what you should do in the late affair; I said "Sit still!" You did so.—I thank you all.

The Burghers being now asked if any one wished to speak,—Field-Commandant ERASMUS assured His Excellency that he felt that every word in the Manifesto had been carried out,—that he trusted that every one would see that this was the case, and for the future be faithful to Her Majesty. Mr. PAUL BESTER declared, in the most earnest manner, that he would do everything that lay in his power to preserve order. A great many took the oath of allegiance,—Fathers bringing in their sons,—and many fire-arms have been delivered up. The feeling at the meeting, as demonstrated by a few words from many persons, was most satisfactory;—and at the conclusion, three cheers for the welfare of Her Majesty resounded through the Camp!

Landed Property.

MR. JAMES SIMPSON, of Rondebosch, has authorized Messrs. BLORE & BARTMAN to sell by Public Sale, on MONDAY, the 25th Instant,

AT NOON,

HIS HOUSE, COTTAGES and LAND, situated nearly opposite the Wesleyan Chapel at Rondebosch.

The Property will be sold in about Twelve Lots separately, and afterwards in Three Lots by the Rise, and in One Lot by the Fall.

The Purchaser of each Lot will have a Frontage of about 100 feet, and about 170 feet in breadth, and will have a right of Road to the Liesbeek River, and will also have the right of laying down Pipes to convey Water from the River, or otherwise using the Road in any way not injurious to the Purchasers of the other Lots.

A plan of the Sub-divisions may be seen at any time after Monday, and previous to the day of Sale, at the Office of Messrs. JOHN & HENRY REID, Attorneys at Law, Church-street, Cape Town.

At the same time will be sold on the spot, an excellent FLOUR MILL, with a pair of French Burs, 4 feet 6 inches in diameter, which requires from four to six horses. The Mill is capable of grinding, at least, two Muids per hour: a Dressing Machine complete, and Gear of a Barley Mill are attached to it.

PUBLIC SALE OF A SUPERIOR SWELLENDAM FARM AND STOCK.

THE Undersigned has received instructions to sell by Public Auction, on the spot,

ON TUESDAY,

The 10th October next,

The one-half part or share in that well-known valuable Farm called

Goede Boord,

measuring 1995½ Morgen or about 4800 Acres, situated in the district of Swellendam, near the Village of Riversdale.

To any one about to commence the pursuits of Farming, this Property can be confidently recommended as combining every requisite for the breeding of HORSES, CATTLE, and MERINO SHEEP. The capabilities of the Property are not confined (as in many other farms,) to the breeding of Stock alone, as great quantities of Grain have been, and much more might be, annually produced, there being scarcely any part of the Farm in which the plough could not with advantage be put.

An Extensive Garden,

in the immediate vicinity of the Dwelling House, well stocked with Fruit Trees of various descriptions, affords an abundance of Vegetables, &c., and being well enclosed, Gardening to almost any extent may be carried on, for which the numerous streams of never-failing water, and the excellent quality of the ground, render this Farm so peculiarly adapted.

There is a SUBSTANTIAL DWELLING HOUSE, as also STABLES, outhouses, KRAALS, &c., and near the House a large piece of Ground has been partially enclosed, which with trifling expense might be converted into an extensive "Camp" or Paddock for young horses.

The locality of this Property is equally advantageous, being in the immediate vicinity of the Platte Kloof Pass, 5 hours' ride from PORT BEAUFORT and two from the Village of RIVERSDALE, where an excellent market is always found for every description of produce, and which Village has recently increased in importance from the Establishment of a Magistracy.

To these and many other advantages, too numerous for the limits of an advertisement, suffice it to add, that as a place where the general pursuits of agriculture may be carried on both with pleasure and with profit, this Farm challenges competition with any one in the District.

At the same time will be sold the whole of the STOCK, FARMING IMPLEMENTS, &c., consisting of:—

1000 thorough-bred MERINO EWES,
50 superior well-bred HORSES, including some two years old and yearling Colts by those celebrated Stallions "JACK PALMER," "SIR SOLOMON," "TURNPIKE," &c.

An excellent OX WAGON, nearly new,
A span of fine OXEN,
PLOUGHS, HARROWS, and other AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS.

The usual assortment of HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE, &c. &c. &c.

The whole will be sold positively without the least Reserve.

Paradise Regained.

HOW indescribably fragrant must the hortulan odours have been that greeted, on her natal morn, the discriminating sense of all beauteous Eve; as she rapturously reclined in the primal Garden of the Universe, a spot unhappily lost, and now unknown to her children. Yet, somewhat of its entrancing fragrance—a taste of the Elysian sweets of departed Eden, is now regainable in a 2s. 6d. Bottle of that unrivalled Perfume for the Handkerchief and Boudoir, Real Omar Essence. But, buyers, remember that the Proprietor's signature, A. G. MATHIESON, is adhibited to the Label on every Bottle sold by him, of the above, and that it is not to be had genuine at any other place in the Colony, but his own Shop, No. 20, Long-market-street, Cape Town as certain parties are now attempting to sell a vile compound under the same name.

KAAPSTAD DEN 21STEN SEPTEMBER 1848.

PROCLAMATIE

SIR HENRY GEORGE WAKELYN SMITH,

Baronet, Ridder Groot Kruis van de Hoog-Edelen Orde van het Bad, Kolonel van het 2de Battalion Scherpachters Administrateur van het Gouvernement van de Kolonie de Kaap de Goede Hoop, en den Ressorte van dien, Ordinaris, en Vice-Admiraal van dezelve; en Harer Majesteits Hooge Commissaris voor het afdoen en verfeenen van de Zaken van het Grondgebied in Zuid Afrika, belendend aan en annex de Oostelyke en Noordelyke Grenzen van de gezegde Kolonie, enz., enz., enz.

NADEMAAL de snoode Rebelle, door zekere ANDRIES WILHELMUS JACOBUS PRETORIUS aangevoerd, met geweld Harer Majesteits wapenen krachtadig te Boemplaats, alwaar de Rebellen het hebben durven wagen Harer Majesteits troepen te beletten voort te rukken, krachtadig is ten onder gebragt, waardoor een gevecht plaats vond, in hetwelk 49 burgers zyn gesneuveld,—meer dan 150 gewond, en de overigen, velen waarvan hunne paarden, wapenen en kleederen hebben achter gelaten, zyn verspreid, en in alle rigtingen de vlucht hebben genomen;—en de belediging Harer Majesteits gezag aangedaan, gewroken zynde, op de wyze als in myn Manifest van den 29 Maart ll. verklaard, zoodanige daden gewroken moeten worden—en nademaal de uiterste straf der wet—DE DOOD—op den morgen van den 4den September te Bloemfontein, aan de lichamen van zekere Rebellen, namelyk THOMAS DREYER, Burger, en MICHAEL QUIGLING, een Deserteur uit Harer Majesteits dienst, werd ten uitvoer gebragt;—en nademaal ik heden te Winburg ben aangekomen, met een getal troepen, ten einde de bevelen van Hare Majesteit de Koningin van Engeland te doen gehoorzamen; en nademaal op den 3den February ll., ik de Souvereiniteit van Hare Majesteit heb geproclameerd over het Grondgebied van de Orange Rivier, Noord naar de Vaal Rivier, welke eene bende Rebellen hebben durven tegenstand bieden;—proclameer ik andermaal die Souvereiniteit onder een Koninglyk Salat van 21 kanon schoten,—die Rebellen door kracht van wapenen uit het veld gedreven hebbende.

En voor het beter en krachtadiger bestuur van het Grondgebied ten Oosten en Noorden van de Groote Orange Rivier, waar over Haar Majesteits gezag is uitgebreid geworden,—proclameer en verklaar ik by deze dat gedeelte velds, gelegen tusschen de Zand Rivier en de Vaal Rivier, en naar het Zuiden door de Draakberg Gebergten,—uit te maken, een vierde District der Souvereiniteit voormeld.

Er zullen dus zyn:

1. Het District Bloemfontein, onder den Britschen Resident Majoor WARDEN.
2. Het District Caledon, alwaar ik den Wel-Ed. Heer THOMAS VOWE, tot Civile Commissaris en Magistraat heb aangesteld.
3. Het District van Winberg, bevattende het Grondgebied, zich uitstreckende van het District Bloemfontein naar de Zand Rivier,—naar de Draakberg Gebergten,—waarvan ik, hangende myn verder besluit, den Wel-Ed. Heer FREDERIK REX, a's Civilen Commissaris en Magistraat aanstel.
4. Het District Vaal Rivier, waartoe ik aanstel als Landdrost, dien vredelievenden en welgezinden Burger HENDRIK POTGIETER; die zyne Veldcommandanten en Veldcornets zal kiezen en aanstellen; en aan my verantwoordelyk zal worden gehouden voor de behoorlyke gehoorzaamheid en goede trouw ten opzichte Harer Majesteit en het gezag aan my toevertrouwd.—En het Salaris aan den Landdrost en het bedragen van Erfpachten, welke gering zullen zyn, zullen hierna worden bepaald, wanneer ik Mynheer POTGIETER en andere invloed hebbende lieden zie.

En nademaal deze Rebellen verscheidene moedwillige daden gepleegd, en op eene snoode wyze vele huizen, de eigendommen van welgezinde personen te Winberg hebben geplunderd, proclameer ik by deze, dat ik eene

Commissie zal benoemen, tot het heffen van zoodanige boetens, van hen die in de Rebelle hebben deelgenomen, als niet alleen ter bestyking der kosten, waaraan het Gouvernement door dezen snooden oorlog wordt blootgesteld behulpzaam zullen zyn, maar ook de goede Liederen die door de daden van den Euvel hebben geleden, hunne verliezen te vergoeden,—en ik zal alle Rebellen en Rustverstoorders van het District Winberg verdryven, en zal hunne eigendommen verbeurd verklaren;—met uitzondering van Mynheer PAUL BESTER van het District Winberg, en Mynheer GERT KREIGER van het District Vaal Rivier, aan wien ik Hare Majesteits Genadige Pardon verleen. Deze lieden, hoewel snoodelyk uitgetrokken, hebben gepoogd de daden van geweld en bloedvergieting van dien Aarts-Rebel PRETORIUS tegen te gaan.

En ik maak by deze bekend, dat alle huwelijken tot hiertoe in het District van Winburg aangegaan, en niet genotuleerd als in myne Proclamatie voorgeschreven, onwettig zyn; en de kinderen uit zoodanige huwelijken geboren geene bezittingen binnen de Kolonie kunnen erven.

En ik verbied by deze alle Publieke Byeenkomsten,—en ik beschouw allen schuldig aan felonie, die pogen zullen eenige byeen te roepen, en indien zy dit pogen te doen, heb ik te Bloem Fontein een groot getal Kanonnen, Ruitery, en Voetvolk geposteed, ten einde dezelve door geweld van wapenen ten onder te brengen;—en ik zal zulk eene vesting te Bloem Fontein doen oprigten, door Kanonnen zoodanig verdedigd, als gedurende de afwezigheid der Troepen in het veld haar tot veiligheid strekken zullen.

En nademaal het blykt dat de post tot publiek gemak en nut tusschen Winberg en Natal daargesteld, onderschept is geworden, en brieven geopend, maak ik by deze bekend, dat eenig persoon dezelve stremmende, schuldig zyn zal aan Felonie.

En ik maak mede by deze bekend, dat eenig persoon die eenige Papieren of Documenten van eenen verraderlyken aard rondgeven of daarin behulpzaam zal zyn, of met PRETORIUS, JACOBS en andere Vogelvryverklaren eenig gemeenschap hebben zal,—aan Felonie schuldig zyn zal.

En in myne Proclamatie van den 2den September eene somma van £500 voor de gevangenneming van zekere WILLEM JACOBS uitgelooft hebbende, verdubbel ik thans dat bedrag, en ik offerer by deze een gelyk bedrag voor de gevangenneming van zekeren ANDRIES SPIES—een welbekende Rebel—en VYF HONDERD PONDEN voor FREDERIK BEZUIDENHOUT.

En ik loof by deze nit, eene belooning van VYF HONDERD PONDEN voor ADRIAN STANDERS, en ik maak zyn gedrag der wereld bekend, een stevig voorbeeld van den staat der maatschappy aan gene zyde der Orange Rivier opleverende. Dezen man was zeer naauw bekend met, en woonde dicht by den Heer ERWEE, een zeer fatsoenlyke Boer; hy heeft zelfs onlangs het lyk van een der zonen van den Heer ERWEE gevolgd—naauwelyks was den uitval begonnen of hy maakte zich meester van de eigendommen van zynen buurman;—een ander Rebel, met name JACOBUS MEYER, tegelyk tyd bezit nemende van Bloemfontein, en werkelyk het veld van Majoor WARDEN beploegende.

Zulke gevallen van de volslagene onbewustheid van 's menschen regten moet alom worden bekend gemaakt. Het verlangen naar roof met een gevoel van Vaderlandsliefde, spoort den Rebel aan, door wien Privaat Eigendom noch geerbiedigd noch geacht wordt.

En ik proclameer by deze, dat het berigt hetwelk myaan Mynheer KRYNAUW de schandelyke misdaad, van een der eersten te zyn geweest, die de Rebellen gelastte te schieten, heeft doen toeschryven,—blykende hetzelfde valsche te zyn, hebbende hy den Kamp der Rebellen verlaten,—ik hem daarvan vry spreek.

En ik proclameer by deze myne verdere goedkeuring over het gedrag van Mynheer GERT HENDRIK MEYER, WESSELS, en hunne party te Winberg, die zich manmoedig en dapper naby Winberg in eene Kamp hebben gefor-

meerd, en tegen eenige poging der Rebellen tegen hen gedaan, hebben verweerd en dezelve verdreven; alsmede over dat van Veldcommandant SNEYMAN van Caledon Rivier, die, met meer dan 500 Huisgezinnen hetzelfde deed,—en van dat van den Heer ERWEE, Veldcommandant ERASMUS, Veldcornet CLOETE, Veldcornet M. OVERHOLSTER en hun volk, allen welke, door zich dus te vereenigen het grootste gedeelte hunner Kudden en Wachters uit de handen der Rovers hebben behouden en gered; en ik zal niet nalaten zulk een verdienstelyk gedrag ten opzichte van Rebellen tegen Harer Majesteits gezag, en onderdrukkers hunner mede onderdanen ter kennis der Koningin te brengen. Ik zwaai Mynheer POTGIETER den hoogten lof toe over zyn gedrag, in aanmerking waarvan ik hem tot Landdrost heb aangesteld.

Myn Manifest is thans bevestigd, en ik verlang by deze dat al die Ingezetenen van het District van Natal naar hunne woningen terugkeeren. Indien zy aan deze waarschuwing geen gehoor geven, en daaraan niet voldoen, ware het beter voor hen, wanneer zy acht sloegen op hunne kudden en vee, opdat ik ze niet in bezit doe nemen.

Deze zyn de schetsen myner handelingen, hangende verdere berigten, en ik annexeer myne Proclamatie van den 2den September te Bloemfontein, dat allen weten mogen, dat hoe verlangend ik ben, en ik immer getoond heb te zyn, voor de welvaart der Hollandsche Ingezetenen, belediging aan Harer Majesteits gezag, gewroken wordt, en immer gewroken zal worden.

GOD BEWARE DE KONINGEN!

Gegeven onder myn Hand en Z-gel, te Winberg, dezen Zevenden dag van September 1848.

(Get.) H. G. SMITH, Gouverneur.

Op last van Zyne Excellentie Harer Majesteits Hooge Commissaris,

(Get.) RICHARD SOUTHEY,
Secretaris van H. M. Hooge Commissaris

PROCLAMATIE

SIR HENRY GEORGE WAKELYN SMITH,

Baronet, Ridder Groot Kruis van de Hoog-Edelen Orde van het Bad, Kolonel van het 2de Battalion Scherpachters, Gouverneur en Opperbevelhebber van de Kolonie de Kaap de Goede Hoop, en den Ressorte van dien, en Ordinaris, en Vice-Admiraal van dezelve; en Harer Majesteits Hooge Commissaris voor het afdoen en verfeenen van de Zaken van het Grondgebied in Zuid Afrika, belendend aan en annex de Oostelyke en Noordelyke Grenzen van de gez. Kolonie, enz., enz., enz.

NADEMAAL eene booze Rebelle is daargesteld en aangestookt geworden door zekeren ANDRIES WILHELMUS JACOBUS PRETORIUS, nu luiten de wet gesteld als een Rebel. En voor wiens apprehensie eene belooning van Een Duizend Ponden Sterling (£1000) is uitgelooft, en de Som van Vyf Honderd Ponden (£500) voor de apprehensie van WILLEM JACOBS,—proclameerende de gezegde PRETORIUS aan het geheele land, dat nu de tyd was om te zyn wat hy "vry" noemt, te weten, de veroorloofde onderdrukkers van hunne landgenooten, zoo wel als van de Naturellen, en dat hy deze Souvereiniteit zou verlossen van de Britsche regering, welke de goede lieden hadden gezocht, en waarom zy hy petitie hadden aanzoek gedaan by het Gouvernement; en toen getracht hetzelfde te doen te Natal—door welke rebelle de Britsche Resident door eene gewapende magt is gedwongen geworden zyne positie te Bloem Fontein te verlaten, waar hy geposteed was tot het ten uitvoer brengen van de bevelen, en het gehoorzamen van de orders van Hare Majesteit of van hoogst derzelver Vertegenwoordiger,—en nademaal, toen ik met een detachement van Harer Majesteits troepen ging en om deze booze Rebelle te onderdrukken, welke dit land, voormaals bloeyend en gelukkig, een tooneel had gemaakt van verwoesting en verlaten, dryvende de welgezinde lieden, hunne vrouwen, kinderen en vee, naar de schuilplaatsen van het gebergte, enz., om daar bescherming en veiligheid te zoeken—ik ben tegengestaan door omtrent 1000 Rebellen, onder het bevel van dezen aartverrader PRETORIUS, trachtende door een hinderlaag myne voortgang te stuiten, maar waarvan ik laag myne voortgang te stuiten, maar waarvan ik stand goede zyde onderrigt was; door welke tegenstand verscheiden van Harer Majesteits Officiere en Soldaten zyn gedood of gewond, zynde daarenboven negen en veertig van de Rebellen dood op het slagveld gevonden. Twaalf gedood op eene plaats door eenen kogel, en hun verlies in gewonden, in wapenen en in paarden, enz. mede zeer aanzienlyk zynde, het nu overblyft,—zynde de bele-ding van Harer Majesteits gezag ten volle gewroken door geweld van wapenen,—dat de volle kracht der wetten hare werking zal hebben,—en heden zynde gearriveerd met een corps van Harer Majesteits Troepen, tot dat einde;—maak ik by deze, uit kracht van het gezag in my gevestigd, bekend, aan al Harer Majesteits Onderdanen, die bevonden zullen worden schuldig te zyn aan Rebelle, door zich te hebben gevoegd by de Rebellen, in de wapenen onder PRETORIUS, dat hun eigendom is geconfiskeerd, en ik maak verder bekend aan alle diegenen van Harer Majesteits Onderdanen, die deze Rebellen hebben geholpen of ondersteund, met paarden, provisien, of transport, dat zy zyn en zullen zyn onderhevig aan zoodanige boeten als hen zal worden opgelegd, na het onderzoek van eene Commissie welke zal worden aangesteld, tot het inwinnen van narigt en het opleggen van zoodanige boete.

En ik proclameer by deze aan iederen Rebel of helper van de Rebellen, dat ik last heb gegeven tot het in beslag nemen van alle gelden en eigendommen welke zy binnen de kolonie zullen mogen bezitten, gedurende een geregtelyk proces of tot Hare Majesteits bevelen zullen ontvangen zyn.

En ik proclameer verder en maak bekend, de goedkeuring welke ik gevoel, en welke ik naar waarheid en getrouwelyk zal voorstellen aan Hare Majesteit, de Koningin van Engeland, over het gedrag van de meerderheid van de Huishouders van de Hollandsche Christen Ingezetenen, wier welvaren ik zoo zeer ter harte neem; zoowel als van al de Inlandsche Stammen, binnen de Souvereiniteit voormeld, te weten MOSHESH, MOROKKO, MOLITSANE, SIKONYELA, LEPUIS, en de Grikwa Opperhoofden WATERBOER, Kaptein ADAM KOK, KORNELIS KOK, JAN BLOEM, enz., die, ofschoon aangezocht door den aartsrebel, PRETORIUS, die, door middel van leugen en bedrog heeft getracht hen te overreden, dat hunne zaak was opgegeven door Hare Majesteit, desniettegenstaande ongeschokt zyn gebleven in hunne trouw, en hun vast, vertrouwen op het besluit van Harer Majesteits Vertegenwoordiger, om dadelijk tot hunne bescherming aan te rukken.

En ik proclameer en maak by deze bekend, de afschuw waarmede ik de daden dezer Rebellen beschouw, die door bangmaking de eerlyke en nyvere huishouders uit hunne huizen hebben verjaagd, hunne deuren en vensters verbrand, en hunne paarden, vee, meel en ander eigendom hebben geroofd.

En ik maak by deze verder bekend, dat zoodra als de sommen zullen zyn byeengebragt tot het bestryken van de kosten door het Gouvernement gemaakt, in het onderdrukken van deze booze Rebelle, ik zal trachten de fondsen van de bedoelde Souvereiniteit zoo te besturen, dat zy die groote verliezers zyn geweest door de daden der Rebellen, en niet gewankeld hebben in hunne trouw aan Hare Majesteit, op eenigen toekomstigen tyd, al de schadeloosstelling zullen genieten, welke zoodanige fondsen verschaffen kunnen.

En ik proclameer nu en bied eene belooning aan van EEN DUIZEND PONDEN, boven en behalve de belooning van een Duizend Ponden alreeds aangeboden, voor de apprehensie van den Rebel ANDRIES WILHELMUS JACOBUS PRETORIUS, en de Een Duizend Pond voor alle narigt dat kan leiden tot zyne apprehensie, en ik confiskeer by deze alle eigendom waartoe hy zal mogen geregtigd zyn, binnen het gebied van Hare Majesteit, en daar het blijkt dat zekere ANDRIES SPIES, en zekere JAN KRYMAAN, (welke laatste voor weinig weken geleden my by petitie heeft verzocht hem te absolveren van eene vroegere buiten de wet stelling) de personen zyn die onder de Rebellen op den 20ste Augustus aan Bloemfontein, hen het eerst hebben geordonneerd te schieten, en daardoor de onmiddelyke oorzaak zyn geweest van het verspillen van het bloed van Harer Majesteits Troepen, die stelligelast hadden niet te vuren voor op hen geschoten was, welk bevel zy stiptelyk hebben volbragt, zoo bied ik by deze eene belooning aan van £500 sterling voor de apprehensie en hetleveren in handen van Harer Majesteits Officieren, Civil of Militair, van ieder van deze overtreders, en eene gelyke som van £500 voor de van LOUW PRETORIUS, van Caledons Rivier, de groote verstoorder van de rust van dat District.

En ik proclameer by deze en maak bekend, dat de misdaad van Rebelle, en het voeren van wapenen tegen Harer Majesteits gezag ten volle bewezen zynde tegen de volgende personen, ik by deze hun eigendom confiskeer, t. w.: JAN KRYMANN, LOUW PRETORIUS, FREDERICK OTTO, JAN JACOBS, PHILIPS VAN COLLAR, JAN VILJOEN, ADRIAN STANDERS, en hunne plaatsen zullen te koop worden aangeboden.

En nademaal het my ten vollen bewezen is, dat de ondergemelde personen de zaak der Rebellen hebben geholpen, aangestookt en geassisteerd, zoo

bepaal ik by deze dat de volgende boeten van hen zullen worden geheven. (of hunne personen gearprehendeerd) om te helpen tot het goedmaken van de kosten dezer booze Rebelle, en de schadeloosstelling van de individuele lyders daardoor:

OKKER JACOBUS VAN SCHALKWYK, Twee Honderd Pond (£200).

PIET LOUW, Honderd Vyftig Pond (£50).

JAN BOTER, Honderd Vyftig Pond (£150).

En ik verlang alle huisgezinnen naar hunne huizen terug te keeren, en alle vaders, wier zoonen (of nabestaanden) minderjarig zynde, in het veld waren met de Rebellen, derzelver wapenen in te brengen. zullende anders de gezegde ouders verantwoordelyk worden gehouden. Velen hebben dezelve alreeds ingebragt.

Dit zyn de eerste schikkingen voor de Districten Bloem Fontein en Caledon. Ik zal onverwyld voortgaan naar Winburg, tot het ten uitvoer brengen van de verklaringen vervat in myn Manifest van den 29 Maart ll.

GOD BEWARE DE KONINGIN!

(Get.) H. G. SMITH,

Gouverneur en Hoogen Commissaris.

Winburg, den 9den September 1848.

NOTULEN van de VERRIGTINGEN eener BYEENKOMST door Zyne Excellentie den Gouverneur der Kolonie de Kaap de Goede Hoop en Hoogen Commissaris te zamen groepen, waarby tegenwoordig waren, de GOVERNUR, de Opperhoofden MOSHESH, MOROKKO, MOLITSANI, en KAROLUS BATJU; alsmede de voornaamste en invloedhebbende Burgers, of hunne Vertegenwoordiger van de Caledon en Bloemfontein Districten, en de Burgers van het District Winburg, namelyk, die landstreek zich uitstreckende van het Bloemfontein District in het Westen, Noordelyks naar de Vaal Rivier, Oostelyk naar den hooggelegen grond tusschen de Zand en Valsch

Rivieren, en tot de Draakbergen naar het Zuiden.

Tegenwoordig van de Burgers van het Winburg District, meer dan 150; en de Heer PAUL BESTER was afgevaardigd, om voor honderden van de Vaal Rivier te antwoorden,—de afstand hen belettende in persoon te verschynen.

De Byeenkomst werd door den Gouverneur geopend.

Zyne Excellentie zeide:

MYNE HEEREN!

In January laatstleden hebt gy my verzocht onder u te komen en steltet gy voor dat ik een Gouvernement voor u-lieden daar zoude stellen, om dat gy uzelfen als Britsche Onderdanen beschouwdet. Het was voor my onmogelyk zulks te doen, (deze landstreek niet als een gedeelte der Kolonie aangesteld zynde) voor dat ik dezelve, door Proclamatie, onder de Souvereiniteit van Hare Majesteit stelde.

Ik raadpleegde met de voornaamste personen onder u,—met de Opperhoofden MOSHESH, MOROKKO, MOLITSANI, SINKONEYALLA, JAN BLOEM, ADAM KOK, KAROLUS BATJU, en verscheiden anderen:—allen baden my te doen hetgeen gy weet dat ik gedaan heb, als verklaard in myne Proclamatie van den 3den February en 8sten Maart laatstleden;—waarna snoode beroorders poogden de voortgaande eendragt te verhinderen, en ik vaardigde myne Manifesto van den 29sten Maart ll. uit. Niettegenstaande dit, werd er een snood oproer aangevuurd, en hetwelk door kracht van wapenen is ten ondergebragt, zoo als gy wel weet, en als gemeld in myne Proclamatie van den 2den September, te Bloemfontein uitgevaardigd, en van den 7den September te Winburg uitgevaardigd, onder een Koninglyk Salut van 21 schoten by elke plaats.

De snoode aanhitter dezes oproers, het durvende onderstaan te wanen, dat hy tegen overmagtig Engeland oorlog voeren kan, trachtte de groote Opperhoofden nu hier tegenwoordig te verleiden zich met hem te vereenigen,—tegen wien? U-zelfen! om u van uwe kudden en vee troepen te ontrooven,—de deuren en vensters van uwe huizen weg te nemen—zoo als hy gedaan heeft—en uwe vrouwen en kinderen in het veld te verjagen. Zy hebben de daden van dezen booswicht PRETORIUS veroordeeld, en aan hunne bondgenootschap met Hare Majesteit, en aan hunne gehoorzaamheid aan de geproclameerde Souvereiniteit, vastgekleefd. Deze Opperhoofden zyn in volle vriendschap met den afgelegenen Opperhoofd Panda; maar waren zy dit niet, trotseren zy zyne magt. Is dit niet zoo, MOSHESH, MOROKKO, MOLITSANI, en gy andere Opperhoofden?

Nu, Myne Heeren, deze beleediging aan Harer Majesteits gezag is ten volsten door my en Harer Majesteits Soldaten gewroken, waarvan, zoo als gy ziet, ik velen heb, en die ik, zoo als in myn Manifesto vermeld, ik in weinige dagen hier brengen kan, alsmede door den schandelyken dood van twee der oproerlingen te Bloemfontein, op dezelfde plaats waar de Rebel PRETORIUS Harer Majesteits gezag had beleedigd. Het spyt my slechts dat hyzelven er niet een van was,—op wiens hoofd zyn al het bloed en ellende dat hy veroorzaakte?

De Districten van Bloemfontein en Caledon waren in eenen bloeienden toestand en zeer gelukkig; herhaaldelyk my verzekerende dat ik niets meer voor hunnen welvaart doen konde dan hetgeen ik gedaan heb. Zy zelve konden niets voorstellen waardoor myne maatregelen zouden worden verbeterd.

Te Winburg bestond er oneenigheid; en het District, myns dunkens, te groot zynde, heb ik een gedeelte daarvan in het vierde afdeeling geformeerd, onder een Landdrost,—een man onder uzelfen hoog geacht.

Daar gy, in January, my hebt geroepen, om een gouvernement voor u daar te stellen—hetgeen ik deed en hetwelk werd beleedigd,—doch welke beleediging ik gewroken heb—roep ik u te zamen om uwe gevoelens open te leggen, en te vernemen of gy bereid zyt om uwen Magistraat voor beleediging te beschermen, indien ik, op uw verlangen, hem met u laat,—altd in het oog houdende, dat eene sterke magt te Bloemfontein is geplaatst, van kanonnen, Wysgerig stelling dat er geen wezenlyk verband is tusschen eenen naam en de betekende zaak, zonderling verklaard en uitgelegd door eenen Empyrischen Stamper en Vyzel Wyseer van deze stad. In zoo verre hy een gemeen amuuksel van zyn eigen voortbrengsel heeft in de plaats gesteld voor myn onnavolgbaar parfum voor Zakdoek en Boudoir, en de briefjes wel heeft nagemaakt om de onbedachtzamen te misleiden. GOVERNMENT NOTICE.

Colonial Office, Cape Town,
23^d September 1848.

IN accordance with the Instructions of the Lords' Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, regulating the future mode of rendering the Accounts of Colonial Receipt and Expenditure,—His Excellency the Governor has been pleased to direct the publication of the following Finance Regulations, for the guidance of the respective Civil Commissioners and all other Sub-Accountants, and which are to have effect from and after the 1st January 1849, and are to be strictly conformed with.

1st. Every Civil Commissioner and all other Sub-Accountants are to forward to the Colonial Office, on or before the 15th of January in each year, an Annual Estimate of the anticipated Revenue of their respective departments, prepared in a prescribed form, to be accompanied by an Estimate of the Expenditure in a similar form, distinguishing the Establishments already "Fixed" under the sanction of Her Majesty's Government, from other Expenditure not so "Fixed."

These Estimates will form the basis of the future system and plan of account, and on that account the prescribed forms are to be strictly adhered to.

2nd. All divisions of the Estimates and Accounts, hitherto in use under the heads of "Fixed" and "Unfixed" contingent charges, are, from the 1st of January next, to be discontinued, and such only are to be included under the head of "Contingencies," as are so inserted in the Annual Estimates for the year 1849, viz., the charges which are incidental to each separate Office Establishment.

The Heads of Service in the Accounts are to be the same as those used in the Colonial Estimates for 1849, and every item of contemplated Expenditure must be carefully classed and arranged under its appropriate head.

3rd. No sum is to be set down as "Unforeseen Charges," and in cases of emergency, where an expenditure becomes unavoidably necessary, a Supplementary Estimate must be prepared in the same form as the Annual Estimate.

4th. The Public Accounts are to be kept by a Cash and Waste Book, according to prescribed forms, and every Sub-Accountant entrusted with the receipt and payment of money under the Treasurer, will keep a Cash Book in duplicate, in which is to be entered, day by day, every transaction of receipt and expenditure as it occurs, (without reference to classification under Heads of Service,) giving also the date of every such receipt or payment.

5th. The Cash Book is to be closed and balanced at the end of every month, and the entries in it are to be transferred into the Waste Book, each being brought under its own Head of Service.

6th. All Sub-Accountants are to send to the Treasurer General a transcript or duplicate of the Monthly Cash Book for each month, together with the usual Cash Accounts, accompanied by the vouchers in duplicate in support of the same.

7th. All charges which it has hitherto been customary to make in the way of deductions or allowances are to be discontinued; and every such allowance or incidental charge is to be entered as a payment in account under its appropriate head and supported by the proper vouchers.

8th. Officers who collect Revenue and pay it over to the Treasurer General in Cape Town, or to the Civil Commissioner in the Country Divisions, but who are not Sub-Accountants for Expenditure, keeping Cash Books, are to transmit monthly to the Auditor a statement in the prescribed form, showing the total amount collected under each head of receipt, within the month, and the dates of payment to the Treasurer General or Civil Commissioner, supported by the receipt of the latter for the sums paid over to him.

9th. All Collectors of the Public Revenue are to pay over the amount of their collections weekly, either to the Treasurer General in Cape Town, or to the respective Civil Commissioners, according as their residences may be in Town or the Country.

10th. All Sub-Accountants and Heads of Department will be furnished by the Colonial Secretary, through the Treasurer General, with a printed statement of the different heads of account under which the several services are to be classed in the Waste and Abstract Books, and also with printed forms of vouchers applicable to each head of service and account, and every bill or voucher is to be made out for its own distinct head of service, and not to be blended with or include any other services; it being necessary, with a view of carrying the present system of account into effect, that from the first application for authority to incur an expense to the final warranting by the Governor, each service and charge should appear in their several stages under one and the same head, as defined in the Annual Estimates.

11th. Previously to the termination of the year, a separate and complete schedule of the different Establishments of every Sub-Accountant and Head of Department will be forwarded from the Colonial Office, accompanied by the authority of the Governor, to the respective parties entrusted with the expenditure for paying monthly in the ensuing year the Salaries, Allowances, and

Office Contingencies therein enumerated.—Notice will be given whenever any provisional appointment has been approved of by Her Majesty's Government, in order that the same may be inserted as a note in the Schedule; and whenever any provisional appointment or salary shall be approved of as permanent addition to Establishment, such appointment or salary is to be included in the following year, as "Fixed Establishment," instead of "Provisional or Temporary."

12th. Immediately on any party ceasing to hold office, or whenever any alteration may be made in the amount of Salary or Allowance to be paid, notice will be given through the Secretary to Government to the Treasurer General and the Sub-Accountant concerned, who will make a record of such alteration on the Schedule of Establishments furnished them at the beginning of the year, and a reference to the date of the letter of the Colonial Secretary is also to be made.

13. For all services not comprised in the authorized Establishments, a special authority is to be applied for in the following manner, viz:—

As early in each month, as the necessary expenditure for the ensuing month can be foreseen with sufficient accuracy, the heads of the several departments are to draw up and transmit to the Treasurer General, to be by him forwarded to the Colonial Secretary, a requisition (in strict accordance with the classified heads of service on the Annual Estimate) of the charges for which provision is to be made in the ensuing month, showing by a memorandum at the foot of the requisition, what further sums may be required during the current year for the same work or service; reference is also to be made on the requisition to any correspondence which may have taken place relative to any particular item of expenditure estimated for, in order that the Governor may have before him the means of judging of the propriety of incurring the expense. The requisition, after being laid before the Governor by the Colonial Secretary, will be returned to the Officer entrusted with the expenditure, accompanied by a letter of authority, describing under the proper heads the services and charges to be defrayed, and referring to any special circumstances which may be necessary for the information of the party by whom the payment is made. A copy of this authority will be forwarded to the Treasurer and Auditor respectively, for their information and guidance.

14th. Three days at least before the termination of each month, every Sub-Accountant and Head of Department will send in duplicate to the Treasurer General, or other Chief Accountant schedules of the charges to be defrayed in the ensuing month, with the necessary authority and documents annexed thereto, (including estimates for works, contracts, agreements, and tenders) excepting only the receipts of the parties, which are to be obtained when payment is made; the charges are to be classed and particularized under the several heads of service, in the same manner as in the requisition for authority to incur the expenditure.

15th. On the first of the month, or as soon after as practicable, the Treasurer will pay to persons resident at the seat of Government, the authorized sums, on the production of the proper receipts of the parties in duplicate, (duplicate vouchers to be marked "duplicate") and the sub-accountants will pay the authorized salaries and other expenses of their own departments to the several parties resident in their districts. As regards parties in the districts belonging to a department, the head of which is resident at the seat of Government, the payments to be made to them by the sub-accountants of such districts will be on the draft only of the Treasurer, which draft will be granted by the Treasurer, on the application of the head of the department, in favor of the individual to be paid in the district; or in the case of labour, &c., in favour of the officer of the department, charged with the issue, in the district, of such pay. The head of the department will produce to the Treasurer the receipt of the party in whose favor the draft is to be drawn, and to whom it is to be forwarded, and upon whose receipt alone, inscribed on the draft, it will be paid by the sub-accountant and to be taken credit for, by the sub-accountant, simply as "draft paid," it being intended that the drafts of this description should not be rendered negotiable. In all such cases, it will be a regulation, that the acquittance of the party resident in the district is not complete, with ut his discharge to the draft, in addition to the receipt sent to the head of the department, at the seat of Government, to enable him to obtain the draft.

16th. All pensions due to parties residing near the seat of Government will be paid by the Treasurer General. Pensioners resident in the country districts, will be paid by the Civil Commissioners of the Divisions in which they reside.

17th. The sub-accountants must complete, and transmit to the Treasurer General by the first post after the close of the month, their cash account, and vouchers for the preceding month, in order that the Treasurer may post the accounts monthly.

18th. From the 1st of January 1849, all expenditure to be incurred for Buildings, whether by contract, by purchase of materials, or for labour is to be exclusively defrayed and accounted for under the Treasurer, by the Civil Engineer, and Surveyor General, (or other officer superintending works and buildings, at the seat of Government.) Civil Commissioners will thus be relieved from the duty hitherto performed by them, of making requisitions for buildings, repairs, and works, and bringing the payments to account.

19th. For the purpose of comparing the estimated with the actual cost of all works, the estimate upon which each work is undertaken is to be prepared according to a prescribed form, distinguishing labor from materials, and the items of hire, contract, and purchase, from those provided from Public Establishments and Stores, and a return is to accompany the accounts for the year, showing in respect of each work or building, the total amount of the approved Estimate, the amount if any expended in former years, the several amounts expended in the current year, distinguishing purchases, contract work, labor, and materials from Public Establishments and Stores, in the same form as the Estimate, and the sum remaining to be expended.

20th. Whenever it shall happen that the sum passed by the Governor's warrant, is less than which may have been paid, it will be the duty of the Treasurer or Sub-accountant to recover the difference, by stopping the amount from the next issue of personal pay of the party, who made the irregular over-payment; and it is only after bringing such stoppage to credit, that the Treasurer can be allowed credit for the full amount issued to the party. In case the Treasurer or Sub-accountant should have no such payment to make in the ensuing month, to the party by whom an over-payment has been made, the Treasurer, or Sub-accountant, is to represent the circumstances to the Governor, through the Colonial Secretary, in order that steps may be taken for enforcing repayment; and he is to request special authority for allowing, in the mean time, the credit he had claimed, which special authority together with a copy of the Treasurer's representation on the subject, will be necessary documents for admitting the over-payment to be brought to account under a head of "over-payments to be recovered."

21st. In those cases in which heads of departments find it necessary to make payments daily or weekly, for hire or wages, they are to represent the circumstances to the Governor, who will from time to time decide upon the sum which it may be proper to advance.

These advances are to be confined to the sums which may be necessary to enable the parties to meet such daily or weekly payments as they may be required to make during the course of one month, before the monthly abstracts are paid by the Treasurer, and they must be made at the commencement of each year, under an annual advance warrant in the prescribed form, specifying the amount to be advanced to each head of department, and the amount so advanced must be repaid to the Treasurer on or before the 1st day of the ensuing year, and a new warrant must be obtained for any similar advance that may be required for the current year.

22d. The practice of causing surveys and inspections, to be held on the Funds in the Colonial Chests of the Treasurer and Sub-accountant, will still be continued, and the Auditor will be empowered, upon application by him to that effect, to compare at any and all reasonable times, the cash or other balances of the Treasurer or any other officer entrusted with Public Money, with the balances represented by their accounts.

These inspections and comparisons by the Auditor, are not, however, to supersede the surveys which it has always been the practice to hold, both at stated and uncertain periods, on the funds in the custody of Colonial Accountants.

23d. The year of account is to be in all cases from the First of January to the Thirty-first of December.

24th. The Officers charged with the collection of the Public Revenue, in Cape Town, will continue (notwithstanding Article 9 of these Regulations) as heretofore to pay the amount of their collections without any deduction whatsoever; daily if possible, or at all events on the last day of each week, into the hands of the Treasurer.

25th. Whenever any salary or other payment, due to any individual is claimed on his behalf by another person, a sufficient assignment or authority in writing must be produced, the Accountant being held responsible for any payment made without such proper authority. Regular vouchers from individuals to whom payments are made, referring, in every instance, either to the schedule or subsequent authority under which the expense is sanctioned; must be forwarded in support of all fixed charges.

26th. No expense whatever, will be allowed to be incurred upon verbal authority; and whenever any head of department, or other officer of Government, may receive from the Governor, or Secretary to Government, by his authority, a verbal assent to the commencement of any work or repairs, or to the expenditure, in any way, of the public money, such assent is merely to be considered as an approval of such officer making an official application to him, through the regular channel, for authority in writing to incur such expenditure.

Any item of expense that may be incurred by any head of department, without such previous written authority, will be surcharged against him.

27th. The annual Appropriation Ordinance passed by the Legislative Council, is not to be considered as a sufficient authority for any head of department to incur any expense under it, without His Excellency the Governor's sanction in addition thereto.

28th. The correctness of charges must be certified by the heads of departments; and if the work or supply has been made by contract, it must be stated in the certificate that such contract has been complied with, otherwise it must be certified that the charges are fair and reasonable.

29th. In every case, where the Collectors of Revenue shall fail to enforce the regular and punctual payments of collections or debts receivable by them, the amounts due by Sub-collectors, or other persons in default, will be immediately surcharged against the accountant; unless he can show satisfactorily, that the non-payment in proper time was occasioned by a cause he could neither control nor prevent, and in case the amount in default be not ascertainable from the cash account furnished, the Auditor General will not pass the Abstract for the Accountant's salary, until he shall have obtained a satisfactory statement of the amount due.

30th. In case it shall be made to appear at any time, that the public have sustained a loss by reason of a Public Officer being satisfied with security for a Government Debt evidently insufficient, by his neglecting or omitting to take proper and timely steps to recover the debt from the sureties when it could not be obtained from the debtor, or omitting in the event of either of them becoming insolvent, to file the claims of the Government, so as to enable it to participate in the dividends from the estate, or by his neglecting or omitting to adopt every proper as well as legal measure, to obtain the public money he is appointed to receive; in short, whenever it can be proved, that the loss has arisen from the neglect, continued carelessness, want of proper precaution, or wilful fault of a public servant, he will be surcharged with the amount, and his conduct will be reported to the Secretary of State.

31st. The Treasurer and Auditor are in future to report immediately to the Secretary to Government, for the Governor's information, whenever any sum is not duly received by an Accountant, or accounted for by him.

32d. Clerks of the Peace who shall, when duly required, fail to take timely and proper legal steps to recover debts due to the Government, will in every case be held personally responsible for, and will be surcharged with, the amounts due by the defaulters.

33d. Accountants are required to make proper arrangements, to ensure the presentation within a reasonable time of all demands payable through their offices, in order to prevent arrear claims being made at a long and inconvenient time after the expenses were incurred. Where the Accountant has the power within himself, he must bring up the claims, however small, in proper time.

Unless a satisfactory explanation can be afforded for delay, no final payment made by an Accountant will in future be admitted, which is not included in his accounts for the month, in which such payment was actually made by him.

35th. As the Accountant with the Government is the responsible Officer for the public moneys or advances, which pass through his hands, and not his clerk or any subordinate Officer under him, it must be distinctly understood, that the Government will not relieve the Accountant from any portion of his responsibility; if he think proper to depute it to others; and any infraction of the Regulations of the Government, respecting Revenue or Expenditure, will be visited exclusively on the Accountant, and not on those employed under his orders. The attention of Public Officers is especially directed to this Regulation.

36th. When explanations are required by the Auditor General, from Public Accountants upon any items of their account, the information called for, is to be communicated direct to that Officer; and any inattention to his queries or suggestions, is to be immediately brought to the Governor's notice by that Officer.

37th. Fractional parts of a Penny exceeding one-half, are to be reckoned for a Penny, and those less than one-half are to be rejected.

By Command of His Excellency the Governor,

(Signed) JOHN MONTAGU,
Secretary to Government.

W. CALDERWOOD.

Resident Magistrate's Office,
Alice, 12th Sept., 1848.

PROCLAMATION

SIR HENRY GEORGE WAKELYN SMITH,

Baronet, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honorable Military Order of the Bath, Colonel of the Second Battalion of the Rifle Brigade, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope in South Africa, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, and Ordinary, and Vice Admiral of the same; and Her Majesty's High Commissioner for the settling and adjustment of the Affairs of the Territories in Southern Africa, adjacent and contiguous to the Eastern and North Eastern Frontier of the said Colony, &c. &c. &c.

WHEREAS the wicked Rebellion, excited and fomented by one Andries Wilhelmus Jacobus Pretorius, has been effectually put down by force of Her Majesty's Arms at "Boem Plaats," where the Rebels dared to dispute the passage of Her Majesty's Troops, thereby causing a Conflict in which 49 Burghers were left dead upon the Field—upwards of 150 wounded—and the remainder, many of them leaving behind their horses, arms, and clothing, dispersed and put to flight in every direction; and the insult offered to Her Majesty's Authority having been thus avenged, as was declared in my Manifesto of the 29th of March last such act should be;—and whereas the extreme Penalty of the Law—DEATH—was carried into execution at Bloem Fontein, on the morning of the 4th September, upon the bodies of certain Rebels, viz.:—THOMAS DREYER, Burgher, and MICHAEL QUIGLING, a Deserter from Her Majesty's Service;—and whereas I have this day arrived at Winburg with a body of Troops, to enforce Rule and Obedience to the Commands of Her Majesty the Queen of England;—and whereas on the 3d February last, I did proclaim the Sovereignty of Her Majesty over the Territory from the Orange River north to the Vaal River, which a band of Rebels has ventured to oppose;—I now re-proclaim that Sovereignty, under a Royal Salute of 21 Guns, having by force of Arms dispersed these Rebels.

And for the better and more efficient Government of the Territory to the East and North of the Great Orange River, over which Her Majesty's Authority has been extended, I do hereby proclaim and declare that Tract of Country situated between the Sand River and the Vaal River, and bounded towards the South by the Draakberg Mountains, to be constituted a Fourth District of the Sovereignty aforesaid.

Thus there will be—

1. The District of Bloem Fontein, under the British Resident, Major WARDEN.
2. The District of Caledon, to which I have appointed THOMAS VOWE, Esq., Civil Commissioner and Magistrate.
3. The District of Winburg, comprising the Territory extending from the Bloem Fontein District to the Sand River, and up to the Draakberg Mountains, to which I appoint, pending my further decision, FREDERICK REX, Esq., Civil Commissioner and Magistrate.
4. The District of Vaal River, to which I appoint as Landdrost that peace-loving and well-disposed Burgher, HENDRIK POTGIETER, who will select and nominate his Field-Commandants and Field-Cornets, and will be held responsible to me duly to observe obedience and good faith towards Her Majesty, and the authority in me vested. And the Salary of the Landdrost, and the Amount of Quit Rents, which will be trifling, shall be hereafter determined, when I see Mynheer POTGIETER and other influential men.

And whereas these Rebels did commit various wanton acts, and did also wickedly pillage many houses, the property of well-disposed persons at Winburg, I hereby proclaim, that I shall appoint a Commissioner, to levy such Fines upon those who took part in the Rebellion, as shall not only aid in defraying the expenses entailed upon Government by this wicked war, but indemnify the Good Men for their losses, who suffered by the acts of the Evil; and I will banish from the District of Winburg all REBELS and disturbers of the Peace, and will confiscate their property,—with the exception of Mynheer PAUL BESTER of the Winburg District, and Mynheer GERT KREIGER of the District of Vaal River, to whom I extend Her Majesty's Gracious Pardon. These men, although they wickedly turned out, did endeavour to restrain the acts of violence and bloodshed of that arch-Rebel PRETORIUS.

And I hereby make known, that all Marriages heretofore contracted in the District of Winburg, and not recorded as set forth in my Proclamation, are illegal; and the offspring thereof can inherit no property within the Colony.

And I hereby prohibit all Public Meetings;—and I hold any one guilty of felony who shall endeavour to convene any;—and if they attempt to do so, I have posted at Bloem Fontein a large force of Guns, Cavalry, and Infantry, to suppress the same by force of Arms;—and I will construct such a Fortification at Bloem Fontein, well defended by cannon, as shall ensure its safety during the absence of the Troops in the field.

And whereas it appears that the Post, established for public convenience and utility, between Winburg and Natal, has been interfered with, and letters opened, I do hereby make known, that any Person who shall interrupt the same shall be guilty of Felony.

And I do likewise make known, that any Person who shall disseminate any Papers or Documents of a treasonable nature, or shall connive at their dissemination, or shall hold any intercourse with Pretorius, Jacobs, and others proscribed, shall be guilty of Felony.

And having, in my Proclamation of the 2d Sept., offered the sum of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS for the apprehension of one WILLEM JACOBS, I now double that Sum; and I hereby offer the like Sum for the apprehension of one ANDRIES SPIES, —a notorious Rebel; and FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS for FREDERICK BEZUIDENHOUT.

And I do hereby offer a Reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS for ADRIAN STANDERS; and do now make known his conduct to the world affording as it does an ample example of the state of society beyond the Orange River. This man was, living in intimacy with, and close to, Mr. ERWEE, —a most respectable Farmer;—he was even very lately at the funeral of one of Mr. ERWEE's sons. Scarcely had the outbreak commenced, when he seized his Neighbour's property as his own; another Rebel, of the name of JACOBUS MEYER, at the same time taking possession of Bloem Fontein, and actually ploughing Major WARDEN's Field. Such instances of a total ignorance of the rights of man must be blazoned forth. The desire of Plunder, not a feeling of Patriotism, actuates the Rebel, by whom private property is neither respected nor regarded.

And I hereby proclaim, that the information which led me to impute to Mynheer KAYNAUW the heinous crime of having been one of the first to order the Rebels to fire, proving to be false,—he having left the Rebel Camp,—I do absolve him of the same.

And I hereby proclaim my marked approbation of the conduct of Mynheer GERT HENDRIK MEYER, WESSELS, and their party at Winburg, who manfully and gallantly formed themselves into a camp near Winburg, and did resist and repel any attempt made by the Rebels upon them;—and also of that of Field-Commandant SNEYMAN, of the Caledon River, who, with upwards of 500 families, did the same, as likewise of that of Mr. ERWEE, Field-Commandant ERASMUS, and Field-Cornet CLOETZ, and Field-Cornet M. OVERALSTER and their people, all of whom have, by thus uniting themselves, preserved the greater part of their flocks and herds from robbers; and I will not omit to make such meritorious conduct towards Rebels against Her Majesty's authority, and oppressors of their fellow subjects, known to the Queen. I also highly applaud the conduct of Mynheer POTGIETER, in consideration of which I have appointed him Landdrost.

My Manifesto is now verified, and I hereby desire all the Inhabitants of the Natal District to return to their homes. If they neglect this warning, and do not do so, they had better look after their herds and cattle, lest I sweep them off.

These are the outlines of my proceedings pending further information; and I annex hereunder my Proclamation of the 2d September at Bloem Fontein; that all may know, that, however desirous I am and have always proved myself to be, for the welfare of the Dutch Community, insult to Her Majesty's authority is, and ever shall be, avenged.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

Given under my Hand and Seal at Winburg, this 7th day of September 1848.

By Order of His Excellency Her Majesty's High Commissioner,

(Signed) RICHARD SOUTHEY,
Secretary.

PROCLAMATION

SIR HENRY GEORGE WAKELYN SMITH, Bt

Knight Grand Cross of the most Honorable Order of the Bath, Colonel of the Second Battalion of the Rifle Brigade, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope in South Africa, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, and Ordinary, and Vice-Admiral of the same; and Her Majesty's High Commissioner for the settling and adjustment of the affairs of the Territories in Southern Africa, adjacent and contiguous to the Eastern and North-Eastern Frontier of the said Colony, &c. &c.

WHEREAS a wicked Rebellion was created and fomented by one ANDRIES WILHELMUS JACOBUS PRETORIUS, now proscribed as a Rebel, and for whose apprehension a Reward of One Thousand Pounds has been offered, and the sum of Five Hundred Pounds for that of one WILLEM JACOBS,—the aforesaid PRETORIUS proclaiming to the country at large that now was the time to be what he terms "free," viz.—the permitted oppressors of their fellow-countrymen, as well as of the Natives; and that he would deliver this Sovereignty of that British Rule which the good men had sought, and for which they had petitioned Government,—and then proceed to do the same at Natal:—through which Rebellion the British Resident was compelled by an armed force to abandon his position at Bloem Fontein, where he was posted to carry out the Commands and obey the Orders of Her Majesty, or of Her Representative: And whereas, when I was marching a body of Her Majesty's Troops to avenge this insult, and to quell his wicked Rebellion, which had rendered this land, previously flourishing and happy, a scene of devastation and abandonment,—driving well-disposed men, their wives, children, and herds, into mountain fastnesses, &c., to seek protection and safety,—I was opposed by nearly One Thousand Rebels under the command of this Arch-Traitor PRETORIUS, endeavouring by an ambushade to interrupt my passage, but of which I was in good time aware; by which opposition several of Her Majesty's Officers and Soldiers were killed and wounded, forty-nine of the Rebels having been, however, counted dead upon the Field, twelve killed in one place by a round shot; and their loss in wounded, in arms, and horses &c., being also considerable;—it now remains, the insult to Her Majesty's Authority having been thus fully avenged by force of arms, for the full vigour of the Law to have its effect;—and having this day arrived at Bloem Fontein, with a body of Her Majesty's Troops for this purpose, I hereby, in virtue of the authority in me vested, do make known to all Her Majesty's Subjects who shall be proved to be guilty of Rebellion by having joined the Rebels in arms under this PRETORIUS, that their property is confiscated; and I further make known to all those Her Majesty's Subjects who have aided or abetted these Rebels by furnishing them with Horses, Provisions, or Transport, that they are and shall be subject to such FINE as shall be imposed upon them, after the investigation of a Commission which shall be appointed, for the purpose of obtaining information, and awarding such fine.

And I hereby PROCLAIM to every REBEL, and Aider in Rebellion, that I have directed the seizure of all monies and properties which he may possess, within the Colony, pending a legal process, or the receipt of Her Majesty's commands.

And I hereby PROCLAIM AND MAKE KNOWN the satisfaction which I derive, and which I will truly and faithfully represent to Her Majesty the Queen of England, from the conduct of the majority of the Householders of the Dutch Christian Inhabitants, whose welfare I have so much at heart,—as well as of all the Native Tribes within the Sovereignty aforesaid, viz., MOSHESH, MOROKO, MOLITSANI, SIKONYELA, LETUIS,—and the Griqua Chiefs WATERBOER, KAPTYN ADAM KOK, CORNELIUS KOK, JAN BLOEM, &c.,—who, although tampered with by the Arch Rebel PRETORIUS, who, by means of falsehood and fraud, endeavoured to convince them that their cause was abandoned by Her Majesty, nevertheless remained unshaken in their faith, and firm reliance on the resolve of Her Majesty's Representative, to march immediately to their protection.

And I hereby PROCLAIM AND MAKE KNOWN the abhorrence with which I regard the acts of these Rebels; who have driven by intimidation from their homes the honest and industrious householders, burned their doors and windows, and seized their horses, cattle, meal, and other property.

And I hereby make known, that so soon as sums shall have been raised to defray the expenses incurred by Government in putting down this wicked Rebellion, I will endeavour so to manage the Funds of the Sovereignty in question, that those who have been great losers by the acts of the Rebels, and have remained faithful in their allegiance to Her Majesty, shall at some future time receive all the indemnification such Funds can afford.

And I do now PROCLAIM AND OFFER a REWARD of ONE THOUSAND POUNDS—in addition to the One Thousand Pounds already offered—for the apprehension of the Rebel ANDRIES WILHELMUS JACOBUS PRETORIUS, and the One Thousand Pounds for any information which may lead to his apprehension.—And I hereby confiscate any Property he may have title to within the rule of Her Majesty.—And, as it appears that one ANDRIES SPIES, and one JAN KRYMAAN, (the latter of whom did within the last few weeks petition me to absolve him from a previous Outlawry) are the persons among the Rebels, who, on the 29th August, at "Boem Plaats," ordered them

first to fire, and were thereby the immediate cause of shedding the blood of Her Majesty's Troops,—who had my positive orders not to fire until fired upon, which order they strictly obeyed:—I do hereby offer a REWARD of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS Sterling for the apprehension and delivering into the hands of any of Her Majesty's Officers, Civil or Military, of each of these Offenders,—and a like sum of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, for that of LOUW PRETORIUS, of the Caledon River, the great disturber of the quiet of that District.

And I hereby PROCLAIM AND MAKE KNOWN, that the crime of REBELLION, and bearing Arms against Her Majesty's Authority, having been fully proved to me against the undermentioned persons, I hereby confiscate their Property, viz:—JAN RYMAAN,—LOUW PRETORIUS,—FREDERICK OTTO,—JAN JACOBS,—PHILIP VAN COLLAR,—JAN VILJOEN,—ADRIAAN STANDERS,—and their Farms shall be offered for Sale.

And whereas, it has been fully proved to me that the undermentioned individuals have AIDED, ABETTED, and ASSISTED the Rebel Cause, I HEREBY AWARD the following FINES to be levied on them (or their persons apprehended) to aid in defraying the expenses of this wicked Rebellion, and the indemnification of Individual Sufferers thereby:—

OKKERJACOBUS VANSCHALKWYK, £200 (Two Hundred).

PIET LOUW, £150 (One Hundred and Fifty).

ROELOF GROBBELAAR, £50 (Fifty).

CHRISTOFFEL SNYMAN, £100 (One Hundred).

JAN BOTER, £150 (One Hundred and Fifty).

And I hereby desire ALL FAMILIES to return to their houses; and all Fathers, whose Sons (or Relatives) being Minors were in the Field with the Rebels, to bring me their arms; or the said Parents shall be held responsible. Many have already brought them.

These are the first arrangements for the Districts of Bloem Fontein and Caledon.—I shall proceed without delay to Winburg, to carry out the declarations contained in my Manifesto of the 29th day of March last.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

Given under my Hand and Seal, at Bloem Fontein, this 2nd Day of September 1848.

Governor, and High Commissioner.

High Commissioner,

Camp, Winburg, 8th September, 1848.

RICHARD SOUTHEY, Esquire, Secretary to Her Majesty's High Commissioner, will remain in the Sovereignty North of the Orange River, on private and confidential duty, connected with the Commissions, of which he will be President-in-Chief, herein appointed, for the purpose of selling Confiscated Property, and levying Fines, to be imposed on those who fired upon Her Majesty's Soldiers on the 29th ultimo, at "Boom Plaats," or who were embodied with the Rebels, for the purpose of defraying the expenses of this wicked War; and, ultimately, if the Funds prove equal to it, of indemnifying for their losses the sufferers who have been driven from their homes.

The sums awarded are to be forthwith levied, or the person secured, and the Fire-arms delivered up.

The most accurate and detailed accounts, with receipts and vouchers, are to be transmitted to His Excellency the High Commissioner; and all monies are to be lodged in the hands of the Chief Commissariat Officer at Head Quarters, the Commander-in-Chief issuing a warrant for the same.

Mr. SOUTHEY will also see the basis of every system, directed by the High Commissioner to be carried out for the future rule of the Sovereignty well laid down and understood.

Winburg, 9th Sept., 1848.

MINUTES of the PROCEEDINGS of a MEETING convened by His Excellency the Governor of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope and High Commissioner, at which were present the Governors, the Chiefs MOSHESH, MOROKKO, MOLITSANI, and CAROLUS BATJU; also the leading and influential Burghers, or their Representatives, of the Caledon and Bloem Fontein Districts, and the Burghers of the District of Winburg, viz., that Tract of Territory extending from the Bloem Fontein District to the Westward, North to the Vaal River, Eastward to the high ground between the Sand and Vaalsch Rivers, and to the Draakberg Mountains to the South. Present of the Burghers of the Winburg District, upwards of 150; and Mr. PAUL BESTER was deputed to answer for some hundreds of the Vaal River,—the distance preventing them from attending.

The Meeting was opened by the Governor.

His EXCELLENCY said: Gentlemen.—In January last I invited me among you, and proposed that I should establish a government for you, as you regarded yourselves as British Subjects. It was impossible for me to do so, this territory not being annexed to the Colony, without proclaiming myself under the Sovereignty of Her Majesty.

I consulted your leading men, with the Chiefs Moshesh, Morokko, Molitsani, Sinkonyella, Jan Bloem, Adam Kok, Carolus Batju, and several others; all prayed me to do what you know I have done, as set forth in my Proclamations of the 3d February and 8th March last,—after which, wicked agitators attempted to interrupt the progressing harmony; and I issued my Manifesto of the 29th March last: notwithstanding which a wicked Rebellion was excited; and which has been put down by force of arms, as you well know; and as is set forth in my Proclamations of the 2nd of September, issued at Bloem Fontein, and of the 7th September, issued at Winburg, under a Royal Salute of 21 guns at each place.

The wicked agitator of this Rebellion, daring to conceive that he could wage war against all-powerful England, tampered with the great Chiefs now present to induce them to join him,—against whom? Yourself! To rob you of your flocks and herds,—take away the doors and windows from your houses, as he has done, and drive your wives and families into the fields. They condemned the acts of this villain Pretorius, and firmly adhered to their alliance with Her Majesty, and obedience to the Sovereignty proclaimed. These Chiefs are in full amity and friendship with the remote Chief Panda, but if they were not so, they defy his power.—Is it not so, Moshesh, Morokko, Molitsani, and you other Chiefs?

Now, gentlemen, this insult to Her Majesty's Authority has been most fully avenged by me and Her Majesty's Soldiers, of whom you see I have plenty, and can bring them in a few days here, as set forth in my Manifesto,—and by the ignominious death of two Rebels at Bloem Fontein, on the very spot where the Rebel Pretorius insulted Her Majesty's Authority.—I only regret that he himself was not one of them; on whose head is all the blood and misery he has caused?

The Districts of Bloem Fontein and Caledon were flourishing and most happy, repeatedly assuring me I could do no more than I had done for their welfare. They themselves could propose nothing to improve my measures.

In Winburg disunion existed; and the District being in my opinion too large, I have now formed a portion of it into a fourth division, or the Vaal River District,—under a Landdrost, a highly respected man among yourselves.

As you called me in January to form a Government for you, which I did, and which was insulted,—which insult I have avenged,—I call you together to declare your sentiments, and whether you are prepared to protect your Magistrate from insult if I leave him at your desire with you,—always bearing in mind that a strong Post is now established at Bloem Fontein, of Cannon, Cavalry, and Infantry, ready to move to your support.

Let me have your well-considered opinion,—take your time,—and let those who wish for the Magistrate hold up their hands.

[The whole meeting here held up their hands.]

No power but Her Majesty shall induce me to make any alteration in the Bloem Fontein and Caledon Districts, because the arrangements there are what 9 persons in 10 desire. I have been even told that 19 in 20 wish for them.

You wish, then, for a Magistrate, and will protect him. I will, therefore, leave you one. Mr. BIDDLEPH having been wounded, Mr. REX shall perform his duties until he is well.

Gentlemen of Winburg,—always bearing in mind that you have promised to protect your Magistrate, you will understand that there is not to be a Post left at Winburg,—but that there will be a strong one at Bloem Fontein,—strong enough to resist even French Soldiers,—to support you; and, in case of need, if a man is sent off for assistance, the Troops will be with you in three days.

I now wish to know how many men there are, to be depended on, in each District.

[In the Bloem Fontein District, Field-Commandant ERASMUS answered for 400 men; Field-Cornet Cloete for 300; Field-Cornet Overalster for 250; and Mr. ERWEE answered, in the name of Field-Commandant SNEYMAN, for 450 in the Caledon District; Total, 1400 men, all armed and able-bodied.]

Thus there are 1400 men, well disposed to Government, in these two Districts alone,—and yet Pretorius dared to come with 800, or 1000 men, most of them boys, or brought from a great distance, having nothing to do with this part of the country, and to tell me that the whole land was against Government.

These 1400 men are ready to support the people of Winburg, aided by the Post at Bloem Fontein. It must look to them for their assistance; and they must look to it when they want help.

Are you satisfied with your land being measured out to you as at present laid down in my Proclamation of the 8th March? I desire no strict measurement; all I wish is, that each man should know his own, get a Land Certificate, and be thus enabled to bequeath his property to his children.

[The whole meeting here expressed their satisfaction.]

Remember that no man is to take any Land from any Native Chief without permission from the said Chief, as well as from the Governor.

Do you desire to have Churches and Schools? or do you desire to be Renegade Christians, and that your children should be as ignorant as the untutored wild man?

[All expressed their anxiety for Churches, &c.]

Are you satisfied with my Marriage Act,—which relieves your children and grand children from Bastardy, and enables them to inherit any property you may have within the Colony.

[All expressed their satisfaction.]

Have you anything to say on the subject of Quit-Rents? I have before spoken of them as intended to vary from £1 to £8;—but I have already often said, that it does not follow that you are all to pay £8. That is the sum which is not to be exceeded,—and many of you will have probably to pay very little,—but this will depend on yourselves.

[The Meeting replied that they had nothing to remark on this subject.]

These are the leading points for consideration. I am now ready to hear what you may propose in every way; but remember, I leave you to your own resources, supported by the Law, and by the Post at Bloem Fontein. In the Colony the half of you served under me when Kaffirs invaded the Land; and here you must defend yourself from the Robbers from whom I have recently rescued you. What is the difference between a White Robber and a Black one? Both equally deserve the sentence and the power of the Law, and must abide by it.

Look how manfully have WESSELS, MEYER, and their Loyal party defended themselves against PRETORIUS before I smashed his Band!

How many of these misguided men's bones are bleaching on the field of blood and war! How many of them are groaning under the pain of severe wounds! How many, now seeing their error, have brought me their arms, and voluntarily, heart and soul, taken the Oath of Allegiance to Her Majesty,—stating their willingness to contribute towards the expense of the war, as I desire!—the brightest example of whom is Field-Commandant BESTER. He has this day paid 300 Rix Dollars to aid in the expenses of the war;—he has erred, but is repentant;—we have all shaken hands with him, and he shall ever find a faithful friend in me. KRIBER and KRYNAUW are other instances;—and I will bestow watchful care upon them.

What object have I to form a Government for you, but your own Peace and Happiness among yourselves and among the Natives, who have, I say, behaved to you most kindly?

I shall march in two or three days; but I leave behind me my Secretary, Mr. SOUTHEY, with a body of Cavalry, to collect the War Tribute; and I now read to you my Instructions thereon.

[The Instructions were here read.]

Now, select a Field-Commandant and three or four Field-cornets, that I may confirm their appointments, and issue their commissions, and that they may take the oath of allegiance.

[Mr. Marthius Wessels was here chosen as Field-Commandant, and Mr. Jury Wessels, L. Badenhorst, Jan Schutte, William Venter, and R. Van Rooyen, as Field-cornets.]

As regards the Vaal River District, under the Landdrost PORTGIETER, I daily expect him, when I shall have much upon which to confer with him, as I have had with you. In the mean time, until his arrival, I appoint a commission to act for him, as Landdrost for the Vaal River District, consisting of PIET VENTER, PAUL BESTER.

[At the suggestion of Mr. Venter and Mr. Bester, Mr. Louw Botha was here named as Field Commandant for the Vaal River District, and John Dreyer and Hendrik van Vuuren as Field-cornets.]

If PAUL BESTER will tell me anything that the people at the Vaal river require I will do it.

I will spare no exertion to do good, and to establish Peace, which the troops, you see, will ever effect. And I have this day written to countermand a movement of Her Majesty's Soldiers at Natal whom I had reinforced for the purpose from Cape Town, to be made through the Draakberg Mountains. And I again desire the inhabitants of the Natal District to return to their homes within three months, or all their Farms shall be forfeited.

Now we part, with, I hope, a clear understanding that Her Majesty's Sovereignty is re-established; and that you are in possession of the Government you seek.

The Chief MOSHESH here spoke,—and pointed out Mr. PIET VENTER,—saying: This is one of the first Boers that came to my country, and I point him out as a good man. At that time I and the Korannas were at war, and one of my brothers was wounded. I asked assistance of VENTER, and the people with him, but he referred me to the Colonial Government; and it is to the words he then said, I owe my first knowledge of that Government. I point him out to His Excellency as the man to whom I owe my acquaintance with a Government with which I now stand in such friendly relations. It is owing to VENTER that I have now (pointing to His Excellency) a Great Chief to look up to. I am not here to-day to speak of blood, but of gratitude to the British Government, and to VENTER. And I will only add my deep gratitude to His Excellency for all he has done for this Land, and to congratulate him on the result of the late disturbance.

His EXCELLENCY said,—Great Chief!—I thank you for telling me of good done by a Countryman.—The creed of all good men is, that there is one God over all, White and Black. I speak in praise of all you Chiefs,—MOSHESH, MOROCCO, MOLITSANI, CAROLUS BALJU, and others. You asked me what you should do in the late affair; I said "Sit still!" You did so.—I thank you all.

The Burgheers being now asked if any one wished to speak,—Field-Commandant ERASMUS assured His Excellency that he felt that every word in the Manifesto had been carried out,—that he trusted that every one would see that this was the case, and for the future be faithful to Her Majesty. Mr. PAUL BASTER declared, in the most earnest manner, that he would do everything that lay in his power to preserve order. A great many took the oath of allegiance,—Fathers bringing in their sons,—and many fire-arms have been delivered up. The feeling at the meeting, as demonstrated by a few words from many persons, was most satisfactory;—and at the conclusion, three cheers for the welfare of Her Majesty resounded through the Camp!

They cover an extent of about 22 morgen, or 44
English Acres, of the richest soil imaginable, teeming

PUBLIC SALE OF A SUPERIOR SWELLENDAM FARM AND STOCK.

THE Undersigned has received instructions to sell by Public Auction, on the spot,

ON TUESDAY,

The 10th October next,

The one-half part or share in that well-known valuable Farm called

Oude Bosch,

measuring 1995½ Morgen or about 4000 Acres, situated in the district of Swellendam, near the Village of Riversdale.

To any one about to commence the pursuits of Farming, this Property can be confidently recommended as combining every requisite for the breeding of HORSES, CATTLE, and MERINO SHEEP. The capabilities of the Property are not confined (as in many other farms,) to the breeding of Stock alone, as great quantities of Grain have been, and much more might be, annually produced, there being scarcely any part of the Farm in which the plough could not with advantage be put.

An Extensive Garden,

in the immediate vicinity of the Dwelling House, well stocked with Fruit Trees of various descriptions affords an abundance of Vegetables, &c., and being well enclosed, Gardening to almost any extent may be carried on, for which the numerous streams of never-failing water, and the excellent quality of the ground, render this Farm so peculiarly adapted.

There is a SUBSTANTIAL DWELLING HOUSE, as also STABLES, outhouses, KRAALS, &c., and near the House a large piece of Ground has been partially enclosed, which with trifling expense might be converted into an extensive "Camp" or Paddock for young horses.

The locality of this Property is equally advantageous, being in the immediate vicinity of the Platte Kloof Pass, 5 hours' ride from PORT BEAUFORT and two from the Village of RIVERSDALE, where an excellent market is always found for every description of produce, and which Village has recently increased in importance from the Establishment of a Magistracy.

To these and many other advantages, too numerous for the limits of an advertisement, suffice it to add, that as a place where the general pursuits of agriculture may be carried on both with pleasure and with profit, this Farm challenges competition with any one in the District.

At the same time will be sold the whole of the STOCK, FARMING IMPLEMENTS, &c., consisting of:—

1000 thorough-bred MERINO EWES,
50 superior well-bred HORSES, including some two years old and yearling Colts by those celebrated Stallions "JACK PALMER," "SIR SOLOMON," "TURN-PIKE," &c.

An excellent OX WAGON, nearly new,
A span of fine OXEN,
PLOUGHS, HARROWS, and other AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS.

The usual assortment of HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE, &c. &c. &c.

The whole will be sold positively without the least Reserve.

Swellendam, 22nd August 1848.

JOSEPH BARRY,

Auctioneer.

Refreshments will be provided.

NOTICE.

IN the Pound of the Undersigned are confined beyond the limited time:—

A black Mare with a star on the forehead, both ears a slit, and marked on the left flank B. O., about 12 years old.

A brown Mare with a star on the forehead, marked B. O. about 10 years old.

If not released before the 28th October 1848, they will be sold at Swellendam Market on that day.

WILLIAM DE LA MATHER.

THE philosophic axiom, that there is no absolute or necessary connection between a name and the thing denominated, has been singularly comprehended, and most cunningly acted upon, by an Empirical Pencil and Mortar Philosopher of this City.—In as far as he has surreptitiously imparted to a vile compound of his own production, the name of my unrivalled perfume for the Handkerchief and Doudoir, and deceitfully imitated my labels for the same, so closely as to mislead incautious buyers. Let the Public, therefore, beware of such disgracefully avaricious chicanery, (whether in vending physic or perfumery) and remember that I am the sole proprietor, compounder, and vender, of the unrivalled perfume, Real Omar Essence; and that the label on every bottle of the genuine article must bear my signature.

The following Testimonial is one of many thousands addressed to Messrs. Rowlands and Sons, 20, Hatton Garden, London.

Gentlemen.—I consider it almost an imperative duty to state the valuable efficacy of your excellent MACASSAR OIL. For the last fifteen years I have been bald, occasioned by a most dreadful fever while in India. I have used almost every mean to procure a head of hair again, but all my efforts seemed fruitless, until, accidentally, a friend advised the use of your valuable Hair Restorer.—(I can give it no better name,) and after using a 3s. 6d. bottle every symptom of a new head of hair began to show itself, to the surprise not only of myself, but my family. I resolved on having another, and obtained a 7s. bottle, and before the whole of which was used I had and have now, as handsome a head of hair as ever man enjoyed and I earnestly recommend all who have not tried this most excellent Oil, will not fail to do so.

I am Sirs,

Your most grateful and obedient servant.

J. WALKER, Colonel.

UTILITY OF SCIENCE.—Science recommends itself to all classes of mankind by its practical utility and by the numerous advantages and benefits which it continually brings to light.
To expatiate on the importance and the benefits of scientific research and discovery would be superfluous; and it will be sufficient to select from the mass of facts a single illustration to prove the advantages which its investigation confer on mankind. We would therefore select the "OPUNTO, or Pearl Dentifrice," prepared by Messrs. ROWLAND, of Hatton Garden, and of Macassar Oil Celebrity, as constituting at once an indispensable requisite for the toilet; and an instance of the success of scientific research in discovering an infallible preservative of those indispensable attributes of beauty, the Teeth and Gums, in balmy fragrance, freshness and beauty.

GENTLEMEN.—About August, 1839, my hair began to fall off, and in so rapid a manner, that in the space of a month my head was almost divested of hair. I tried several preparations for its recovery without the slightest benefit, when one day your circular, in "Collins' Memoranda," caught my eye. I ventured on the purchase of a small bottle of ROWLAND'S MACASSAR OIL, after using which I found my hair was beginning to re-appear, and accordingly I purchased a larger bottle, which when finished, I felt satisfied that I had proved in my own person all you profess as to its restorative qualities; in short, after two months steady perseverance in its use, I had as good a head of hair as at any time of my life, for which permit me to offer my thanks. I have delayed writing to you for six months (from the time of leaving off the Oil) wishing to test the permanence of its restoration. I find it continues as firm and thick as before it began to fall off, with every prospect of its continuance.

I am, gentlemen,

Yours obediently,

JOHN FOSTER.

KAAPSTAD DEN 28STEN SEPTEMBER 1848.

PROCLAMATIE

SIR HENRY GEORGE WAKELYN SMITH,

Baronet, Ridder Groot Kruis van de Hoog-Edelen Orde van het Bad, Kolonel van het 2de Battalion Scherpschutters Administrateur van het Gouvernement van de Kolonie de Kaap de Goede Hoop, en den Ressorte van dien, Ordinaris, en Vice-Admiraal van dezelve; en Harer Majesteits Hooft Commissaris voor het afdoen en verfeffen van de Zaken van het Grondgebied in Zuid Afrika, belendend aan en annex de Oostelyke en Noordelyke Grenzen van de gezegde Kolonie, enz., enz., enz.

NADEMAAL de snoode Rebelle, door zekere ANDRIES WILHELMUS JACOBUS PRETORIUS aangevoerd, met geweld Harer Majesteits wapenen te Doemplaats, alwaar de Rebellen het hebben durven wagen Harer Majesteits troepen te beletten voort te rukken, krachtdadig is ten onder gebracht, waardoor een gevecht plaats vond, in hetwelk 49 burgers zyn gesneuveld,—meer dan 150 gewond, en de overigen, velen waarvan hunne paarden, wapenen en kleederen hebben achter gelaten, zyn verspreid, en in alle rigtingen de vlucht hebben genomen;—en de belediging Harer Majesteits gezag aangedaan, gewroken zynde, op de wyze als in myn Manifest van den 29 Maart II. verklaard, zoodanige daden gewroken moeten worden—en nademaal de uiterste straf der wet—DE DOOD—op den morgen van den 4den September te Bloemfontein, aan de lichamen van zekere Rebellen, namelijk THOMAS DREYER, Burger, en MICHAEL QUIGLING, een Deserteur uit Harer Majesteits dienst, werd ten uitvoer gebracht;—en nademaal ik heden te Winburg ben aangekomen, met een getal troepen, ten einde de bevelen van Hare Majesteit de Koningin van Engeland te doen gehoorzamen; en nademaal op den 3den February II., ik de Souvereiniteit van Hare Majesteit heb geproclameerd over het Grondgebied van de Orange Rivier, Noord naar de Vaal Rivier, welke eene bende Rebellen hebben durven tegenstand bieden;—proclameer ik andermaal die Souvereiniteit onder een Koninglyk Salut van 21 kanon schoten,—die Rebellen door kracht van wapenen uit het veld gedreven hebbende.

En voor het beter en krachtdadiger bestuur van het Grondgebied ten Oosten en Noorden van de Groote Orange Rivier, waar over Haar Majesteits gezag is uitgebreid geworden,—proclameer en verklaar ik by deze dat gedeelte velds, gelegen tusschen de Zand Rivier en de Vaal Rivier, en naar het Zuiden door de Draakberg Gebergten,—uit te maken, een vierde District der Souvereiniteit voormeld.

Er zullen dus zyn:

1. Het District Bloemfontein, onder den Britschen Resident Majoor WARREN.
2. Het District Caledon, alwaar ik den Wel-Ed. Heer THOMAS VOWE, tot Civile Commissaris en Magistraat heb aangesteld.
3. Het District van Winberg, bevattende het Grondgebied, zich uitstrekkende van het District Bloemfontein naar de Zand Rivier,—naar de Draakberg Gebergten,—waarvan ik, hangende myn verder besluit, den Wel-Ed. Heer FREDERIK REX, als Civilen Commissaris en Magistraat aan stel.
4. Het District Vaal Rivier, waartoe ik aanstel als Landdrost, dien vredelievenden en welgezinden Burger HENDRIK POTGIETER; die zyne Veldcommandanten en Veldcornets zal kiezen en aanstellen; en aan my verantwoordelyk zal worden gehouden voor de behoorlyke gehoorzaamheid en goede trouw ten opzichte Harer Majesteit en het gezag aan my toevertrouwd.—En het Salaris aan den Landdrost en het bedragen van Erspachten, welke gering zullen zyn, zullen hierna worden bepaald, wanneer Ik Mynheer POTGIETER en andere invloed hebbende lieden zie.

En nademaal deze Rebellen verscheidene moedwillige daden gepleegd, en op eene snoode wyze vele huizen, de eigendommen van welgezinde personen te Winberg hebben geplunderd, proclameer ik by deze, dat ik eene

Commissie zal benoemen, tot het heffen van zoodanige boetens, van hen die in de Rebelle hebben deelgenomen, als niet alleen ter bestrijking der kosten, waaraan het Gouvernement door dezen snooden oorlog werdt blootgesteld behulpzaam zullen zyn, maar ook de goede Lieden die door de daden van den Euvel hebben geleden, hunne verliezen te vergoeden,—en ik zal alle Rebellen en Rustverstoorders van het District Winberg verdryven, en zal hunne eigendommen verbeurd verklaren;—met uitzondering van Mynheer PAUL BESTER van het District Winberg, en Mynheer GERT KREIGER van het District Vaal Rivier, aan wien ik Hare Majesteits Genadige Pardon verleen. Deze lieden, hoewel snoodelyk uitgetrokken, hebben gepoogd de daden van geweld en bloedvergieting van dien Aarts-Rebel PRETORIUS tegen te gaan.

En ik maak by deze bekend, dat alle huwelyken tot hiertoe in het District van Winburg aangegaan, en niet genotuleerd als in myne Proclamatie voorgeschreven, onwettig zyn; en de kinderen uit zoodanige huwelyken geboren geene bezittingen binnen de Kolonie kunnen erven.

En ik verbied by deze alle Publieke Byeenkomsten,—en ik beschouw allen schuldig aan felonie, die pogen zullen eenige byeen te roepen, en indien zy dit pogen te doen, heb ik te Bloemfontein een groot getal Kanonnen, Ruitery, en Voetvolk geposteed, ten einde dezelve door geweld van wapenen ten onder te brengen;—en ik zal zulk eene vesting te Bloemfontein doen oprigten, door Kanonnen zoodanig verdedigd, als gedurende de afwezigheid der Troepen in het veld haar tot veiligheid strekken zullen.

En nademaal het blykt dat de post tot publiek gemak en nut tusschen Winberg en Natal daargesteld, onderschept is geworden, en brieven geopend, maak ik by deze bekend, dat eenig persoon dezelve strekkende, schuldig zyn zal aan Felonie.

En ik maak mede by deze bekend, dat eenig persoon die eenige Papieren of Documenten van eenen verraderlyken aard rondgeven of daarin behulpzaam zal zyn, of met PRETORIUS, JACOBS en andere Vogelvryverklaren eenig gemeenschap hebben zal,—aan Felonie schuldig zyn zal.

En in myne Proclamatie van den 2den September eene somma van £500 voor de gevangenneming van zekere WILLEM JACOBS uitgelooft hebbende, verdubbel ik thans dat bedrag, en ik offereer by deze een gelyk bedrag voor de gevangenneming van zekeren ANDRIES SPIES—een welbekende Rebel—en VYF HONDERD PONDEN voor FREDERIK BEZUIDENHOUT.

En ik loof by deze uit, eene belooning van VYF HONDERD PONDEN voor ADRIAN STANDERS, en ik maak zyn gedrag der wereld bekend, een stevig voorbeeld van den staat der maatschappij aan gene zyde der Orange Rivier opleverende. Dezen man was zeer naauw bekend met, en woonde dicht by den Heer ERWEE, een zeer fatsoenlyke Boer; hy heeft zelfs onlangs het lyk van een der zonen van den Heer ERWEE gevolgd—naauwelyks was den uitval begonnen of hy maakte zich meester van de eigendommen van zynen buurman;—een ander Rebel, met name JACOBUS MEYER, tegelyker tyd bezit nemende van Bloemfontein, en werkelyk het veld van Majoor WARREN beploegende.

Zulke gevallen van de volslagene onbewustheid van 's menschen regten moet alom worden bekend gemaakt. Het verlangen naar roof niet een gevoel van Vaderlandsliefde, spoort den Rebel aan, door wien Privaat Eigendom noch geëerbiedigd noch geacht wordt.

En ik proclameer by deze, dat het berigt hetwelk myaan Mynheer KRYNAUW de schandelyke misdaad, van een der eersten te zyn geweest, die de Rebellen gelastte te schieten, heeft doen toeschryven.—blykende hetzelfde valsche te zyn, hebbende hy den Kamp der Rebellen verlaten,—ik hem daarvan vry spreek.

En ik proclameer by deze myne verdere goedkeuring over het gedrag van Mynheer GERT HENDRIK MEYER, WESSELS, en hunne party te Winberg, die zich manmoedig en dapper naby Winberg, in een Kamp hebben gefor-

meerd, en tegen eenige poging der Rebellen tegen hen gedaan, hebben verweerd en dezelve verdreven; alsmede over dat van Veldcommandant SNEYMAN van Caledon Rivier, die, met meer dan 500 Huisgezinnen hetzelfde deed,—en van dat van den Heer ERWEE, Veldcommandant ERASMUS, Veldcornet CLOETE, Veldcornet M. OVERHOLSTEREN hun volk, allen welke, door zich dus te vereenigen het grootste gedeelte hunner Kudden en Wachters uit de handen der Rovers hebben behouden en gered; en ik zal niet nalaten zulk een verdienstelyk gedrag ten opzichte van Rebellen tegen Harer Majesteits gezag, en onderdrukkers hunner mede onderdanen ter kennis der Koningin te brengen. Ik zwaai Mynheer POTGIETER den hoogten lof toe over zyn gedrag, in aanmerking waarvan ik hem tot Landdrost heb aangesteld.

Myn Manifest is thans bevestigd, en ik verlang by deze dat al die Ingezeten van het District van Natal naar hunne woningen terugkeeren. Indien zy aan deze waarschuwing geen gehoor geven, en daaraan niet voldoen, ware het beter voor hen, wanneer zy acht sloegen op hunne kudden en vee, opdat ik ze niet in bezit doe nemen.

Deze zyn de schetsen myner handelingen, hangende verdere berigten, en ik annexeer myne Proclamatie van den 2den September te Bloemfontein, dat allen weten mogen, dat hoe verlangend ik ben, en ik immer getoond heb te zyn, voor de welvaart der Nederlandsche Ingezeten, belediging aan Harer Majesteits gezag, gewroken wordt, en immer gewroken zal worden.

GOD BEWARE DE KONINGEN!

(Gegeven onder myn Hand en Zegel, te Winberg, dezen Zevenden dag van September 1848.

Baronet, Ridder Groot Kruis van de Hoog-Edelen Orde van het Bad, Kolonel van het 2de Battalion Scherpschutters, Gouverneur en Opperbevelhebber van de Kolonie de Kaap de Goede Hoop, en den Ressorte van dien, en Ordinaris, en Vice-Admiraal van dezelve; en Harer Majesteits Hooft Commissaris voor het afdoen en verfeffen van de Zaken van het Grondgebied in Zuid Afrika, belendend aan en annex de Oostelyke en Noordelyke Grenzen van de gez. Kolonie, enz., enz., enz.

NADEMAAL eene booze Rebelle is daargesteld en aangestoot geworden door zekeren ANDRIES WILHELMUS JACOBUS PRETORIUS, nu buiten de wet gesteld als een Rebel, en voor wiens apprehensie eene belooning van Een Duizend Ponden Sterling (£1000) is uitgelooft, en de Som van Vyf Honderd Ponden (£500) voor de apprehensie van WILLEM JACOBS,—proclameerende de gezegde PRETORIUS aan het geheele land, dat nu de tyd was om te zyn wat hy "vry" noemt, te weten, de veroorloofde onderdrukkers van hunne landgenooten, zoo wel als van de Naturellen, en dat hy deze Souvereiniteit zou verlossen van de Britsche regering, welke de goede lieden hadden gezocht, en waarom zy by petitie hadden aanzoek gedaan by het Gouvernement; en toen getracht hetzelfde te doen te Natal—door welke rebelle de Britsche Resident door eene gewapende magt is gedwongen geworden zyne positie te Bloemfontein te verlaten, waar hy geposteed was tot het ten uitvoer brengen van de bevelen, en het gehoorzamen van de orders van Hare Majesteit of van hoogst derzelver Vertegenwoordiger,—en nademaal, toen ik met een detachement van Harer Majesteits troepen marscheerde om wraak te nemen over deze belediging en om deze booze Rebelle te onderdrukken, welke dit land, voormaals bloeyend en gelukkig, een tooneel had gemaakt van verwoesting en verlaten, dryvende de welgezinde lieden, hunne vrouwen, kinderen en vee, naar de schuilplaatsen van het gebergte, enz., om daar bescherming en veiligheid te zoeken—ik ben tegengestaan door omtrent 1000 Rebellen, onder het bevel van dezen aartsverrader PRETORIUS, trachtende door een hinderlaag myne voortgang te stuiten, maar waarvan ik ten goede tyde onderrigt was; door welke tegenstand verscheiden van Harer Majesteits Officiëren en Soldaten zyn gedood of gewond, zynde daarenboven negen en veertig van de Rebellen dood op het slagveld gevonden. Twaalf gedood op eene plaats door eenen kogel, en hun verlies in gewonden, in wapenen en in paarden, enz. mede zeer aanzienlyk zyn de, het nu overblyft,—zynde de bele-

Uiging van Harer Majesteits gezag ten volle gewroken door geweld van wapenen,—dat de volle kracht der wetten hare werking zal hebben,—en heden zynde gearriveerd met een corps van Harer Majesteits Troepen, tot dat einde;—maak ik by deze, uit kracht van het gezag in my gevestigd, bekend, aan al Harer Majesteits Onderdanen, die bevonden zullen worden schuldig te zyn aan Rebelle, door zich te hebben gevoegd by de Rebellen, in de wapenen onder PRETORIUS, dat hun eigendom is geconfiskeerd, en ik maak verder bekend aan alle diegenen van Harer Majesteits Onderdanen, die deze Rebellen hebben geholpen of ondersteund, met paarden, provisien, of transport, dat zy zyn en zullen zyn onderhevig aan zoodanige boeten als hen zal worden opgelegd, na het onderzoek van eene Commissie welke zal worden aangesteld, tot het inwinnen van narigt en het opleggen van zoodanige boete.

En ik proclameer by deze aan iederen Rebel of helper van de Rebellen, dat ik last heb gegeven tot het in beslag nemen van alle gelden en eigendommen welke zy binnen de kolonie zullen mogen bezitten, geluende een geregtelyk proces of tot Hare Majesteits bevelen zullen ontvangen zyn.

En ik proclameer verder en maak bekend, de goedkeuring welke ik gevoel, en welke ik naar waarheid en getrouweyk zal voorstellen aan Hare Majesteit, de Koningin van Engeland, over het gedrag van de meerderheid van de Huishouders van de Hollandsche Christen Ingezetenen, wier welvaren ik zoo zeer ter harte neem; zoowel als van al de Inlandsche Stammen, binnen de Souvereiniteit voormeld, te weten MOSHESH, MOROKKO, MOLITSANI, SIKONYELA, LEPUIS, en de Grikwa Opperhoofden WATERBOER, Kaptein ADAM KOK, KORNELIS KOK, JAN BLOEM, enz., die, ofschoon aangezocht door den aartsrebel, PRETORIUS, die, door middel van leugen en bedrog heeft getracht hen te overreden, dat hunne zaak was opgegeven door Hare Majesteit, desniettegenstaande ongeschokt zyn gebleven in hunne trouw, en hun vast vertrouwen op het besluit van Harer Majesteits Vertegenwoordiger, om dadelijk tot hunne bescherming aan te rukken.

En ik proclameer en maak by deze bekend, de afschuw waarmede ik de daden dezer Rebellen beschouw, die door bangmaking de eerlyke en nyvere huishouders uit hunne huizen hebben verjaagd, hunne deuren en vensters verbrand, en hunne paarden, vee, meel en ander eigendom hebben geroofd.

En ik maak by deze verder bekend, dat zoodra als de sommen zullen zyn byeengebragt tot het bestryken van de kosten door het Gouvernement gemaakt, in het onderdrukken van deze booze Rebelle, ik zal trachten de fondsen van de bedoelde Souvereiniteit zoo te besturen, dat zy die groote verliezers zyn geweest door de daden der Rebellen, en niet gewankeld hebben in hunne trouw aan Hare Majesteit, op eenigen toekomstigen tyd, al de schadeloosstelling zullen genieten, welke zoodanige fondsen verschaffen kunnen.

En ik proclameer nu en bied eene belooning aan van EEN DUIZEND PONDEN, boven en behalve de belooning van een Duizend Ponden alreeds aangeboden, voor de apprehensie van den Rebel ANDRIES WILHELMUS JACOBUS PRETORIUS, en de Een Duizend Pond voor alle narigt dat kan leiden tot zyne apprehensie, en ik confiskeer by deze alle eigendom waartoe hy zal mogen geregtigd zyn, binnen het gebied van Hare Majesteit, en daar het blijkt dat zekere ANDRIES SPIES, en zekere JAN KRYMAAN, (welke laatste voor weinig weken geleden my by petitie heeft verzocht hem te absolveren van eene vroegere buiten de wet stelling) de personen zyn die onder de Rebellen op den 29ste Augustus aan Bloemfontein, hen het eerst hebben geordonneerd te schieten, en daardoor de onmiddelyke oorzaak zyn geweest van het verspillen van het bloed van Harer Majesteits Troepen, die stelligelast hadden niet te vuren voor op hen geschoten was, welk bevel zy stiptelyk hebben volbragt, zoo bied ik by deze eene belooning aan van £500 sterling voor de apprehensie en hetleveren in handen van Harer Majesteits Officieren, Civil of Militair, van ieder van deze overtreders, en eene gelyke som van £500 voor die van LOUW PRETORIUS, van Caledons Rivier, de groote verstoorder van de rust van dat District.

En ik proclameer by deze en maak bekend, dat de misdaad van Rebelle, en het voeren van wapenen tegen Harer Majesteits gezag ten volle bewezen zynde tegen de volgende personen, ik by deze hun eigendom confiskeer, t. w.: JAN KRYMANN, LOUW PRETORIUS, FREDERICK OTTO, JAN JACOBS, PHILIPS VAN COLLAR, JAN VILJOON, ADRIAN STANDERS, en hunne plaatsen zullen te koop worden aangeboden.

En nademaal het my ten vollen bewezen is, dat de ondergemelde personen de zaak der Rebellen hebben geholpen, aangestookt en geassisteerd, zoo

OKKER JACOBUS VAN SCHALKWYK, Twee Honderd Pond (£200).

PIET LOUW, Honderd Vyftig Pond (£50).

JAN BOTER, Honderd Vyftig Pond (£150).

En ik verlang alle huisgezinnen naar hunne huizen terug te keeren, en alle vaders, wier zoonen (of nabestaanden) minderjarig zynde, in het veld waren met de Rebellen, derzelver wapenen in te brengen. zullende anders de gezegde ouders verantwoordelyk worden gehouden. Velen hebben dezelve alreeds ingebracht.

Dit zyn de eerste schikkingen voor de Districten Bloem Fontein en Caledon. Ik zal onverwyld voortgaan naar Winburg, tot het ten uitvoer brengen van de verklaringen vervat in myn Manifest van den 29 Maart ll.

GOD BEWARE DE KONINGIN!

Gegeven onder myne Hand en Zegel, te Bloemfontein, op den 2den dag van September 1848.

H. G. SMITH,

Gouverneur.

Ter Ordonnantie van Z. E. Harer Majesteits Hooge Commissaris,

RICHARD SOUTHEY,
Secretaris van H. M. Hooge Commissaris.

Kamp, Winburg

8sten September 1848,

De Wel-Ed. De sommen toegewezen moeten dadelijk worden geheven, of de personen in hechtenis genomen, en de vuurwapenen te worden overgeleverd.

De meest naauwkeurige en gespecificeerde rekeningen, met reus en bewyzen moeten aan Zyne Excellentie den Hoogen Commissaris worden overgezonden; en alle gelden moeten in handen worden gesteld van den voornaamsten Commissariaat Officier aan het Hoofdkwartier, de Opperbevelhebber daartoe een gezagschrift uitvaardigende.

De Heer SOUTHEY zal ook toezien dat de basis van elk stelsel, door den Hoogen Commissaris ter uitvoering gelast, voor de toekomstige regering der Souvereiniteit, wel worde voorgelegd en verstaan.

Voor het District Caledon:—

De Wel-Ed. Heer THOMAS VOW, de Heer ANTHONY O'REILLY, Veldkommandant SNYMAN en de Heer HERMANUS WESSELS.

Voor het Winburg District:—

(Get.) H. G. SMITH,

Gouverneur en Hooge Commissaris.

Winburg, den 9den September 1848.

NOTULEN van de VERRIGTINGEN eener BYEENKOMST door Zyne Excellentie den Gouverneur der Kolonie de Kaap de Goede Hoop en Hoogen Commissaris te zamen getroffen, waarby tegenwoordig waren, de GOUVERNEUR, de Opperhoofden MOSHESH, MOROKKO, MOLITSANI, en KAROLUS BATJU; alsmede de voornaamste en invloedhebbende Burgers, of hunne Vertegenwoordiger van de Caledon en Bloemfontein Districten, en de Burgers van het District Winburg, namelyk, die landstreek zich uitstreckende van het Bloemfontein District in het Westen, Noordeelyks naar de Vaal Rivier, Oostelyk naar den hooggelegen grond tusschen de Zand en Valsch

Rivieren, en tot de Draakbergen naar het Zuiden.

Tegenwoordig van de Burgers van het Winburg District, meer dan 150; en de Heer PAUL BESTER was afgevaardigd, om voor honderden van de Vaal Rivier te antwoorden,—de afstand hen belettende in persoon te verschynen.

De Byeenkomst werd door den Gouverneur geopend.

Zyne Excellentie zeide:

MYNE HEEREN!

In January laatstleden hebt gy my verzocht onder u te komen en steltet gy voor dat ik een Gouvernement voor u-lieden daar zoude stellen, om dat gy uzelfen als Britsche Onderdanen beschouwdet. Het was voor my onmogelyk zulks te doen, (deze landstreek niet als een gedeelte der Kolonie angelast zynde) voor dat ik dezelve, door Proclamatie, onder de Souvereiniteit van Hare Majesteit stelde.

Ik raadpleegde met de voornaamste personen onder u,—niet de Opperhoofden MOSHESH, MOROKKO, MOLITSANI, SINKONYELLA, JAK BLOEM, ADAM KOK, KAROLUS BATJU, en verscheiden anderen:—allen baden my te doen hetgeen gy weet dat ik gedaan heb, als verklaard in myne Proclamatie van den 3den February en 8sten Maart laatstleden;—waarna snoode beroerders poogden de voortgaande eendragt te verhinderen, en ik vaardigde myne Manifesto van den 29sten Maart ll. uit. Niettegenstaande dit, werd er een snood oproer aangevuurd, en hetwelk door kracht van wapenen is ten ondergebragt, zoo als gy wel weet, en als gemeld in myne Proclamatie van den 2den September, te Bloemfontein uitgevaardigd, en van den 7den September te Winburg uitgevaardigd, onder een Koninglyk Salut van 21 schoten by elke plaats.

De snoode aanhiter dezes oproers, het durende onderstaand te wanen, dat hy tegen overmagtig Engeland oorlog voeren kan, trachtte de groote Opperhoofden nu hier tegenwoordig te verleiden zich met hem te vereenigen,—tegen wien? U-zelfen! om u van uwe kudden en vee troepen te ontrooven,—de deuren en vensters van uwe huizen weg te nemen—zoo als hy gedaan heeft—en uwe vrouwen en kinderen in het veld te verjagen. Zy hebben de daden van dezen booswicht PRETORIUS veroordeeld, en aan hunne bondgenootschap met Hare Majesteit, en aan hunne gehoorzaamheid aan de geproclameerde Souvereiniteit vastgekleefd. Deze Opperhoofden zyn in volle vriendschap met den afgelegenen Opperhoofd Panda; maar waren zy dit niet, trotseren zy zyne magt. Is dit niet zoo, MOSHESH, MOROKKO, MOLITSANI, en gy andere Opperhoofden?

Nu, Myne Heeren, deze beleediging aan Harer Majesteits gezag is ten volsten door my en Harer Majesteits Soldaten gewroken, waarvan, zoo als gy ziet, ik velen heb, en die ik, zoo als in myn Manifesto vermeld, ik in weinige dagen hier brengen kan, alsmede door den schandelyken dood van twee der oproerlingen te Bloemfontein, op dezelfde plaats waar de Rebel PRETORIUS Harer Majesteits gezag had beleedigd. Het spyt my slechts dat hyzelve er niet een van was,—op wiens hoofd zyn al het bloed en ellende dat hy veroorzaakte?

De Districten van Bloemfontein en Caledon waren in eenen bloeienden toestand en zeer gelukkig; herhaaldelyk my verzekerende dat ik niets meer voor hunnen welvaart doen konde dan hetgeen ik gedaan heb. Zy zelve konden niets voorstellen waardoor myne maatregelen zouden worden verbeterd.

Te Winburg bestond er oneenigheid; en het District, myns dunkens, te groot zynde heb ik een gedeelte daarvan in het vierde afdeling geformeerd, onder een Landdrost,—een man onder uzelfen hoog geacht.

Daar gy, in January, my hebt geroepen, om een gouvernement voor u daar te stellen—hetgeen ik deed en hetwelk werd beleedigd,—doch welke beleediging ik gewroken heb—roep ik u te zamen om uwe gevoelens open te leggen, en te vernemen of gy bereid zyt om uwen Magistraat voor beleediging te beschermen, indien ik, op uw verlangen, hem met u laat,—altijd in het oog houdende, dat eene sterke magt te Bloem Fontein is geplaatst, van kanonnen, kavallerie en voetvolk, gereed om ter uwer ondersteuning toe te snellen.

Laat my uw wel overwogene gevoelens hebben, —neem uwen tyd, en laten degenen die naar een Magistraat verlangen, hunne handen opstellen.

[De geheele vergadering hield hier hare handen op.]

Eene magt, dan die van Hare Majesteit, zal my beweegen eenige verandering te maken in de Bloemfontein en Caledon Districten, om dat de arrangementen aldaar zyn hetgeen 9 personen uit de 10 verlangen. Men heeft my zelfs gezegd, dat 19 uit de 20 dezelve begeeren.

Gy begeert, dan, een Magistraat, en wilt hem beschermen—derhalve zal ik u een laten. De Heer BIDDULPH gewond zynde, zal de Heer REX zoolang zyn bediening waarnemen tot dat hy weder wel is.

Myne Heeren van Winburg,—altoos in het oog houdende dat gy belooft hebt, uwen Magistraat te verdedigen,—gy moet wel verstaan,—dat er te Winburg geene militaire magt blyven zal, maar te Bloemfontein zal er eene sterke magt worden geplaatst,—sterk genoeg om zelfs Fransche soldaten te wederstaan,—om u te ondersteunen,—en in geval van nood, indien iemand om hulp afgezonden wordt, zullen de troepen in drie dagen by u zyn.

Ik wensch nu te weten, hoe vele mannen er zyn waarop ik in elk district staat maken kan.

[Voor het Bloemfontein District, antwoordde de Commandant Erasmus voor 400 man,—Veldkornet Cloete 300,—Veldkornet Overolster voor 250; en de Heer Erwee antwoordde, in den naam van Veld-kommandant Snyman voor 450 man in het Kaledonsche District; In het geheel, 1400 man,—allen gewapend, en geschikt de wapens te dragen.]

Dus zyn er 1400 mannen, slechts in twee districten, goed gezond jegens het Gouvernement; en nogtans durfde Pretorius met 800 of 1000 man,—meest allen kinderen of van een grooten afstand aangebragt, volstrekt niets in dit gedeelte des lands te doen hebbende, aan komen, en my komen vertellen, dat het geheele land tegen het Gouvernement is.

Deze 1400 mannen zyn gereed de Winburgsche lieden te ondersteunen, geholpen door de magt te Bloemfontein. Deze moet naar hen zien om hunne assistentie; en zy moeten naar haar zien wanneer zy hulp behoeven.

Zyt gy te vreden dat uw land aan u worde uitgemeten, zoo als thans bepaald door myne Proclamatie van den 8sten Maart? Ik verisch geene strenge meting; al dat ik begeer is, dat elk man moet weten wat zyn eigen is, een land certificaat bekomen, en zyn eigendom aan zyne kinderen vermaken kan.

[De geheele vergadering betoonde hier hunne tevredenheid.]

Denk er aan, dat niemand eenig land van eenigen Opperhoofd nemen kan, zonder de toestemming van gezegden Opperhoofd, als ook die van den Gouverneur.

Wenscht gy Kerken en Scholen te hebben? of begeert gy afvallige Christenen te worden, en dat uwe kinderen even onwetend zouden zyn als de niet onderwezene wilde man?

[Allen betoonde hunne groote angstvalligheid omtrent Kerken, enz.]

Hebt gy iets te zeggen over het onderwerp van Erfpacht? Ik heb te voren gezegd dat dezelve bedoeld werd van £1 tot £8 te verschillen, maar ik heb reeds dikwyls gezegd, dat het niet volgt dat gy allen £8 te betalen hebt. Deze is de som die niet moet worden te boven gegaan, en velen uwer zullen waarschijnlijk zeer weinig te betalen hebben, maar dit zal van u zelve afhangen.

[De vergadering antwoordde dat zy niets over dit onderwerp had aantemerken.]

Deze zyn de voornaamste punten ter overweging. Ik ben nu gereed te hooren wat gy in eenig opzigt voortstellen hebt; maar onderhoudt het, ik laat u aan uwe eigene middelen over, door de wet ondersteund en door de magt te Bloemfontein. In de kolonie heeft de helft van u onder my gediend, toen de Kaffers het land overstroomden; en hier moet gy uzelve verdedigen tegen de Roovers van wie ik u onlangs hebt gered. Wat is het onderscheid tusschen de zwarte en witte Roovers. Beiden verdienen het vonnis en de magt der wet; en moeten zich daarin berusten.

Zie hoe mannelijk WESSELS, MEYER, en hun getrouwe party, zich tegen PRETORIUS hebben verdedigd, voordat ik zyn bende had vernield!

Hoe vele van de beenderen dezer misleide mannen bleeken thans uit op het veld van bloed en oorlog! Hoe velen van hen kreunen onder den pyn van zware wonden! Hoe velen, hunne dwaling inziende, hebben my hunne wapenen gebragt, en vrywillig, met hart en ziel den eed der getrouweheid aan Hare Majesteit afgelegd, hunne gewilligheid betoonende om tot de onkosten van den oorlog by te dragen, zoo als ik begeer!—het schoonste voorbeeld daarvan is, de Veldkommandant BESTER. Hy heeft heden 300 Ryksdaalders betaald, om de goedmaking der onkosten van den oorlog te hulp te komen; hy heeft gedwaald, doch heeft trouw. Wy hebben allen hun de hand geschud, en hy zal in my altoos een getrouwen vriend vinden. KRIEGER en KRYNAUW zyn andere voorbeelden, en ik zal myne wakende zorg over hen bewyzen.

Wat oogmerk heb ik om voor u een Gouvernement daar te stellen dan uw eigen vrede en geluk, onder uzelve en onder de Inboorlingen, die, ik zeg u zeer vriendelyk hebben behandeld.

Ik zal in twee of drie dagen marcheren; maar ik laat myn Secretaris, den Hr. SOUTHEY achter, met eene magt van Kavallerie, om de Oorlogschatting in te vorderen, en ik lees thans myne Instructien desaangaande voor:—
De Instructien werden hier gelezen.

Wat betreft het Vaal Rivier District, onder den Landdrost POTGIETER, ik verwacht hem dagelyks; wanneer ik veel met hem zal hebben te spreken, even als ik met u gehad heb. Middelwyl, tot dat hy aankomt stel ik eene Commissie aan, om voor hem als Landdrost voor het Vaal Rivier District te ageren, bestaande uit PIET VENTER, PAUL BESTER.

Op de suggestie van den Heer VENTER en den Heer BESTER, werd den Heer LOUW BOTHA hier tot Veldkommandant benoemd voor het Vaal Rivier District, en JAN DRYER en HENDRIK VAN VUUREN tot Veldkornets.

Indien PAUL BESTER my zeggen wil wat de menschen aan de Vaal Rivier noodig hebben, zal ik het doen.

Ik zal alles aanwenden om goed te doen, en vrede daartestellen, welke de Troepen voor u, immer ten uitvoer brengen zullen, en ik heb op dezen dag geschreven om eene beweging Harer Majesteits soldaten te Port Natal terug te trekken; die ik tot dat einde van de Kaapstad heb versterkt, om door de Draakberg gebergte te worden gedaan. En ik verlang nogmaals van de Ingezetenen van het Natal District, om binnen drie maanden naar hunne woningen terug te keeren, of alle hunne plaatsen zullen worden verbeurd verklaard.

Wy scheiden thans, hoop ik, als malkander delyk verstaan te hebben, dat Harer Majesteits Souvereiniteit andermaal is daargesteld, en dat gy in bezit zyt van het Gouvernement hetwelk gy zoekt.

Het Opperhoofd MOSESH, sprak hier, en wees op den Heer PIET VENTER, zeggende:—Dezen is een der eerste Boeren die myn land bezocht heeft,—en ik wys op hem als een goed mensch zynde.

Op dien tyd oorloogden ik en de Korannas, en een myner Broeders werd gewond. Ik verzocht om hulp van VENTER, en het volk dat by hem was—maar hy verwees my naar het Koloniaal Gouvernement, en aan de woorden toen door hem gezegt, ben ik myne eerste kennis aan dat Gouvernement verschuldigd.—Ik wys hem Zyne Excellentie aan, als den man aan wien ik myne kennis met een Gouvernement, met wien ik thans op zulk eenen goeden voet sta, verschuldigd ben.

Ik ben het aan VENTER verschuldigd, dat ik thans (op Zyne Excellentie wyzende) een Groote Opperhoofd heb, aan wien ik my houden kan. Ik ben heden niet hier om van bloed te spreken, maar van dankbaarheid aan het Britsch Gouvernement en aan VENTER. En ik zal slechts hierby voegen myne opregte dankbaarheid aan Zyne Excellentie voor al het geen hy voor dit land gedaan heeft, en hem met den uitslag der jongste onlusten geluk te wenschen.

Zyne Excellentie zeide: “Groote Opperhoofd,” Ik dank u, voor uw verhaal, van het goed dat ge-daan is door een landsman. De leer van alle goede menschen is, dat er een God over allen is, zoowel Witten als Zwarten. Ik spreek in lof van u allen, gy Opperhoofden MOSESH, MOROCCO, MOLITSANI, CAROLUS BATJU en anderen. Gy vraagdet my wat gy in de laatste affaire doen zoude; ik zeide “Zit stil;” gy deed zulks; ik dank u allen.”

De Burgers nu gevraagd zynde, of eenig een nog wenschte te spreken, verzekerde de Veldkommandant ERASMUS Zyne Excellentie, dat hy gevoelde, dat elk woord in het Manifesto is ten nitvoer gebragt,—dat hy vertrouwde dat elk een zoude zien dat dit het geval was,—en voor het vervolg aan Hare Majesteit getrouw zoude blyven. De Heer PAUL BESTER verklaarde, op de ernstigste wyze mogelyk, dat hy al dat in zyn vermogen was doen zoude, om orde te herstellen. Eene groote menigte legden den eed van getrouweheid af,—vaders hunne zonen toebrengende,—en vele vuurwapenen werden overgeleverd. Het gevoel by de vergadering, als bewezen door de weinige woorden van vele personen, was hoogst voldoende, en by het sluiten der vergadering weergalmden een driewerf herhaald gejuich, voor den welvaart Harer Majesteit het Kamp door.

JOHN GARVOCK, Majoor,
Private Secretaris.

THE CAPE OF GOOD HOPE Government Gazette.

Published by Authority.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1848.

PROCLAMATION

SIR HENRY GEORGE WAKELYN SMITH,

Baronet, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honorable Military Order of the Bath, Colonel of the Second Battalion of the Rifle Brigade, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope in South Africa, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, and Ordinary, and Vice Admiral of the same; and Her Majesty's High Commissioner for the settling and adjustment of the Affairs of the Territories in Southern Africa, adjacent and contiguous to the Eastern and North Eastern Frontier of the said Colony, &c. &c. &c.

WHEREAS the wicked Rebellion, excited and fomented by one Andries Wilhelmus Jacobus Pretorius, has been effectually put down by force of Her Majesty's Arms at "Eoom Plaats," where the Rebels dared to dispute the passage of Her Majesty's Troops, thereby causing a Conflict in which 49 Burghers were left dead upon the Field—upwards of 150 wounded—and the remainder, many of them leaving behind their horses, arms, and clothing, dispersed and put to flight in every direction; and the insult offered to Her Majesty's Authority having been thus avenged, as was declared in my Manifesto of the 29th of March last such act should be;—and whereas the extreme Penalty of the Law—DEATH—was carried into execution at Bloem Fontein, on the morning of the 4th September, upon the bodies of certain Rebels, viz:—THOMAS DREYER, Burgher, and MICHAEL QUIGLING, a Deserter from Her Majesty's Service;—and whereas I have this day arrived at Winburg with a body of Troops, to enforce Rule and Obedience to the Commands of Her Majesty the Queen of England;—and whereas on the 3d February last, I did proclaim the Sovereignty of Her Majesty over the Territory from the Orange River north to the Vaal River, which a band of Rebels has ventured to oppose;—I now re-proclaim that Sovereignty, under a Royal Salute of 21 Guns, having by force of Arms dispersed these Rebels.

And for the better and more efficient Government of the Territory to the East and North of the Great Orange River, over which Her Majesty's Authority has been extended, I do hereby proclaim and declare that Tract of Country situated between the Sand River and the Vaal River, and bounded towards the South by the Draakberg Mountains, to be constituted a Fourth District of the Sovereignty aforesaid.

Thus there will be—

1. The District of Bloem Fontein, under the British Resident, Major WARDEN.
2. The District of Caledon, to which I have appointed THOMAS VOWE, Esq., Civil Commissioner and Magistrate.
3. The District of Winburg, comprising the Territory extending from the Bloem Fontein District to the Sand River, and up to the Draakberg Mountains, to which I appoint, pending my further decision, FREDERICK KEX, Esq., Civil Commissioner and Magistrate.
4. The District of Vaal River, to which I appoint as Landdrost that peace-loving and well-disposed Burgher, HENDRIK POTGIETER, who will select and nominate his Field-Commandants and Field-Cornets, and will be held responsible to me duly to observe obedience and good faith towards Her Majesty, and the authority in me vested. And the Salary of the Landdrost, and the Amount of Quit Rents, which will be trifling, shall be hereafter determined, when I see Mynheer POTGIETER and other influential men.

And whereas these Rebels did commit various wanton acts, and did also wickedly pillage many houses, the property of well-disposed persons at Winburg, I hereby proclaim, that I shall appoint a Commissioner, to levy such Fines upon those who took part in the Rebellion, as shall not only aid in defraying the expenses entailed upon Government by this wicked war, but indemnify the Good Men for their losses, who suffered by the acts of the Evil; and I will banish from the District of Winburg all REBELS and disturbers of the Peace, and will confiscate their property,—with the exception of Mynheer PAUL BESTER of the Winburg District, and Mynheer GERT KREIGER of the District of Vaal River, to whom I extend Her Majesty's Gracious Pardon. These men, although they wickedly turned out, did endeavour to restrain the acts of violence and bloodshed of that arch-Rebel PRETORIUS.

And I hereby make known, that all Marriages heretofore contracted in the District of Winburg, and not recorded as set forth in my Proclamation, are illegal; and the offspring thereof can inherit no property within the Colony.

And I hereby prohibit all Public Meetings;—and I hold any one guilty of Felony who shall endeavour to convene any;—and if they attempt to do so, I have posted at Bloem Fontein a large force of Guns, Cavalry, and Infantry, to suppress the same by force of Arms;—and I will construct such a Fortification at Bloem Fontein, well defended by cannon, as shall ensure its safety during the absence of the Troops in the field.

And whereas it appears that the Post, established for public convenience and utility, between Winburg and Natal, has been interfered with, and letters opened, I do hereby make known, that any Person who shall interrupt the same shall be guilty of Felony.

And I do likewise make known, that any Person who shall disseminate any Papers or Documents of a treasonable nature, or shall connive at their dissemination, or shall hold any intercourse with Pretorius, Jacobs, and others proscribed, shall be guilty of Felony.

And having, in my Proclamation of the 2d Sept., offered the sum of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS for the apprehension of one WILLEM JACOBS. I now double that Sum; and I hereby offer the like Sum for the apprehension of one ANDRIES SPIES, —a notorious Rebel; and FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS for FREDERICK BEZUIDENHOUT.

And I do hereby offer a Reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS for ADRIAN STANDERS; and do now make known his conduct to the world affording as it does an ample example of the state of society beyond the Orange River. This man was, living in intimacy with, and close to, Mr. ERWEE, —a most respectable Farmer;—he was even very lately at the funeral of one of Mr. ERWEE's sons. Scarcely had the outbreak commenced, when he seized his Neighbour's property as his own; another Rebel, of the name of JACOBUS MEYER, at the same time taking possession of Bloem Fontein, and actually ploughing Major WARDEN's Field. Such instances of a total ignorance of the rights of man must be blazoned forth. The desire of Plunder, not a feeling of Patriotism, actuates the Rebel, by whom private property is neither respected nor regarded.

And I hereby proclaim, that the information which led me to impute to Mynheer KRYNAUW the heinous crime of having been one of the first to order the Rebels to fire, proving to be false, —he having left the Rebel Camp, —I do absolve him of the same.

And I hereby proclaim my marked approbation of the conduct of Mynheer GERT HENDRIK MEYER, WESSELS, and their party at Winburg, who manfully and gallantly formed themselves into a camp near Winburg, and did resist and repel any attempt made by the Rebels upon them;—and also of that of Field-Commandant SNEYMAN, of the Caledon River, who, with upwards of 500 families, did the same, as likewise of that of Mr. ERWEE, Field-Commandant ERASMUS, and Field-Cornet CLOETZ, and Field-Cornet M. OVERALSTER and their people, all of whom have, by thus uniting themselves, preserved the greater part of their flocks and herds from robbers; and I will not omit to make such meritorious conduct towards Rebels against Her Majesty's authority, and oppressors of their fellow subjects, known to the Queen. I also highly applaud the conduct of Mynheer POTGIETER, in consideration of which I have appointed him Landdrost.

My Manifesto is now verified, and I hereby desire all the Inhabitants of the Natal District to return to their homes. If they neglect this warning, and do not do so, they had better look after their herds and cattle, lest I sweep them off.

These are the outlines of my proceedings pending further information; and I annex hereunder my Proclamation of the 2d September at Bloem Fontein; that all may know, that, however desirous I am and have always proved myself to be, for the welfare of the Dutch Community, insult to Her Majesty's authority is, and ever shall be, avenged.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

Given under my Hand and Seal at Winburg, this 7th day of September 1848.

(Signed) H. G. SMITH,

By Order of His Excellency Her Majesty's High Commissioner,

(Signed) RICHARD SOUTHEY,
Secretary.

SIR HENRY GEORGE WAKELYN SMITH, Bt

Knight Grand Cross of the most Honorable Order of the Bath, Colonel of the Second Battalion of the Rifle Brigade, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope in South Africa, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, and Ordinary, and Vice-Admiral of the same; and Her Majesty's High Commissioner for the settling and adjustment of the affairs of the Territories in Southern Africa, adjacent and contiguous to the Eastern and North-Eastern Frontier of the said Colony, &c. &c.

WHEREAS a wicked Rebellion was created and fomented by one ANDRIES WILHELMUS JACOBUS PRETORIUS, now proscribed as a Rebel, and for whose apprehension a Reward of One Thousand Pounds has been offered, and the sum of Five Hundred Pounds for that of one WILLEM JACOBS,—the aforesaid PRETORIUS proclaiming to the country at large that now was the time to be what he terms "free," viz.—the permitted oppressors of their fellow-countrymen, as well as of the Natives; and that he would deliver this Sovereignty of that British Rule which the good men had sought, and for which they had petitioned Government,—and then proceed to do the same at Natal:—through which Rebellion the British Resident was compelled by an armed force to abandon his position at Bloem Fontein, where he was posted to carry out the Commands and obey the Orders of Her Majesty, or of Her Representative: And whereas, when I was marching a body of Her Majesty's Troops to avenge this insult, and to quell this wicked Rebellion, which had rendered this land, previously flourishing and happy, a scene of devastation and abandonment,—driving well-disposed men, their wives, children, and herds, into mountain fastnesses, &c., to seek protection and safety,—I was opposed by nearly One Thousand Rebels under the command of this Arch-Traitor PRETORIUS, endeavouring by an ambuscade to interrupt my passage, but of which I was in good time aware; by which opposition several of Her Majesty's Officers and Soldiers were killed and wounded, forty-nine of the Rebels having been, however, counted dead upon the Field, twelve killed in one place by a round shot; and their loss in wounded, in arms, and horses &c., being also considerable;—it now remains, the insult to Her Majesty's Authority having been thus fully avenged by force of arms, for the full vigour of the Law to have its effect;—and having this day arrived at Bloem Fontein, with a body of Her Majesty's Troops for this purpose, I hereby, in virtue of the authority in me vested, do make known to all Her Majesty's Subjects who shall be proved to be guilty of Rebellion by having joined the Rebels in arms under this PRETORIUS, that their property is confiscated; and I further make known to all those Her Majesty's Subjects who have aided or abetted these Rebels by furnishing them with Horses, Provisions, or Transport, that they are and shall be subject to such FINE as shall be imposed upon them, after the investigation of a Commission which shall be appointed, for the purpose of obtaining information, and awarding such fine.

And I hereby PROCLAIM to every REBEL, and Aider in Rebellion, that I have directed the seizure of all monies and properties which he may possess, within the Colony, pending a legal process, or the receipt of Her Majesty's commands.

And I hereby PROCLAIM AND MAKE KNOWN the satisfaction which I derive, and which I will truly and faithfully represent to Her Majesty the Queen of England, from the conduct of the majority of the Householders of the Dutch Christian Inhabitants, whose welfare I have so much at heart,—as well as of all the Native Tribes within the Sovereignty aforesaid, viz., MOSHESH, MOROKO, MOLITSANI, SIKONYELA, LEPUIS,—and the Griqua Chiefs WATERBOER, KAPTYN ADAM KOK, CORNELIUS KOK, JAN BLOEM, &c.,—who, although tampered with by the Arch Rebel PRETORIUS, who, by means of falsehood and fraud, endeavoured to convince them that their cause was abandoned by Her Majesty, nevertheless remained unshaken in their faith, and firm reliance on the resolve of Her Majesty's Representative, to march immediately to their protection.

And I hereby PROCLAIM AND MAKE KNOWN the abhorrence with which I regard the acts of these Rebels; who have driven by intimidation from their homes the honest and industrious householders, burned their doors and windows, and seized their horses, cattle, meal, and other property.

And I hereby make known, that so soon as sums shall have been raised to defray the expenses incurred by Government in putting down this wicked Rebellion, I will endeavour so to manage the Funds of the Sovereignty in question, that those who have been great losers by the acts of the Rebels, and have remained faithful in their allegiance to Her Majesty, shall at some future time receive all the indemnification such Funds can afford.

And I do now PROCLAIM and OFFER a REWARD of ONE THOUSAND POUNDS—in addition to the One Thousand Pounds already offered—for the apprehension of the Rebel ANDRIES WILHELMUS JACOBUS PRETORIUS, and the One Thousand Pounds for any information which may lead to his apprehension.—And I hereby confiscate any Property he may have title to within the rule of Her Majesty.—And, as it appears that one ANDRIES SPIES, and one JAN KRYMAAN, (the latter of whom did within the last few weeks petition me to absolve him from a previous Outlawry) are the persons among the Rebels, who, on the 29th August, at "Boem Plaats," ordered them first to fire, and were thereby the immediate cause of shedding the blood of Her Majesty's Troops,—who had my positive orders not to fire until fired upon, which order they strictly obeyed;—I do hereby offer a REWARD of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS Sterling for the apprehension and delivering into the hands of any of Her Majesty's Officers, Civil or Military, of each of these Offenders,—and a like sum of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, for that of LOUW PRETORIUS, of the Caledon River, the great disturber of the quiet of that District.

And I hereby PROCLAIM AND MAKE KNOWN, that the crime of REBELLION, and bearing Arms against Her Majesty's Authority, having been fully proved to me against the undermentioned persons, I hereby confiscate their Property, viz.:—JAN KRYMAAN,—LOUW PRETORIUS,—FREDERICK OTTO,—JAN JACOBS,—

PHILIP VAN COLLAR,—JAN VIJJOEN,—ADRIAAN STANDERS,—and their Farms shall be offered for Sale.

And whereas, it has been fully proved to me that the undermentioned Individuals have AIDED, ABETTED, and ASSISTED the Rebel Cause. I HEREBY AWARD the following FINES to be levied on them (or their persons apprehended) to aid in defraying the expenses of this wicked Rebellion, and the indemnification of Individual Sufferers thereby:—

OKKER JACOBUS VAN SCHALKWYK, £200 (Two Hundred).

PIET LOUW, £150 (One Hundred and Fifty).

ROELOF GROBBELAAR, £50 (Fifty).

CHRISTOFFEL SNYMAN, £100 (One Hundred).

JAN BOTER, £150 (One Hundred and Fifty).

And I hereby desire ALL FAMILIES to return to their houses, and all Fathers, whose Sons (or Relatives) being Minors were in the Field with the Rebels, to bring me their arms; or the said Parents shall be held responsible. Many have already brought them.

These are the first arrangements for the Districts of Bloem Fontein and Caledon.—I shall proceed without delay to Winburg, to carry out the declarations contained in my Manifesto of the 29th day of March last.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

Given under my Hand and Seal, at Bloem Fontein, this 2nd Day of September 1848.

Governor, and High Commissioner.

The sums awarded are to be forthwith levied, or the person secured, and the Fire-arms delivered up.

Winburg, 9th Sept., 1848.

MINUTES of the PROCEEDINGS of a MEETING convened by His Excellency the Governor of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope and High Commissioner, at which were present the GOVERNOR, the Chiefs MOSHESH, MOROKKO, MOLITSANI, and CAROLUS BATJU; also the leading and influential Burghers, or their Representatives, of the Caledon and Bloem Fontein Districts, and the Burghers of the District of Winburg, viz., that Tract of Territory extending from the Bloem Fontein District to the Westward, North to the Vaal River, Eastward to the high ground between the Sand and Vaalsch Rivers, and to the Draakberg Mountains to the South. Present of the Burghers of the Winburg District, upwards of 150; and Mr. PAUL BESTER was deputed to answer for some hundreds of the Vaal River,—the distance preventing them from attending.

The Meeting was opened by the Governor.

His EXCELLENCY said: Gentlemen.—In January last you invited me among you, and proposed that I should establish a government for you, as you regarded yourselves as British Subjects. It was impossible for me to do so, this territory not being annexed as part of the Colony, without proclaiming it to be under the Sovereignty of Her Majesty. I consulted your leading men, with the Chiefs MOSHESH, MOROKKO, MOLITSANI, SINKONYELLA, JAN BLOEM, ADAM KOK, CAROLUS BATJU, and several others; all prayed me to do what you know I have done, as set forth in my Proclamations of the 3d February and 8th March last,—after which, wicked agitators attempted to interrupt the progressing harmony; and I issued my Manifesto of the 29th March last: notwithstanding which a wicked Rebellion was excited, and which has been put down by force of arms, as you well know, and as is set forth in my Proclamations of the 2nd of September, issued at Bloem Fontein, and of the 7th September, issued at Winburg, under a Royal Salute of 21 guns at each place.

The wicked agitator of this Rebellion, daring to conceive that he could wage war against all-powerful England, tampered with the great Chiefs now present to induce them to join him,—against whom? Yourself! To rob you of your flocks and herds,—take away the doors and windows from your houses, as he has done, and drive your wives and families into the fields. They condemned the acts of this villain Pretorius, and firmly adhered to their alliance with Her Majesty, and obedience to the Sovereignty proclaimed. These Chiefs are in full amity and friendship with the remote Chief Panda, but if they were not so, they defy his power.—Is it not so, MOSHESH, MOROKKO, MOLITSANI, and you other Chiefs?

Now, gentlemen, this insult to Her Majesty's Authority has been most fully avenged by me and Her Majesty's Soldiers, of whom you see I have plenty, and can bring them in a few days here, as set forth in my Manifesto,—and by the ignominious death of two Rebels at Bloem Fontein, on the very spot where the Rebel Pretorius insulted Her Majesty's Authority.—I only regret that he himself was not one of them; on whose head is all the blood and misery he has caused?

The Districts of Bloem Fontein and Caledon were flourishing and most happy, repeatedly assuring me I could do no more than I had done for their welfare. They themselves could propose nothing to improve my measures.

In Winburg disunion existed; and the District being in my opinion too large, I have now formed a portion of it into a fourth division, or the Vaal River District,—under a Landdrost, a highly respected man among yourselves.

As you called me in January to form a Government for you, which I did, and which was insulted,—which insult I have avenged,—I call you together to declare your sentiments, and whether you are prepared to protect your Magistrate from insult if I leave him at your desire with you,—always bearing in mind that a strong Post is now established at Bloem Fontein, of Cannon, Cavalry, and Infantry, ready to move to your support.

Let me have your well-considered opinion, take your time,—and let those who wish for the Magistrate hold up their hands.

[The whole meeting here held up their hands.]

No power but Her Majesty shall induce me to make any alteration in the Bloem Fontein and Caledon Districts, because the arrangements there are what 9 persons in 10 desire. I have been even told that 19 in 20 wish for them.

You wish, then, for a Magistrate, and will protect him. I will, therefore, leave you one. Mr. BIDDULPH having been wounded, Mr. REX shall perform his duties until he is well.

Gentlemen of Winburg,—always bearing in mind that you have promised to protect your Magistrate, you will understand that there is not to be a Post left at Winburg,—but that there will be a strong one at Bloem Fontein,—strong enough to resist even French Soldiers,—to support you; and, in case of need, if a man is sent off for assistance, the Troops will be with you in three days.

I now wish to know how many men there are, to be depended on, in each District.

[In the Bloem Fontein District, Field-Commandant ERASMUS answered for 400 men; Field-Cornet CLOETE for 300; Field-Cornet OVERALSTER for 250; and Mr. ERWEE, answered, in the name of Field-Commandant SNYMAN, for 450 in the Caledon District; Total, 1400 men, all armed and able-bodied.]

Thus there are 1400 men, well disposed to Government, in these two Districts alone,—and yet Pretorius dared to come with 800 or 1000 men, most of them boys, or brought from a great distance, having nothing to do with this part of the country, and to tell me that the whole land was against Government.

These 1400 men are ready to support the people of Winburg, aided by the Post at Bloem Fontein.

It must look to them for their assistance; and they must look to it when they want help.

Are you satisfied with your land being measured out to you as at present laid down in my Proclamation of the 8th March? I desire no strict measurement; all I wish is, that each man should know his own, get a Land Certificate, and be thus enabled to bequeath his property to his children.

[The whole meeting here expressed their satisfaction.]

Remember that no man is to take any Land from any Native Chief without permission from the said Chief, as well as from the Governor.

Do you desire to have Churches and Schools? or do you desire to be Renegade Christians, and that your children should be as ignorant as the untutored wild man?

[All expressed their anxiety for Churches, &c.]

Are you satisfied with my Marriage Act.—which relieves your children and grand children from Bastardy, and enables them to inherit any property you may have within the Colony.

[All expressed their satisfaction.]

Have you anything to say on the subject of Quit-Rents? I have before spoken of them as intended to vary from £1 to £8;—but I have already often said, that it does not follow that you are all to pay £8. That is the sum which is not to be exceeded—and many of you will have probably to pay very little,—but this will depend on yourselves.

[The Meeting replied that they had nothing to remark on this subject.]

These are the leading points for consideration. I am now ready to hear what you may propose in every way; but remember, I leave you to your own resources, supported by the Law, and by the Post at Bloem Fontein. In the Colony the half of you served under me when Kaffirs invaded the Land; and here you must defend yourself from the Robbers from whom I have recently rescued you. What is the difference between a White Robber and a Black one? Both equally deserve the sentence and the power of the Law, and must abide by it.

Look how manfully have WESSELS, MEYER, and their Loyal party defended themselves against PRETORIUS before I smashed his Band!

How many of these misguided men's bones are bleaching on the field of blood and war! How many of them are groaning under the pain of severe wounds! How many, now seeing their error, have brought me their arms, and voluntarily, heart and soul, taken the Oath of Allegiance to Her Majesty,—stating their willingness to contribute towards the expense of the war, as I desire!—the brightest example of whom is Field Commandant BESTER. He has this day paid 300 Rix Dollars to aid in the expenses of the war;—he has erred, but is repentant!—we have all shaken hands with him, and he shall ever find a faithful friend in me. KREIGER and KRYNAUW are other instances;—and I will bestow watchful care upon them.

What object have I to form a Government for you, but your own Peace and Happiness among yourselves and among the Natives, who have, I say, behaved to you most kindly?

I shall march in two or three days; but I leave behind me my Secretary, Mr. SOUTHEY, with a body of Cavalry, to collect the War Tribute; and I now read to you my Instructions thereon.

[The Instructions were here read.]

Now, select a Field Commandant and three or four Field-cornets, that I may confirm their appointments, and issue their commissions, and that they may take the oath of allegiance.

[Mr. Marthinus Wessels was here chosen as Field Commandant, and Mr. Jury Wessels, L. Badenhorst, Jan Schutte, William Venter, and R. Van Rooyen, as Field-cornets.]

As regards the Vaal River District, under the Landdrost PORCIETER, I daily expect him, when I shall have much upon which to confer with him, as I have had with you. In the mean time, until his arrival, I appoint a commission to act for him, as Landdrost for the Vaal River District, consisting of PIET VENTER, PAUL BESTER.

[At the suggestion of Mr. Venter and Mr. Bester, Mr. Louw Botha was here named as Field Commandant for the Vaal River District, and John Dreyer and Hendrik van Vuuren as Field cornets.]

If PAUL BESTER will tell me anything that the people at the Vaal river require I will do it.

I will spare no exertion to do good, and to establish Peace, which the troops, you see, will ever effect. And I have this day written to countermand a movement of Her Majesty's Soldiers at Natal whom I had reinforced for the purpose from Cape Town, to be made through the Draakberg Mountains. And I again desire the inhabitants of the Natal District to return to their homes within three months, or all their Farms shall be forfeited.

Now we part, with, I hope, a clear understanding that Her Majesty's Sovereignty is re-established; and that you are in possession of the Government you seek.

The Chief MOSHESH here spoke,—and pointed out Mr. PIET VENTER,—saying: This is one of the first Boers that came to my country, and I point him out as a good man. At that time I and the Korannas were at war, and one of my brothers was wounded. I asked assistance of VENTER, and the people with him, but he referred me to the Colonial Government; and it is to the words he then said, I owe my first knowledge of that Government. I point him out to His Excellency as the man to whom I owe my acquaintance with a Government with which I now stand in such friendly relations. It is owing to VENTER that I have now (pointing to His Excellency) a Great Chief to look up to. I am not here to-day to speak of blood, but of gratitude to the British Government, and to VENTER. And I will only add my deep gratitude to His Excellency for all he has done for this Land, and to congratulate him on the result of the late disturbance.

His EXCELLENCY said.—Great Chief!—I thank you for telling me of good done by a Countryman.—The creed of all good men is, that there is one God over all, White and Black. I speak in praise of all you Chiefs.—MOSHESH, MOROCCO, MOLITSANI, CAROLUS BALJU, and others. You asked me what you should do in the late affair; I said "Sit still!" You did so.—I thank you all.

The Burghers being now asked if any one wished to speak,—Field-Commandant ERASMUS assured His Excellency that he felt that every word in the Manifesto had been carried out,—that he trusted that every one would see that this was the case, and for the future be faithful to Her Majesty. Mr. PAUL BESTER declared, in the most earnest manner, that he would do everything that lay in his power to preserve order. A great many took the oath of allegiance,—Fathers bringing in their sons,—and many fire-arms have been delivered up. The feeling at the meeting, as demonstrated by a few words from many persons, was most satisfactory;—and at the conclusion, three cheers for the welfare of Her Majesty resounded through the Camp!

The Garden and Grounds belonging to this Estate are generally known as surpassing almost anything of the kind within that fruitful Vale called Table Valley, and above comment or recommendation.

They cover an extent of about 22 morgen, or 44 English Acres, of the richest soil imaginable, teeming with the most splendid, useful, and prized Vegetable Productions of the East and the West; the choicest Fruit Trees of nearly every description known in this Colony are found in abundance on this Estate.

The Grounds contain moreover about 20,000 various kinds of Vines, known to equal, if not surpass, any in the neighbourhood for flavour and size.

The whole is abundantly supplied with Water throughout the year.

2. The beautiful Estate "KLEIN LEEUWENHOF," adjoining the above, of a soil in richness equal to "Waterhof," tastefully laid out with Lawns and Groves, planted with numerous of the choicest Fruit Trees, and about 10,000 Vines, and likewise abundantly supplied with Water; the extent of this Estate is about 5 morgen, or 10 English Acres; the situation affords a splendid view over Table Bay, and the Shipping, the Flats, and Mountain Range to the East and North, and is particularly healthy.

A Part of this and the Estate "Waterhof" will be divided into convenient Lots for moderately sized Pleasure Gardens, to most of which a certain quantity of Water will be allotted.

FURTHER,

Some splendid Bastard Fatherland Cows, a thoroughbred Bull, 2 Cart Horses, 2 Scotch Carts, 2 Carriages, (and the well-known handsome Carriage formerly the Property of R. A. ZEEDERBERG, Sen., Esq.) &c. &c.

On Tuesday, the 17th Oct.

Likewise on the spot in Burg-street,

This Property is one of the best situations for trade in Cape Town,—witness the thriving Establishments of Messrs. DE VILLIERS, MARQUARD, the large Mercantile Establishment of Messrs. VENNING, BUSK, & Co., and others in its immediate neighbourhood. It is equally well situated for an Attorney or Agent, or in fact any business; its position being central and close to the Public Offices.

Part of the lower floor facing Wale-street could be converted into a Splendid Suit of Public Offices, for any Public Institution, at comparatively small expense.

The whole Building is under a most substantial Teak Roof.

2. LIKEWISE ON THE SPOT,

Certain 5 PLOTS OF GROUND or ERVEN, situate behind St. John-street, towards Tuin-street, part of the Garden or Estate of the late H. PIETER MOLLER, Esq.

H. D. JENCKEN.

PUBLIC SALE OF A SUPERIOR SWELLENDAM FARM, AND STOCK.

THE Undersigned has received instructions to sell by Public Auction, on the spot,

ON TUESDAY,

The 10th October next,

The one-half part or share in that well-known valuable Farm called

Oude Bosch,

measuring 1995½ Morgen or about 4000 Acres, situated in the district of Swellendam, near the Village of Riversdale.

To any one about to commence the pursuits of Farming, this Property can be confidently recommended as combining every requisite for the breeding of HORSES, CATTLE, and MERINO SHEEP. The capabilities of the Property are not confined (as in many other farms,) to the breeding of Stock alone, as great quantities of Grain have been, and much more might be, annually produced, there being scarcely any part of the Farm in which the plough could not with advantage be put.

An Extensive Garden,

in the immediate vicinity of the Dwelling House, well stocked with Fruit Trees of various descriptions, affords an abundance of Vegetables, &c., and being well enclosed, Gardening to almost any extent may be carried on, for which the numerous streams of never-failing water, and the excellent quality of the ground, render this Farm so peculiarly adapted.

There is a SUBSTANTIAL DWELLING HOUSE, as also STABLES, outhouses, KRAALS, &c., and near the House a large piece of Ground has been partially enclosed, which with trifling expense might be converted into an extensive "Camp" or Paddock for young horses.

The locality of this Property is equally advantageous, being in the immediate vicinity of the Platte Kloof Pass, 5 hours' ride from PORT BEAUFORT and two from the Village of RIVERSDALE, where an excellent market is always found for every description of produce, and which Village has recently increased in importance from the Establishment of a Magistracy.

To these and many other advantages, too numerous for the limits of an advertisement, suffice it to add, that as a place where the general pursuits of agriculture may be carried on both with pleasure and with profit, this Farm challenges competition with any one in the District.

At the same time will be sold the whole of the STOCK, FARMING IMPLEMENTS, &c., consisting of:—

1000 thorough-bred MERINO EWES;
50 superior well-bred HORSES, including some two years old and yearling Colts by those celebrated Stallions "JACK PAL-MER," "SIR SOLOMON," "TURN-PIKE," &c.

An excellent OX WAGON, nearly new,
A span of fine OXEN,
PLOUGHS, HARROWS, and other AGRI-CULTURAL IMPLEMENTS.
The usual assortment of HOUSEHOLD FUR-NITURE, &c. &c. &c.

The whole will be sold positively without the least Reserve.
Swellendam, 22nd August 1848.

JOSEPH BARRY,

Auctioneer.

WHAT IS IN A NAME?

THE philosophic axiom, that there is no absolute or necessary connection between a name and the thing nominated, has been singularly comprehended, and most cunningly acted upon, by an Empirical Pestle and Mortar Philosopher of this City.—In as far as he has surreptitiously imparted to a vile compound of his own production, the name of my unrivalled perfume for the Handkerchief and Boudoir, and deceitfully imitated my labels for the same, so closely as to mislead incautious buyers. Let the Public, therefore, beware of such disgracefully avaricious chicanery, (whether in vending physic or perfumery) and remember that I am the sole proprietor, compounder, and vender, of the unrivalled perfume, Real Omar Essence; and that the label on every bottle of the genuine article must bear my signature.

Colonial Office, Cape Town,
4th October 1848

HIS Excellency the Governor desires it to be notified, for general information, that he has lately received Despatches from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for the Colonies, in acknowledgment of his announcement of the measures taken by him for the Government of the country beyond the Orange River, and of the District of Natal; as explained in His Excellency's proclamations of the 8th March, and the 10th February last, respectively.

His Lordship remarks that he cannot doubt the necessity of the first of these measures, inasmuch as the policy of Sir P. MAITLAND evidently tended to the same result; and that if the necessity of carrying further what he had begun did exist, the intermediate course of neither including the territory of the Emigrant Boers within the limits of the Colony nor leaving them altogether beyond the control of British law, and the protection of British establishments, seems to be well calculated to avoid considerable embarrassments.

His Lordship further remarks that the tendency of His Excellency's measures, if duly executed, will be to give somewhat more regularity, and greater strength, to that rude system of Government which has grown up of itself among the people of that country, from the necessity of their position, and to provide them the assistance which they really require, for the purpose, chiefly, of settling their disputes among themselves, by the interposition of an authority to which all the different races of men whom circumstances have brought into such singular relations with each other look up with respect.

His Lordship, therefore, expresses himself as prepared to approve of the extension of British Sovereignty over the country between the Orange and Vaal Rivers, upon the receipt of some further information, with which he has requested to be supplied.

In acknowledging the receipt of His Excellency's Despatches relative to the Government of Natal, Earl GREY has furnished his Excellency with a detailed statement of the policy which he considers applicable to that District, remarking, at the same time, that he is far from expecting the immediate creation of the various establishments recommended, and is well aware of the absolute necessity of proceeding by very gradual and cautious steps in attempting to reduce a population still little removed from barbarism under the restraint of civilization.

His Lordship accordingly expresses himself as prepared to sanction the measures adopted by His Excellency for bringing back the Emigrant Boers, and settling them in the District of Natal, and the measures proposed for the government of the Natives within that District.

By Command of His Excellency the Governor,

Secretary to Government.

HIS Excellency the Governor has directed the publication of the following documents written by the proclaimed Rebel, A. W. J. PRETORIUS, prior to the Action lately fought at Boom Plaats.

GENERAL NOTICE.

As the Emigrant Boers who crossed the Orange River, and as we perceive that the British Government grant privileges and liberty to all other creatures, and that we are constantly forced into fetters and banishment,—so this is to inform all those who do not wish to take part with us in this just cause of Freedom, that on the receipt of this, or before the 20th inst., they must cross the stream of the Orange River, without selling their places or any ground,—for all sales of places will from this date be considered illegal,—to prevent the Court Martial (Krygsraad) from bringing further punishment upon their persons and property. No person shall be allowed to keep himself neutral: those who are not with us will be considered as Enemies; every person who acts against this association, whether with words or deeds, shall be treated as a Rebel, and shall forthwith be punished by the Court Martial.

This given on the 12th July, in the Court Martial at Winburg.

Mr. JACOBUS SNYMAN,
Sir,—Having been informed that there still exists misunderstanding between you and your brother Burghers, I consider it my duty as General Chief of all the Burghers, and out of old friendship and acquaintance between you and me, I would request of you to cause no further commotion, as I have made a Treaty with Captain Warden, and he and all belonging to him have left this on the 20th instant. Now, my dear friend, consider your case—there is a general commotion over the whole world, even in other countries, which are all awake to freedom; and why should you and a few others bring misfortune on yourselves and families? You are a man of understanding. Do you not see that the power of the English no longer exists—that they all leave this because there will be severe war in their own country? Now, I am still your friend; but a single shot would render it impossible for me to rescue you from the hands of your enraged countrymen and brothers. Mr. O'Reilly, the Magistrate of the Caledon River District, is also warned under the same treaty to depart, of which I send you a copy. I have a great force with me here; the Burghers keep coming in every day, so that I shall certainly have about one thousand men together by the 24th instant, and it will be easier to remove a mountain into the sea than to go against the force or current of freedom. I hope shortly to be with you or in your neighbourhood, and there to speak to you myself. When you shall have received this, I have done my duty before God and the world. If you now make any mischief against your brothers, the responsibility rests with you. I hear the Kaffirs of Moshesh are in a state of commotion. I have also ordered up the Kaffirs of Panda. If Moshesh stirs, he will bring himself into a five years' war. Expecting your answer,

I am, as always,
Your happiness-seeking Friend,

Commandant General.

SIR AND FRIEND,—I consider it my duty to write to you once more privately, as I am under an oath and obligation as Chief of the Emigrants to oppose everything that may tend to their disadvantage; and as SIR HARRY SMITH has offered so much money for my person, I cannot allow that any one who is against us should remain amongst us, even for my own safety—such will be made to quit. Why should you make yourself and your dear family unfortunate? The world is standing up for their liberty as well here as in other countries, and if the Most High wills that it should be so, who can stand against it? Some of the people whom WARDEN called upon to take the field against us, came last night to join us as Volunteers. We have now so many people that we do not know what to do with them; and they are increasing every day. Hitherto, under the blessing and assistance of the Most High, we have met with no opposition. We have also entered into a Treaty with the Griqua people; and we hope, under God's providence, not to shed one drop of human blood, or causing devastation in any part of the country. We only desire our right, which God has granted to all creatures upon earth;—even the worthless Bushmen have liberty and self-government; and why must we and our children be brought into Fetters?

Old friendship bids me write this as a last warning to you; so that as regards you my conscience is clear. I write but little to you, because our friend, who has seen everything with his eyes, will speak a great deal to you.

I have the honor to call myself your always happiness-seeking friend and servant,

Karee Fontein, 26th August 1848.

WORTHY GENTLEMEN,

Under present circumstances, I am obliged, especially to have no disturbance in my Camp, to direct, that every man who can be spared be called up without delay. Here is a report that troops are coming from Natal; whether it is the case, or whether it be only a rumour, we know not,—but whatever it may be, the Governor is sitting on the other side of the River, and what he is brooding over we know not. To use every means of being cautious, all men who would otherwise have come to us shall have to go to Winburg, for the purpose, in case it should become necessary, to be at hand: should anything come from our rear then it will be good, and should we require them as a reinforcement, also good. Commandant Bester, of Winburg, has ordered 50 men to come to us; let them also remain there, and send immediately to John de Lange to send a report to Casper Labuschagne to make a timely investigation, and in case there be any move that they may oppose it, and at once let me know, as I will be able to see where we will be attacked. The wish is that H. G. Lombaard, Esq., should take the general command, while Mr. Potgieter shall not have arrived.

Dear Friends, our cause is now about to be born,—let every assistance be afforded it, upon which thousands of souls, as well here as in the Colony, depend. Every thing goes in our favor, but now stands upon a pivot; if we wrest it out of the hands of the British, the Colony is also prepared. We have had a friend from the Colony with us, and there is no other chance than that discord should come amongst us. We hear nothing of you, and Mr. Potgieter and the people of Magaliesberg; I trust that you will all with vigorous steps do everything that will be for our benefit. When Mr. Lombaard and Potgieter arrive, let John de Lange also, as an Under Commandant, assist in commanding over the people who come together, and let him be diligent and reconnoitre. Sir, I hope you will clearly understand me, that in case there be any commotion or move from Natal, you will call out every man to oppose it; and that the people whom Mr. Bester was going to send hither you will keep with you and in your vicinity, and should any more people come to you from the rear, you must keep them also with you and provide for them for rations. I trust you will be most vigorous and on the alert, upon which will depend the happiness and welfare of the country and people. It is the last trumpet which the British are sounding, with a view, if possible, of bringing every African Boer under arms before them. But I hope that the good Almighty will rescue us from their hands, and to attain this we must through the prayer of unity and love constantly kneel down before the Great Creator.

Having made this generally known in your ward, and advised with your Landdrost as to what is best to be done for general happiness and welfare, I am, with the greatest respect, your happiness-seeking friend,

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.

Colonial Office, Cape of Good Hope,
30th September, 1848.

His Excellency the Governor has directed the publication of the following communications made to the several Resident Magistrates in reference to the Ordinance No. 9, of 1848,

"For regulating the duties and remuneration of Field-cornets," in order to apprise the Public of the manner in which the Field-cornets are about to be remodelled, and thus give them the opportunity of offering any suggestions to the Resident Magistrates of their districts before the Returns called for, shall have been completed for publication.

By Command of His Excellency the Governor,
(Signed) JOHN MONTAGU,
Secretary to Government.

[Circular.]

[Addressed to the Resident Magistrates to whom the Circular of the 23d March had not been forwarded.]

Colonial Office, Cape of Good Hope,
26th September, 1848.

SIR,—

1.—In forwarding to you the accompanying printed papers, I am directed by His Excellency the Governor to add to them such observations as will explain to you the object in view, and enable you to prepare your replies to this letter with the greatest facility and despatch.

2.—When the Ordinance No. 9 of 1848 was in contemplation, and before it had come under the consideration of the Legislative Council, copies of the Circular—23d March—were addressed to the Resident Magistrates of those Districts in which an alteration in the number of Field-cornets was contemplated (the blanks being filled in, to accord with the circumstances of each District.)

3.—The Circular of the 25th instant, explains the grounds on which the reduction of the number of Field-cornets, then intended, has been abandoned; and instead thereof, a concise and accurate description of the whole of the Field-cornets comprised in each of the different Districts, drawn out similarly to the printed form A, is required, in order that those Returns may be published in the Government Gazette, in the month of November next, and the new system, by Tariff Payments, under the Ordinance, come into operation on the 1st of January next.

4.—In your reply to this letter (taking as a part of it so much of the Circular of the 25th instant as might be addressed personally to you) and which I beg may be given early in November next, you are requested to describe the boundaries of the Field-cornets by name, making such divisions of each (to be new Field-cornets) as you consider necessary, where the existing Field-cornet is too extended, or too densely populated to secure the desired object, viz. the speedy attention to the calls of the Public.

5.—You will learn from the Circular of the 23d March that the Chief Constables will perform the duties of Field-cornets within the limits of towns being the seats of Resident Magistrates (and embracing, if desirable, some of the immediately contiguous farms in addition) and in your returns you will be good enough to define the limits which you consider can be duly attended to by the Chief Constable.

6.—These services of the Chief Constables will, however, have one exception, viz: that of the power to hold inquests on the bodies of deceased persons, for which duty provision is intended to be made without calling upon the Police Constables.

7.—His Excellency is opposed to any alterations in the existing judicial boundaries of Districts, without very obvious and urgent reasons, but where such reasons present themselves you will suggest the alterations which you deem necessary. I am, at the same time, to observe that when the possessors of farms are anxious to have them transferred to another Field-cornet than that under which they are at present—but within the bounds of the same judicial District—you will be so good as to use your judgment in adopting their suggestions, so that the Returns, when forwarded to this Office, may be complete, and not liable to further alteration.

8.—Taking, then, as your guide the Circular of the 25th instant, His Excellency hopes you will, with these observations, be in a position to furnish your Report without the delay consequent on any reference to Cape Town.

9.—If, however, you require any information beyond that now afforded, it will be given immediately on the receipt of any communication from you.

I have the honor to be

Sir,

Your obedient Servant,
(Signed) JOHN MONTAGU.

[Circular.]

[To the Resident Magistrates to whom the Circular of the 23d March was addressed.]

Colonial Office, Cape Town,
25th September, 1848.

SIR,

1.—His Excellency the Governor, on mature consideration of the duties which may be, in future, best rendered by the Field-cornets throughout the Colony, with a view to the more ready apprehension of criminals, the repression of violence, and the preservation of peace and security through the country districts;—and looking also to the most satisfactory mode of remunerating them for their time and exertions, has proposed to the Legislative Council an Ordinance, entitled—"An Ordinance for regulating the duties and remuneration of Field-cornets," which has been by that body unanimously agreed to.

2.—It is, in consequence, my duty to point out to you the alterations which will follow from its adoption, in reference to my circular letter of the 23d March last, written in anticipation of the present Ordinance, but differing in one material point from the arrangement now to be adopted, viz.: the number of Field-cornets to be comprised in your district.

3.—Generally, the reduction of the number of Field-cornets was intended by that circular, in order that provision might be made for a rural Police Force, without incurring any additional charge on the revenue;—and in conveying to you His Excellency's thanks for the evident pains you have been at in furnishing the replies I have received from you, I am to observe that under the present Ordinance, the services as they are rendered will all be paid for, at a regular and liberal tariff rate.—The number of Field-cornets therefore will not affect the aggregate amount of expenditure devolving, under this head, on the revenue of the colony—and when it is considered that a sufficient number of these officers will give the public a greater feeling of security and greater facility for obtaining aid, it appears unnecessary, under these circumstances, to reduce their number, as formerly contemplated—but rather to appoint additional Field-cornets where the population is unusually dense, or the tract of country extensive, and the distances to be travelled over, on that account, considerable.

4.—I shall revert to this subject in detail, in the concluding paragraph of this letter. It is enough here to state that, generally, the Field-cornets may remain as they are at present constituted, subject to the modifications hereafter mentioned.

5.—By the provisions of this Ordinance, no Field-cornet will, after the first of January, 1849, receive any fixed yearly salary, as at present,—those salaries being too small to ensure active exertions where most required, and being payable equally whether a large amount of duty devolves on the Field-cornet, or whether he is seldom or ever called upon to act.

6.—In their stead, a fixed allowance is directed by the Ordinance, for each act of service performed, payable, like all other charges on the revenue, month/y,—thus inducing the Field-cornets to active exertion by giving them an adequate remuneration for their time and trouble,—at the same time affording confidence to the public, that the important functions devolving on them will be faithfully and duly discharged.

7.—There is reason to believe that an impression prevails to some considerable extent among the Field-cornets generally, respecting their future status in the service, viz., that by the provisions of this Ordinance they virtually become, or are placed on a level with, the Constables and Rural Police of the district. Nothing can be more remote from the intentions of the government than any such lowering of the status of a class of public servants, on whose exertions social order, peace, and security so greatly depend; and I am instructed to inform you, with a view of disabusing the minds of the Field-cornets in your district, that on the arrangements being completed, to which this circular refers, every Field-cornet will receive his appointment (tantamount to a commission) under the hand of His Excellency and the Seal of the Colony, which will place him subordinate only to the Magistrate and Justice of the Peace of his district; and on a footing totally different from the Officers of Police.

8.—In all cases of extensive Field-cornets it has been customary, hitherto, to appoint additional Field-cornets, under the title of Provisional, or Assistant Field-cornets.

In order to place all in this body of functionaries on an equal footing, both as to remuneration and standing in the service, it is His Excellency's desire that the subordinate title be in future done away with, by reducing extensive Field-cornets into two or more divisions, as the case may require; each such division to become a new Field-cornet, and by appointing a Field-cornet to the charge of each such division; by means of which, those Field-cornets which are inconveniently large, as is now the case in some districts, will be supplied with so many additional Field-cornets as will ensure the proper discharge of the duties therein required.

9.—In carrying into effect this arrangement, you will endeavour to retain, or establish, as much as possible, natural boundaries, such as rivers, ridges, &c., for the different Field-cornets, as well those which will remain unaltered, as those which you will see cause to subdivide, allotting to the care of each Field-cornet no greater extent of country than you think requisite; and having proposed suitable allocations of particular farms to such new divisions, you are requested to draw up in detail, and with conciseness, the boundaries of each Field-cornet, thus—

Field-cornet of Bounded N ^o .
E.
W.
S.
Containing	Farms.
NAMES OF FARMS.	BELONGING TO

10.—The enclosed copy of an extract from the return obtained from the District of Somerset, being the most complete and comprehensive the government has received, will best explain to you what is required.

11.—This return of Field-cornets, including the proposed divisions where necessary, will of course require much careful preparation. When the whole of your replies have been transmitted to this office (which may be calculated on, about the first week in November next) a complete description of the Field-cornets of the whole Colony, with their boundaries and the districts to which they belong, will be published in the Government Gazette, so as to form a convenient mode of reference.

12.—His Excellency is unwilling to alter the present judicial bounds of any districts, except where it will be a positive hardship upon persons possessing farms to attend the present court of magistracy instead of that adjoining, at a much less distance. You will, therefore, be particularly careful not to propose alterations of this nature where it does not appear absolutely required.

13.—As you are now in possession of the principles of this Ordinance and its intended mode of operation, I proceed to advert to matters more immediately relating to the District under your charge.

14.—Extensive alterations in the Field-cornets are neither advisable nor necessary.—Moderate and judicious changes will probably be found sufficient to enable the Governor to have published, with the opening of the approaching year, a complete list of all the Field-cornets, which will remain for some time unaltered, until the increase of population and other causes demand further and more extensive reorganization.

[Here follow the observations addressed to the several Resident Magistrates regarding the Field-cornets within their Districts respectively.]

"The difficulty in fixing upon real and natural boundaries for the subdivision required, being so great, and the inaccuracies, trouble, and inconvenience consequent upon imaginary boundaries being generally admitted,—I have thought it advisable, first, to describe each proposed Field-cornet, by the features of the country at the outline, and in addition thereto, to name the farms comprised in each. This plan, although lengthy, will in the end prove of the most advantage, and will, I think, obviate the difficulties which might otherwise ensue in carrying out His Excellency's intention."

[Circular.]

Colonial Office, Cape Town,
23d March, 1848.

SIR,

I am instructed by His Excellency the Administrator of the Government, to call your attention to the present Subdivision into Wards or Field-cornets of the District attached to your Court of Resident Magistrate.

Seeing that, in future, Field-cornets will be relieved from many duties formerly imposed upon them, and, among others, the levying and superintending of transport for the Public Service, in their respective Wards—the levying of Burgher Forces for Military Service—the keeping the Roads in their Wards in a state of repair, and the supervision of Crown-lands, and other Public Property, it is His Excellency's opinion, that without compromising the interests of the Public Service, or detracting from the efficiency of this respectable and useful body of Functionaries, the number of Wards in many of the Districts may be safely reduced, and that the office of Assistant Field-cornets may, in general, be dispensed with.

I am at the same time to inform you, that in connexion with the plan which at present engages His Excellency's attention of extending the limits of the Wards, and reducing the number of Field-cornets, it is at the same time His intention to grant to those Officers adequate compensation for their services, as they are performed.

By a reference to the Office of the Central Board of Road Commissioners, I have ascertained that your District, apart from Lands unfit for occupation or unalienated, consists of (1) Place at present the property or registered in the name of (2) owners;—that the value of fixed property in the District amounts to £(3) and the number of Inhabitants not resident in Townships, where the duties attached to the Office of Field-cornet, will be performed by the Head Officer of Police to (4)

It is therefore His Excellency's opinion, from the information now before Him, that your District should in future consist of (5) Wards or Field-cornets. In fixing on this number, due regard has been had to the physical circumstances of the District, in so far as they are likely to have any permanent effect on the comparative density, or sparseness, of the resident population connected with it.

In order to make this arrangement of Wards as convenient as possible to all parties, it is necessary that His Excellency be put in possession of such local knowledge of the District as can alone be furnished by a Resident Functionary of the Government, competent to instruct His Excellency in regard to the allocation in Wards of the several Farms within the bounds of your Jurisdiction.

And I am to request, that you will, at your earliest convenience, report to me for His Excellency's guidance, on the most convenient and desirable arrangement of the District into (6) Wards, exclusive of Townships, and the Farms in their immediate vicinity.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,
(Signed) JOHN MONTAGU.

Clerk of the Legislative Council.

MASTER AND SERVANT.

Resolved,—1.—That the inquiries of this committee are principally directed, by the Minute of His Excellency the Governor, dated 23d of June last, to that part of the law of master and servant which relates to the remedy for breaches of contract on the part of the servant, and the jurisdiction of magistrates in such cases.

2.—That it is alleged in the petitions referred to the committee that no adequate remedy for such breaches of contract is provided by the law now in force in the colony.

3.—That the law on this subject, as fixed by Her Majesty's Order in Council of the 21st July, 1846, is as follows:—

"The Resident Magistrates within the colony have jurisdiction in all cases arising within their respective districts between masters and their servants and apprentices, and with reference to their relative rights and duties, or to any matter or thing or offence as to which provision is made in this ordinance. Provided always that such magistrates shall have no jurisdiction in any case wherein the amount of wages, or remuneration, or compensation, or damages, shall exceed the sum of £20, nor to enforce the performance of any contract of service or apprenticeship, the existence or subsistence of which is denied by either of the parties, in any case in which the stipulated or alleged term, or the unexpired period of the stipulated or alleged term of service, shall exceed one year, nor to cancel or dissolve any such contract."

"On complaint preferred, and proof made, before any resident magistrate, having jurisdiction over the parties, that any servant or apprentice has refused or neglected to perform his stipulated work, or that he has performed it negligently or improperly, or that, by negligence or other improper conduct, he has injured the property of his master entrusted to his care, or that he has behaved with violence or insolence, or that he has been guilty of scandalous immorality, or of drunkenness, or of other gross misconduct, the resident magistrate may, in his discretion, adjudge the servant or apprentice to any one or more of the following penalties:—that is to say,—a pecuniary penalty for the benefit of the master, not exceeding one month's wages, or the commitment of the servant or apprentice to prison, with or without hard labour, for any time not exceeding fourteen days; or such resident magistrate may order the dissolution of the contract of service or apprenticeship, save and except as is hereinafter excepted," i.e., except where the unexpired term of contract exceeds a year, in which cases, if the dissolution of the contract be demanded, the point must be reserved for the Supreme or Circuit Court.

4.—That, in order to discover what improvements can be made in the law, so as to render its working more satisfactory and efficient than it is represented now to be, the following queries be addressed to the several resident magistrates throughout the colony, viz:—

I.—How many cases of complaint by masters against servants have come under your notice during each of the three last years?

II.—How many cases of complaint by servants against masters during the same periods?

III.—State the nature of the complaints generally preferred by masters against servants?

IV.—When a servant is convicted of refusing or neglecting to perform his stipulated work, what is the punishment generally awarded?

V.—What is the usual punishment for performing such work negligently or improperly?

VI.—Also for insolence to his master, immorality, or drunkenness?

VII.—State your general impression of the comparative efficiency of the several punishments sanctioned by the third clause of the 5th chapter of H. M. Order in Council,—viz.,—forfeit of a month's wages, commitment to prison with or without hard labour, and dissolution of the contract.

VIII.—In cases in which the contract has been dissolved, has the servant, as far as you are aware, generally obtained new employment in the same neighbourhood?

IX.—Against what class of servants are complaints most frequent?

X.—Is there a dearth of agricultural labourers in your district?

XI.—Are complaints more frequent against native or emigrant labourers?

XII.—Do you think that more severe punishments for breach of contracts are desirable?

XIII.—What is the nature of the punishment you would suggest?

XIV.—State the number of cases of complaints by masters against servants which have been reserved by you for the decision of the Supreme or Circuit Court (under the 5th clause of the chapter above quoted) during each of the last three years?

XV.—Do you consider that any advantage would be gained by extending the jurisdiction of the magistrate over those cases which he is now required to reserve for the decision of the Supreme or Circuit Court?

XVI.—Do you consider that any advantage or disadvantage would arise from reducing or enlarging the periods for which contracts of service can be made?

XVII.—State, as correctly as you are able, the usual rate of wages given in the various wards or parts of your district, distinguishing what is paid in money from what is afforded in the shape of allowances?

XVIII.—If you have any further suggestions to make which are not included in any of the above queries, you are requested to make them, and to forward your answers for the information of the committee with as little delay as possible.

5.—That in order to obtain the fullest information, the following queries, together with a copy of the above resolutions, be addressed to the several Justices of the Peace, and Ministers of the Gospel, and to all such persons throughout the colony (not being Resident Magistrates) who may be considered likely to afford the committee valuable information, viz:—

I.—Be so good as to state whether you have access to the Master and Servant's Order in Council above referred to, which is published in the Government Gazette of the 16th December 1842,—and if so, whether you have read the same, especially chapters 2 and 5?

II.—Is there any misconduct which servants commit which is not reached by the third section of chapter 5 of the Order in Council? If so, describe such misconduct?

III.—State your opinion regarding the sufficiency and expediency of the punishment provided by section 3 of chapter 5?

IV.—Would you suggest other, and if so, what punishments, in place of, or in addition to, the punishment now provided?

V.—Are you of opinion that Justices of the Peace should have the same jurisdiction in cases between masters and servants as the Resident Magistrate? If so, how would you propose that they issue and serve summonses; and how, when, and where, enforce the punishment of imprisonment? And in what manner should their proceedings be recorded, and reviewed, in order to prevent irregularity or injustice?

VI.—Are you favorable to the enactment of a Vagrant Law? If so, how would you define vagrancy, and how should it be punishable? And by what safeguards would you prevent a vagrant law from impairing the reasonable right of the inhabitants to move about for business or pleasure?

VII.—By what courts or functionaries should the offence of vagrancy be triable?

VIII.—Who should be entitled to apprehend persons on a charge of vagrancy?

IX.—What should be sufficient proof of the person charged with vagrancy being a vagrant?

X.—Do you consider that any advantage, or disadvantage, would arise from reducing or enlarging the periods for which contracts of service can be made, under the Order in Council, chapter 2?

XI.—How many servants do you at present employ, and for what services respectively? And are they employed by the month, week, or day? Also state the rate of wages received by them, distinguishing what is paid in money from what is given as allowances. And what is the usual rate of wages in your neighbourhood?

XII.—If you have any further suggestions to make upon any topic connected with the law of master and servant, and the regulation of the labouring classes, which is not included in the above queries, you are requested to make those suggestions and to forward your answers to the committee with as little delay as possible.

WINE AND SPIRITS ORDINANCE.

Resolved,—1.—That the question referred to this Committee by the Minute of His Excellency the Governor, dated the 28th June last, is,—whether the Ordinance No. 29, of 1846, "for the better regulation of the sale of wines and spirituous and fermented liquors" do or do not require amendment, in order to render its working more satisfactory and efficient.

2.—That it is alleged in the petitions referred to the committee that the ordinance has not only been ineffectual in repressing drunkenness, but that it has caused an increase of that vice, and its concomitant evils of indolence and immorality.

3.—That in the memorandum of the Hon'ble the Secretary to Government, attached to His Excellency's Minute, it is stated that these evils, in so far as they do exist, are referable rather to a general misinterpretation and consequent maladministration of the ordinance, than to any defect in the law itself.

4.—That His Honor the Chief Justice, in his memorandum, also annexed to His Excellency's Minute, attribute the evils complained of to radical defects in the present ordinance.

5.—That in order to ascertain as far as possible which of these views is founded in justice and truth, the several Resident Magistrates and Justices of the Peace throughout the colony, be referred to His Excellency's Minute, together with the memoranda attached thereto, as published in the Government Gazette of the 6th July 1848,—with a request that they will furnish the committee with any information which it may be in their power to supply, on the subject therein adverted to.

6.—That a circular be prepared and addressed to the same gentlemen, requesting distinct answers to each of the following queries, viz:—

I.—What was the number of houses licensed for the sale of wines and spirituous and fermented liquors in your district on the 31st December 1845 and 1846 respectively?

II.—What was the number on the 31st December 1847, and on the 30th September 1848?

III.—As nearly as you are able to form an opinion, what was the number of houses, in your district, at the former periods, in which such liquors were sold without a licence?

IV.—Have you reason to believe that there are any such houses now in your district?

V.—How many applications have been made to you for licences to sell such liquors by retail since the first January 1847?

VI.—How many of those applications have been granted, and how many refused by you?

VII.—State the grounds on which you have refused any such applications?

VIII.—What number of persons have been brought before your court on charges of drunkenness since the first of January 1847?

IX.—Of these how many were convicted, and how many discharged by you?

X.—State the number of persons convicted of the same offence for an equal period immediately previous to the first January 1847?

XI.—What is the extent of punishment generally inflicted by you on persons convicted of drunkenness, in default of payment of the fine of £1?

XII.—State the course pursued by you when application is made for a retail licence?

XIII.—What inquiry do you make into the character of the applicant?

XIV.—What into the fitness of the premises for which the licence is desired?

XV.—Do you commonly grant licences for houses at a considerable distance from any town or village?

XVI.—What inquiry do you make as to the number of previously licensed houses in the neighbourhood?

XVII.—What number of persons have been brought before your court charged with selling wines and spirituous and fermented liquors without licences, since the 1st January 1847?

XVIII.—Of these how many have been convicted, and how many discharged by you?

XIX.—How many persons were convicted of a like offence, in your court, for a similar period immediately previous to the 1st January 1847?

XX.—By whom are these charges generally brought before you?

XXI.—State the nature of the evidence by which they are generally supported?

XXII.—State the punishments inflicted by you, under the ordinance, upon persons convicted of dealing without a licence?

XXIII.—Have you given any general instructions to the police of your district relative to their duties under this ordinance, and, more especially, as relates to the detection of unlicensed retailers?

XXIV.—Are you of opinion that drunkenness, indolence, and immorality have increased or decreased in your district since the 1st January 1847?

XXV.—Do you consider that the characters of the keepers of licensed public houses, in your district, has changed during that period, and if so, in what respect?

7.—That in order to obtain as much information as possible upon the subject in question, the following queries, together with a copy of the four first resolutions, be transmitted, and answers requested from such persons, not being Resident Magistrates or Justices of the Peace, as may, in the several divisions of the colony, be deemed most competent to assist the committee,—viz:—

I.—Have you read the ordinance No. 29, of 1846, for the better regulation of the sale of wines, &c.?

II.—Are you of opinion that the charge for the licence to retail wines, &c., should be the same throughout the colony, or different in different places?

III.—If you think that the rate should vary instead of being uniform, state the number of licensed retail houses which you would recommend in your division,—the places where they should be allowed, and the rates which the holders should severally pay.

IV.—Have you any reason to know that smuggling houses exist in your neighbourhood? If so, describe the class of persons who are supposed to keep them?

V.—Has any retail licence been granted in your district at a place where it was deemed to be injurious to the morality and good order either of your own servants or those of your neighbours? If so, did you, or any other person, to your knowledge, appear to object to the granting of such licence?

VI.—What system of licences and regulations would appear to you best calculated to check drunkenness, and detect houses where liquor is sold without a licence?

VII.—State whether, in your opinion, the penalties by Ordinance No. 29 provided, for selling wines, &c. without a licence, are susceptible of amendment; and if so, in what respects?

VIII.—Are you of opinion that drunkenness, indolence, and immorality, have increased or diminished in your district within any particular period? If so, be so good as to specify the period, and state what you consider to be the cause.

IX.—Should you have any further suggestions to make relative to the law respecting the regulations for the sale of wines, &c., either by wholesale or retail, you are requested to make them, and to forward your answers to the committee with as little delay as possible?

Legislative Council Chamber,
Tuesday, 26th September, 1848.

THE Committee of the Council appointed on the 6th July last, to enquire into the System of Education pursued in the Government Schools, has directed the following Resolutions, unanimously adopted by the Committee, to be published, together with queries proposed to be submitted to the several School Commissions throughout the Colony.

Wm. HOPE,
Clerk of the Legislative Council.

EDUCATION.

Resolved,—1st.—That the system of public education now in force in this colony and established by Sir John Herschel in 1841, was based upon the following general principles, viz:—

1.—That it is the duty of the Government to make adequate provision for the education of the people.

2.—That the ends of such education as the Government is bound to supply are, the formation of industrial and otherwise advantageous personal habits; the promotion of sound, useful, practical knowledge; the inculcation of high moral principles, the teaching of political and civil duties, and of the general principles of the Christian religion, apart from sectarian distinctions.

3.—That the business of teaching should be made a distinct profession, corresponding in acknowledged importance to the magnitude of the charge with which society has entrusted the teacher.

4.—That in order to secure teachers of a class suited to maintain the character of the profession by an adequate discharge of their duties, the minimum salary of a Government teacher should be fixed at £150 with certain perquisites; and that this salary should be gradually raised according to some fixed principle.

5.—That the principal schools and the South African College, when fully organised and in active operation, ought in future to supply teachers for the colony.

2nd. That in order to decide how far this system has succeeded, what are its disadvantages, and in what respect it is capable of amendment, the following queries be addressed to the several school commissions throughout the colony, viz:—

I.—Keeping in view the object of the system of education in force in this colony as stated in the resolutions of the committee forwarded herewith,—state how far the system has succeeded in affecting those objects,—what are its defects, and what would best tend to obviate or modify those defects, as far as your personal observation enables you to form an opinion.

II.—With particular reference to the future provision of competent teachers, state whether the office of teacher is generally an object of ambition or aversion; and if the latter, state to what causes this may, in your opinion, ascribed, and what measures would be best calculated to remove this feeling?

III.—State the annual average number of English, Dutch, and colored pupils who have attended the school under your superintendence since its establishment?

IV.—Are you of opinion that the mixture of classes and races has, in any degree, compromised the efficiency of the school?

V.—State to what extent the inhabitants have availed themselves of the advantages of education in the higher branches procurable for the fee of £1 per quarter, and what are the branches usually taught under this head?

VI.—State accurately whether the attendance of the pupils is regular or otherwise, what is the usual length of time they remain at school, and at what age they are generally removed?

VII.—Are you of opinion that it would be advisable to charge a fee for the elementary as well as the higher classes of instruction?

VIII.—Is the system introducing among the people a more general knowledge of the English language? Is this progress evidenced by the establishment of reading rooms, libraries, &c.?

IX.—Is the Dutch language as well as the English taught in the school under your charge?

X.—Are you of opinion that any advantage would be gained by giving the inhabitants of the district a certain control over the Government School, and at the same time requiring that it should be partly supported by local resources or assessment?

XI.—What proportion of pupils attending your school are the children of parents whose circumstances are such as to enable them to pay for their education, irrespective of the facilities afforded by the Government Schools? And what proportion, if any, of such parents, would in your opinion be likely to neglect, wholly or in part, to educate their children in the event of those facilities being withdrawn?

XII.—State, as accurately as you can, how many schools there are in your district in addition to the Government schools, and in what places of the district they are severally held; specifying, 1st, those supported exclusively by the parents of the pupils; 2nd, those by the parents of the pupils together with missionary or other funds not obtained from Government; and 3rd, those wholly or in part by Government?

XIII.—State the average monthly number of pupils attending such schools respectively, so far as you are able.

XIV.—State the number of pupils, if any, boarded by the master and attending the Government Schools under your charge?

XV.—Do you consider that the existence of the Government schools has a tendency to prevent or discourage the increase of private schools in your neighbourhood?

XVI.—Looking to the objects of the present system as already detailed,—are you of opinion that they are sound, or do you consider that they are in any respects objectionable, and if so, what alterations would you suggest?

INTERESTING TO LADIES.

To Messrs. ROWLAND & SON, 20, Hatton Garden, London.

Percy Place, Landport, Portsmouth, April 4th 1844.

DENTITION.—There is part of the human frame which more admirably exemplifies the wisdom and bounty of the Creator than the structure and arrangement of the Teeth; for while among the animal races, some tribes are endowed with teeth which allow them to live only on vegetable diet; others being furnished with an apparatus calculated only for animal food; man is provided with teeth, which render him omnivorous, and enable him to live either on animal or vegetable substances, as either may be most conducive to his well-being. The embellishment, care, and preservation of these important parts of the human economy are objects highly important; and, among the various preparations ordered for the purpose the "ODONTO," invented by the Messrs. ROWLAND, of Hatton Garden, stands unrivalled as a DENTIFRICE, EXCELLING ALL OTHERS, in its capability of embellishing, purifying, and preserving the Teeth and Gums.

KAAPSTAD DEN 5DEN OCTOBER 1848.

GOUVERNEMENTS KENNISGEVING.

Koloniale Secretary, Kaapstad, 4 Oct. 1848.

ZYNE Excellentie de Gouverneur verlangt kennis te geven tot algemeen narigt, dat hy onlaugs depeches heeft ontvangen van den Hoog Ed. den Secretaris van Staat voor de Kolonien, in erkenenis van myne aankondiging van de maatregelen door hem genomen voor de regeering van het land over de Orange Rivier en van het district van Natal, als verlaard in Zyner Excellencies Proclamatien van den 8sten Maart en den 10den February, 11. respectivelyk.

Zyne Lordschap merkt aan dat hy niet kan twyfelan aan de noodzakelykheid van de eerste dezer maatregelen, in zoo verre als de staatkunde van Sir P. MAITLAND duidelyk tot hetzelfde gevolg strekte, en dat, indien de noodzakelykheid van het verder ten uitvoer brengen van het geen hy reeds begonnen was, bestond, de tusschen komende gang van het niet besluiten van het grondgebied der uitgeweken Boeren, binnen de limiten van de Kolonie, noch hen geheel te laten zonder bestuur van Britsche Establishementen, wel geschikt schynt om aanzienlyke moeyelykheden te vermyden.

Zyne Lordschap merkt verder aan dat de strekking van Zyner Excellencies maatregelen, behoorlyk uitgevoerd zynde, zal zyn om eenige meerdere regelmatigheid en groter sterkte te geven aan dat ruwe stelsel van Gouvernement, dat uit zichzelf onder de lieden van dat land ontstaan is, uit de noodzakelykheid van hunnen stand, en om hen de hulp te verschaffen welke zy waarlyk noodig hebben, voor het einde, hoofdzakelyk, om hunne geschillen onder elkander af te doen, door de tusschenkomst van een gezag waarop alle onderscheiden rassen van menschen, die de omstandigheden in zulke zonderlinge betrekkingen met elkander hebben gebragt, met eerbied kunnen zien.

Zyne Lordschap verklaart zich dus als bereid om de uitbreiding van de Britsche Souvereiniteit over het land tusschen de Orange en Vaal Rivieren goed te keuren, op de ontvangst van eenige verdere narigten, waarmede hy verzocht heeft voorzien te worden.

In erkenenis van de ontvangst van Zyner Excellencies despatches, betrekkellyk het Gouvernement van Natal, heeft Graaf GREY Zyne Excellentie voorzien met een gedetaileerde opgave van de staatkunde, welke hy beschouwd als toepasselyk op dat district, tevens aanmerkende dat hy ver is van de dadelijke daargestelling te verwachten van de onderscheiden Establishementen aanbevolen, en is wel bekend met de noodzakelykheid van voort te gaan met trapsgewyze en omzigtige stappen, in het trachten van het onderwerpen van eene bevolking nog maar weinig verwyderd van barbaarschheid, aan de beperkingen van beschaving.

Zyne Lordschap verklaart zich dus als bereid tot het goedkeuren van de maatregelen, aangenomen door Zyne Excellentie tot het terugbrengen van de Uitgeweken Boeren, en hen te vestigen in het District van Natal; en de maatregelen voorgesteld voor de regeering van de Inlanders binnen dat District.

Den Heer JACOBUS SNYMAN.

MYNHEER,—Onderrigt zynde dat er nog een misverstand bestaat tusschen u en uwe mede burgers, reken ik het myne pligt als Generaal Opperhoofd, en uit oude vriendschap en kennis tusschen u en my, moet ik verzoeken geen verdere beweging te maken, daar ik een tractaat heb gesloten met Kapitein WARREN, en byna allen die tot hem behooren van hier zyn vertrokken op den 20sten dezer. Nu myn waarde vriend, beschouw uwe zaak,—er is eene algemeene beweging over de geheele wereld, zelfs in andere landen, welke zyn opgewekt tot vryheid—en waarom zoudt gy en eenige anderen ongeluk brengen over u zelf en uwe huisgezinnen? Gy zyt een man van verstand—ziet gy niet dat de magt van de Engelsen niet langer bestaat,—dat zy allen van hier vertrekken omdat er zware oorlog in hun eigen land zal zyn? Nu ben ik nog uw vriend, maar een enkel schot zou het my onmogelyk maken u te redden uit de handen van uwe verwoede landgenooten en broeders. De Hr. O'REILLY,* is mede gewaarschuwd onder hetzelfde tractaat, te vertrekken, waarvan ik u eene copy toezend. Ik heb eene groote Krygsmagt hier by my; de Burgers komen alle dagen in, zoodat ik zeker omtrent den 24sten duizend man by my zal hebben, en het zal gemakkeliker zyn, een berg in zee te verzetten dan tegen de kracht of stroom van vryheid aan te gaan. Ik hoop binnen kort by u, of in uwe nabyheid te zyn, en daar zelf met u te spreken. Wanneer gy deze zult hebben ontvangen heb ik myn pligt gedaan voor God en de wereld. Indien gy nu eenig kwaad stoekt tegen uwe broeders legt de verantwoordelykheid by u. Ik hoor dat de Kaffers van Mosnesh in eenen staat van beweging zyn, ik heb mede de Kaffers van PANDA opgeroepen.

* Magistraat van Caledon Rivier,

Indien MOSHESH zich beweegt zal hy zich eenen oorlog van vyf jaren op den hals halen. Verwachtende uw antwoord, blijf ik als altyd, Uw gelukzoekende Vriend, MYNHEER EN VRIEND,—Ik beschouw het mynen pligt u nog eens, privaats te schryven, daar ik onder eed en verpligting ben, als Op- perhoofd van de Emigranten, alles te weder- staan dat tot hun nadeel kan strekken; en daar Sir HARRY SMITH zoo veel geld heeft be- loofd voor myne persoon, kan ik niet toelaten dat iemand die tegen ons is in ons midden blijft. Zelfs voor myne eigen veiligheid zullen zoodanigen moeten vertrekken. Waarom moet gy u zelve en uwe geliefde familie ongelukkig maken? De wereld staat op voor hare vry- heid, zoo wel hier als in andere landen, en indien de Allerhoogste wil dat het zoo zal zyn wie zal het dan wederstaan? Sommigen van het volk, dat WARDEN had opgeroepen om tegen ons te veld te trekken, zyn gister avond gekomen om zich by ons te voegen als vrywil- ligen. Wy hebben nu zoo veel volk dat wy niet weten wat wy er mede doen zullen, en zy nemen alle dagen in getal toe. Tot nu toe, onder de zegen van den Allerhoogsten, hebben wy nog geen tegenstand ontmoet; wy hebben mede een traktaat aangaan met het Grikwa volk, en wy hopen onder Gods voorzienigheid geen droppel menschen bloed te storten, of eenige vernieling in eenig deel des landsdaar te stellen. Wy verlangen alleen ons regt, dat God heeft geschonken aan alle creaturen op aarde; zelfs de onwaardige Boschjesmans hebben vryheid en eigen regering, en waarom moeten wy en onze kinderen in boeien worden gebragt? Oude vriendschap gebiedt my dezen te schry- ven, als eene laatste waarschuwing: zoo dat, zoo ver u aangaat, myn geweten zuiver is. Ik schryf u maar weinig, om dat onze vriend, die alles met eigen oogen gezien heeft, zeer veel met u spreken zal.

Ik heb de eer my te noemen
Uw altyd gelukzoekende Vriend en
Dienaar,

WAARDIGE HEEREN,—Onder de tegenwoor- dige omstandigheden ben ik byzonder verpligt geen beroerte in myn kamp te hebben,—te ge- lasten dat ieder man die gemist kan worden, zonder verwyl zal worden opgeroepen,—hier is een gerucht dat de troepen komen van Natal, —of dit het geval is, dan of het alleen een gerucht is, weten wy niet, maar wat het moge zyn, de Gouverneur zit aan de andere zyde van de rivier, en wat hy broeit, weten wy niet. Om alle middelen te gebruiken om voorzigtig te zyn, zullen allen die zich by ons hebben willen vervoegen, naar Winberg moeten gaan, ten einde, indien het noodig mogt zyn, by de hand te wezen, indien er iets in onze weg komt, zal het goed wezen, en indien wy hen noodig hebben als hulp, zal het ook goed zyn. Kom- mandant BESTER van Winberg, heeft 50 man gelast zich by ons te voegen, laten zy mede daar blijven, en zend dadelijk naar JAN DE LANGE, om een rapport te zenden aan KASPER LABUSCAGNE, om een tydige onderzoek te doen, en indien er eenigen meer zyn, dat zy het mogen tegenstaan, en my met eens laten weten, dat ik in staat kan zyn te zien waar wy zullen aangevallen worden. De wensch is dat de Heer H. G. LOMBAARD het algemeen kom- mando zal aanvaarden, zoo lang de Heer POTGIETER niet zal zyn aangekomen. Waarde Vrienden, onze zaak zal nu geboren worden, laat alle hulp aan dezelve worden gegeven, waarvan duizenden zielen, zoowel hier als in de Kolonie af hangen. Alles gaat ons voor- deel, maar staat nu op een punt; indien wy het uit de handen der Engelschen wringen is de Kolonie mede bereid, wy hebben een vriend uit de Kolonie by ons gehad, en er is geen ander gevaar dan dat oneenigheid onder ons kome. Wy hooren niets van u en den Hr. POTGIETER, en het volk aan Magalisberg. Ik vertrouw dat gy alles met krachtige stappen zult doen, tot ons voordeel. Indien de Heeren LOMBAARD en POTGIETER aankomen, laat JAN DE LANGE mede, als Onder Kommandant, helpen in het kommanderen over het volk dat zal te zamen komen, en laat hen yverig zyn en verkennen. Mynheer, Ik hoop dat gy duide- lyk zult verstaan, dat indien er eenige beweging is van Natal gy ieder man zult opzoeken om dezelve tegen te staan, en dat gy het volk dat de Heer BESTER herwaards wilde zenden by u zult houden, en in uwe nabijheid, en indien er meer volk tot u komt van het Oosten moet gy hen ook mede by u houden en met rantsoenen voorzien. Ik vertrouw dat gy zeer werkzaam en op uwe hoede zult zyn, waarvan het geluk en het welvaren van het land en volk afhangen zal. Het is de laatste trompet welke de Brit schen steken, met het inzicht om, zoo mogelijk iederen Afrikaanschen Boer in de wapenen voor hen te brengen. Maar ik hoop dat de goede Almagtige ons uit huone handen zal redden, en om dat te bereiken moeten wy door het gebed van eendragt en liefde bestendig knielen voor den grooten Schepper.

Dit algemeen in uwe wyk hebbende bekend gemaakt en geraadpleegd met uwen Landdrost, wat het best te doen is voor het algemeen ge- luk en welvaart, ben ik met de hoogste achting uw geluk zoekende vriend.

GOVERNEMENTS KENNISGEVING.

Koloniale Secretary, 30 September 1848.

ZYNE Excellentie heeft de publicatie gelast van de volgende mededeelingen, aan de onderscheiden Resident Magistraten, met betrekking tot de Ordonnantie No. 9, van 1848, “Voor het Regelen van de Pligten en Beloonin- gen van Veldkornets,” ten einde het publiek bekend te maken met de wyze waarop de Veldkornetschappen op nieuw zullen ge- vormd worden, en hen dus in staat te stellen alle voordragten te doen aan de Resident Magistraten van hunne Districten, voor de gevraagde opgaven ter publicatie zullen voltooid zyn.

Ter Ordonnantie van Z. E. den Gouverneur,
(Get.) JOHN MONTAGU,
Gouvernement Secretaris.

(CIRCULAIRE.)

Geaddresserd aan de Resident Magistraten aan wien de Circulaire van den 23 Maart niet is toegezonden.
Koloniale Secretary, Kaap de Goede Hoop,
26 September 1848.

MYNHEER,—1. By het toezenden van de nevensgaande gedrukte papieren, ben ik gela-t door Zyne Excellentie den Gouverneur zoodanige opmerkingen daarby te voegen, welke u het bedoelde oogmerk zullen verklaren, en u beter in staat stellen uwe antwoorden op dezen brief met het grootste gemak en de meeste spoed te bereiden.

2. Toen de Ordonnantie No. 9, 1848, in beraad was, en bevorens dezelve onder overweging van den Wetgeven- den Raad kwam, werden copyen van de Circulaire van 23 Maart geaddresserd aan de Resident Magistraten van die Districten, waarin eene verandering in het getal Veldkornetschappen bedoeld werd, (de openingen te wor- den ingevuld naar gelang van de omstandigheden van ieder District.)

3. De Circulaire van den 25 dezer verklaart de gronden waarop de vermindering in het getal van Veldkornets, toen bedoeld, is opgegeven; en in de plaats daarvan eene be- knopte en nauwkeurige beschrijving van de Veldkornet- schappen, bevat in ieder der onderscheiden Districten, opge- maakt op gelyke wyze als de gedrukte vorm A verlangd wordt, ten einde dat die opgaven kunnen worden gepubi- ceerd in de Gouvernements Courant, in den loop van de maand November aansl., en het nieuwe stelsel, by tarf betalingen, onder de Ordonnantie, op den 1sten January, kunne in werking komen.

4. In uw antwoord op dezen brief (nemende als een deel daarvan zooveel van de Circulaire van den 25 dezer, als persoonlijk aan u geaddresserd is) en dat ik verzoek dat vroegtijdig in de maand November moge worden ingezon- den, wordt verlangd dat gy de limieten der Veldkornet- schappen by name zult beschrijven, makende zoo vele Afdeelingen van iedere (om nieuwe Veldkornetschappen uit te maken,) als gy zult noodig oordeelen, waar het be- staande Veldkornetschap te uitgebreid of te dicht bevolt is, tot het daarstellen van het verlangde einde, namelijk, de spoedige in achtname van de aanvragen van het publiek.

5. Gy zult vernemen uit de Circulaire van den 23 Maart, dat de Hoofd Constabels de diensten zullen waarmaken van Veldkornets binnen de limieten van steden, zynde de zetels van Resident Magistraten (en bevattende, waar het wenschelyk is, de arenboren, eenigen der in de onmiddelyke nabijheid gelegen plaatsen.) en gy zult de goedheid willen hebben, de limieten te bepalen, welke behoortlyk door de Hoofd Constabels kunnen worden in acht genomen.

6. Deze diensten van Hoofd Constabels zullen echter eene uitzondering hebben, te weten: dat van het gezag tot het houden van schouwingen van de lyken van overleden personen, voor welke pligt beraamd is voorziening te maken, zonder de Policie Constabels lastig te vallen.

7. Zyne Excellentie is tegen alle verandering in de tegenwoordige gerechts grenz n van de Districten, buiten zeer opvallende en dringende redenen; maar waar zich zoodanige redenen voordoen, zult gy de veranderingen welke gy noodig oordeelt voordragen. Ik moet te gelyker tyd aanmerken, dat, wanneer de bezitters van plaatsen verlangen dezelve te zien overgebragt naar een ander Veldkornetschap dan dat waaronder zy nu sorteren,—maar binnen de grenzen van hetzelfde gerechts District, gy de goedheid zult hebben uw eigen oordeel te gebruiken, in het aannemen van huone voordragten, zoo dat de opgaven, aan dit Kantoor gezonde zynde, volkomen mogen zyn, en niet onderhevig aan verdere veranderingen.

8. De Circulaire van den 25 dezer, dan als uwen leidraad nemende, hoopt Zyne Excellentie dat gy met deze leregt wyzigingen in staat zult zyn een rapport in te leveren, zonder het verwyl teweeg gebragt door eenige seferte naar de Kaapstad.

9. Indien gy echter eenig narigt moogt verlangen, boven hetgeen hier gegeven is, zal hetzelfde worden gegeven dadelijk hy den ontvaugst van eenig schryven van u.

Ik heb de eer te zyn, enz.

JOHN MONTAGU,
Gouvernements Secretaris.

Aan den Resident Magistraat

(CIRCULAIRE.)

Aan de Resident Magistraten aan wien de Circulaire van den 23sten Maart is geaddresserd.

Koloniale Secretary, Kaapstad 25 Sept. 1848.

MYNHEER —Zyner Excellentie de Gouverneur, na rype overweging van de pligten welke in het vervolg het best zullen kunnen worden volbragt door de Veldkornets, over deze Kolonie, met het inzicht tot het spoediger apprehen- den van misdadigers, het tegengaan van geweldendaryen, en het bewaren van rust en vrede in de Buiten Districten; —en ziende mede op de meest voldoende wyze om hen te beloonen voor hunnen tyd en inspanningen, heeft aan den Wetgevenden Raad eene Ordonnantie voorgesteld, getiteld “Eene Ordonnantie voor het bepalen van pligten en belo- oningen van Veldkornets,” welke door dat ligchaam een- stemmig is aangenomen.

2. Het is gevolgelyk myn pligt u de veranderingen aan te toonen, welke dezelve aanneming zullen volgen, met betrekking tot mynen Circulaire Brief van den 23sten Maart II, geschreven in het vooruitzicht van de tegenwoor- dige Ordonnantie, maar verschillende in het hoofdpuut van de schikkingen nu te worden aangenomen, t.w. het getal Veldkornetschappen in uw district te worden ver- meerd.

3. In het algemeen werd eene vermindering van het getal Veldkornets by die Circulaire beoogd, ten einde dat voorziening zou kunnen worden gemaakt voor eene Lan- delyke Policie Maat, zonder verder bezwaar v. or de Inkom- sten; —en terwyl ik UEd zyner Excellenties dank betuige voor de blykbare moeiten welke gy u hebt gegeven in het verschaffen van de antwoorden welke ik van u ontvan- gen heb, moet ik aanmerken, dat onder de tegenwoordige Ordonnantie, de diensten zullen worden betaald naar mate dezelve verrigt worden, volgens een geregeld en liberat tarf. — Het getal van Veldkornetschappen zal daarom geen invloed hebben op het gezamenlyk bedragen van de onkon- ten onder dat hoofd, vallende op de Inkomsten van de Kolo- nie, —en wanneer men in het oog houdt dat een genoegzaam aantal van deze ambtenaren het publieke en groot gevoel van veiligheid zal geven, en grooter gemak verschaffen in het bekomen van hulp, schynt het onnoodig onder deze om- standigheden, derzelver getal te verminderen, zoo als vroe- ger was bedoeld, —maar liever meerder Veldkornets aan te stellen waar de bevolking byzonder dicht is, of de streek lands zeer uitgebreid, en de afstanden welke doorreis- moeten worden gevolgelyk zeer groot zyn.

4. Ik zal meer uitgebreid op dit onderwerp terug komen in den slot paragraaf van dezen Brief. Het is genoeg hier te zeggen, dat in het algemeen de Veldkornetschappen kun- nen blijven zoo als dezelve nu zyn zamengesteld, onder- hevig aan de wyzigingen hieronder vermeld.

5. Volgens de voorzieningen van deze Ordonnantie zal geen Veldkornet na den 1sten January 1849, eenig vast jaarlyksch salaris genieten, zoo als tegenwoordig, zynde die salarissen te gering om werkzame inspanning te verzekeren, waar dezelve het meeste wordt vereischt, en wordende gelykelyk betaald, hetzy de pligten van den Veldkornet zwaar zyn, dan of hy maar zelden geroepen wordt te ageren.

6. In plaats daarvan is by de Ordonnantie eene vaste belooning bepaald voor iedere daad van dienst volbragt, —maandelyks te worden betaald, even als andere lasten op de Inkomsten, —de Veldkornets dus aanspoorende tot krachtige inspanning, door hen eene billyke belooning te geven voor hunnen tyd en moeite, gevende tevens vertrouwen aan het publiek dat derzelver belangryke pligten getrouwelyk en naar behoren zullen volbragt worden.

7. Er is reden te gelooven dat er een indruk heerst, tot eene aanzienlyke uitgestrektheid, onder de Veldkornets in het algemeen, ten aanzien van hunne toekomstige stand in de dienst, man, dat zy by de voorzieningen der Ordonnantie werkelyk zullen worden of gesteld zyn op gelyken voet met de gerechtsdienaars of landelyke policie van het district. Niets kan verder zyn van de bedoelingen van het Gouver- nement, dan het verlagen van den stand van eene klasse van publieke ambtenaars, wier inspanningen zoo gewigtig zyn voor de maatschappelyke orde, rust en vrede, en ik be- gelast u te berigten, ten einde den geest der Veldkornets- kingen waarop de Circulaire doelt zullen voltooid zyn. Iedere Veldkornet zyne aanstelling (gelykstaande aan rede- lentie en het Zegel van de Kolonie, hetwelk hem zal onder- schikt maken alleen aan den Resident Magistraat en Vrede- regter van zyn district, en op eenen voet geheel verach- teld van de beambten van policie.

8. In alle gevallen van uitgestrekte Veldkornetschappen, is het tot nu toe gebruikelijk geweest additionele Veldkornets aan te stellen, onder den titel van provisionele of assistent Veldkornets.

Ten einde allen in dit ligchaam op eenen gelijken voet te plaatsen, zoowel ten aanzien van belooning als van stand in de dienst, is het Zyne Excellentie verlangen dat de ondergeschikte titel in het vervolg zal worden afgeschaft, door de uitgestrekte Veldkornetschappen in twee of meer afdeelingen, te splitsen, naar het geval mogen vereischen, zullende iedere zoodanige afdeeling een nieuw Veldkornetschap worden, en door het aanstellen van eenen Veldkornet voor iedere zoodanige afdeeling, waardoor die Veldkornetschappen welke ongeroepelijk groot zijn, zoo als nu in sommige districten het geval is, zullen worden voorzien met zoodanige meerdere Veldkornets als de behoorlijke volbrenging van de pligten daarin vereischt zal verzecken.

9. In het ten uitvoer brengen van deze schikking zult gy trachten zoo veel mogelijk natuurlijke grenzen, zoo als rivieren, bergen, enz. daar te stellen of te behouden, voor de onderveranderde Veldkornetschappen, zoowel voor die welke onveranderd blijven, als voor die welke gy noodig zult vinden te verdeelen, vertrouwend aan de zorg van iederen Veldkornet geen grootere uitgestrektheid lands dan zy dienstig zult oordeelen, en geschikte allocatie van byzondere plaatsen voor zoodanige nieuwe Afdeelingen hebbende voorgesteld, wordt gy verlangd, in detail, en met nauwkeurigheid de grenzen van ieder Veldkornetschap te beschrijven, aldus:

Veldkornetschap
Begrensd N.	O.
	W.
	Z.
Bevallende	Plaatsen.
NAMEN DER PLAATSEN.	BEHOORENDE AAN

10. De ingesloten copy van een uittreksel bekomen van het District Somerset, het volkomenste en omvattendste zynde dat het Gouvernement nog heeft ontvangen, zal u best verklaren wat verlangd wordt.

11. Deze opgave van Veldkornetschappen, bevallende de voorgestelde Afdeelingen waar zulks noodig is, zullen natuurlijk zorgvuldige voorbereiding vereischen. Wanneer al uwe antwoorden aan dit Kantoort zullen zijn ingezonden (waarop men kan rekenen omtrent in de eerste week van November.) zal een volkomene beschrijving van al de Veldkornetschappen van de geheele Kolonie, met derzelver grenzen en de districten waartoe zy behooren, in de Gouvernements Courant worden gepubliceerd, ten einde een gemakkelijk middel van referentie uit te maken.

12. Zyne Excellentie is ongenegen de tegenwoordige gerechts grenzen van eenig district te veranderen, behalve waar het een stellige hardheid zijn zou voor personen die plaatsen bezitten, te moeten compareren voor de tegenwoordige Hoven van Magistrature, in plaats van het naast gelegen op eenen veel kleineren afstand. Gy zult dus zeer voorzigtig moeten zijn, geen veranderingen van dezen aard voor te stellen, welke niet volstrekt noodzakelyk schynen.

13. Daar gy nu in het bezit zyt van de grondbeginselen van deze Ordonnantie, en dezelve voorgestelde manier van werking ga ik voort te spreken over zaken, meer dadelijk betreffende het district onder uw toezicht.

14. Uitgebreide veranderingen in de Veldkornetschappen zijn nog raadsaam noch noodzakelyk. Matige en verstandige veranderingen zullen waarschijnlijk voldoende worden bevonden om den Gouverneur in staat te stellen met de opening van het aanstaande jaar, een nauwkeurige lyst te laten publiceren van al de Veldkornetschappen welke gedurende eenigen tyd onveranderd zal blijven, tot de vermeerdering van bevolking en andere oorzaken verdere en meer uitgebreide hervorming noodig hebben.

[Hier volgen de aanmerkingen geadresseerd aan de Resident Magistrate, individueel, aangaande de Veldkornetschappen in ieder District.]

Ik heb de eer te zyn, enz.

Gouvernements Secretaris.

"De moeyelykheid in het bepalen van de ware en natuurlijke grenzen voor de vereischte onderverdeling zoo groot zynde, ten de onnaauwkeurigheid, moeite en ongemak gevolgelyk op de ingebeelde grenslynen algemeen erkend zynde, heb ik het noodig gevonden eerst ieder voorgesteld Veldkornetschap te beschryven naar de trekken des lands, aan de grenzen, en daarenboven de namen der plaatsen in ieder vervat. Dit plan, schoon langwylig, zal in het einde het voordeeligste worden bevonden, en zal, geloof ik, de moeyelykheden uit den weg ruimen, welke anders zouden kunnen plaats vinden in het ten uitvoer brengen van Zyne Excellenties bedoelingen."

(CIRCULAIRE.)

Koloniale Secretary, Kaapstad, Maart 23 1848.

MYNHEER.—Ik ben gelast door Zyne Excellentie den Administrateur des Gouvernements, uwe aandacht te vestigen op de tegenwoordige onderverdelingen in wyken of veldkornetschappen, van het district gehecht aan uw hof van Resident Magistraat.

Ziende dat, in het vervolg, de Veldkornets zullen worden ontslagen van vele pligten voormaals hen opgelegd, en, onder anderen het heffen en superintenderen van transport voor de publieke dienst, in hunne respectieve wyken,—het ligt van burgermagt voor militaire dienst,—het in reparatie houden van de wegen in hunne wyken, en het toezigt houden over de kroonlanderyen en ander publiek eigendom, is het het gevoelen van Zyne Excellentie, dat zonder het benadelen van de publieke dienst, of de krachtadigheid van dit respectabele en nuttig ligchaam van ambtenaars te verminderen, het getal der wyken in velen van de districten veilig kan verminderd worden, en dat het ambt van Assistent Veldkornet, in het algemeen kan worden afgeschaft.

Ik moet u gelyktyd berigten, dat in het plan dat tegenwoordig de aandacht van Zyne Excellentie bezig houdt, om de grenzen der wyken uit te breiden, en het getal der Veldkornets te verminderen, het ter zeldzer tyd zyn voornemen is aan die ambtenaren een behoorlyke vergoeding te geven voor hunne diensten, wanneer dezelve verrigt worden.

Uit eene referentie tot het Kantoort van het Centrale College van Weg Commissarissen, heb ik bevonden dat uw district, buiten de landeryen ongeschikt voor occupatie of onvreemd, bestaat uit plaatsen, tegenwoordig het eigendom van of geregistreerd op den naam van eigenaars:—dat de waarde van vast eigendom in het district beloopt £ en het getal van ingezetenen niet wonende in steden of dorpen, waar de pligten van Veldkornet zullen worden volbragt door den hoofd officier van politie.

Het is daar in het gevoelen van Zyne Excellentie uit het narijt nu voor hem, dat uw district in het vervolg zal bestaan uit—wyken of Veldkornetschappen. In het bepalen van dit getal is behoorlyk acht geslagen op de natuurlijke omstandigheden van het district, in zoo verre als dezelve eenig duurzame gevolg kunnen hebben op de vergeleken digtheid of verspreidheid van de residerende bevolking daarmede verbonden.

Ten einde deze schikking van wyken zoo gemakelyk te maken als mogelyk is, is het noodzakelyk dat Zyne Excellentie in bezit worde gesteld van zoodadige plaatselyke kennis van het district, als alleen kan worden verschaft door een residerend ambtenaar van het Gouvernement, bevoegd om Zyne Excellentie te onderigten ten aanzien van de allocatie in wyken, van de onderscheiden plaatsen, binnen de grenzen van uwe jurisdictie.

En ik moet u verzoeken dat gy zoo spoedig mogelyk aan my zult rapporteren, tot leiding van Zyne Excellentie, over de meest gerijfelyke en wenshelyke schikkingen van het district in wyken, uitsluitend van stadsgebied, en de plaatsen in derzelver onmiddelyke nabijheid.

Ik heb de eer te zyn,

Mynheer,
Uw zeer gehoorzame Dienaar,

Wat is in een Naam?

E wysgerig stelling dat er geen wezenlyk verband is tusschen eenen naam en de beteekende zaak, — zonderling verklaard en uitgelegd door eenen Empyrischen Stamper en Vyzel Wysger van deze stad. In zoo verre hy een gemoen namaaksel van zyn eigen voortbrengsel heeft in de plaats gesteld voor myn onnavolgbaar parfum voor Zakdoek en Boudoir, en de briefjes wel heeft nageemaakt om de onbedachtzamen te misleiden. Laat het publiek daarom op dezelve huede zyn, en bedenken dat ik de enige maker en eigenaar ben van het onovertreffelyk mengsel OPREGTE OMAR ESSENCE, en dat het briefje op ieder fleschje van het oorspronkelyke door my moet geteekend zyn.

PROCLAMATIE

SIR HENRY GEORGE WAKELYN SMITH,

Baronet, Ridder Groot Kruis van de Hoog-Edelen Orde van het Bad, Kolonel van het 2de Batallion Scherpschutters Administrateur van het Gouvernement van de Kolonie de Kaap de Goede Hoop, en den Ressort van dien, Ordinaris, en Vice-Admiraal van dezelve; en Harer Majesteits Hooge Commissaris voor het afdoen en verfeenen van de Zaken van het Grondgebied in Zuid Afrika, belende aan en annex de Oostelyke en Noordelyke Grenzen van de gezegde Kolonie, enz., enz., enz.

NADemaal de snoode Rebelle, door zekere ANDRIES WILHELMUS JACOBUS PRETORIUS aangevoerd, met geweld Harer Majesteits wapenen te loemplaats, alwaar de Rebellen het hebben durven wagen Harer Majesteits troepen te beletten voort te rukken, krachtig is ten onder gebragt, waardoor een gevecht plaats vond, in hetwelk 49 burgers zijn gesneuveld,—meer dan 150 gewond, en de overigen, velen waarvan hunne paarden, wapenen en kleederen hebben achter gelaten, zijn verspreid, en in alle rigtingen de vlucht hebben genomen;—en de belediging Harer Majesteits gezag aangedaan, gewroken zynde, op de wyze als in myn Manifest van den 29 Maart II. verklaard, zoodanige daden gewroken moeten worden,—en nademaal de uiterste straf der wet—DE DOOD—op den morgen van den 4den September te Bloemfontein, aan de lichamen van zekere Rebellen, namelyk THOMAS DREYER, Burger, en MICHAEL QUIGLING, een Deserteur uit Harer Majesteits dienst, werd ten uitvoer gebragt;—en nademaal ik heden te Winburg ben aangekomen, met een getal troepen, ten einde de bevelen van Hare Majesteit de Koningin van Engeland te doen gehoorzamen; en nademaal op den 3den February II, ik de Souvereiniteit van Hare Majesteit heb geproclameerd over het Grondgebied van de Orange Rivier, Noord naar de Vaal Rivier, welke eene bende Rebellen hebben durven tegenstand bieden;—proclameer ik andermaal die Souvereiniteit onder een Koninglyk Salut van 21 kanon schoten,—die Rebellen door kracht van wapenen uit het veld gedreven hebbende.

En voor het beter en krachtadiger bestuur van het Grondgebied ten Oosten en Noorden van de Groote Orange Rivier, waar over Haar Majesteits gezag is uitgebreid geworden,—proclameer en verklaar ik by deze dat gedeelte velds, gelegen tusschen de Zand Rivier en de Vaal Rivier, en naar het Zuiden door de Draakberg Gebergten,—uit te maken, een vierde District der Souvereiniteit voormeld.

Er zullen dus zyn:

1. Het District Bloemfontein, onder den Britschen Resident Majoor WARREN.
2. Het District Caledon, alwaar ik den Wel-Ed. Heer THOMAS VOWE tot Civile Commissaris en Magistraat heb aangesteld.
3. Het District van Winberg, bevattende het Grondgebied, zich uitstreckende van het District Bloemfontein naar de Zand Rivier,—naar de Draakberg Gebergten,—waarvan ik, hangende myn verder besluit, den Wel-Ed. Heer FREDERIK REX, als Civilen Commissaris en Magistraat aan stel.
4. Het District Vaal Rivier, waartoe ik aanstel als Landdrost, dien vredelievenden en welgezinden Burger HENDRIK POTGIETER; die zyne Veldcommandanten en Veldcornets zal kiezen en aanstellen; en aan my verantwoordelyk zal worden gehouden voor de behoorlyke gehoorzaamheid en goede trouw ten opzichte Harer Majesteit en het gezag aan my toevertrouwd.—En het Salaris aan den Landdrost en het bedragen van Esfpachten, welke gering zullen zyn, zullen hierna worden bepaald, wanneer Ik Mynheer POTGIETER en andere invloed hebbende lieden zie.

En nademaal deze Rebellen verscheidene moedwillige daden gepleegd, en op eene snoode wyze vele huizen, de eigendommen van welgezinde personen te Winberg hebben geplunderd, proclameer ik by deze, dat ik eene

Commissie zal benoemen, tot het heffen van zoodanige boetens, van hen die in de Rebelle hebben deelgenomen, als niet alleen ter bestyking der kosten, waaraan het Gouvernement door dezen snooden oorlog wordt blootgesteld behulpzaam zullen zyn, maar ook de goede Lieden die door de daden van den Euvel hebben geleden, hunne verliezen te vergoeden,—en ik zal alle Rebellen en Rustverstoorders van het District Winberg verdryven, en zal hunne eigendommen verbeurd verklaren;—met uitzondering van Mynheer PAUL BESTER van het District Winberg, en Mynheer GERT KREIGER van het District Vaal Rivier, aan wien ik Hare Majesteits Genadige Pardon verleen. Deze lieden, hoewel snoodelyk uitgetrokken, hebben gepoogd de daden van geweld en bloedvergieting van dien Aarts-Rebel PRETORIUS tegen te gaan.

En ik maak by deze bekend, dat alle huwelyken tot hiertoe in het District van Winburg aangegaan, en niet genotuleerd als in myne Proclamatie voorgeschreven, onwettig zyn; en de kinderen uit zoodanige huwelyken geboren geene bezittingen binnen de Kolonie kunnen erven.

En ik verbied by deze alle Publieke Byeenkomsten,—en ik beschouw allen schuldig aan felonie, die pogen zullen eenige byeen te roepen, en indien zy dit pogen te doen, heb ik te Bloem Fontein een groot getal Kanonnen, Ruitery, en Voetvolk geposteed, ten einde dezelve door geweld van wapenen ten onder te brengen;—en ik zal zulk eene vesting te Bloem Fontein doen oprigten, door Kanonnen zoodanig verdedigd, als gedurende de afwezigheid der Troepen in het veld haar tot veiligheid strekken zullen.

En nademaal het blykt dat de post tot publiek gemak en nut tusschen Winberg en Natal daargesteld, onderschept is geworden, en brieven geopend, maak ik by deze bekend, dat eenig persoon dezelve stremmende, schuldig zyn zal aan Felonie.

En ik maak mede by deze bekend, dat eenig persoon die eenige Papieren of Documenten van eenen verraderlyken aard rondgeven of daarin behulpzaam zal zyn, of met PRETORIUS, JACOBS en andere Vogelyk verklaarden eenig gemeenschap hebben zal,—aan Felonie schuldig zyn zal.

En in myne Proclamatie van den 2den September eene somma van £500 voor de gevangenneming van zekere WILLEM JACOBS uitgelooft hebbende, verdubbel ik thans dat bedrag, en ik offereer by deze een gelyk bedrag voor de gevangenneming van zekeren ANDRIES SPIES—een welbekende Rebel—en VYF HONDERD PONDEN voor FREDERIK BEZUIDENHOUT.

En ik loof by deze uit, eene belooning van VYF HONDERD PONDEN voor ADRIAN STANDERS, en ik maak zyn gedrag der wereld bekend, een stevig voorbeeld van den staat der maatschappy aan gene zyde der Orange Rivier opleverende. Dezen man was zeer naauw bekend met, en woonde digt by den Heer ERWEE, een zeer fatsoenlyk Boer; hy heeft zelfs onlangs het lyk van een der zonen van den Heer ERWEE gevolgd—naauwelyks was den nitval begonnen of hy maakte zich meester van de eigendommen van zynen buurman;—een ander Rebel, met name JACOBUS MEYER, tegelyker tyd bezit nemende van Bloemfontein, en werkelyk het veld van Majoor WARREN beplegende.

Zulke gevallen van de volslagene onbewustheid van 's menschen regten moet alom worden bekend gemaakt. Het verlangen naar roef niet een gevoel van Vaderlandsliefde, spoort den Rebel aan, door wien Privaat Eigendom noch geëerbiedigd noch geacht wordt.

En ik proclameer, by deze, dat het berigt hetwelk my aan Mynheer KRYNAUW de schandelyke misdaad, van een der eersten te zyn geweest, die de Rebellen gelastte te schieten, heeft doen toeschryven,—blykende hetzelfde valsche te zyn, hebbende hy den Kamp der Rebellen verlaten,—ik hem daarvan vry spreek.

En ik proclameer by deze myne verdere goedkeuring over het gedrag van Mynheer GERT HENDRIK MEYER, WESSELS, en hunne party te Winberg, die zich manmoedig en dapper naby Winberg in eene Kamp hebben gefor-

meerd, en tegen eenige poging der Rebellen tegen hen gedaan, hebben verweerd en dezelve verdreven; alsmede over dat van Veldcommandant SNEYMAN van Caledon Rivier, die, met meer dan 500 Huisgezinnen hetzelfde deed,—en van dat van den Heer ERWEE, Veldcommandant ERASMUS, Veldcornet CLOETE, Veldcornet M. OVERHOLSTER en hun volk, allen welke, door zich dus te vereenigen het grootste gedeelte hunner Kudden en Wachters uit de handen der Rovers hebben behouden en gered; en ik zal niet nalaten zulk een verdienstelyk gedrag ten opzichte van Rebellen tegen Harer Majesteits gezag, en onderdruckers hunner mede onderdanen ter kennis der Koningin te brengen. Ik zwaai Mynheer POTGIETER den hoogten lof toe over zyn gedrag, in aanmerking waarvan ik hem tot Landdrost heb aangesteld.

Myn Manifest is thans bevestigd, en ik verlang by deze dat al die Ingezeten van het District van Natal naar hunne woningen terugkeeren. Indien zy aan deze waarschuwing geen gehoor geven, en daaraan niet voldoen, ware het beter voor hen, wanneer zy acht sloegen op hunne kudden en vee, opdat ik ze niet in bezit doe nemen.

Deze zyn de schetsen myner handelingen, hangende verdere berigten, en ik annexeer myne Proclamatie van den 2den September te Bloemfontein, dat allen weten mogen, dat hoe verlangend ik ben, en ik immer getoond heb te zyn, voor de welvaart der Hollandsche Ingezeten, belediging aan Harer Majesteits gezag, gewroken wordt, en immer gewroken zal worden.

GOD BEWARE DE KONINGEN!

Gegeven onder myn Hand en Zegel, te Winberg, dezen Zevenden dag van September 1848.

(Get.) H. G. SMITH, Gouverneur.

Op last van Zyne Excellentie Harer Majesteits Hooge Commissaris,

(Get.) RICHARD SOUTHEY,
Secretaris van H. M. Hooge Commissaris

PROCLAMATIE

SIR HENRY GEORGE WAKELYN SMITH,

Baronet, Ridder Groot Kruis van de Hoog-Edelen Orde van het Bad, Kolonel van het 2de Batallion Scherpschutters, Gouverneur en Opperbevelhebber van de Kolonie de Kaap de Goede Hoop, en den Ressort van dien, en Ordinaris, en Vice-Admiraal van dezelve; en Harer Majesteits Hooge Commissaris voor het afdoen en verfeenen van de Zaken van het Grondgebied in Zuid Afrika, belende aan en annex de Oostelyke en Noordelyke Grenzen van de gez. Kolonie, enz., enz., enz.

NADemaal eene booze Rebelle is daargesteld en aangestookt geworden door zekeren ANDRIES WILHELMUS JACOBUS PRETORIUS, nu buiten de wet gesteld als een Rebel, en voor wiens apprehensie eene belooning van Een Duizend Ponden Sterling (£1000) is uitgelooft, en de Som van Vyf Honderd Ponden (£500) voor de apprehensie van WILLEM JACOBS,—proclameerende de gezegde PRETORIUS aan het geheele land, dat nu de tyd was om te zyn wat hy "vry" noemt, te weten, de veroorloofde onderdruckers van hunne landgenooten, zoo wel als van de Naturellen, en dat hy deze Souvereiniteit zou verlossen van de Britsche regeering, welke de goede lieden hadden gezocht, en waarom zy by petitie hadden aanzoek gedaan by het Gouvernement; en toen getracht hetzelfde te doen te Natal—door welke rebelle de Britsche Resident door eene gewapende magt is gedwongen geworden zyne positie te Bloem Fontein te verlaten, waar hy geposteed was tot het ten uitvoer brengen van de bevelen, en het gehoorzamen van de orders van Hare Majesteit of van hoogst derzelver Vertegenwoordiger,—en nademaal, toen ik met een detachement van Harer Majesteits troepen marscheerde om wraak te nemen over deze belediging en om deze booze Rebelle te onderdrukken, welke dit land, voormaals bloeyend en gelukkig, een toneel had gemaakt van verwoesting en verlaten, dryvende de welgezinde lieden, hunne vrouwen, kinderen en vee, naar de schuilplaatsen van het gebergte, enz., om daar bescherming en veiligheid te zoeken—ik ben tegengestaan door omtrent 1000 Rebellen, onder het bevel van dezen aarts-verrader PRETORIUS, trachtende door een hinderlaag myne voortgang te stuiten, maar waarvan ik ten goede zyde onderrigt was; door welke tegenstand verscheiden van Harer Majesteits Officieren en Soldaten zyn gedood of gewond, zynde daarenboven negen en veertig van de Rebellen dood op het slagveld gevonden. Twaalf gedood op eene plaats door eenen kogel, en hun verlies in gewonden, in wapenen en in paarden, enz. mede zeer aanzienlyk zynde, het nu overblyft,—zynde de belediging van Harer Majesteits gezag ten volle gewroken door geweld van wapenen,—dat de volle kracht der wetten hare werking zal hebben,—en heden zynde gearriveerd met een corps van Harer Majesteits Troepen, tot dat einde;—maak ik by deze, uit kracht van het gezag in my gevestigd, bekend, aan al Harer Majesteits Onderdanen, die bevonden zullen worden schuldig te zyn aan Rebelle, door zich te hebben gevoegd by de Rebellen, in de wapenen onder PRETORIUS, dat hun eigendom is geconfiskeerd, en ik maak verder bekend aan alle diegenen van Harer Majesteits Onderdanen, die deze Rebellen hebben geholpen of ondersteund, met paarden, provisien, of transport, dat zy zyn en zullen zyn onderhevig aan zoodanige boeten als hen zal worden opgelegd, na het onderzoek van eene Commissie welke zal worden aangesteld, tot het inwinnen van narigt en het opleggen van zoodanige boete.

En ik proclameer by deze aan iederen Rebel of helper van de Rebellen, dat ik last heb gegeven tot het in beslag nemen van alle gelden en eigendommen welke zy binnen de kolonie zullen mogen bezitten, gelurende een geregtelyk proces of tot Hare Majesteits bevelen zullen ontvangen zyn.

En ik proclameer verder en maak bekend, de goedkeuring welke ik gevoel, en welke ik naar waarheid en getrouwheid zal voorstellen aan Hare Majesteit, de Koningin van Engeland, over het gedrag van de meerderheid van de Huishouders van de Hollandsche Christen Ingezetenen, wier welvaren ik zoo zeer ter harte neem; zoowel als van al de Inlandsche Stammen, binnen de Souvereiniteit voormeld, te weten MOSHESH, MOROKKO, MOLITSANE, SIKONYELA, LEPUIS, en de Griksche Opperhoofden WATERBOER, Kaptein ADAM KOK, KORNELIS KOK, JAN BLOEM, enz., die, ofschoon aangezoekt door den aartsrebel, PRETORIUS, die, door middel van leugen en bedrog heeft getracht hen te overreden, dat hunne zaak was opgegeven door Hare Majesteit, desniettegenstaande ongeschokt zyn gebleven in hunne trouw, en hun vast, vertrouwen op het besluit van Harer Majesteits Vertegenwoordiger, om dadelyk tot hunne bescherming aan te rukken.

En ik proclameer en maak by deze bekend, de afschuw waarmede ik de daden dezer Rebellen beschouw, die door bangmaking de eerlyke en nyvere huishouders uit hunne huizen hebben verjaagd, hunne deuren en vensters verbrand, en hunne paarden, vee, meel en ander eigendom hebben geroofd.

En ik maak by deze verder bekend, dat zoodra als de sommen zullen zyn byeengebragt tot het bestryken van de kosten door het Gouvernement gemaakt, in het onderdrukken van deze booze Rebelle, ik zal trachten de fondsen van de bedoelde Souvereiniteit zoo te besturen, dat zy die groote verliezers zyn geweest door de daden der Rebellen, en niet gewankeld hebben in hunne trouw aan Hare Majesteit, op eenigen toekomstigen tyd, al de schadeloosstelling zullen genieten, welke zoodanige fondsen verschaffen kunnen.

En ik proclameer nu en bied eene belooning aan van EEN DUIZEND PONDEN, boven en behalve de belooning van een Duizend Ponden alreeds aangeboden, voor de apprehensie van den Rebel ANDRIES WILHELMUS JACOBUS PRETORIUS, en de Een Duizend Pond voor alle narigt dat kan leiden tot zyne apprehensie, en ik confiskeer by deze alle eigendom waartoe hy zal mogen geregtigd zyn, binnen het gebied van Hare Majesteit, en daar het nikt dat zekere ANDRIES SPIES, en zekere JAN KRYMAAN, (welke laatste voor weinig weken geleden my by petitie heeft verzocht hem te absolveren van eene vroegere buiten de wet stelling) de personen zyn die onder de Rebellen op den 20ste Augustus aan Bloemfontein, hen het eerst hebben geordonneerd te schieten, en daardoor de onmiddelyke oorzaak zyn geweest van het verspillen van het bloed van Harer Majesteits Troepen, die stelligelast hadden niet te vuren voor op hen geschoten was, welk bevel zy stiptelyk hebben volbragt, zoo bied ik by deze eene belooning aan van £500 sterling voor de apprehensie en het leveren in handen van Harer Majesteits Officiëren, Civil of Militair, van ieder van deze overtredders, en eene gelyke som van £500 voor die van LOUW PRETORIUS, van Caledons Rivier, de groote verstoorder van de rust van dat District.

En ik proclameer by deze en maak bekend, dat de misdaad van Rebelle, en het voeren van wapenen tegen Harer Majesteits gezag ten volle bewezen zynde tegen de volgende personen, ik by deze hun eigendom confiskeer, t.w.: JAN KRYMAAN, LOUW PRETORIUS, FREDERICK OTTO, JAN JACOB, PHILIPS VAN COLLAR, JAN VILJOEN, ADRIAN STANDERS, en hunne plaatsen zullen te koop worden aangeboden.

En nademaal het my ten vollen bewezen is, dat de ondergemelde personen de zaak der Rebellen hebben geholpen, aangestookt en geassisteerd, zoo

OKKER JACOBUS VAN SCHALKWYK, Twee Honderd Pond (£200).

PIET LOUW, Honderd Vyftig Pond (£50).

JAN BOTER, Honderd Vyftig Pond (£150).

En ik verlang alle huisgezinnen naar hunne huizen terug te keeren, en alle vaders, wier zoonen (of nabestaanden) minderjarig zynde, in het veld waren met de Rebellen, derzelver wapenen in te brengen, zullende anders de gezegde ouders verantwoordelyk worden gehouden. Velen hebben dezelve alreeds ingebragt.

Dit zyn de eerste schikkingen voor de Districten Bloemfontein en Caledon. Ik zal onverwyld voortgaan naar Winburg, tot het ten uitvoer brengen van de verklaringen vervat in myn Manifest van den 29 Maart ll.

GOD BEWARE DE KONINGIN!

Gegeven onder myne Hand en Zegel, te Bloemfontein, op den 2den dag van September 1848.

H. G. SMITH,

Gouverneur.

Ter Ordonnantie van Z. E. Harer Majesteits Hooge Commissaris,

RICHARD SOUTHEY,

Secretaris van H. M. Hooge Commissaris.

Kamp, Winburg

8sten September 1848,

De Wel-Ed. Heer RICHARD SOUTHEY, Secretaris van Harer Majesteits Hoogen Commissaris, zal in de Souvereiniteit ten Noorden van den Oranje Rivier blyven, ter nakoming van privaten en toevertrouwden pligt, met de Commissien verbonden, waarvan hy President en Chef wezen zal, hierdoor aangesteld, ten einde geconfiskeerd eigendom te verkoopen en boeten op te leggen op degenen die op den 29sten ll. te Bloemfontein op Harer Majesteits Troepen hebben geschoten, of die met de Oproerlingen waren ingelyfd,—ten einde de onkosten dezes snooden Oorlogs te stryken; en, uiteindelyk, indien de fondsen het toelaten, de lyders die van hunne woonplaatsen waren verdreven schadevergoeding te geven.

De sommen toegewezen moeten dadelyk worden geheven, of de personen in hechtenis genomen, en de vuurwapenen te worden overgeleverd.

De meest naauwkeurige en gespecificeerde rekeningen, met requs en bewyzen moeten aan Zyne Excellentie den Hoogen Commissaris worden overgezonden; en alle gelden moeten in handen worden gesteld van den voornaamsten Commissariaat Officier aan het Hoofdkwartier, de Opperbevelhebber daartoe een gezagschrift uitvaardigende.

Commissie voor het Bloemfontein District: Majoor WARDEN, de Heer ALISON, Veldcommandant ERASMUS en de Hr. ERWEE.

Voor het District Caledon:—

De Wel-Ed. Heer THOMAS VOWE, de Heer ANTHONY O'REILLY, Veldcommandant SNYMAN en de Heer HERMANUS WESSELS.

Voor het Winburg District:—

(Get.) H. G. SMITH,

Gouverneur en Hooge Commissaris.

Winburg, den 9den September 1848.

NOTULEN van de VERRIGTINGEN eener BYEENKOMST door Zyne Excellentie den Gouverneur der Kolonie de Kaap de Goede Hoop en Hoogen Commissaris te zamen geroepen, waarby tegenwoordig waren, de GOVERNUR, de Opperhoofden MOSHESH, MOROKKO, MOLITSANI, en KAROLUS BATJU; alsmede de voornaamste en invloedhebbende Burgers, of hunne Vertegenwoordiger van de Caledon en Bloemfontein Districten, en de Burgers van het District Winburg, namelyk, die landstreek zich nitstreckende van het Bloemfontein District in het Westen, Noordelyk naar de Vaal Rivier, Oostelyk naar den hooggelegen grond tusschen de Zand en Valsch

Rivieren, en tot de Draakbergen naar het Zuiden.

Tegenwoordig van de Burgers van het Winburg District, meer dan 150; en de Heer PAUL BESTER was afgevaardigd, om voor hoorderen van de Vaal Rivier te antwoorden,—de afstand hen belettende in persoon te verschynen.

De Byeenkomst werd door den Gouverneur geopend.

Zyne Excellentie zeide:

MYNE HEEREN!

In January laatstleden hebt gy my verzoekt onder u te komen en stelde gy voor dat ik een Gouvernement voor u-lieden daar zonde stellen, om dat gy uzelfen als Britsche Onderdanen beschouwdet. Het was voor my onmogelyk zulks te doen, (deze landstreek niet als een gedeelte der Kolonie aangelaast zynde) voor dat ik dezelve, door Proclamatie, onder de Souvereiniteit van Hare Majesteit stelde.

Ik raadpleegde met de voornaamste personen onder u,—met de Opperhoofden MOSHESH, MOROKKO, MOLITSANI, SINKONEYALLA, JAN BLOEM, ADAM KOK, KAROLUS BATJU, en verscheiden anderen:—allen baden my te doen hetgeen gy weet dat ik gedaan heb, als verklaard in myne Proclamatie van den 3den February en 8sten Maart laatstleden;—waarna snoode beroerders poogden de voortgaande eendragt te verhinderen, en ik vaardigde myne Manifesto van den 29sten Maart ll. uit. Niettegenstaande dit, werd er een snood oproer aangevuurd, en hetwelk door kracht van wapenen is ten ondergebragt, zoo als gy wel weet, en als gemeld in myne Proclamatie van den 2den September, te Bloemfontein uitgevaardigd, en van den 7den September te Winburg uitgevaardigd, onder een Koninglyk Salut van 21 schoten by elke plaats.

De snoode aanhitzer dezes oproers, het durvende onderstaan te wanen, dat hy tegen overmagtig Engeland oorlog voeren kan, trachtte de groote Opperhoofden nu hier tegenwoordig te verleiden zich met hem te vereenigen,—tegen wien? U-zelfen! om u van uwe kudden en vee troepen te ontrooven,—de deuren en vensters van uwe huizen weg te nemen—zoo als hy gedaan heeft—en uwe vrouwen en kinderen in het veld te verjagen. Zy hebben de daden van dezen booswicht PRETORIUS veroordeeld, en aan hunne bondgenootschap met Hare Majesteit, en aan hunne ghehoorzaamheid aan de geproclameerde Souvereiniteit vastgekleefd. Deze Opperhoofden zyn in volle vriendschap met den afgelegenen Opperhoofd Panda; maar waren zy dit niet, trotseren ze zyne magt. Is dit niet zoo, MOSHESH, MOROKKO, MOLITSANI, en gy andere Opperhoofden? [Moshesh antwoordde hier dat Panda en hy broeders waren;—dat alle dat zy hadden tot elkanders dienst waren.]

Nu, Myne Heeren, deze beleediging aan Harer Majesteits gezag is ten volsten door my en Harer Majesteits Soldaten gewroken, waarvan, zoo als gy ziet, ik velen heb, en die ik, zoo als in myn Manifesto vermeld, ik in weinige dagen hier brengen kan, alsmede door den schandelyken dood van twee der oproerlingen te Bloemfontein, op dezelfde plaats waar de Rebel PRETORIUS Harer Majesteits gezag had beleedigd. Het spyt my slechts dat hyzelven er niet een van was,—op wiens hoofd zyn al het bloed en ellende dat hy veroorzaakte?

De Districten van Bloemfontein en Caledon waren in eenen bloeienden toestand en zeer gelukkig; herhaaldelyk my verzekerende dat ik niets meer voor hunnen welvaart doen konde dan hetgeen ik gedaan heb. Zy zelve konden niets voorstellen waardoor myne maatregelen zouden worden verbeterd.

Te Winburg bestond er oneenigheid; en het District, myns dunkens, te groot zynde heb ik een gedeelte daarvan in het vierde afdeeling geformeerd, onder een Landdrost,—een man onder uzelfen hoog geacht.

Daar gy, in January, my hebt geroepen, om een gouvernement voor u daar te stellen—hetgeen ik deed en hetwelk werd beleedigd,—doch welke beleediging ik gewroken heb—roep ik u te zamen om uwe gevoelens open te leggen, en te vernemen of gy bereid zyt om uwen Magistraat voor beleediging te beschermen, indien ik, op uw verlangen, hem met u laat,—altijd in het oog houdende, dat eene sterke magt te Bloemfontein is geplaatst, van kanonnen, kavallerie en voetvolk, gereed om ter uwer ondersteuning toe te snellen.

Laat my uw wel overwogene gevoelens hebben —neem uwen tyd, en laten degenen die naar een Magistraat verlangen, hunne handen opsteken.

[De geheele vergadering hield hier hare handen op.]

Eene magt, dan die van Hare Majesteit, zal my bewegen eenige verandering te maken in de Bloemfontein en Caledon Districten, om dat de arrangementen aldaar zyn hetgeen 9 personen uit de 10 verlangen. Men heeft my zelfs gezegd, dat 19 uit de 20 dezelve begeeren.

Gy begeert, dan, een Magistraat, en wilt hem beschermen—derhalve zal ik u een laten. De Heer BIDDULPH gewond zynde, zal de Heer REX zoolang zyn bediening waarnemen tot dat hy weder wel is.

Myne Heeren van Winburg,—altoos in het oog houdende dat gy belooft hebt, uwen Magistraat te verdedigen,—gy moet wel verstaan,—dat er te Winburg geene militaire magt blyven zal, maar te Bloemfontein zal er eene sterke magt worden geplaatst,—sterk genoeg om zelfs Fransche soldaten te wederstaan,—om u te ondersteunen,—en in geval van nood, indien iemand om hulp afgezonden wordt, zullen de troepen in drie dagen by u zyn.

Ik wensch nu te weten, hoe vele mannen er zyn waarop ik in elk district staat maken kan.

[Voor het Bloemfontein District, antwoordde de Commandant Erasmus voor 400 man,—Veldkornet Cloete 300,—Veldkornet Overolster voor 250; en de Heer Erwee antwoordde, in den naam van Veld-kommandant Snyman voor 450 man in het Kaledonsche District; In het geheel, 1400 man,—allen gewapend, en geschikt de wapens te dragen.]

Dus zyn er 1400 mannen, slechts in twee districten, goed gezind jegens het Gouvernement; en nogtans durfde Pretorius met 800 of 1000 man,—meest allen kinderen of van een grooten afstand aangebragt, volstrekt niets in dit gedeelte des lands te doen hebbende, aan komen, en my komen vertellen, dat het geheele land tegen het Gouvernement is.

Deze 1400 mannen zyn gereed de Winburgsche lieden te ondersteunen, geholpen door de magt te Bloem Fontein. Deze moet naar hen zien om hunne assistentie; en zy moeten naar haar zien wanneer zy hulp behoeven.

Zyt gy te vreden dat uw land aan u worde mitgemeet, zoo als thans bepaald door myne Proclamatie van den 8ten Maart? Ik vereisch geene strenge meting; al dat ik begeer is, dat elk man moet weten wat zyn eigen is, een land certificaat bekomen, en zyn eigendom aan zyne kinderen vermaken kan.

[De geheele vergadering betoonde hier hunne tevredenheid.]

Denk er aan, dat niemand eenig land van eenigen Opperhoofd nemen kan, zonder de toestemming van gezegden Opperhoofd, als ook die van den Gouverneur.

Wenscht gy Kerken en Scholen te hebben? of begeert gy afvallige Christenen te worden, en dat uwe kinderen even onwetend zouden zyn als de niet onderwezene wilde man?

[Allen betoonden hunne groote angstvalligheid omtrent Kerken, enz.]

Hebt gy iets te zeggen over het onderwerp van Erfpacht? Ik heb te voren gezegd dat dezelve bedoeld werd van £1 tot £8 te verschillen, maar ik heb reeds dikwyls gezegd, dat het niet volgt dat gy allen £8 te betalen hebt. Deze is de som die niet moet worden te boven gegaan, en velen uwer zullen waar schynlyk zeer weinig te betalen hebben, maar dit zal van u zelve afhangen.

[De vergadering antwoordde dat zy niets over dit onderwerp had aantekeningen.]

Deze zyn de voornaamste punten ter overweging. Ik ben nu gereed te hooren wat gy in eenig opzigt voortstellen hebt; maar ontbondt het, ik laat u aan uwe eigene middelen over, door de wet ondersteund en door de magt te Bloem Fontein. In de kolonie heeft de helft van u onder my gediend, toen de Kaffers het land overstroonden; en hier moet gy uzelve verdedigen tegen de Roovers van wie ik u onlangs hebt gered. Wat is het onderscheid tusschen de zwarte en witte Roovers. Beiden verdienen het vonnis en de magt der wet; en moeten zich daarin berusten.

Zie hoe mannelijk WESSELS, MEYER, en hun getrouwe party, zich tegen PRETORIUS hebben verdedigd, voordat ik zyn bende had vernield!

Hoe vele van de beenderen dezer misleide mannen bleeken thans uit op het veld van bloed en oorlog! Hoe velen van hen kreunen onder den pyn van zware wonden! Hoe velen, hunne dwaling inziende, hebben my hunne wapenen gebragt, en vrywillig, met hart en ziel den eed der getrouwheid aan Hare Majesteit afgelegd, hunne gewilligheid betoonende om tot de onkosten van den oorlog by te dragen, zoo als ik begeer!—het schoonste voorbeeld daarvan is, de Veldkommandant BESTER. Hy heeft heden 300 Ryksdaalders betaald, om de goedmaking der onkosten van den oorlog te hulp te komen; hy heeft gedwaald, doch heeft trouw. Wy hebben allen hun de hand geschild, en hy zal in my altoos een getrouwen vriend vinden. KRIEGER en KRYNAUW zyn andere voorbeelden, en ik zal myne wakende zorg over hen bewyzen.

Wat oogmerk heb ik om voor u een Gouvernement daar te stellen dan uw eigen vrede en geluk, onder uzelve en onder de Inboorlingen, die, ik zeg u zeer vriendelyk hebben behandeld.

Ik zal in twee of drie dagen marcheren; maar ik laat myn Secretaris, den Hr. SOUTHEY achter, met eene magt van Kavallerie, om de Oorlogschatting in te vorderen, en ik lees thans myne Instructien desangende voor:—
De Instructien werden hier gelezen.

[De Heer Marthinus Wessels werd hier tot Veldkommandant verkozen, en de Heer Jury Wessels, L. Badenhorst, Jan Schutte, William Venter, en R. van Rooyen, tot Veldkornetten.]

Wat betreft het Vaal Rivier District, onder den Landdrost POTGIETER, ik verwacht hem dagelyks; wanneer ik veel met hem zal hebben te spreken, even als ik met u gehad heb. Midderwyl, tot dat hy aankomt stel ik eene Commissie aan, om voor hem als Landdrost voor het Vaal Rivier District te ageren, bestaande uit PIET VENTER, PAUL BESTER.

Op de suggestie van den Heer VENTER en den Heer BESTER, werd den Heer LOUW BOTHA hier tot Veldkommandant benoemd voor het Vaal Rivier District, en JAN DRYER en HENDRIK VAN VUUREN tot Veldkornets.

Indien PAUL BESTER my zeggen wil wat de menschen aan de Vaal Rivier noodig hebben, zal ik het doen.

Ik zal alles aanwenden om goed te doen, en vrede daartestellen, welke de Troepen voor u, immer ten uitvoer brengen zullen, en ik heb op dezen dag geschreven om eene beweging Harer Majesteits soldaten te Port Natal terug te trekken; die ik tot dat einde van de Kaapstad heb versterkt, om door de Draakberg gebergte te worden gedaan. En ik verlang nogmaals van de Ingezeten van het Natal District, om binnen drie maanden naar hunne woningen terug te keeren, of alle hunne plaatsen zullen worden verbeurd verklaard.

Wy scheiden thans, hoop ik, als malkander duidelyk verstaan te hebben, dat Harer Majesteits Souvereiniteit andermaal is daargesteld, en dat gy in bezit zyt van het Gouvernement hetwelk gy zoekt.

Het Opperhoofd MOSHESH, sprak hier, en wees op den Heer PIET VENTER, zeggende:—Dezen is een der eerste Boeren die myn land bezocht heeft,—en ik wys op hem als een goed mensch zynde.

Op dien tyd oorloogden ik en de Korannas, en een myner Broeders werd gewond. Ik verzocht om hulp van VENTER, en het volk dat by hem was—maar hy verwees my naar het Koloniaal Gouvernement, en aan de woorden toen door hem geuit, ben ik myne eerste kennis aan dat Gouvernement verschuldigd.—Ik wys hem Zyne Excellentie aan, als den man aan wien ik myne kennis met een Gouvernement, met wien ik thans op zulk eenen goeden voet sta, verschuldigd ben.

Ik ben het aan VENTER verschuldigd, dat ik thans (op Zyne Excellentie wyzende) een. Groot Opperhoofd heb, aan wien ik my houden kan. Ik ben heden niet hier om van bloed te spreken, maar van dankbaarheid aan het Britsch Gouvernement en aan VENTER. En ik zal slechts hierby voegen myne opregte dankbaarheid aan Zyne Excellentie voor al het geen hy voor dit land gedaan heeft, en hem met den uitslag der jongste onlusten geluk te wenschen.

Zyne Excellentie zeide: “Groot Opperhoofd,” Ik dank u, voor uw verhaal, van het goed dat ge-daan is door een Iandsman. Deleer van alle goede menschen is, dat er een God over allen is, zoowel Witten als Zwarten. Ik spreek in lof van u allen, gy Opperhoofden MOSHESH, MOROCCO, MOLITSANI, CAROLUS BATJU en anderen. Gy vraagdet my wat gy in de laatste affaire doen zoudet; ik zeide “Zit stil;” gy deed zulks; ik dank u allen.”

De Burgers nu gevraagd zynde, of eenig een nog wenschte te spreken, verzekerde de Veldkommandant ERASMUS Zyne Excellentie, dat hy gevoelde, dat elk woord in het Manifesto is ten nitvoer gebragt,—dat hy vertrouwde dat elk een zoude zien dat dit het geval was,—en voor het vervolg aan Hare Majesteit getrouw zoude blyven. De Heer PAUL BESTER verklaarde, op de ernstigste wyze mogelyk, dat hy al dat in zyn vermogen was doen zoude, om orde te herstellen. Eene groote menigte legden den eed van getrouwheid af,—vaders hunne zonen toebrengende,—en vele vuurwapenen werden overgeleverd. Het gevoel by de vergadering, als bewezen door de weinige woorden van vele personen, was hoogst voldoende, en by het sluiten der vergadering weergalmde een drierwerf herhaald gejuich, voor den welvaart Harer Majesteit het Kamp door.

THE CAPE OF GOOD HOPE Government Gazette.

Published by Authority.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1848.

Smithfield, Caledon River,
18th September 1848.

HIS Excellency the Governor having concluded his arrangements in Winburg and Bloom Fontein, proceeded from the latter place on the 16th instant to the District of Caledon River; and having arrived at "Smithfield," the seat of magistracy, on the morning of the 18th, received an address signed by 340 of the inhabitants, to which he made a suitable reply. His Excellency held a meeting at eleven o'clock the same day, to attend at which nearly 400 Burghers had assembled.

The Governor informed the meeting that he had called them together under their Magistrate, THOMAS VOWE, Esq., and their Field-Commandant SNEYMAN, to explain to them what had taken place, and what he had done, since the breaking out of the late rebellion.

The Proclamation of the 2nd September was then read by His Excellency's direction; after which that of the 7th September issued at Winburg; and, finally, the Minutes of the Proceedings of the Meeting held at the latter place, on the 9th instant.

On the portions of these documents being read, which allude to the Manifesto of the 29th March last, and to the War Tribute, His Excellency reminded the meeting that the provisions of the former had been fully carried out; and with respect to the latter, assured them in very forcible terms, that the Colonial Treasury should not defray the expenses attending the suppression of the rebellion; that it was not fair or just that the peaceably-disposed persons in the "Sovereignty" should bear them; and that, therefore, the actors and aiders in the outbreak should be made to pay.—His Excellency then said:—

"Gentlemen of Caledon River.—You have now heard what I have done in the other districts; you know that I have established a strong Post in the "Sovereignty," and that should there unfortunately at any time be a recurrence of War, you will be able to assemble at Bloem Fontein, and there be certain of support. You must remember that you hold your Lands on the tenure of Burgher Service, in the same manner as property is held in the colony. I wish, however, for no more war; I shudder at the very thought of it; but you see that I am able to bring troops over the Orange River without delay, and, if I thought it necessary, I would be again myself quickly among you, and go even to Origstad,—if, in order to secure peace, I should find it imperative to do so. But from the vigorous measures I have pursued, and the examples I have made, I am induced to hope,—indeed, I feel assured,—that there will be no more war.

I contemplate hereafter giving you "Heemraden," two in each Division, to be chosen by the people; so that the Magistrate would then stand in like position with regard to them, as the Governor does to his Council at Cape Town. I do not however say, that I will do this immediately. I must first see that you are come to the resolution to remain content and quiet, and I may then be induced to give you this Government, more liberal in its nature than that possessed by any people.

The Rebel PRETORIUS talked of bringing black men upon my troops. You are no doubt aware, that, had I said the word, the whole of the natives were ready to rush upon the Rebels; but my heart is not like that of the villain PRETORIUS; I never harboured the thought of bringing them upon the Boers, and thereby causing a tragedy painful in the extreme.

"Smithfield" was well defended, instead of being deserted, in time of danger; and it shall therefore remain the Seat of Magistracy.

The Commissioners must now set to work to collect the War Tax. The property of proscribed Rebels shall be all confiscated: and those who took a leading part in the Rebellion shall be deprived of half of theirs. Others will be fined by the Commission according to their deserts, as I have set forth in my Proclamation.

There are so many good and well-disposed men in this District, that you will of course be most anxious to have Churches and Schools."

[Thomas Vowe, Esq., Magistrate of the District of Caledon, here handed to His Excellency a list of subscriptions for the erection of a Church at Smithfield, amounting to nearly 4,000 Rixdollars.]

His Excellency said:—

"I have great satisfaction in seeing this list; and I propose to lay the foundation stone of the Church this afternoon."

"I have only now to say, that my heart is with you; and I shall be happy to hear any man speak who may wish to do so."

[Field-Commandant Sneyman here said; that he felt grateful to Mr. Erwee for having, in his name, at the meeting at Winburg, answered for the loyalty of 450 men; but he here begged to observe, that that was much below the number; for that he could answer for 800 well-disposed men in the District of Caledon River. Mr. Sneyman also presented a Memorial, signed by 336 farmers, praying that a separate Land Commission might be at once formed for the District of Caledon, in order to prevent any delay taking place in defining the limits of the Farms, and issuing Land Certificates. His Excellency expressed his satisfaction at the tenor of this Memorial, assured the Burghers that he fully participated in their anxiety on the subject, and that he would take immediate steps to appoint a separate Commission.]

The meeting then broke up, the Governor saying:—

"This day, gentlemen, is wet and unfavorable in some respects; but it will be long remembered as one on which I came among you to benefit you, if it lies in my power to do so. My heart is with all good men like yourselves; but my hand shall be against every Rebel."

In the afternoon His Excellency proceeded, accompanied by about 100 Burghers; to a spot not far from "Smithfield," where he laid the foundation stone of the Church, under the auspices of the following Prayer:—

"Except the Lord build the House, their labour is lost that build it.

"Almighty God, who, by thy Son Jesus Christ, didst ordain that where two or three are gathered together in thy service, thou art in the midst of them; grant, we beseech thee; Almighty God, that thy Church may serve thee in all godly peace and quietness, and grant, O Lord, that this Foundation Stone may rise into a goodly edifice, for the benefit of thy people, through Jesus Christ, our Lord.—Amen."

During the Governor's progress through the District of the Caledon River, houses of a substantial description, some completed, others in a very forward state, were continually to be seen. These have all been commenced since the conclusion of the arrangements entered into between His Excellency and the Griqua Chiefs in February last; and afford very sufficient evidence of the confidence established by the said measures among the Dutch population on the Caledon River, and which had been so wickedly interrupted.

Colonial Office, Cape Town,
23rd September 1848.

IN accordance with the Instructions of the Lords' Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, regulating the future mode of rendering the Accounts of Colonial Receipt and Expenditure,—His Excellency the Governor has been pleased to direct the publication of the following Finance Regulations, for the guidance of the respective Civil Commissioners and all other Sub-Accountants, and which are to have effect from and after the 1st January 1849, and are to be strictly conformed with.

1st. Every Civil Commissioner and all other Sub-Accountants are to forward to the Colonial Office, on or before the 15th of January in each year, an Annual Estimate of the anticipated Revenue of their respective departments, prepared in a prescribed form, to be accompanied by an Estimate of the Expenditure in a similar form, distinguishing the Establishments already "Fixed" under the sanction of Her Majesty's Government, from other Expenditure not so "Fixed."

These Estimates will form the basis of the future system and plan of account, and on that account the prescribed forms are to be strictly adhered to.

2nd. All divisions of the Estimates and Accounts, hitherto in use under the heads of "Fixed" and "Unfixed" contingent charges, are, from the 1st of January next, to be discontinued, and such only are to be included under the head of "Contingencies," as are so inserted in the Annual Estimates for the year 1849, viz., the charges which are incidental to each separate Office Establishment.

The Heads of Service in the Accounts are to be the same as those used in the Colonial Estimates for 1849, and every item of contemplated Expenditure must be carefully classed and arranged under its appropriate head.

3rd. No sum is to be set down as "Unforeseen Charges," and in cases of emergency, where an expenditure becomes unavoidably necessary, a Supplementary Estimate must be prepared in the same form as the Annual Estimate.

4th. The Public Accounts are to be kept by a Cash and Waste Book, according to prescribed forms, and every Sub-Accountant entrusted with the receipt and payment of money under the Treasurer, will keep a Cash Book in duplicate, in which is to be entered, day by day, every transaction of receipt and expenditure as it occurs, (without reference to classification under Heads of Service,) giving also the date of every such receipt or payment.

5th. The Cash Book is to be closed and balanced at the end of every month, and the entries in it are to be transferred into the Waste Book, each being brought under its own Head of Service.

6th. All Sub-Accountants are to send to the Treasurer General a transcript or duplicate of the Monthly Cash Book for each month, together with the usual Cash Accounts, accompanied by the vouchers in duplicate in support of the same.

7th. All charges which it has hitherto been customary to make in the way of deductions or allowances are to be discontinued; and every such allowance or incidental charge is to be entered as a payment in account under its appropriate head and supported by the proper vouchers.

8th. Officers who collect Revenue and pay it over to the Treasurer General in Cape Town, or to the Civil Commissioner in the Country Divisions, but who are not Sub-Accountants for Expenditure, keeping Cash Books, are to transmit monthly to the Auditor a statement in the prescribed form, showing the total amount collected under each head of receipt, within the month, and the dates of payment to the Treasurer General or Civil Commissioner, supported by the receipt of the latter for the sums paid over to him.

9th. All Collectors of the Public Revenue are to pay over the amount of their collections weekly, either to the Treasurer General in Cape Town, or to the respective Civil Commissioners, according as their residences may be in Town or the Country.

10th. All Sub-Accountants and Heads of Department will be furnished by the Colonial Secretary, through the Treasurer General, with a printed statement of the different heads of account under which the several services are to be classed in the Waste and Abstract Books, and also with printed forms of vouchers applicable to each head of service and account, and every bill or voucher is to be made out for its own distinct head of service, and not to be blended with or include any other services; it being necessary, with a view of carrying the present system of account into effect, that from the first application for authority to incur an expense to the final warranting by the Governor, each service and charge should appear in their several stages under one and the same head, as defined in the Annual Estimates.

11th. Previously to the termination of the year, a separate and complete schedule of the different Establishments of every Sub-Accountant and Head of Department will be forwarded from the Colonial Office, accompanied by the authority of the Governor, to the respective parties entrusted with the expenditure, for paying monthly in the ensuing year the Salaries, Allowances, and Office Contingencies therein enumerated.—Notice will be given whenever any provisional appointment has been approved of by Her Majesty's Government, in order that the same may be inserted as a note in the Schedule; and whenever any provisional appointment or salary shall be approved of as permanent addition to Establishment, such appointment or salary is to be included in the following year, as "Fixed Establishment," instead of "Provisional or Temporary."

12th. Immediately on any party ceasing to hold office, or whenever any alteration may be made in the amount of Salary or Allowance to be paid, notice will be given through the Secretary to Government to the Treasurer General and the Sub-Accountant concerned, who will make a record of such alteration on the Schedule of Establishments furnished them at the beginning of the year, and a reference to the date of the letter of the Colonial Secretary is also to be made.
